GAME 29: LAFAYETTE AT LEHIGH

LAFAYETTE LEOPARDS (9-19, 7-10 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
at LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (15-13, 10-7 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2018 • 7:30 PM

STABLER ARENA (5,600) • BETHLEHEM, PA.
SERVICE ELECTRIC 2 SPORTS & PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh men's basketball team will wrap up the regular season on Saturday night when it hosts archrival Lafayette in what could prove to be a significant game for Patriot League Tournament seeding implications. Opening tipoff in Stabler Arena is set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday's game is presented by St. Luke's Center for Urology. The Mountain Hawks enter the weekend riding a seven-game winning streak and standing in a tie for third place in the league standings at 10-7. Lehigh needs a win or Boston University loss at Army West Point to clinch a top-four seed and home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Saturday will also be Senior Night as Kahron Ross, the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time leader in career assists, will be recognized prior to tipoff.

The Mountain Hawks could still finish in second or third place in the league standings. A win combined with a Navy loss (at home vs. Loyola) on Saturday would clinch at least the No. 3 seed. If Colgate also loses (at home vs. Holy Cross), Lehigh would be the No. 2 seed in next week's Patriot League Tournament. Entering Saturday, Lehigh could still finish anywhere between the two and five seeds; if the Mountain Hawks lose and Boston University wins, Lehigh would be the No. 5 seed and head on the road for next Thursday's quarterfinals.

Meanwhile, Lafayette enters Saturday with a 7-10 league mark, needing a win and Holy Cross loss (at Colgate) to move into the No. 6 seed and earn a bye into the quarterfinal round. If that doesn't happen, the Leopards would host an opening round game on Tuesday evening.

Lehigh will be vying for its eighth Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in the last nine years. The Mountain Hawks have reached double-figure Patriot League wins for a fourth straight season and sixth time in the last seven years. The most recent victory came on Wednesday night at Loyola as the Mountain Hawks won 80-74 for their seventh win in a row. Lehigh improved to 6-0 this February and 21-2 over its last three Februaries. The Greyhounds made a couple runs in each half to take brief leads, but the Mountain Hawks always had an answer. In the end, Lehigh used an early 9-0 run to take an 11-4 lead and went on to lead for 32:40, on the way to snapping a three-game losing streak against the Greyhounds.

Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points for the first time since last month's home game vs. Loyola. Ross led the way with 20 points, his third 20+ point game of the season. In the process, he moved from 18th to 16th place in school history in career scoring (currently 1,334 points). Freshman Marques Wilson and sophomore Pat Andree each scored 15 points, 10 each in the first half. Andree added 10 rebounds for his second double-double in as many Wednesdays. Junior Kyle Leufroy and sophomore Jordan Cohen each scored 10 points. Freshman James Karnik tallied seven points and nine rebounds as the Mountain Hawks hung strong on the boards against a physical and aggressive team, dropping the rebounding battle by just two (33-31). The win was No. 197 of head coach Brett Reed's career.

Lehigh struggled a bit shooting, connecting on just 32.3 percent of its threes (10-of-31), its lowest percentage since shooting 29.6 percent at Navy on Jan. 2 (16 games ago). The Mountain Hawks compensated by converting 20-of-36 two-pointers (56 percent) and getting to the line 11 times in the second half (compared to just four times in the first). In the end, Lehigh still reached 80 points for a sixth consecutive game.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Lehigh has won five straight games over Lafayette to pull within 139-87 in the all-time series. The Patriot League opener saw the Mountain Hawks pull out a 79-74 win, one year after defeating the Leopards 81-55 in Easton. That marked Lehigh's largest win over the Leopards since Jan. 21, 1995. The Mountain Hawks' other wins in their five-game streak came by finals of 75-68, 73-61 and 87-72, respectively. Lehigh has won seven of its last nine meetings overall, including two straight at home. The long-time rivals first met in 1901-92, a 46-13 Lehigh victory. Lehigh won the first four games with Lafayette's first win coming in 1914-15. Lafayette currently leads the all-time series, 139-86 in the most-played opponent for both schools.

A balanced team effort saw five Mountain Hawks score double-figure points, led by senior Kahron Ross' team-leading 17 points. In the process, he became the first player in the program's 100+ year history to go 4-0 at Lafayette in a career.

LAST TIME OUT

BALTIMORE (2/21/18) - Led by senior Kahron Ross' game-high 20 points, five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures as the Lehigh men's basketball team defeated Loyola 80-74 win on Wednesday evening in Reitz Arena. The win marked the Mountain Hawks' seventh straight (and fourth straight on the road). Lehigh also reached 80 points for a sixth straight contest, improving to 6-0 this February and 21-2 over its last three Februaries. Sophomore Pat Andree added a double-double for a second straight Wednesday, posting 15 points and 10 rebounds.

IF LEHIGH BEATS LAFAYETTE

- Lehigh would win its eighth straight game, longest since winning 11 in a row towards the end of the 2015-16 season.
- The Mountain Hawks would enter the Patriot League Tournament with an eight-game winning streak, two seasons after entering with a nine-game streak.
- Lehigh would win its fourth straight home game.
- With a win, Lehigh would assure itself of a top four seed and home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years.
- The Mountain Hawks would be the No. 4 seed with a win and Navy win (vs. Loyola), be the No. 3 seed with a win, Navy loss and Colgate win (vs. Holy Cross) or be the No. 2 seed with a win, Navy loss (vs. Loyola) and Colgate loss (vs. Holy Cross).
- Lehigh would win its sixth straight game against Lafayette.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 7-0 this February and 22-2 over their last three Februaries.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kahron Ross needs 17 points to move past Joe Knight into 15th place in school history for career points.

- Tejada's current 47.5 percentage from three would also be ninth in league history for a single season (minimum one made three-pointer per game). Here's the complete list entering the season.

LAST GAME VS. LAFAYETTE NOTABLES

- Lehigh trailed by 10 (42-32) heading into the final minute of the first half, but junior Lance Tejada knocked down a corner three and senior Kahron Ross converted a driving layup as time expired to pull the Mountain Hawks within 42-37 at the half. Lehigh carried the momentum into the second, opening the half on a 12-5 run (17-5 dating back to the first half) as a Pat Andree three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 49-47 lead with 14:35 on the clock.
- Lafayette would pull even three times, but could never retake a lead and Lehigh went on to the 79-74 victory, its second straight Patriot League opening win.
- The Mountain Hawks improved to 17-11 all-time in Patriot League openers.
- Lehigh improved to 4-0 on the season in games that were within two points at any point in the final two minutes of regulation, also winning at Marist (84-76 in overtime), vs. Siena (91-90 in overtime) and at Princeton (85-73).
- Ross led the Mountain Hawks in scoring with 17 points, along with five rebounds and five assists. In the process, he became the first player in the program's 100+ year history to go a perfect 4-0 at Lafayette in a career.
- Freshman James Karnik continued his strong play, tallying a career-high tying 15 points and six rebounds, despite sitting a big chunk of the first half due to foul trouble. Junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points, highlighted by a clutch pull-up jumper to put Lehigh up by four in the final minute. Tejada also had 14 points, including 3-of-4 from three-point range.
- A balanced team effort saw five Mountain Hawks record double-figure points for the first time since Nov. 19 vs. Eastern. The fifth was Andree, who bounced back from a tough first half to record 11 points and seven rebounds in the second, finishing with 11 points and 11 boards for his second-career double-double and first against a Division I opponent. Andree was 3-of-5 from three-point range in the second.
- The game saw just 12 combined turnovers, only five from the Mountain Hawks, their fewest since Feb. 18, 2013 when they had four vs. Bucknell. It was also the fewest by any Patriot League team this season.
- The win marked Lehigh's fifth straight against Lafayette overall.

BIGGEST-EVER WIN OVER ARMY (FEB. 17)

- Lehigh actually trailed Army 14-6 early on, but doubled up the Black Knights 78-39 the rest of the way to win, 84-53. It marked Lehigh's largest-ever margin of victory against Army. Facing their early eight-point deficit, the Mountain Hawks staged a 34-7 run to take a 40-21 lead, erasing much doubt.
- Sophomore Pat Andree scored a team-leading 23 points on 7-of-11 shooting, including 4-of-8 from three-point range. In the process, he eclipsed the 500-career point plateau.
- Classmate Jordan Cohen posted 16 points, eight rebounds, three assists and a steal.
- Junior Lance Tejada had 12 points and four rebounds while freshman Marques Wilson scored 10 points along with seven rebounds, two assists and two steals.
- Senior Kahron Ross had five points, five rebounds, five assists and four steals, moving past Charlie Brown '77 for 18th place in school history for career points.
- In total, nine of the 10 Mountain Hawks who saw action, scored. Sophomore Josh Wolf also saw his second action of the season, posting a rebound and block. As a team, eight different Lehigh players knocked down a three-pointer, finishing 13-of-29 as a group for the night (44.8 percent).
- Despite finishing just two made threes from tying a Stabler Arena record (which was also tied earlier this season), the Mountain Hawks' streak of six straight games shooting 50+ percent from long distance did end.
- Lehigh's defense impressed, allowing a season-low 53 points, seven points fewer than its previous best of 60 vs. Mount St. Mary's on Dec. 9. The Mountain Hawks held Army West Point to just 29.3 percent shooting (22-of-75), including just 17.6 percent from three-point range (6-of-34), both season bests for the Lehigh defense. The Mountain Hawks added four blocks and eight steals on the evening

CAREER EFFORT LEADS TO AWARD (FEB. 12)

Following an impressive week, highlighted by a career performance at American, senior Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week for a second time this season, as announced on Monday, Feb. 12. Ross averaged 21.0 points over a pair of overtime victories, while also adding nine rebounds, seven assists and six steals over the two contests. Included was a 30-point effort in Saturday's 80-78 win at American, which featured eight of Lehigh's 12 points in overtime. Ross became the first Lehigh guard to score 30 points since Mackey McKnight at Fordham on Nov. 15, 2013. He also became the first Lehigh guard to score 30 points and shoot better than 60 percent from the field since C.J. McCollum had 32 on 10-of-16 shooting at Liberty on Nov. 19, 2011. Ross finished Saturday 13-of-21 from the field and 3-of-3 from three-point range. He knocked down the go-ahead free throw with 59 seconds remaining in overtime and came up with a steal with 10 seconds on the clock to help prevent American from getting a chance to tie in the final seconds. Earlier in the week, Ross posted 12 points, five rebounds, two assists and five steals to help Lehigh pick up a big 92-89 overtime win over Bucknell.

THREE-POINT SHOOTING

Lehigh's three-point shooting has been impressive, especially as of late. The Mountain Hawks are shooting 41.3 percent on the year (11th in the nation) (276-of-669), including 45.5 percent in league play (182-of-400). The Patriot League record for three-point percentage in a season is Holy Cross in 1990-91 (41.8 percent).

Lehigh has posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14). That streak was tops in the nation (see below); no other team has done so in more than four in a row. Overall, the Mountain Hawks have 10+ made threes in 10 of their last nine games.

W OVER FIRST-PLACE BUCKNELL (FEB. 5)

- The Mountain Hawks picked up a hard-fought 92-89 win in overtime against Bucknell, snapping the Bison's 10-game winning streak.
- The win was Lehigh's third in overtime this season (compared to just one loss).
- The Mountain Hawks went up by nine less than seven minutes into the game, Bucknell responded to take a halftime lead and eventually led by eight with 6:50 remaining, but Lehigh had an answer, using a 12-3 run to take a 73-72 lead with just over two minutes left in regulation.
- In his return from injury, junior Lance Tejada was the story early in overtime, knocking down a pair of threes in the first 2:23 of the overtime period, giving the Mountain Hawks a lead for good. Sophomore Jordan Cohen was clutch from the free throw line down the stretch, going a perfect 6-of-6 in the final 29 seconds. Despite the makes, Bucknell's Zach Thomas still had a chance with a three-pointer to tie in the final seconds, but it was off the mark and Lehigh walked away with its fourth victory in its last six tries against the Bison.
- Five Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by 24 from sophomore Pat Andree to tie a season high. He was red hot from behind the arc, knocking down 5-of-6 threes.
- Tejada finished with 17 points in just 20 minutes with 14 of the points coming after halftime. He was 3-of-4 from distance.
- As a team, Lehigh connected on 11-of-21 treys, its fourth straight game over 50 percent and seventh straight with double-figure makes.
- Cohen finished with a career-high 21 points, breaking his previous high of 20 set in his first-ever home game last season vs. Princeton.
- Going against reigning Patriot League Player of the Year Nana Foulland, freshman James Karnik tallied 12 points and 11 rebounds for his fourth-career double-double. He also defended Foulland well, holding him to 14 points, below his 15.6 average entering the game. Only seven of Foulland's points came in Karnik's 35 minutes on the floor. Senior Kahron Ross added 12 points, five rebounds, two assists and five steals (just one shy of a career high).

ROSS NAMED SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE (DEC. 29)

Lehigh men's basketball standout Kahron Ross has been named one of just 30 candidate nation-wide for the Senior CLASS Award, as announced on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Lehigh and Patriot League career assists leader joins a long list of Mountain Hawks recognized by the prestigious award. Most recently, both Tim Kempton and Austin Price were named candidates last year, and Kempton was a finalist. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School ®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The award focuses on four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Ross is one of just three honorees from the Patriot League, along with Shawn Anderson (Navy) and Luke Morrison (Army West Point). Prior to the honors from Kempton and Price last year, C.J. McCollum and Gabe Knutson were named candidates in 2012-13. McCollum went on to be named a finalist and a first team Senior CLASS All-American. Marquis Hall was a finalist in 2009-10.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH

Lehigh finished nonleague play with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary's (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks' captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh's most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks' back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh's all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

ROSS RUNNING THE POINT

- Ross was strong in a 79-74 win at Lafayette (Dec. 29), scoring a team-high 17 points while adding five rebounds and five assists. In the process, he became the first player in the program's 100+ year history to go 4-0 at Lafayette in a career.
- Ross tallied nine assists at Navy (Jan. 2), with the ninth giving him 600 for his career to set a new Patriot League record, passing Holy Cross' Jave Meade '04 in the process. The record-breaker came on a Kyle Leufroy three-pointer with 4:22 remaining in the second half.
- Ross was stellar in a home win vs. Boston University (Feb. 3), scoring 18 points, including the go-ahead (and what proved to be game-winning) basket, a long jumper with 1:04 remaining to give Lehigh a one-point lead. Ross knocked down four three-pointers in six attempts, tying a career high for made treys (originally set sophomore year at Navy). He also moved into 20th place in school history in career scoring.
- Ross enjoyed a career game at American (Feb. 10), scoring a career-high 30 points on 13-of-21 shooting (3-of-3 from three-point range) to become the first Lehigh guard to score 30 points since Mackey McKnight at Fordham on Nov. 15, 2013. He also became the first Lehigh guard to score 30 points and shoot better than 60 percent from the field since C.J. McCollum had 32 on 10-of-16 shooting at Liberty on Nov. 19, 2011. - Ross earned Patriot League Rookie of the Week five times (Nov. 24, Dec. 22, Jan. 12, Feb. 2, Feb. 9) and was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Lehigh's fifth in the previous nine seasons.
- In his sophomore season, Ross averaged 11.2 points and 6.1 assists and was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, after earning third team laurels as a freshman. He led the Patriot League in assists per game, and finished 23rd nationally.
- Over the final seven games of the 2015-16 regular season, Ross averaged 17.6 points per game while dishing 48 assists compared to just 14 turnovers while also knocking down 13-of-20 three-pointers.
- In the Patriot League Championship Game vs. Holy Cross, Ross became the school's record holder for assists in a season.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players' hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fifth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers, coming off a 2015-16 season which saw him win the Kia NBA Most Improved Player award.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.7 points per game (23rd in the NBA), 3.9 rebounds and 3.2 assists in 57 games this season. He has reached double-figure points in all but one game, including 20+ points in 36 contests and 30+ points in four. McCollum also has a 50-point game (Jan. 31 vs. Chicago). (Stats before games Friday, Feb. 23).
- McCollum tallied 20+ points in six consecutive games, from Dec. 9 against Houston through Dec. 18 at Minnesota.
- McCollum scored 36 points against Memphis on Nov. 7, shooting 14-of-26 from the field, including 4-of-10 from three-point range.
- McCollum exploded for 34 points on Dec. 28 vs. Philadelphia, including a perfect 14-of-14 from the free throw line. He also had 32 points less than a week later in a New Year's Day win at Chicago.
- McCollum scored 25 points vs. San Antonio on Jan. 7, including the game-winning shot with 5.9 seconds remaining in a 111-110 win.
- McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31 when he scored a career-high 50 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter with 28 in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range. It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn't play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State's Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.
- In 2016-17, McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-of-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Phoenix.
- McCollum went on to score 35, 27 points then 35 points over his next three games (at Golden State, vs. the Lakers and vs. Detroit). He then had 25 points at Los Angeles and 27 in a 102-86 home win over defending NBA champion Cleveland on Jan. 11 and 26 points at Orlando on Jan. 13. McCollum became the first Trail Blazer to post eight straight games of 25+ points since Clyde Drexler in 1987. His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, Mc-

Collum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.
- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.
- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5.
- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.
- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," siting earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

BRETT REED

Head Coach

11th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 11th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed's 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed's time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum '13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilboa Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto became Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed's immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year's senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH ANTONI WYCHE

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks' program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2017
MCCANN ARENA
LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. – Marist came back from a 38-26 halftime deficit to take multiple second-half leads, but junior Lance Tejada tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a hard-fought 84-76 road win on Saturday evening. Tejada finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1986.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejada shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 990 career points while sophomore Pat Andree tallied 13 points and seven rebounds. Junior Kyle Leufroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejada broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejada's four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock.

A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini 5-0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left in the first. However, the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with consecutive three-pointers, from Ross and Tejada, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later. Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh's final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross' second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 then later took its first lead at 62-61 with 3:41 on the clock. Late in regulation, Andree hit a huge corner three-pointer with one second remaining on the shot clock, evening the score at 64. On the next possession, Ross knocked down a trey to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds remaining, but Tejada was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 from the free throw line with just five seconds remaining to force overtime.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 13-2 run to end the game. Included was a pair of Tejada baskets separated by 28 seconds, with a Tejada steal in between. The second gave Lehigh a 78-74 advantage with 2:47 on the clock. Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andree and Leufroy.

MONMOUTH 80, LEHIGH 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men's basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in their home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Ross' six steals are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh's 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed's 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once. As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Cohen trey and ending with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

A Cohen steal and layup ended a 5:41 Mountain Hawks' scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth's lead swelled to eight with just over a minute left in the first, but an Andree trey in the final seconds pulled Lehigh within 33-28 at the half.

An Andree three just over two minutes into the second half pulled Lehigh within four at 39-35, but Monmouth scored nine of the next 11 points to open a double-figure advantage as a Micah Seaborn trey gave his team a 48-37 lead with 15:06 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejada trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks' deficit to 63-56 with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.

LEHIGH 91, SIENA 90 (OT)

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Junior Kyle Leufroy converted a driving layup in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score, then classmate Lance Tejada scored six of the Mountain Hawks' 11 points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to an exciting 91-90 victory over Siena on Friday evening in Stabler Arena. With the win, Lehigh improves to 2-1 overall, six days after defeating Marist in overtime to open the season. Four Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by a career-high 26 from Tejada along with a season-high 23 from Leufroy. The win marked Lehigh's first-ever victory vs. Siena in the first meeting between the two sides since 1985.

Tejada finished the evening 9-of-14 from the field, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Leufroy added eight rebounds, four assists and a steal, eclipsing 250 career rebounds in the process. Sophomore Pat Andree just missed his second-career double-double, posting 16 points and nine rebounds, shooting 5-of-11 from the field and 3-of-5 from three-point range. Senior Kahron Ross tallied 10 points and a season-high eight assists compared to just two turnovers.

Less than two minutes in, Siena took a quick 10-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks responded with an 11-0 run. The run began with a Leufroy three-pointer, the 100th of his career, and ended with a Leufroy layup, giving Lehigh a 13-10 advantage with 16:05 still left in the first.

The Saints again responded, opening a 21-15 advantage, but a 12-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Caleb Bennett layup, gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-23 lead midway through the first. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes until late in the half, a Bennett dunk gave Lehigh a 40-36 lead with two minutes remaining. However, Clareth's fourth trey of the first half pulled Siena within 40-39 following 20 minutes of play.

Early in the second, an 8-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Tejada trey, gave Lehigh a 51-45 lead. A few minutes later, Siena posted a 7-0 run to retake a 55-54 advantage with 14:56 left in the second half. The ensuing minutes saw eight ties (at 55, 57, 59, 62, 64, 66, 71 and 73) before consecutive Andree layups, at 4:29 and 3:52 gave Lehigh a 77-73 advantage. However, Siena responded with six of the next seven points as a Romar Penn layup gave the Saints a 79-78 advantage with 2:06 on the clock

Trailing 80-78 with seven seconds remaining, Leufroy took the inbounds and went all the way in to finish a tough shot in the paint, forcing overtime.

Andree connected on a three-pointer just seconds into the overtime period and the Mountain Hawks wouldn't trail the rest of the way. Tejada went on to score six points in overtime for the second time, after also doing so in the season opener at Marist. Siena pulled within one on four occasions, including with 11 seconds remaining, but the Mountain Hawks were able to hold on for the 91-90 victory.

LEHIGH 95, EASTERN 70

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Six Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men's basketball team defeated visiting Eastern University, 95-70 on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 3-1 after four games for the first time since 2008-09, heading into a four-game road trip beginning with a Wednesday night showdown at No. 10 USC.

In the end, Lehigh played strong team basketball as 21 of the Mountain Hawks' 35 field goals were assisted. Freshman James Karnik tallied a team (and career) high 15 points and six rebounds, shooting 5-of-8 from the field. Sophomores Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen each had 14 points while junior Kyle Leufroy scored 12, freshman Caleb Bennett tallied a career-high 11 and junior Lance Tejada recorded 10. Bennett was a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor and 2-of-2 from the free throw line.

Along with the six in double figures, senior Kahron Ross finished with four points and eight assists compared to zero turnovers in 22 minutes as he inched ever closer to the Lehigh and Patriot League career assist records. Freshman Marques Wilson and sophomore Ed Porter each posted career-high point totals of seven and six, respectively.

Lehigh broke a 10-10 tie with an 11-1 run, beginning with a Cohen three-pointer and ending with a Cohen jumper which gave the Mountain Hawks a 22-11 advantage with 12:27 left in the first half. Not long after, Lehigh went on a 10-0 run to take a 32-14 lead. The run began with a jumper from Porter, included four points from Leufroy and ended with a Wilson jumper to give Lehigh a 32-14 advantage with exactly nine minutes to go in the first.

From there, Lehigh's lead remained between 13 and 18 as Wilson hit a jumper as the first-half clock expired to give the Mountain Hawks a 45-29 advantage after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh quickly extended its lead to 20 early in the second, but the Eagles wouldn't go away. Eastern pulled back within 13 at 64-51 midway through the half, but Lehigh answered with a 7-0 surge capped off by a Leufroy fastbreak layup to give his side a 71-51 lead with 9:33 remaining. Lehigh's lead eventually reached 27 following a Tejada trey with 3:31 on the clock, on the way to the 95-70 victory.

GAME 5 - NOV. 22, 2017
GALEN CENTER
NO. 10 USC 88, LEHIGH 63

LOS ANGELES – The Lehigh men's basketball team battled to pull within 10 at the half, but USC began the second on a 10-0 run and the Mountain Hawks couldn't get any closer than 15 the rest of the way in an 88-63 defeat on Wednesday evening at the Galen Center. Senior Kahron Ross was stellar, scoring 24 points to tie a career high, 20 coming in the first half, while junior Lance Tejada added 19 points. Combined, Ross and Tejada shot 17-of-30 from the field. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-2 on the season.

With Ross' 24 points, he moved from 34th to 32nd place in school history for career points (currently 1,041). Ross finished 9-of-13 from the field, 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line. Tejada scored 11 of his 19 in the second half, shooting 8-of-17 for the game. Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially late, finishing with seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, seven points and seven boards in the second half.

In a homecoming game to Southern California, junior Kyle Leufroy opened the scoring on the game's first possession, but the Trojans immediately staged a 10-0 run to take a 10-2 advantage with 16:40 remaining in the first half. USC eventually opened an 18-point lead as a Chimezie Metu dunk gave the Trojans a 33-15 lead with 8:16 left in the first.

Lehigh fought back, staging an 13-2 run on the back of Ross. The run began with consecutive layups from Tejada and wrapped up with nine straight from Ross, as his three pulled Lehigh within 35-26 with 5:38 remaining, then a second-chance layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 35-28 not long after. USC reopened a 13-point lead, but Ross sunk consecutive floaters in the final 40 seconds of the half, including one as the buzzer expired, to pull Lehigh within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play.

USC quickly went on a 10-0 run in the first 1:49 of the second half as a Jonah Matthews trey gave the Trojans a 54-34 lead. A few minutes later, a Karnik offensive rebound and layup marked Lehigh's fifth straight point to pull Lehigh within 54-39. USC responded to reopen a 20-point advantage for much of the second half. The Mountain Hawks had several surges, but the Trojans always had an answer. A Karnik layup ended a strong second half for the freshman center, pulling Lehigh within 88-63 at the final horn.

For the game, the Mountain Hawks shot 36 percent from the field (25-of-70) and just 25 percent from three-point range (7-of-28). USC finished at 47 percent (33-of-70) and 46 percent from long distance (12-of-26). The Trojans won the battle of the boards, 49-32.

GAME 6 - NOV. 25, 2017
PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER
PITT 80, LEHIGH 68

PITTSBURGH – The Lehigh men's basketball team took an early first-half lead and stayed within a few possessions for much of the game, but couldn't get over the hump as Pitt downed the Mountain Hawks, 80-68 on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh was within four (72-68) with 3:23 remaining, but the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to pull away. Freshman James Karnik led the charge with his first-career double-double, posting 14 points on 7-of-9 shooting along with 10 rebounds. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-3 on the season, heading into a game at Princeton Wednesday night.

Junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points for the Mountain Hawks while senior Kahron Ross and junior Lance Tejada scored nine points apiece. Ross added six assists and a steal. Freshman Caleb Bennett scored seven points and was a perfect 2-of-2 from the field, while junior Jordan Cohen had seven points as well.

An early 6-0 Lehigh run turned a 5-2 deficit into an 8-5 lead as a Tejada three-pointer, Karnik field goal and Cohen free throw gave Lehigh a three-point advantage with 14:27 remaining in the first half. The teams traded baskets over the ensuing minutes as a Leufroy three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 15-13 advantage with 10:05 remaining in the stanza.

Pitt responded with eight of the next 10 points to take a 21-17 lead, eventually extending its lead to eight at 29-21 with less than two minutes to go in the first. The margin reached nine at 32-23 with less than a minute remaining, but both Ross and Leufroy converted layups in the final seconds to pull the Mountain Hawks within 32-27 at the half.

A Tejada three-pointer less than two minutes into the second pulled Lehigh within 34-30, but Pitt gradually rebuilt its lead as a Kene Chukwuka gave the Panthers their first double-digit lead at 51-40 with 12:22 remaining.

A Bennett three-pointer and Karnik layup quickly pulled the Mountain Hawks back within five, but Pitt again answered to take a double-digit lead. From there, the margin swung between five and 10 until Lehigh made a late-game charge. Trailing 72-63 following a Jonathan Milligan layup, Lehigh used a 5-0 run behind Pat Andree's second three-pointer in less than a minute, and two Ross free throws which cut Pitt's lead to 72-68 with 3:23 still remaining.

However, Lehigh's offense went cold and the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to win, 80-68.

JADWIN GYM
LEHIGH 85, PRINCETON 76

PRINCETON, N.J. - The Lehigh men's basketball team opened a 22-point halftime advantage, Princeton cut the lead to as little as two, but sophomore Jordan Cohen hit a big shot in the final minute to give Lehigh a four-point advantage on its way to an 85-76 win on Wednesday evening at Jadwin Gym. The guard combination of Cohen, senior Kahron Ross and juniors Kyle Leufroy and Lance Tejada combined for 60 points on 20-of-39 shooting while freshman center James Karnik posted a career-high 12 rebounds and sophomore Ed Porter scored a career-high eight points. With the win, Lehigh improves to 4-3 on the young season.

Tejada led the offense with 18 points on 6-of-12 shooting, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Leufroy had 17 points on 6-of-9 shooting while Ross scored 14 points and Cohen tallied 11. Ross also dished five assists to increase his career total to 569, passing Marquis Hall for second place in school history and third place in Patriot League history in that category.

Porter added five rebounds to go with his eight points while freshman Caleb Bennett scored eight as well on a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor.

Lehigh jumped out to a quick 5-0 lead behind a Karnik layup and Tejada three-pointer. The Tigers later pulled within 10-6 and then 12-8, but four was as close as Princeton would get the rest of the half. A 5-0 Mountain Hawks' surge behind a Leufroy jumper and Tejada three-pointer gave Lehigh its first double-digit lead at 23-13 with 11:10 left in the stanza. Princeton scored the next four points, but the Mountain Hawks responded with a 9-2 run. Consecutive Leufroy baskets gave Lehigh a 32-19 lead with 7:39 on the clock, forcing the Tigers to call their second timeout of the half.

The Mountain Hawks went into halftime on a 9-0 run behind a Bennett jumper, Porter layup, Cohen driving bank shot and Ross three-pointer as the first half expired. In the end, Lehigh held Princeton scoreless for the final 3:36 of the first.

Princeton gradually cut into Lehigh's lead in the second half, pulling within 16 with 17:27 remaining. A few minutes later, a Bennett jumper gave Lehigh a 60-42 lead, but the Tigers immediately staged a 10-0 run as a Jose Morales layup pulled the Tigers within 60-52 with 10:36 on the clock.

Lehigh extended its lead to 12, maintaining a double-digit lead heading into the final five minutes, but Princeton had one late charge. A 5-0 surge pulled the Tigers within 75-73 with 1:32 still remaining, but Tejada immediately answered with a driving layup. After two Princeton free throws, Cohen converted a tough shot driving to the basket to give Lehigh a 79-75 lead with 34 seconds remaining. From there, Lehigh's defense allowed just a single free throw while knocking down all six of its attempts from the charity stripe to wrap up the 85-79 win. Following last season's 76-67 win over Princeton in its home opener, Lehigh has won two straight against the Tigers for the first time in school history.

GAME 8 - DEC. 2, 2017
JOHN PAUL JONES ARENA
NO. 15/18 VIRGINIA 75, LEHIGH 54

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team hung tough for the early stages, but No. 15/18 Virginia used a pair of 10-0 first-half runs to turn a one-point game into a 16-point halftime lead, on its way to downing the Mountain Hawks, 75-54 on Saturday afternoon in front of 13,594 at John Paul Jones Arena. In the end, Lehigh scored the most points of any UVA opponent at JPJ Arena this season. Junior Lance Tejada led the charge for Lehigh with 22 points, his third game with 20+ points this season, while senior Kahron Ross had nine points and three assists to move within six of tying the school record for career assists. With the loss, the Mountain Hawks fall to 4-4 on the season while the Cavaliers improve to 8-0.

Lehigh finished the game shooting 40.4 percent from the field, five percent better than UVA was allowing opponents to shoot through seven games. The Mountain Hawks finished 41.7 percent from three-point range, 16.7 percent higher than opponents were shooting (25.0 percent). Despite being the most points by any team at UVA this season, the 54 points marked a season low for the Mountain Hawks. Entering Saturday, the Cavaliers ranked first nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 50.1 per contest.

Tejada finished 8-of-14 from the field, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Sophomore Pat Andree also had eight points and eight rebounds. Classmate Jordan Cohen added three points and seven rebounds to tie a career high.

Tejada enjoyed a strong first half, scoring 11 of Lehigh's 23 points. An early three-pointer evened the score at six with 16:21 remaining in the stanza then just 1:22 later, he knocked down another trey to pull the Mountain Hawks even at nine.

After two Ed Porter free throws pulled Lehigh within 12-11, the Cavaliers responded with a 10-0 run to give them a 22-11 lead. The Mountain Hawks came back with five consecutive points behind two Ross free throws and an Andree trey, but Virginia responded with another 10-0 run to extend its overall run to 20-5. The Cavaliers led 32-16 with 5:22 to go in the half.

Tejada continued his strong play late in the stanza with a three-pointer and tough shot as the shot clock expired, then Ross converted a coast-to-coast layup in the final seconds of the stanza to pull Lehigh within 39-23 following 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh scored four of the first six second-half points as a Tejada jumper pulled the Mountain Hawks within 41-27 with 17:38 remaining. A few minutes later, UVA knocked down two three-pointers in 59 seconds to open a 20-point, 49-29 lead with 15:18 on the clock.

From there, Virginia's lead hovered between 13 and 23 for the remainder of the contest. The Mountain Hawks used a 6-0 surge, behind a Tejada three-point play and Andree three-pointer, to pull within 52-39 with 12:34 remaining, but that's as close as they would come.

STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 75, MOUNT ST. MARY'S 60

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team came back from a 34-33 halftime deficit, using a 17-2 second-half run to cruise to a 75-60 victory against defending NEC Champion Mount St. Mary's on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. In the win, senior Kahron Ross scored a team-high 18 points to go with five assists to break Lehigh's career record. Junior Lance Tejada added 16 points and a career-high seven rebounds. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 5-5 on the season heading into a 12-day break of games for final exams.

Lehigh buckled down in the second half, allowing just 26 points on just 30 percent shooting over the final 20 minutes. The Mountain Hawks held Mount St. Mary's 13.6 points under its season average while the Mountaineers' 60 points were their second-lowest total of the season.

Tejada's 16 points included 4-of-8 shooting from three-point range to increase his season percentage to 49 percent. Freshman James Karnik had nine points and nine rebounds in just 18 minutes due to foul trouble while junior Kyle Leufroy added nine points and five boards.

Ross finished 7-of-10 from the field, while adding six rebounds and two steals. With his second assist of the game, on a Caleb Bennett three-pointer, Ross passed Mackey McKnight for the most assists in school history. The record-breaker was Ross' 579th assist, and he finished the game with 583 in his storied career.

Lehigh jumped out to a big 16-6 lead following a Ross layup with 14:24 left in the first half, already his fifth and sixth points of the afternoon. Mount St. Mary's answered with a three-pointer on the other end, sparking a 13-0 run as a Greg Alexander layup gave the Mountaineers a 19-16 advantage with 9:37 on the clock.

Mount St. Mary's extended its run to 21-4 after a Junior Robinson three-pointer gave his team a 27-20 advantage. However, a 6-0 Lehigh surge behind a Bennett trey and Karnik three-point play quickly got the Mountain Hawks back within one, which proved to be the halftime margin.

The sides went back-and-forth early in the second half as Lehigh retook the lead before an Alexander jumper gave the Mountaineers a 40-39 advantage. A Bennett three-pointer, which gave Ross the career assists record, gave Lehigh a 42-40 lead. The Mountain Hawks wouldn't trail the rest of the way.

A Jordan Cohen layup and Tejada three-pointer began a 17-2 Lehigh run, capped off by another three-pointer from Tejada, a Leufroy trey and Cohen basket to give the Mountain Hawks a 67-51 lead with 4:05 left in the second half. The lead swelled to 19 at 72-53, Mount St. Mary's scored four of the final five points, but it wasn't nearly enough. The final minute was highlighted by junior Caleb Sedore, who made his collegiate debut in front of a standing ovation following a pair of season-ending injuries early in his freshman and sophomore campaigns.

LORETTO, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team came back from a 25-11 deficit to take a 44-42 lead, but preseason NEC favorite Saint Francis (Pa.) staged an 11-0 run and wouldn't look back, defeating the Mountain Hawks 84-70 on Thursday evening. One year after tying a school record with 10 three-pointers against the Red Flash, sophomore Pat Andree enjoyed another strong game, tallying a team-high 18 points along with eight rebounds. Freshman James Karnik added 12 points and 11boards for his second-career double-double. Lehigh falls to 5-6 on the season heading into the Patriot League opener at Lafayette next Friday night.

Junior Kyle Leufroy added 16 points for the Mountain Hawks while senior Kahron Ross and sophomore Ed Porter each had six.

A close game in the early going saw Lehigh take leads of 2-0 and 4-3, but the Red Flash came back with a vengeance. Junior Lance Tejada knocked down a three-pointer to pull Lehigh within 12-11 with 14:20 left in the first half, but Saint Francis responded with a 13-0 run as a Markus Vallien jumper gave the Red Flash a 25-11 advantage with 9:30 left in the stanza.

The Mountain Hawks immediately answered with a 10-0 run of their own, beginning with layups from Leufroy and Ross and ending with a Ross fastbreak layup off a feed from Leufroy as Lehigh was back within four at 25-21 with 5:28 on the clock.

Late in the half, Saint Francis used a 7-0 surge to reopen a double digit lead at 38-28, but the Mountain Hawks scored the final four points of the half on layups from Karnik and Porter, pulling Lehigh within 38-32 at intermission. Karnik's layup came following one of his eight first-half rebounds (including four on the offensive glass).

The Mountain Hawks scored 12 of the first 16 second-half points as a Caleb Bennett jumper evened the score at 40, then a few minutes later, Karnik converted a layup to give Lehigh a 44-42 advantage with 14:12 remaining.

However, the Red Flash responded with an 11-0 run and 16 of the next 18 points to take a 12-point, 58-46 leadwith 10:36 on the second-half clock.

GAME 12 - DEC. 29, 2017
KIRBY SPORTS CENTER
LEHIGH 79, LAFAYETTE 74

EASTON, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team trailed by 10 heading into the final minute of the first half, but outscored archrival Lafayette 47-32 the rest of the way, on its way to an exciting 79-74 Patriot League opening victory on Friday evening at the Kirby Sports Center. A balanced team effort saw five Mountain Hawks score double-figure points, led by senior Kahron Ross' team-leading 17 points. In the process, he became the first player in the program's 100+ year history to go 4-0 at Lafayette in a career. With the win, Lehigh improves to 6-6 on the season, 1-0 in Patriot League play heading into a Tuesday evening showdown at Navy.

After allowing 42 points in the game's first 18:58, the Mountain Hawks allowed just 32 the rest of the way.

Ross added five rebounds and five assists to reach 591 helpers for his career; he now needs nine assists to break the Patriot League career record. Meanwhile, freshman James Karnik continued his strong play, posting 15 points and six boards. Sophomore Pat Andree erupted for 11 points and seven rebounds in the second half, finishing with 11 and 11 for the game, good for his second-career double-double. He finished the second half shooting 4-of-6 from the field, including 3-of-5 from three-point range.

Junior Kyle Leufroy scored 14 points, including a clutch stepback jumper to give Lehigh a 76-72 lead in the final minute while junior Lance Tejada also had 14 points, shooting 3-of-4 from three-point range. Freshman Marques Wilson dished a career-high three assists in a strong effort off the bench.

After Lafayette scored first, the Mountain Hawks staged a 6-0 run as a Karnik layup gave Lehigh a 6-2 lead less than two minutes into the contest. The Leopards responded with an 8-0 run to take a 10-6 advantage, but the back-and-forth half continued as five straight Lehigh points, via a Karnik dunk and Tejada three-pointer, helped the Mountain Hawks regain an 11-10 lead with 16:19 still left in the first half.

The scoring slowed down a bit, but Ross caught fire as he scored eight straight Lehigh points. His second three-pointer gave Lehigh a 19-17 lead with 11:34 left in the stanza Lafayette surged ahead, 27-21 with 8:29 on the clock, but a few minutes later, two Leufroy free throws pulled the Mountain Hawks within 27-26. However, Lafayette answered by scoring 15 of the next 21 points to take a 10-point, 42-32 advantage with 1:02 remaining. Lehigh responded by ending the half on a 5-0 run behind a Tejada trey and Ross layup as time expired, to pull within 42-37 following 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh extended its run to 7-0 following a Caleb Bennett driving layup early in the second half. The Mountain Hawks pulled within 45-43 and 47-45 before the first of three Andree three-pointers gave Lehigh a 49-47 lead with 14:35 on the clock.

The ensuing minutes saw three ties, but Lafayette never took the lead as Lehigh always had an answer. A 9-2 run capped off by a Karnik three-point play gave Lehigh a 63-56 advantage with 7:11 remaining. Lafayette wouldn't go away, pulling within one at 66-65 following consecutive three-pointers and then pulling back within two at 74-72 following a three-point play with 1:17 on the clock. On the next possession, Leufroy hit a clutch stepback jumper to give the Mountain Hawks a 76-72 advantage. Lehigh converted enough free throws in the final seconds to win its second straight Patriot League opener.

BOSTON U 92, LEHIGH 81

BOSTON – Trailing by 24 at the half and by as many as 27 in the second, the Lehigh men's basketball team pulled as close as nine with just over one minute remaining, but it wasn't enough as the Mountain Hawks fell at Boston University, 92-81 on Monday evening. Junior Lance Tejada led the offense with 21 points, 17 coming in the second half while sophomore Pat Andree tallied 19 points, 16 after halftime. Lehigh responded from a 25-point first half by scoring a season-high 56 in the second.

With the loss, Lehigh falls to 7-8 on the season, 2-2 in Patriot League play while Boston University improves to 7-8 and 3-1 in the league. Tejada's 21 points came on 5-of-11 shooting from three-point range, including 5-of-8 in the second half. Andree's 19 points included 5-of-9 from long distance, including 4-of-6 after halftime. Senior Kahron Ross added 12 points and four assists while freshman James Karnik added nine points and five boards.

The teams went back and forth in the early going with Lehigh holding an early 3-2 lead following a Kyle Leufroy three-pointer. The Terriers broke a 5-5 tie with six straight points, but the Mountain Hawks used a 6-0 run of their own, capped off by a short baseline jumper from Jordan Cohen to give Lehigh a 14-13 advantage.

Boston University immediately responded by staging a 9-0 run capped off by a Max Mahoney three-point play, to take a 22-14 lead. The Terriers' success continued and their run reached 36-10, eventually taking a 49-24 advantage in the final minute of the first half. A Ross free throw pulled Lehigh within 49-25 following 20 minutes of play.

A pair of three-pointers early in the second half, from Tejada and Andree, gave Lehigh life, pulling the Mountain Hawks within 54-33 less than two minutes into the stanza.

Lehigh continued to slowly chip away, scoring five straight via a Tejada trey and Cohen jumper to pull within 62-47 with 11:18 still remaining. The Terriers responded to retake a 20-point lead with 6:52 on the clock before the Mountain Hawks had one last charge. ARMY WEST POINT 93, LEHIGH 81

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Freshman Marques Wilson helped spark a second-half rally, scoring 18 second-half points to help the Lehigh men's basketball team trim a 19-point halftime deficit down to seven, but the Mountain Hawks couldn't pull any closer in a 93-81 defeat at Army West Point on Saturday afternoon. Wilson finished with 20 points to shatter his previous career high while junior Lance Tejada tallied 25 points. The duo finished the game 10-of-15 from three-point range.

In Lehigh's 13-4 run to begin the second half, he scored seven points and assisted on the Mountain Hawks' other six. He finished 6-of-11 from the field, including 4-of-6 from three and 4-of-5 from the charity stripe. Andree ended nearly a four-minute scoreless drought with a three, but Army responded by scoring nine of the next 11 points to take a 27-10 advantage with 9:05 on the clock.

Later in the half, Luke Morrison connected on three consecutive three-pointers in the span of 1:37 to give the Black Knights a 39-15 lead with 5:57 left in the half.

Lehigh outscored Army 16-11 the rest of the stanza, sparked by three Tejada treys in 1:59 to pull his side within 45-29. The Black Knights went into halftime with a 50-31 lead.

Sparked by Wilson who started the second half, Lehigh scored the first five points of the second half and 13 of the first 17. The run was capped off by a Wilson steal and feed to Tejada for a fastbreak layup, pulling the Mountain Hawks within 54-44 just 3:26 into the half.

The Black Knights regained a 17-point lead at 62-45 with 13:11 on the clock, but the Mountain Hawks used another 13-4 run capped off by Tejada's sixth three-pointer of the game, then two Wilson free throws, to pull within 66-58 with 9:51 still remaining.

Army's lead hovered in the low teens for the ensuing minutes, eventually reaching 79-64 with 6:24 on the clock. A 5-0 surge pulled Lehigh within seven at 81-74 with 3:53 remaining, then the Mountain Hawks had several chances to pull closer, but couldn't convert and Army hit its free throws down the stretch to pull away.

Freshman Marques Wilson paced five Mountain Hawks (8-12, 3-6 Patriot League) who scored in double figures, scoring 19 points, 15 coming in the first half. From there, the Mountain Hawks' offense went cold and Loyola ended the half on a 10-3 run to pull within 38-28 after 20 minutes of play.

The Greyhounds quickly pulled within six just over two minutes into the second, pulling as close as three after two Loyola free throws trimmed Lehigh's lead to 44-41. Five straight Andree points gave Lehigh an eight-point cushion, Loyola responded, but the Mountain Hawks went on to reopen a double-digit lead as a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 64-53 advantage with 5:12 on the clock. After two Ross free throws, the Mountain Hawks turned the ball over six straight times amidst Loyola's pressure and the Greyhounds took advantage, turning an 11-point deficit into a two-point Loyola lead in the span of 2:27.

Andree three gave Lehigh a 71-70 lead less than a minute later, Loyola's Cam Gregory converted a layup on the other end, but Tejada hit a free throw with 10 seconds remaining to even the score at 72 and force overtime.

Neither team led by more than two in the first overtime. Three straight Lehigh free throws turned a one-point deficit into a 79-77 lead with 1:14 remaining, but a Gregory layup with 51 seconds on the clock tied the score at 79 to help force a second overtime period.

Tejada knocked down a pair of threes in the first 1:15 of the second OT to give Lehigh a four-point lead, but the Greyhounds responded with a 10-0 run to take a 91-85 lead. Junior Kyle Leufroy hit a three-pointer with 11 seconds on the clock, the Greyhounds missed both free throws to give Lehigh a chance. GAME 22 - JAN. 29, 2018
HART CENTER
LEHIGH 71, HOLY CROSS 67

WORCESTER, Mass. – The Lehigh men's basketball team staged a 16-2 run to begin the second half, then fought off a late Holy Cross charge to pull out a big 71-67 victory at Holy Cross on Monday evening at the Hart Center. The Crusaders went on a late 23-5 run over a 4:16 stretch to pull within two, but the Mountain Hawks (9-13, 4-7 Patriot League) made a key defensive stop when it mattered most to snap a four-game losing streak.

Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Mountain Hawks with a season-high 19 points, 14 coming in the second half – 12 of which were in their 16-2 run to begin the stanza. Cohen shot 7-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range, while adding six rebounds, three assists, two steals and a block. As a team, the Mountain Hawks had 10 steals, reaching double figures for the fourth time this season. Senior Kahron Ross added 13 points, 11 in the first half, along with five assists and three steals. Junior Kyle Leufroy scored 12 points, shooting 2-of-3 from three-point range. Sophomore Pat Andree and freshman Caleb Bennett each added eight points.

Neither team led by more than three in the early going until a Ross three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 13-9 lead with 13:35 on the first-half clock. Later in the half, Lehigh created a little separation, using an 8-0 run to break a 22-22 tie. Bennett began the run with five straight points before a Ross three-point play gave Lehigh a 30-22 lead with 5:27 left in the half.

Holy Cross went on to score seven of the final nine first-half points to trim Lehigh's lead to 35-33 following 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks answered in a big way in the second, beginning the stanza on a 16-2 run. Cohen scored 12 of those points, including a fastbreak layup off a full-court pass from Leufroy, giving Lehigh a 51-35 lead with 13:42 on the clock. In the end, Lehigh's defense allowed just two points over the first seven minutes of the period.

Lehigh's lead eventually reached 19 after an Andree trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 61-42 lead with 9:23 remaining. Lehigh continued to lead by 18 after a Bennett trey made the score 64-46, but the Crusaders had one last run in them. After Bennett's triple, Holy Cross staged a 19-3 run as a Jacob Grandison three-pointer pulled the Crusaders within 67-65 with 1:11 still remaining.

Holy Cross would get the ball back in the final minute trailing by two, but Caleb Green missed a three-pointer from the top of the key and freshman James Karnik grabbed a tough rebound. Cohen and Leufroy shot a perfect 4-of-4 from the free throw line in the final seconds to help wrap up the 71-67 win.

STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 80, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 75

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - For a third straight game, the Lehigh men's basketball team shot better than 50 percent from three-point range as the Mountain Hawks rode that hot shooting to a big 80-75 win over Boston University on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Freshman Caleb Bennett led the charge, finishing with a career-high 23 points to nearly double his previous career high. Senior Kahron Ross added 18 points, 12 coming in the second half, including a long jumper with 1:04 remaining to put the Mountain Hawks (10-13, 5-7 Patriot League) up for good, on the way to their second straight victory.

Bennett finished the afternoon shooting 8-of-13 from the field, including 3-of-5 from three-point range and a perfect 4-of-4 from the charity stripe. He added five rebounds, two assists and a steal. Bennett scored 15 second-half points.

Sophomore Pat Andree was also in double figures, tallying 10 points and knocking down his only three-point attempt for the game. Freshman Shane Acoveno gave the Mountain Hawks a strong boost, scoring his first-career points and finishing with four to go with three rebounds in 12 minutes.

Overall, Lehigh finished 11-of-19 from long distance, including 4-of-6 from Ross (tying a career high for made threes). The Mountain Hawks have knocked down double-digit threes in six consecutive games, shooting 49 percent in that stretch (70-of-142). Lehigh has exceeded 50 percent in three straight and are shooting 55 percent in that span (34-of-62).

A tight start saw neither team lead by more than one possession until a Javante McCoy three-pointer gave the Terriers an 11-7 lead just over four minutes into the contest. Boston University's advantage eventually reached 19-14 midway through the first half, but the Mountain Hawks staged an 18-3 run, which included four three-pointers – two from Bennett, one from freshman Marques Wilson and a Ross trey which gave Lehigh a 32-22 lead with 5:01 remaining in the first half.

The Terriers pulled within seven following two free throws in the final minute, but an Acoveno offensive rebound and layup in the final seconds gave Lehigh a 40-31 halftime advantage.

Boston University began the second half with seven straight points, extending its run to 17-7 as a Tyler Scanlon trey gave the Terriers a 48-47 advantage with 14:44 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks responded to take a three-point lead following four straight Bennett points, but an 8-0 Boston University run gave the Terriers a 63-55 lead with 9:44 on the clock.

With less than seven minutes remaining, Ross knocked down a pair of threes in the span of 41 seconds to turn a six-point deficit into a 68-68 deadlock with 5:44 remaining, but a Bennett layup gave Lehigh a 70-68 lead with just over a minute to go. Boston University answered, going up three with 1:57 on the clock. However, jumpers from Bennett and Ross with 1:41 and 1:04 remaining, respectively, gave Lehigh a 76-75 lead, putting the Mountain Hawks up for good. Scanlon had an open three-point attempt with five seconds remaining, but it was off the mark.

GAME 27 - FEB. 17, 2018
LEHIGH 84, ARMY WEST POINT 53

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Trailing 14-6, the Lehigh men's basketball team scored 34 of the next 41 points and wouldn't look back, picking up a dominating 84-53 win over visiting Army West Point on Saturday evening in Stabler Arena. The 31-point win marked Lehigh's largest margin of the season and largest-ever margin of victory vs. Army. The Mountain Hawks won their sixth straight game to move to 14-13 on the season, 9-7 in the Patriot League, good for sole possession of fourth place in the league standings.

Sophomore Pat Andree led Lehigh with 23 points, shooting 7-of-11 from the field, including 4-of-8 from three-point range. Classmate Jordan Cohen tallied 16 points, eight rebounds and three assists while junior Lance Tejada scored 12 on 5-of-9 shooting, including 2-of-4 from three-point range. Freshman Marques Wilson added 10 points, seven boards, two assists and two steals. Nine of the ten Mountain Hawks who played got on the scoreboard.

Army jumped out to an early 14-6 lead following a Tommy Funk three-pointer, but Lehigh answered with a 15-2 run, capped off by a Kyle Leufroy three-pointer and Cohen jumper, giving the Mountain Hawks a 21-16 lead midway through the first half.

Lehigh's run eventually extended to 34-7 as a 13-0 straight rally ended with three-pointers from Wilson and Andree to give the Mountain Hawks a 40-21 advantage with 1:40 on the first-half clock. Army scored the final four points of the first half to pull within 40-25 after 20 minutes of play.

The Black Knights pulled within 14 less than a minute into the second, but the Mountain Hawks quickly scored seven straight points to take a 49-28 lead. Army couldn't pull any closer than 15 the rest of the way as Lehigh continued to extend its lead, reaching 25 (74-49) following a Cohen layup with 4:14 remaining and eventually 31 after a three-pointer from freshman Shane Acoveno, which gave the Mountain Hawks an 84-53 lead, which proved to be the final.

For the game, Lehigh shot 47 percent from the field (27-of-57), including 45 percent from three-point range (13-of-29). Army finished at 29 percent (22-of-75) from the floor and 18 percent from long distance (6-of-34). The Mountain Hawks held a 52-41 edge in rebounds.

The 53 points allowed, along with Army's final shooting percentages all marked season bests for the Lehigh defense.

GAME 28 - FEB. 21, 2018
REITZ ARENA
LEHIGH 80, LOYOLA 74

BALTIMORE - Led by senior Kahron Ross' game-high 20 points, five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures as the Lehigh men's basketball team defeated Loyola 80-74 win on Wednesday evening in Reitz Arena. The win marked the Mountain Hawks' seventh straight (and fourth straight on the road) as they improved to 15-13 on the season, 10-7 in Patriot League play. Lehigh also reached 80 points for a sixth straight contest, improving to 6-0 this February and 21-2 over its last three Februaries. Sophomore Pat Andree added a double-double for a second straight Wednesday, posting 15 points and 10 rebounds.

Lehigh's seven-game winning streak marks its longest since winning 11 straight two years ago. That streak saw the Mountain Hawks go a perfect 9-0 in the month of February. Lehigh will vie for its second undefeated February in three years when it hosts Lafayette Saturday night.

The Mountain Hawks now stand tied with Navy for third place in the league standings (but in fourth due to tiebreakers), one game behind Colgate in second. With one regular season game remaining, Lehigh could still finish anywhere between second and fifth place. A win in Saturday night's finale vs. Lafayette would ensure a top four seed and home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. The Mountain Hawks would finish in third with a win and Navy loss on Saturday (to Loyola). Lehigh could finish as high as second if Holy Cross also defeats Colgate Saturday.

Andree's double-double was his third of the season and fourth of his career. Freshman Marques Wilson added 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three-point range. Junior Kyle Leufroy and sophomore Jordan Cohen each scored 10 points. Freshman James Karnik had seven points and nine boards.

Down 4-2, Lehigh staged a 9-0 run, which extended to 12-2 as a Wilson three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 14-6 lead with 14:24 remaining in the first half.

Loyola responded and a few minutes later, the Greyhounds took a 22-21 advantage following a Chuck Champion jumper, Loyola's first lead since 4-2. Trailing 27-26, consecutive threes from Ross and freshman Caleb Bennett gave Lehigh a 32-27 advantage with 2:59 remaining, on the way to a 38-35 halftime lead.

Loyola scored the first five second-half points to retake the lead at 40-38 with 18:28 remaining, but Lehigh came right back with four points in a row. The ensuing minutes saw two ties, but the Mountain Hawks remained in front for the game's final 16:39. An 11-2 Lehigh run turned a 49-48 lead into a 60-50 advantage.

Loyola later used a 10-1 run to pull within one at 63-62 with 5:01 remaining, but Ross and Wilson knocked down consecutive threes to turn a 63-62 lead into a 69-62 advantage with just over three minutes remaining. Cohen hit a clutch jumper with 42 seconds on the clock to give Lehigh a six-point lead, on the way to the 80-74 victory.
