SETTING THE SCENE

Coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game, the new-look Lehigh men's basketball team is set to open the 2017-18 season when it travels to Marist to face the Red Foxes. Opening tipoff is set for 7 p.m. on ESPN3. The Mountain Hawks will be searching for their first season-opening win since 2008. Lehigh is led by senior Kahron Ross, who needs 34 assists to become Lehigh's all-time career assists leader and 67 assists to become the Patriot League all-time leader. Junior Kyle Leufroy also returns after averaging 11.0 points over his first two seasons.

Lehigh will look to replace several key contributors from the back-to-back championship game appearances, highlighted by the loss of 2,000-point scorer Tim Kempton and 1,000-point scorer Austin Price to graduation. Ross and Leufroy along with sophomores Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen return with plenty of experience, and success, at the college level as they look to increase their roles in 2017-18. Last season, Leufroy finished third on the Mountain Hawks, averaging 11.4 points per game, while Ross was fourth (9.7), Andree sixth (6.7) and Cohen seventh (6.5). In addition, junior Lance Tejada is set for his first game in a Lehigh uniform after transferring from East Carolina and being forced to sit out all last season.

Saturday will mark Lehigh's first game against a MAAC opponent since Nov. 16, 2015 (a 98-89 loss at Canisius). However, it will be the first of three straight MAAC opponents to begin 2017-18. After Saturday's opener, the Mountain Hawks will host Monmouth on Tuesday (Nov. 14) and Siena on Friday (Nov. 17). Lehigh will play three games against MAAC teams in seven days, this after three games vs. MAAC opponents over the previous 1,419 days. Lehigh is looking to snap a four-game losing streak against the MAAC, last defeating a MAAC opponent on Dec. 9, 2013, 76-69 at home over Quinnipiac. The last team Lehigh played three straight nonleague opponents from the same conference came in 2012 when it played at Sacred Heart (91-77 win), Quinnipiac (77-66 victory) and hosted Fairleigh Dickinson (102-62 win) of the NEC.

Along with quickly approaching the Lehigh and Patriot League career assist records, Ross is also only 27 points from 1,000 in his career as he looks to become the 35th Mountain Hawk to reach that milestone (and first since Price in the 2015-16 regular-season finale at Army West Point). Leufroy enters his junior season with 690 career points and could reach the same milestone by the end of 2017-18.

Saturday marks Lehigh's first season opener against a non-power conference school since Nov. 13, 2009 at Richmond out of the Atlantic 10. Since, the Mountain Hawks have played Penn State, St. John's, Baylor, Minnesota, Villanova, Syracuse and Xavier. Despite failing to win, Lehigh has been very competitive, leading St. John's for much of the game, taking second-half leads against Villanova and Xavier while pulling within six midway through the second half at Syracuse against an Orange team that went on to make the Final Four.

The sides first met in 1982, a 70-68 home victory. The teams then didn't meet until Dec. 8, 1990, a 76-73 win at Marist.

LAST MEETING

POUGHKEEPSIE (12/10/10) - Behind a career day from sophomore Holden Greiner and 35 points from fellow sophomore C.J. McCollum, the Lehigh men's basketball team ended the game on a 20-6 run to turn a tightly contested game into a convincing 91-78 victory over Marist on Friday evening. Greiner finished with a career-high 19 points and 11 rebounds on the way to his first-career double-double. The 91 points also mark a season-high for the Mountain Hawks, who even their record at 5-5 on the season.

LAST TIME OUT

LEWISBURG, Pa. (3/8/17) - A 15-0 run spanning the end of the first half and the start of the second helped Bucknell break open a tight back-and-forth affair as the host Bison claimed the Patriot League Tournament title with a 81-65 win over Lehigh Wednesday night at a sold-out Sojka Pavilion. Lehigh lead by six late in the first half, but an Avi Toomer three-pointer gave the Bison a one-point lead at the break. The Bison also scored the first 12 points in a second half that saw the hosts shoot 47.5 percent from the field.

IF LEHIGH BEATS MARIST

- Lehigh would improve to 5-0 all-time vs. Marist.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap an eight-game losing streak in season openers and win their first season opener since Nov. 15, 2008, a 79-62 win at Saint Peter's.
- Lehigh would win for the seventh time in its last eight games dating back to last season.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap a four-game losing streak against the MAAC and beat a MAAC opponent for the first time since Dec. 9, 2013, a 76-69 home win over Quinnipiac.
- Lehigh would earn a road win against a MAAC opponent for the first time since Dec. 28, 2011, a 76-67 victory at Saint Peter's. Since, the Mountain Hawks have lost three straight road games vs. the MAAC.

SEASON OPENING NOTES

- Lehigh has dropped eight straight season openers, all away from home: at Richmond (2009), Penn State (2010), St. John's (2011), Baylor (2012), Minnesota (2013), Villanova (2014), Syracuse (2015) and Xavier (2016).
- Last season, the Mountain Hawks put together a valiant effort that fell just short at No. 7/8 Xavier. Xavier opened a 16-4 lead, but Lehigh came back and eventually took a 58-57 lead following a Kyle Leufroy three-pointer midway through the second half. Lehigh had two three-point attempts in the final seconds looking to even the score, but both were off the mark. In the end, Lehigh fell just short of snapping Xavier's streaks of 26 straight season opening wins and 16 consecutive home opening victories.
- The Mountain Hawks' last season-opening victory came on Nov. 15, 2008, a 79-62 win at Saint Peter's.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kahron Ross needs 27 points to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points.

MILESTONE WATCH

A number of Lehigh players have recently reached significant career milestones or have milestones within grasp, which were reached or could be reached this season.

| Player | Milestone | Currently | Away |
|--------------|---------------------|-----------|------|
| Kyle Leufroy | 1,000 points | 690 | 310 |
| | 250 rebounds | 232 | 18 |
| | 100 made 3-pointers | 97 | 8 |
| | 100 steals | 74 | 26 |
| Kahron Ross | 1,000 points | 973 | 27 |
| | 600 assists | 533 | 67 |
| | 100 made 3-pointers | 80 | 20 |

LAST SEASON OPENER: STRONG EFFORT AT NO. 7/8 XAVIER (NOV. 11)

- Lehigh fell behind to Xavier early, 16-4, but rebounded in a big way, eventually taking a second-half lead and having two three-point attempts in the final seconds that would have tied the score and forced overtime.
- Senior Tim Kempton led the Mountain Hawks offensively with 25 points behind 9-of-16 shooting while adding of 16 shooting. Included were five points in the game's final 40 seconds to help set Lehigh up with a chance to tie in the final seconds. The effort earned Kempton Patriot League Player of the Week laurels. Down three, the Mountain Hawks had two three-point opportunities, from junior Kahron Ross and senior Austin Price, but they were off the mark and Xavier wrapped up the 84-81 win.
- Ross finished the game with 12 assists compared to only three turnovers in 37 minutes at point guard. The 12 assists were just two from tying his own school record of 14 which he originally set during his freshman season at Arizona State.
- In the end, Lehigh fell just short of snapping Xavier's 26-game season-opening winning streak and 16-game home-opening streak. The Mountain Hawks ended up dropping their eighth straight season opener.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH

Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh's all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks' squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed has announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks' captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh's most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks' back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh's all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

NEAR THE TOP IN THE NATION

Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks finished top 50 in the nation in several team categories: 12th in free throw percentage (77.2), 23rd in three-point field goal percentage (39.2), 29th in field goal percentage (47.9) and 46th in defensive rebounds per game (27.13). Individually, Tim Kempton finished fourth in defensive rebounds per game (8.47), seventh in double-doubles (21), 13th in rebounds per game (10.4), 28th in free throws made (168) and 44th in field goal percentage (54.7). Meanwhile, Kahron Ross was 35th in assists per game (5.3) and 50th in total assists (164).

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

DUNK COUNT

Current Count:

Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.

- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.

- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

BRETT REED

Head Coach

11th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 11th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed's 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed's time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum '13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed's immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year's senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahron Ross, a three-time All-Patriot League honoree and former Rookie of the Year. Ross became Lehigh's fifth Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15. A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra's watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2016 CINTAS CENTER NO. 7/8 XAVIER 84, LEHIGH 81

CINCINNATI - The Lehigh men's basketball team fell behind 16-4, but bounced back with a vengeance as No. 7/8 Xavier squeaked out a back-and-forth season-opening game, 84-81, on Friday evening at the Cintas Center. Senior Tim Kempton led the Mountain Hawks with 25 points on 9-of-16 shooting while junior Kahron Ross dished 12 assists, falling just two assists shy of tying his own school record. In the end, Lehigh fell just short of snapping Xavier's streaks of 26 straight season opening wins and 16 consecutive home opening victories.

Kempton's 25 points tied for the game high as Xavier's Trevon Bluiett and Edmond Sumner combined for 49 points for the Musketeers. Senior Austin Price also scored double-figure points, posting 11 while freshman Jordan Cohen and junior Brandon Alston each scored nine. Ross also scored six points while turning the ball over just three times, compared to his 12 assists.

Xavier scored the game's first seven points before Kempton finished a layup to get Lehigh on the board with 17:29 on the first-half clock. The Musketeers opened a 16-4 lead before the Mountain Hawks answered with five straight points behind a Price free throw, Ross jumper and layup from sophomore Matt Holba.

The Musketeers reopened a double-digit lead at 20-9, but the Mountain Hawks continued to draw closer, pulling within six on multiple occasions: 22-16, 25-19 and 27-21.

Xavier scored eight of the next 10 points to reopen a 12-point, 35-23 lead, but the Mountain Hawks used a quick 8-0 run behind consecutive three-pointers from Cohen and Alston, followed by a Holba fastbreak layup, which pulled Lehigh within 35-31 with 4:41 on the first-half clock.

Lehigh used a 6-0 spurt to pull within 42-40 following Kempton's second straight basket then Xavier responded with a 6-0 run of its own, but a Cohen three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 48-43 after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh opened the second half with four straight points as a layup from sophomore Kyle Leufroy pulled the Mountain Hawks within 48-47 with 18:13 on the clock. The Musketeers went up by six at 53-47, but the Mountain Hawks went on an 11-4 run as a Leufroy three-pointer gave Lehigh its first lead, 58-57, with 12:14 remaining in regulation.

The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes, which included the third three-pointer of the game from Cohen, but the Musketeers used a pair of three-point plays to turn a 64-63 advantage into a 70-63 lead with 8:23 on the clock.

The Musketeers extended their run to 9-0 which gave them a 73-63 lead, but Lehigh would not go away. Two Kempton free throws, a Holba layup and Price three-pointer quickly pulled the Mountain Hawks back within 73-70 with 5:41 still on the clock.

Xavier again reopened an eight-point lead at 81-73 with 2:23 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks pulled within four at 82-78 following a Kempton three-point play with 40 seconds on the clock. Another three-point play from Kempton pulled Lehigh within three at 84-81. Ross followed by taking a charge, giving the offense an opportunity to tie. However, three-point attempts from Ross and Price were off the mark as Xavier narrowly escaped.

GAME 6 - NOV. 30, 2016 TOM GOLA ARENA LA SALLE 89, LEHIGH 81

PHILADELPHIA - La Salle used an 8-0 run early in the second half to turn a nip-and-tuck game into an 11-point lead, Lehigh pulled as close as four, but the deficit was too much to overcome in an 89-81 loss on Wednesday evening at the Tom Gola Center. Junior Brandon Alston led the Lehigh offense with a career-high 18 points as five Mountain Hawks finished in double figures for the second time in the last three games. Senior Tim Kempton added 12 points to move into a tie for 10 place in Lehigh history with 1,524 career points.

Alston finished the evening 7-of-9 from the field, including 3-of-4 from three-point range. Kempton's 12 points came on 6-of-11 shooting while he finished just one rebound shy of a double-double. Senior Austin Price also scored 15 points, junior Kahron Ross had 14 and sophomore Kyle Leufroy added 11, but in the end, La Salle's offense proved too much as the Explorers shot 53 percent from the field and got to the free throw line 21 times.

Lehigh got off to a fast start, taking an 8-4 lead following a Leufroy three-pointer with 16:57 left in the first half.

The Mountain Hawks continued to hold a lead over the ensuing minutes before B.J. Johnson knocked down consecutive three-pointers to give La Salle its first lead at 13-12 with 13:50 on the clock.

Lehigh answered with the next four points, behind a Kempton jumper and Leufroy layup, helping the Mountain Hawks open a 16-13 advantage, but the Explorers responded to take leads of 19-16, 22-19, 25-22 and 27-25.

A Matt Holba three-pointer gave Lehigh a 28-27 lead, but La Salle answered with seven of the next nine points to take a 34-30 advantage with 4:26 left in the first half. The Explorers eventually opened a six-point, 40-34 lead, but the Mountain Hawks pulled within five (42-37) at the break.

A Price three-pointer on Lehigh's first second-half possession pulled the Mountain Hawks within two, but not long after, La Salle staged an 8-0 run to turn a three-point lead into an 11-point advantage as a Cleon Roberts trey gave the Explorers a 51-40 lead with 17:34 on the clock.

Ross hit a three-pointer with 14:12 remaining in the second half, and freshman Jordan Cohen knocked down a trey less than a minute later, but La Salle continued to be potent on the offensive end, scoring four straight points to take a 65-50 lead.

Trailing 76-65 with just over five minutes remaining, Lehigh wouldn't go away quietly as a Price layup pulled Lehigh within seven at 76-69 with 4:26 remaining. The margin again swelled to 11, but a Ross three-point play pulled the Mountain Hawks within eight at 80-72 with 2:58 on the clock. Lehigh pulled as close as six with 34 seconds still to go then four with 17 seconds remaining, but La Salle hit its final four free throws to wrap up the 89-81 win.

STABLER ARENA

LEHIGH 64, ROBERT MORRIS 58

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team put forth its best defensive effort of the season on Saturday afternoon and came out with a hard-fought 64-58 win over Robert Morris in Stabler Arena. Senior Tim Kempton led the offense with 15 points and 10 rebounds, 12 points and seven boards coming in the second half. Four Lehigh players finished with double-figure points while sophomore Matt Holba put forth a strong all-around effort, recording eight points and eight rebounds to help the Mountain Hawks improve to 2-0 at home this season.

With his 15 points, Kempton moved into ninth place in Lehigh history with 1,539 career points. After beginning the day 27th in Patriot League history, he moved all the way to 22nd. The double-double was his fourth of the season and 37th of his career. Junior Kahron Ross and sophomore Kyle Leufroy each scored 11 points while senior Austin Price tallied 10, along with a career-high tying seven assists.

The teams went back and forth in the early going with four ties before either team reached 10 points. Leading 14-13, the Mountain Hawks used an 8-0 run, which included three-pointers from Kempton and freshman Jordan Cohen, and a Price layup, to give Lehigh a 22-13 lead with 10:09 on the first-half clock.

Robert Morris responded by immediately staging a 9-0 run to pull even, eventually extending its run to 17-2 after a Billy Giles jumper gave the Colonials a 30-24 lead with 2:40 left in the first half. Ross knocked down a three-pointer in the final seconds of the half, ending Lehigh's drought of 10:05 without a field goal and giving the Mountain Hawks much-needed momentum heading into halftime.

A few minutes into the second half, Lehigh used a mini 5-0 run to turn a four-point deficit into a one-point lead as Price knocked down a trey to give the Mountain Hawks a 37-36 advantage. Robert Morris quickly answered and held a lead for the middle stages of the second half.

Lehigh took a lead for good with less than five minutes remaining. Kempton converted a three-point play to even the score at 50 with 5:25 on the clock, then he hit one-of-two free throws with 4:11 remaining. A Ross layup on a nifty feed from Kempton preceded a highlight-reel dunk from Kempton, giving the Mountain Hawks a 55-50 lead with 2:25 remaining.

The Colonials pulled as close as two in the final minute, but the Mountain Hawks hit their free throws down the stretch to wrap up the victory.

For the game, Lehigh shot 42 percent from the field (23-of-55), including 33 percent from three-point range (5-of-15). Robert Morris finished at 46 percent (24-of-52) and 36 percent from long distance (5-of-14). The Mountain Hawks were 13-of-17 from the free throw line compared to the Colonials' 5-of-5. Lehigh held a 33-30 edge in rebounds.

ISLAND FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ARENA

STONY BROOK 62, LEHIGH 57

STONY BROOK, N.Y. - The Lehigh men's basketball team played from behind for most of the game and couldn't overcome a 10-1 second-half run as Stony Brook held on to beat the Mountain Hawks, 62-57 on Tuesday evening. Despite battling foul trouble, senior Tim Kempton scored 27 points and added nine rebounds in just 26 minutes. Junior Kahron Ross added 11 points, but Lehigh turned the ball over 19 times (13 in the first half) to drop to 3-5 on the young season.

Kempton's 27 points came on 7-of-12 shooting, including a career-high four made three-pointers (on just five attempts). All four treys came in the second half to help set Lehigh up with a chance to tie in the final seconds, but a Kyle Leufroy three-pointer was off the mark.

For the second straight game, the Mountain Hawks' defense played well, holding Stony Brook to just 32 percent shooting and 26 percent from three-point range, but the Seawolves converted 17-of-19 free throws which proved large.

Lehigh's five starters combined for all of the team's scoring as Leufroy added eight, senior Austin Price netted six and sophomore Matt Holba tallied five. With his seven assists, Ross into sixth place in Lehigh history with 409 career assists.

Price opened the scoring with a three-pointer just over a minute into the game, but the beginning of the first half was highlighted by defense. Stony Brook's first field goal came with 14:34 on the clock as a Bryan Sekunda three-pointer pulled the Seawolves within 5-4.

The teams traded three pointers over the ensuing two possessions, then a few minutes later, a Jakub Petras jumper in the paint evened the score at nine with 12:11 remaining in the first half.

A Leufroy three-pointer broke Lehigh's field goal drought of nearly five minutes and helped the Mountain Hawks regain a 12-11 lead with 9:40 remaining in the first half. Late in the half, Kempton re-entered the game with two fouls and made an immediate impact. He finished the half with 11 points, nine coming in the final 5:27 of the stanza. A Kempton three-point play evened the score at 15, but Stony Brook responded with its second straight trey and led for the final 5:16 of the half. A Ross jumper in the final minute pulled the Mountain Hawks within 26-25 following 20 minutes of play.

Leufroy opened the second-half scoring with a trey to give the Mountain Hawks a 28-27 lead. Stony Brook followed with a 7-0 run, but consecutive threes from Kempton and Price gave Lehigh a 34-33 advantage with 16:32 remaining in the second half.

The teams went back and forth in the ensuing minutes as the defenses started to take over once again. Tied at 39, Stony Brook used a 10-1 run over the span of 4:19 as a three-point play gave the Seawolves a 49-40 lead with 8:34 on the clock.

Trailing by nine, Kempton converted a pair of threes, his second and third of the half, in less than a one-minute span as the second pulled the Mountain Hawks within 51-48 with 5:35 still on the clock.

Stony Brook reopened a nine-point lead with less than two minutes remaining, but the Mountain Hawks hit a trio of three-pointers in less than one minute. Ross' second in that span pulled Lehigh within 58-57. The Seawolves converted two free throws, but the Mountain Hawks still had a chance to tie in the final seconds. However, a Leufroy trey was off the mark and Stony Brook two free throws to wrap up the 62-57 win.

KNOTT ARENA

LEHIGH 90, MOUNT ST. MARY'S 71

EMMITSBURG, Md. - Senior Tim Kempton had a career game, scoring a career-high 31 points while tying a career-high 18 rebounds as the Lehigh men's basketball team used a 17-0 second-half run to create separation, on its way to a 90-71 win at Mount St. Mary's on Saturday afternoon. In total, six different Mountain Hawks scored eight or more points as Lehigh eclipsed 90 points for the first time since February of 2015.

Kempton recorded a double-double before halftime, posting 10 points and 10 boards in the first half. The double-double was his fifth of the season and 38th of his career. He finished 9-of-13 from the field and 12-of-13 from the free throw line. Junior Kahron Ross added 16 points, which included a perfect 9-of-9 from the line, while senior Austin Price scored 13.

Sophomore Matt Holba contributed all over the court, recording nine points on 4-of-4 shooting to go with seven rebounds. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy and freshman Pat Andree each scored eight points.

Mount St. Mary's hit a contested jumper 30 seconds into the game, but the Mountain Hawks responded with a 14-0 run, beginning with six straight points from Ross and ending with a Leufroy trey, as Lehigh took an early 14-2 advantage.

After the opening basket, the Mountain Hawks held Mount St. Mary's scoreless for nearly five minutes until a Junior Robinson jumper pulled the Mountaineers within 14-4 with 14:56 on the clock. That basket began a 22-9 Mountaineers run as they used full-court pressure to force some turnovers. A fastbreak layup with 7:34 on the first-half clock gave Mount St. Mary's a 24-23 lead.

Lehigh's offense ended up going 6:18 without a field goal, but an Andree three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 28-24 advantage with 3:27 left in the first half.

Lehigh knocked down a pair of three-pointers in the final 42 seconds, including one from Leufroy as the first half expired to give the Mountain Hawks a 38-33 lead following 20 minutes of play.

After going back and forth early in the second half, the Mountain Hawks were leading 49-44 with 15:17 on the clock. From there, Lehigh went on a 17-0 run, beginning with four straight points from Price, later including six points from Kempton and ending with five straight from Matt Holba. A Holba trey and dunk off a nifty assist from freshman Jordan Cohen gave the Mountain Hawks a 66-44 advantage with 8:57 remaining in the second half.

Mount St. Mary's pulled as close as 14, but that came with less than 20 minutes remaining as Lehigh wrapped up the 90-71 victory.

In total, three Mountain Hawks finished with 21 or more points as Lehigh eclipsed 100 points for the first time since February of 2015. The Mountain Hawks have now scored 190 points over their last two games and improve to 5-5 on the season.

Andree's 10 threes tied Joe Knight's school record, originally set on Mar. 4, 2005 vs. Colgate. His 10 makes tied two others for the most in the nation this season, coming in the fewest attempts. Andree made his first eight three-pointers of the evening, falling just three shy of tying the all-time NCAA record for most consecutive made three-pointers.

Along with Andree's sizzling 30-point, eight-rebound performance, senior Tim Kempton recorded 21 points and 11 board for his sixth double-double of the season and 39th of his career. Kempton finished 9-of-14 from the field while adding two assists, a block and steal. Senior Austin Price also scored 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting, including 3-of-6 from three-point range while sophomore Kyle Leufroy posted 13 points on 6-of-10 shooting.

In the early going, the teams stood tied at two, six and eight until Lehigh used a 13-3 run, sparked by a trio of three-pointers from Andree. His third trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 21-11 advantage with 8:34 left in the first half.

Saint Francis fought back to within 25-19 following an Isaiah Blackmon trey then 30-26 after a Keith Braxton layup with 5:05 remaining. The margin hovered between three and nine over the ensuing minutes until Kempton ended the half with a surge. He had a dunk with 1:04 on the clock then offensive rebound and layup with one second remaining, giving the Mountain Hawks a 45-36 lead at the half. In the end, Kempton scored 10 points over the final 4:32 to end the stanza with 14.

The Red Flash pulled within eight at 54-46 with 17:10 on the second-half clock, but the Mountain Hawks staged a 20-2 run, beginning with a jumper from freshman Jordan Cohen and including a pair of threes from Andree. Eventually, a jumper from junior Kahron Ross gave the Mountain Hawks a 74-48 advantage with 11:38 left in the second half.

Saint Francis got within 23, but the Mountain Hawks responded with a 12-1 run, which included four Lehigh threes, the last two by Andree to give his squad an 86-52 lead with 8:49 remaining.

Andree's ninth three came with 4:31 remaining, giving Lehigh a 97-59 advantage, then his record-tying 10th trey made the score 100-59 with 3:36 on the clock, on the way to the 100-67 victory.

BOSTON - Trailing by 21 with 7:41 remaining, the Lehigh men's basketball team went on a 17-5 surge over the next four minutes to pull within nine with 3:34 still remaining, but that's as close as the Mountain Hawks (7-6, 1-1 Patriot League) would get as they dropped a 75-61 final at Boston University on Monday. A Ross trey pulled Lehigh back within one at 8-7, but not long after, the Terriers used a mini 5-0 run to take a 15-9 advantage with 11:30 left in the first half. Boston University's margin eventually swelled to 23-13 following a Justin Alston jumper, but the Mountain Hawks scored seven of the next nine points, capped off by a Kempton layup to pull Lehigh within 25-20.

GAME 14 - JAN. 5, 2017 STABLER ARENA LOYOLA 84, LEHIGH 83

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team led by as many as 18 and led by nine with under two minutes remaining, but Loyola staged a furious comeback, capped off by a three-pointer from Andre Walker with just 0.8 seconds remaining to hand the Mountain Hawks (7-7, 1-2 Patriot League) a heartbreaking 84-83 loss on Thursday evening. Four Lehigh players finished with double-figure points, led by a season-high 23 points from senior Austin Price.

The Mountain Hawks turned the ball over 18 times, as did Loyola. Price shot 6-of-8 from three-point range while adding three steals. Senior Tim Kempton posted his ninth double-double of the season with 18 points and 11 rebounds, along with four assists. Junior Kahron Ross had 15 points and nine assists, to move into sole possession of fourth place on Lehigh's career assist list, while freshman Jordan Cohen had 10 points and seven assists of his own.

The Mountain Hawks jumped out to a 10-2 early on, beginning with a three-pointer from Price before another Price trey gave Lehigh the eight-point advantage with 16:54 remaining in the half. The Greyhounds fought back to within six on multiple occasions as a Jarred Jones three-point play pulled Loyola within 16-10.

The Mountain Hawks used a 6-0 surge behind treys from Cohen and Price, giving Lehigh a 25-13 advantage with 10:45 on the clock.

The teams went back and forth over the remaining minutes of the half as Lehigh's lead remained between eight and 12. The Greyhounds pulled within 36-29, but the Mountain Hawks outscored Loyola 10-5 over the final 2:54 as a Cohen trey as the half expired gave Lehigh a 46-34 lead following 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh extended its lead early in the second half, eventually reaching 18 following a three-pointer from junior Brandon Alston, which made the score 60-42 with 13:52 left in the second half.

Loyola used a 10-1 run to quickly cut the Mountain Hawks' lead in half as a trey pulled the Greyhounds within 61-52 with 11:41 on the clock.

Over the ensuing minutes, Loyola pulled as close as seven, but the Mountain Hawks responded to go up 13 following a Matt Holba layup with 6:29 remaining. The Greyhounds again answered, pulling within 75-70 with 3:59 remaining, but a corner trey from Price gave Lehigh a 78-70 lead. For the second straight year Walker converted a game-winning shot against the Mountain Hawks, this time draining a tough three with less than one second remaining to give Loyola the 84-83 victory.

Lehigh shot 57.1 percent from the field (28-of-49), including 45.8 percent from three-point range (11-of-24). Loyola finished at 50 percent (26-of-52) and 50 percent from long distance (11-of-22). The Greyhound held a 29-22 edge in rebounds.

LEHIGH 79, AMERICAN 73

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Senior Tim Kempton scored a career-high 36 points, 22 coming in the second half, to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a wire-to-wire 79-73 win over American on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Kempton added 11 rebounds for his ninth double-double of the season as the Mountain Hawks improved to 8-7, 2-2 in Patriot League play. Lehigh led by 11 at the half, then held off an American charge which saw the Eagles pull as close as three before the Mountain Hawks created separation in the final minutes.

Kempton became the first Lehigh men's basketball player to eclipse 35 points since C.J. McCollum had 35 on Nov. 19, 2012 vs. Fairfield. Kempton's 36 points were the most by a Lehigh player since McCollum scored 42 on Nov. 26, 2010 at Kent State. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy added 16 points to eclipse 500 in his career, finishing 5-of-8 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range. Lehigh responded with a quick 6-0 run capped off by a Price layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-14 lead with 10:32 left in the first half. A few minutes later, Lehigh extended its lead further. Leading 26-21, it went on an 8-0 run which included four points from Kempton and ended with a Ross layup following a Leufroy steal to give his team a 34-21 lead with 4:20 on the first-half clock.

American got back within eight with 1:39 on the clock, but the Mountain Hawks scored five of the final seven first-half points to take a 42-31 lead into halftime.

The Mountain Hawks quickly extended their lead to 14 following a Price three-point play and Kempton layup, which made the score 47-33. However, the Eagles responded with an 11-0 run capped off by a Sa'eed Nelson layup to pull American within 47-44 with 12:57 on the second-half clock.

Lehigh eventually extended its lead back to seven with just over nine minutes remaining then eight after two Kempton free throws made the score 62-54 with 7:23 on the clock. American got back within four with 5:59 and 3:09 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks made big plays in the final minutes. A Price jumper gave Lehigh a 73-66 lead with 1:31 remaining then Ross came up with an acrobatic steal on the defensive end. The Mountain Hawks made enough free throws down the stretch to wrap up the 79-73 victory.

GAME 17 - JAN. 14, 2017 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 68, HOLY CROSS 51

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team began the second half on a 16-0 run to turn a one-point halftime deficit into an impressive 68-51 win on Saturday in Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks (10-7, 4-2 Patriot League) have now won three straight games leading into a matchup at Navy next Wednesday. Senior Tim Kempton led the charge with 23 points and 17 rebounds to help Lehigh out rebound the Crusaders 40-20 on the afternoon.

Kempton's 17 boards were just one shy of tying a career high and one from tying the Stabler Arena record. In the process, Kempton passed Dozie Mbonu for second place in school history for career rebounds (currently 943). He also moved from eighth to seventh in school history (and 12th in Patriot League history) in career scoring with 1,759 points. He finished 8-of-12 from the floor and a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. Classmate Austin Price also had 13 points, four rebounds, two assists, a block and steal, shooting 3-of-5 shooting from three-point range.

In his second-career start, freshman Pat Andree had nine points and four rebounds, connecting on 2-of-3 three-pointers. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy tallied eight points while junior Kahron Ross recorded five points, seven assists and two steals.

Lehigh jumped out to an 8-0 lead behind a Kempton layup and consecutive threes from Price and Leufroy. Holy Cross came back with the next eight points as a Karl Charles layup evened the score at eight with 16:25 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks quickly answered with 10 of the next 12 points to take an 18-10 advantage with 12:07 left in the first half. However, the Crusaders answered again, scoring 10 of the next 13 points capped off by a Charles three-pointer to pull Holy Cross within 21-20 with 5:28 remaining.

Lehigh regained a four-point advantage, but a Charles free throw with 11 seconds on the clock gave Holy Cross a 27-26 halftime lead.

The Mountain Hawks began the second half with a vengeance, scoring the first 16 points, capped off by consecutive three-pointers from Price and Andree to give Lehigh a 42-27 lead with 12:42 remaining. Holy Cross responded with a trey less than a minute later, but in the end, the Mountain Hawks held the Crusaders scoreless for the first 8:11 of the second half.

Holy Cross pulled as close as nine (52-43) following consecutive treys with 7:16 on the clock, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 10-2 run as Price's third three-pointer of the afternoon gave Lehigh a 62-45 lead, more than enough as the Mountain Hawks wrapped up the 68-51 win.

For the game, Lehigh shot 47.2 percent from the field (25-of-53), including 41.2 percent from three-point range (7-of-17). Holy Cross shot 40.0 percent (20-of-50) and 28.6 percent (6-of-21) from long distance. The Mountain Hawks held a dominant 40-20 edge in rebounds.

GAME 18 - JAN. 18, 2017 ALUMNI HALL NAVY 75, LEHIGH 72

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - The Lehigh men's basketball team outscored Navy 32-11 over the middle stages of the game, but the Mountain Hawks couldn't overcome long stretches of offensive struggles as they dropped a 75-72 final on Wednesday evening. Lehigh (10-8, 4-3 Patriot League) trailed by nine heading into the final minute, but cut into the deficit and had a chance to tie at the final buzzer. However, senior Austin Price's three-pointer was off the mark.

Senior Tim Kempton recorded his 10th double-double of the season and 43rd of his career in the loss, posting 17 points and 10 boards. In the process, Kempton moved into sixth place in school history and 10th in Patriot League history in career scoring (currently 1,776). Junior Kahron Ross also had 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three-point range. Ross dished five assists compared to zero turnovers. Price added 14 points on 3-of-5 from three-point range, along with five rebounds, two assists and two steals. Freshman Pat Andree had 10 points on 4-of-7 shooting.

Navy opened the scoring with a three-pointer in the opening minute, but Lehigh responded with a trio of threes over the game's first 2:51 Price's second trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 9-6 advantage with 17:09 remaining in the first half.

The teams traded baskets over the middle stages of the half until the Midshipmen staged a run. Junior Brandon Alston converted a layup to give Lehigh a 16-14 advantage with 11:40 on the clock, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't score for the next 5:30. In that time, Navy went on a 9-0 run to take a 23-16 lead.

Sophomore Matt Holba ended the drought with a layup, helping spark the Mountain Hawks' strong end to the half. Trailing 32-22 following Navy's sixth made three-pointer of the half, Lehigh ended the stanza on an 11-1 run. Holba began the run with four straight free throws, then Ross and Price followed with layups. A Kempton three-pointer as the half expired evened the score at 33 following 20 minutes of play.

Kempton began the second half with a layup to extend Lehigh's run to 13-1 and give the Mountain Hawks a 35-33 lead. A Navy three-pointer gave the Mids a 38-35 lead, but Lehigh scored the next eight points, highlighted by a Ross three-pointer, to give the Mountain Hawks a 43-38 lead with 16:14 remaining.

Navy pulled within 43-41, but the Mountain Hawks responded with an 11-2 run capped off by an Andree dunk to give Lehigh a 54-43 advantage with 12:42 on the clock.

However, from there, the Mountain Hawks' offense went cold, scoring just seven points over the next 11+ minutes. Lehigh's field goal drought reached 11:47 before a Ross three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 70-64 in the final minute. Lehigh kept chipping away and had a chance for a game-tying three-pointer in the final seconds, but Price's attempt was off the mark and Navy held on, 75-72.

For the game, the Mountain Hawks shot 51 percent from the field (23-of-45), including 45 percent from three-point range (9-of-20). Navy finished at 54 percent (27-of-50) and 48 percent from long distance (11-of-23). The Midshipmen won the battle of the boards, 28-26.

The Leopards used a late 7-0 run to even the score at 25, but a Price three-pointer gave him 10 points and gave Lehigh a 28-25 halftime advantage.

Lafayette staged a quick 10-0 run in the first 2:02 of the second half to take a 35-28 lead. A few minutes later, Lehigh scored four straight points to pull within two, but consecutive Lafayette treys in the span of 17 seconds gave the Leopards their largest lead at 45-37 with 13:07 remaining.

Lehigh immediately staged an 8-0 run, however, which includes treys from Price and Andree, to even the score at 45. Later, the Mountain Hawks used a 7-0 run capped off by a Price fastbreak layup to give his side a 54-47 advantage with 8:49 on the clock.

The Leopards pulled as close as one on multiple occasions, but a 5-0 Mountain Hawks' surge gave them a six-point lead with 3:42 remaining. Lehigh wouldn't trail by less than four the rest of the way as an emphatic Andree dunk with 26 seconds to go wrapped up the 75-68 win.

GAME 20 - JAN. 25, 2017 COTTERELL COURT LEHIGH 76, COLGATE 62

HAMILTON, N.Y. - A strong all-around effort helped the Lehigh men's basketball team overcome an early 10-2 deficit and cruise past Colgate on Wednesday evening, 76-62. The Mountain Hawks (12-8, 6-3 Patriot League) responded from the early deficit with a 19-5 run and wouldn't look back. Senior Tim Kempton led the way with his 12th double-double of the season, posting 23 points and 10 rebounds. Junior Kahron Ross nearly missed a triple-double, posting 16 points, nine assists and eight rebounds.

Kempton scored 17 of his points in the first half, including a stretch of eight straight Lehigh points within 58-second span late in the first half to help the Mountain Hawks take a 10-point halftime advantage. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy added 11 points while junior Brandon Alston had 10.

Colgate jumped out to a 10-2 lead, led by a pair of three-pointers from Sean O'Brien. Lehigh went on to score five of the next six points, all from senior Austin Price, to pull within 11-7 with 15:37 on the first-half clock. Lehigh continued its success, eventually extending its run to 19-5 as an Alston trey capped off 10 straight Lehigh points, giving the Mountain Hawks a 21-15 lead with 10:24 remaining in the first.

Lehigh's lead shrunk to at 28-27, but the Mountain Hawks ended the half with 12 of the final 15 points. Kempton scored eight of those points, behind a dunk and consecutive three-pointers. A Ross driving layup gave Lehigh a 40-30 lead at the half.

Colgate slowly inched back into the game early in the second half as a Francisco Amiel three-pointer pulled the Raiders within 50-45 with 13:55 remaining.

Lehigh answered with four straight points behind an Alston layup and Kempton jumper, eventually extending its run to 12-2 as a Jordan Cohen floater gave the Mountain Hawks a 62-47 advantage with 8:48 remaining.

The Raiders pulled as close as 11, but Lehigh extended its lead from there, taking a 20-point advantage with just over one minute remaining following a Price trey with 1:07 on the clock as Lehigh easily cruised to the 76-62 win.

For the game, Lehigh shot 51.9 percent from the field (28-of-54), including 50 percent from three-point range (8-of-16). Colgate finished at 39.2 percent (20-of-51) and 50 percent from long distance (12-of-24).

GAME 22 - FEB. 1, 2017 REITZ ARENA LOYOLA 62, LEHIGH 60

BALTIMORE - The Lehigh men's basketball team used a 12-1 second-half run to take a 10-point lead, but Loyola got back into the game with a 7-0 run and eventually scored what proved to be the game-winner in the final minute as the Mountain Hawks (12-10, 6-5 Patriot League) dropped another tough game to the Greyhounds, 62-60 on Wednesday evening. Wednesday marked the third straight game Lehigh has lost to Loyola in the final minute. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy scored a team-high 17 points while freshman Jordan Cohen was a big spark, scoring eight of Lehigh's first 12 points and finishing with 14.

Leufroy finished 6-of-9 from the field while Cohen was 5-of-10. Junior Brandon Alston also scored 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting. Senior Tim Kempton played just 18 minutes, fouling out with a season-low four points and seven rebounds.

Loyola opened a 6-2 lead following a Cam Gregory free throw, but the Mountain Hawks answered with five of the next seven points. A Cohen trey evened the score at 10, then he converted a layup to give the Mountain Hawks their first lead at 12-10 with 12:37 on the first-half clock.

An Alston basket gave Lehigh a 14-10 lead, but Loyola went on a 9-2 run as a Matt Staubi trey gave the Greyhounds a 19-16 lead with 6:33 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks' lead swelled back to three following consecutive layups from senior Austin Price and junior Kahron Ross, the Greyhounds scored four straight points to take a lead, but a 6-0 Lehigh run late in the half helped the Mountain Hawks take a 30-29 advantage following 20 minutes of play.

Loyola regained a lead early in the second half, but the Mountain Hawks used a 12-1 run, beginning with five straight points from Leufroy and ending with a Cohen layup, to give Lehigh a 44-34 lead with 14:40 remaining in the second half.

The Greyhounds quickly used a 7-0 run to pull back within seven at 44-41, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 11:35 on the clock.

An Andre Walker layup evened the score at 48 with 7:23 remaining, then neither team led by more than four over the rest of regulation. After Kempton fouled out, the Mountain Hawks immediately responded with four straight points as an Alston basket gave his squad a 55-51 lead. However, the Greyhounds fought back and a Gregory jumper, then layup, turned a 59-56 Lehigh lead into a 60-59 Loyola advantage with 1:10 on the clock.

Ross evened the score with a free throw, but a Walker layup gave Loyola a 62-60 lead with 27 seconds remaining. Lehigh had two chances to pull closer, but Ross missed a jumper then later had a driving play to the basket with time running out, but his shot was off the mark.

GAME 23 - FEB. 4, 2017 BENDER ARENA LEHIGH 70, AMERICAN 55

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Lehigh men's basketball team scored 30 of the first 43 second-half points to open a 21-point lead as the Mountain Hawks (13-10, 7-5 Patriot League) cruised to a 70-55 win at American on Saturday afternoon. Junior Kahron Ross led the way with 19 points on 8-of-10 shooting while senior Tim Kempton recorded his 13th double-double of the season with 15 points and 12 boards. Lehigh shot a season-high 59.2 percent from the field, including an astonishing 71.4 percent on two-point field goals (25-of-35).

The Mountain Hawks' 59.2 field goal percentage was their best mark since Dec. 1, 2012 when they shot 63.3 percent (38-of-60) in a 102-62 win over Fairleigh Dickinson.

Ross scored 11 of his points in the second half as he helped spark Lehigh's charge. Five other Mountain Hawks also scored five or more points, including eight apiece from senior Austin Price and sophomore Kyle Leufroy. Freshman Jordan Cohen scored seven points, junior Brandon Alston had six and senior Devon Carter scored five.

Kempton began the game with Lehigh's first two baskets to help the Mountain Hawks open a 6-2 advantage. Leading 11-8 with under 12 minutes on the clock, Lehigh staged a 10-3 run, beginning with a Kempton jumper and including a three-pointer from Ross. Kempton's seventh and eighth points gave Lehigh a 21-11 advantage with 8:15 remaining in the first.

A few minutes later, a Carter three-pointer gave Lehigh a 28-18 advantage, but the Eagles ended the half on an 8-2 run as Lehigh was held scoreless for the final 2:53 of the first.

Lehigh began the second half on a 9-2 run to create separation as a Ross three-point play gave the Mountain Hawks a 39-28 lead with 15:43 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks continued to impress over the ensuing minutes, and their lead continued to swell. A mini 9-2 surge capped off by a Kempton basket gave Lehigh its first 20-point lead as the Mountain Hawks led 60-39 with 8:11 remaining.

Lehigh's lead continued to hover between 19 and 22 over the ensuing minutes until American pulled closer in the final two minutes. A Mark Gasperini gave American a 7-2 run to end the game, but it wasn't nearly enough.

The Mountain Hawks shot 59.2 percent for the game (29-of-49), including 28.6 percent from three-point range (4-of-14). The Eagles finished at 42.0 percent (21-of-50) and 31.3 percent from long distance (5-of-16). Lehigh won the battle of the boards, 29-24.

GAME 24 - FEB. 8, 2017 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 79, BUCKNELL 71

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team led for the majority of the game and held off several Bucknell comeback attempts, beating the first-place Bison 79-71 in Wednesday evening's game presented by Come Ready Nutrition in Stabler Arena. Seniors Austin Price (25 points) and Tim Kempton (24) combined for 49 points as Lehigh (14-10, 8-5 Patriot League) earned the regular season sweep of Bucknell (19-7, 11-2) and handed the Bison their first loss since the Mountain Hawks won at Bucknell last month.

Between Lehigh's wins over Bucknell (Jan. 11 and Feb. 8), the Bison had won seven straight games, all by double figures.

Kempton posted his second straight double-double and 14th of the season, finishing with 24 points and 11 rebounds. He also eclipsed 1,000 career rebounds in the win, becoming just the second player in school history and third in Patriot League history to reach that plateau. Price scored 18 of his season-high 25 points in the second half, finishing the evening 5-of-9 from three-point range, including a big trey with 41 seconds remaining to give Lehigh a 72-67 advantage.

Sophomore Kyle Leufroy added 14 points, all in the first half, finishing the evening 5-of-7 from the field. Junior Brandon Alston scored seven points while freshman Jordan Cohen had two points and a game-high five assists.

Lehigh jumped out to early leads of 2-0 and 4-3 before Bucknell used a mini 5-0 run to open an 8-4 advantage before the game was three minutes old.

The Mountain Hawks eventually tied the score at 12 following a Price three-point play with 15:50 on the clock. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes with neither team leading by more than three until Kempton capped off a 5-0 Lehigh surge with a layup, giving the Mountain Hawks a 23-19 advantage with 11:54 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, Lehigh used a 7-0 run capped off by a Leufroy three-pointer and Kahron Ross layup, giving the Mountain Hawks a 37-29 advantage and forcing a Bucknell timeout with 5:18 on the clock.

The Bison used a 4-0 surge to pull within 43-40 following 20 minutes of play.

The second half was highlighted by runs as Lehigh began the second on a 5-0 run to take a 48-40 lead following an Alston layup. Bucknell immediately responded with a 9-0 run of its own as a Foulland jumper gave the Bison a 49-48 advantage with 15:05 remaining.

Lehigh came back with a vengeance, staging a 13-0 run to take its first double-digit advantage of the evening. The run began with three straight three-pointers, two by Price and one by freshman Pat Andree, and ended with four consecutive free throws, giving Lehigh a 61-49 lead with 12:07 left in the second half.

Bucknell responded by scoring 14 of the next 18 points as a Zach Thomas layup pulled the Bison within 65-63 with 5:56 on the clock. A Kempton post move ended a 5:07 Lehigh scoring drought and gave the Mountain Hawks a four-point advantage. Bucknell eventually evened the score at 67, but Cohen responded with big jumper late in the shot clock with 2:25 remaining. Later, Price hit a big three-pointer with 41 seconds remaining to give Lehigh a five-point advantage. From there, Lehigh hit 7-of-8 free throws to close out the 79-71 victory, the Mountain Hawks' eighth win in their last 12 games vs. the Bison.

EASTON, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team jumped out to a 14-2 lead and wouldn't look back, eventually taking a 32-point second-half lead on its way to an 81-55 win over Lafayette on Sunday afternoon. A few minutes later, a Leufroy layup gave Lehigh a 13-point, 18-5 advantage, but the Leopards responded with consecutive three-pointers to pull within 18-11 with 11:33 remaining in the first half.

Lehigh immediately answered by opening its largest lead. A Price trey, his second of the half, gave the Mountain Hawks a 29-13 lead with 8:48 on the clock. Lafayette again pulled within single digits, but two Matt Holba free throws helped Lehigh regain a 16-point lead, a margin which stood at the half as the Mountain Hawks took a 40-24 lead into the locker room.

The Mountain Hawks began the second half on a 5-0 run behind a Price three and Leufroy steal and layup, giving Lehigh a 47-24 lead which forced a Lafayette timeout. Lehigh's lead remained at least 20 for most of the ensuing minutes, leading into a Kempton three-point play which gave the Mountain Hawks a 58-32 advantage with 12:23 on the clock.

Not long after, a Pat Andree trey made Lehigh's lead 29 while a Jordan Cohen three gave the Mountain Hawks a 69-38 advantage with 7:52 on the clock.

GAME 31 - MAR. 5, 2017 CASE GYMNASIUM LEHIGH 91, BOSTON UNIVERSITY (2OT) PATRIOT LEAGUE SEMIFINALS

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team opened a 16-point second-half lead, Boston University came back to force overtime, but the Mountain Hawks (20-11) made some clutch plays when it mattered most to pick up a gutsy 91-88 double overtime win in the Patriot League Semifinals on Sunday afternoon. With the win, Lehigh advances to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game and fourth in the last eight years. The Mountain Hawks will travel to top-seeded Bucknell on Wednesday evening for a 7:30 p.m. tipoff on CBS Sports Network. Senior Tim Kempton finished with 31 points, 13 rebounds and a career-high tying six blocks, eclipsing 2,000 career points in the process.

Lehigh led by 11 at the half, Boston University began the second half on a 7-0 run, but the Mountain Hawks responded to take a 16-point lead. The Terriers shot 50 percent in the second half to help force overtime. In the end, Lehigh made big plays to extend its winning streak to a season-high six games.

Senior Austin Price was also sensational, finishing with 23 points, four rebounds and three steals. Junior Brandon Alston tied a career-high 18 points while sophomore Kyle Leufroy scored 12. The story of the game was Lehigh's defense, which tallied 12 steals and a season-high eight blocks.

Kempton's double-double was his eighth in the last nine games, 20th of the season and 53rd of his career. With a second-half three-pointer, he became just the third player in school history to reach 2,000 career points. He's one of just two in Patriot League history to eclipse 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds.

Lehigh opened an early 9-3 lead following a Kempton jumper. Leading 13-10, two straight three-pointers, from Kempton and freshman Pat Andree, gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-10 advantage with 11:03 on the first-half clock. The lead reached 11 as a Leufroy four-point play gave Lehigh a 23-12 advantage with 7:54 remaining in the first.

The Terriers immediately answered with a 7-0 run to pull back within four. Lehigh had an answer late in the half, scoring seven of the final nine points as Price's second dunk in the span of 2:02 gave the Mountain Hawks a 37-26 lead at the half.

Boston University scored the first seven second-half points, but Lehigh immediately answered with a 7-0 run of its own, all scored by Kempton. His jumper gave the Mountain Hawks a 44-33 advantage with 15:30 on the clock. Lehigh used a 9-0 surge to open its largest lead of the game as a deep three-pointer from Price gave his team a 53-37 advantage with 10:41 remaining in the second half. However, Boston University answered with a 14-2 run as a Fanning layup cut Lehigh's lead to 55-51 with 4:51 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks continued to lead until the final seconds as a Justin Alston layup evened the score at 65. Lehigh had a chance to win in regulation, but Kempton's jumper was off the mark.

The teams went back-and-forth in the first overtime. Cedric Hankerson knocked down a three-pointer just 13 seconds in, but four straight Kempton free throws helped Lehigh regain the lead. Late in the stanza, a Kempton layup off a nifty feed from Leufroy evened the score at 75 with six seconds on the clock, then Kempton blocked the Terriers' ensuing chance to help force a second overtime period.

Tied with less than two minutes remaining in the second overtime, Kempton hit a big corner three-pointer, his third of the game, to give Lehigh an 85-82 lead. Then, Leufroy followed with four straight free throws for an 89-82 advantage. Boston University knocked down two late threes and had a chance in the final seconds, but it fell short and the Mountain Hawks picked up the thrilling victory.

GAME 32 - MAR. 8, 2017 SOJKA PAVILION BUCKNELL 81, LEHIGH 65 PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

LEWISBURG, Pa. – A 15-0 run spanning the end of the first half and the start of the second helped Bucknell break open a tight back-and-forth affair as the host Bison claimed the Patriot League Tournament title with a 81-65 win over Lehigh Wednesday night at a sold-out Sojka Pavilion.

Lehigh lead by six late in the first half, but an Avi Toomer three-pointer gave the Bison a one-point lead at the break. The Bison also scored the first 12 points in a second half that saw the hosts shoot 47.5 percent from the field.

Senior Tim Kempton led the way for the Mountain Hawks with 22 points and 17 rebounds. With those numbers Wednesday night, Kempton moved past former Bucknell star Mike Muscala for fourth place in the Patriot League's career scoring list (2,043) and into second place in the league's career rebounding list (1,095).

The Mountain Hawks shot 45 percent from the field but a 2-for-11 start to the second half allowed the Bison to build an 18-point lead.

Lehigh falls to 20-12 on the season with the loss, while Bucknell improves to 26-8 and wins its first Patriot League title since 2013.

The first half saw Bucknell lead by as many as six nearly 11 minutes in. A Zach Thomas layup gave the Bison a 25-24 lead in a back-and-forth half, but Lehigh answered with a 6-0 run to take its largest lead, featuring a pair of layups from senior Austin Price and a pair of Kempton free throws with 4:09 left in the half.

A Kempton dunk gave Lehigh a 34-32 lead late in the half, but Toomer's wide-open three from the top of the key put Bucknell in front at the break.

The Bison scored the first 12 points of the second half, with a three-point play by Nana Foulland, a putback by Zach Thomas and a Foulland dunk forcing an early Lehigh timeout. Bucknell's lead reached 47-34 before a Price free throw stopped the run.

The Bison lead reached as high as 18 and while the Mountain Hawks desperately tried to claw back, could only get as close as nine at 61-52 on two Kempton free throws with 5:00 to play. A Kimbal MacKenzie three-point play re-established a double-digit lead and the Bison never looked back, outscoring Lehigh 20-13 over the final five minutes to hand the Mountain Hawks their second straight loss in a Patriot League championship game.

Kempton's 22 points came on 9-of-21 shooting. As a team, Lehigh shot 45 percent (27-of-60) but just 4-of-14 from three and an uncharacteristic 7-of-15 (46.7%) from the free throw line. Sophomore Kyle Leufroy was Lehigh's next highest scorer with 14 points and he added six rebounds. Price added 11 as he and Kempton were named to the All-Tournament Team, along with Bucknell's MacKenzie, Foulland and Thomas, who was .
