LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (8-5, 5-2 PATRIOT LEAGUE) AT

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 2018 • 7:30 P.M.
CHRISTY MATHEWSON-MEMORIAL STADIUM • LEWISBURG, PA.
PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK

SETTING THE SCENE

Coming off two straight losses to teams currently in the top 10 of both national polls, the Lehigh men's lacrosse hits the road to face another challenging opponent as it squares off against No. 11/12 Bucknell in the regular season finale Friday night. Opening faceoff is set for 7:30 p.m. on the Patriot League Network. The Mountain Hawks enter Friday with a 5-2 league mark while Bucknell stands 6-1. Lehigh knows that with a win Friday, it would enter the upcoming Patriot League Tournament as the No. 3 seed. With a loss, it would be the No. 4 seed.

Bucknell can get as high as the No. 2 seed with a win Friday, but would need help from other games. Regardless of Friday's result, the Mountain Hawks know they will be home for the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the first time since 2014. They could still host any one of four teams next Tuesday night - Colgate, Boston University, Holy Cross or Army West Point. Those four teams are currently tied for fifth place, each with identical 2-5 league marks.

Lehigh looks to get back on the right track following a 12-10 loss to No. 9/11 Cornell on Saturday. The loss was the Mountain Hawks' fourth straight at home, all coming against nationally-ranked teams or teams that would go on to be nationally ranked in the ensuing weeks. Lehigh scored just over a minute in vs. Cornell, but the Big Red broke a 2-2 tie with four straight goals, which proved too much for the Mountain Hawks to overcome. Lehigh pulled back within 6-4 and then later within 12-10, but couldn't get any closer. The game came four days after Cornell earned a top-10 win over Syracuse, beating the Orange 13-8 final.

Junior Lucas Spence led Lehigh's offense with four goals and a career-high tying four groundballs. He has multiple points in all 13 games this season, currently standing second on the Mountain Hawks in goals (27) and points (45). Classmate Tristan Rai added two goals and an assist while Andrew Pettit scored twice. Lehigh's defense hung tough after a tough beginning; Cornell scored six goals in the game's first 17:16, but was held to just six over the remaining 42:44. The Mountain Hawks held the Big Red to their fewest goals in six games, since they scored 11 on Mar. 17 vs. Yale. Cornell had been averaging 18.6 goals over its previous five games entering the day. Lehigh held the Big Red scoreless for a stretch of 13:29 bridging the second and third quarters. It was the longest stretch Cornell had been held scoreless since the same Mar. 17 Yale game when it was shut-out for 14:44. Lehigh held Cornell to by far its lowest shot total of the season (23). The Big Red's previous lowest was 30.

Junior Craig Chick finished with four groundballs and two caused turnovers, reaching 111 in his career to move into 10th place in NCAA history. Classmate Eddie Bouhall caused two turnovers, as did freshman Teddy Leggett and senior Ian Strain. The trio of Chick, Leggett and Bouhall are up to 73 combined caused turnovers this season, most among any trio in the nation. Leggett added four groundballs to reach 53 on the season. In head coach Kevin Cassese's 11 seasons at Lehigh, Leggett, Chick and current assistant coach Casey Eidenshink are the only three non-faceoff specialists to eclipse 50 groundballs in a season (Eidenshink with 50 in 2015 and Chick with 59 in 2016 and 58 in 2017). Leggett and Chick have each done so as freshmen.

Lehigh's extra-man has continued to impress. After a 3-for-3 effort vs. Cornell, the Mountain Hawks have now converted seven in a row and 15 of their last 18. They are now up to 67.6 percent on the season (23-of-34), which would be second in NCAA history. The Mountain Hawks have gone four full games without a failed extra-man opportunity, the last coming exactly one month before Friday's game at Bucknell (Mar. 20 at Hofstra when Lehigh was 3-of-5).

While the Mountain Hawks have lost four straight at home, they take a four-game road winning streak into Friday's contest at Bucknell. In that stretch was a pair of wins over nationally-ranked opponents, defeating No. 12 Army West Point on Mar. 12 and No. 18/19 Hofstra on Mar. 20. Most recently, the Mountain Hawks picked up a hard-fought, last-second win at Boston University on Mar. 31 with junior Mickey Fitzpatrick scoring the game-winning goal in the final minute.

LEHIGH LACROSSE AT A GLANCE...

- Lehigh's 39 victories from 2012-14 was tied for third in the nation during that span. The win total only trailed Duke and Loyola and was tied with Denver.
- The Mountain Hawks are 33-20 against Patriot League opponents since the beginning of 2012 (regular season and postseason).
- Lehigh has reached double-figure victories in three of the last six seasons (2012, 2013, 2014) after having double-figure wins just four times in the first 112 years of program history: 1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (4/14/18) – No. 9/11 Cornell used a 4-0 first-half run to turn a 2-2 tie into a 6-2 lead as the Big Red topped the No. 17/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team, 12-10 on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,231 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. The Mountain Hawks pulled within 6-4 at the half, but Cornell slowly built its lead back up in the second. Junior Lucas Spence led the Lehigh offense with four goals while sophomore Conor Gaffney enjoyed a strong bounce-back game, winning 16-of-23 faceoffs with nine groundballs.

RANKED WIN ON LONG ISLAND (MAR. 20)

- Lehigh trailed 3-0, but went on to post two separate 5-0 runs, including five straight goals to end the game. Hofstra scored its third straight goal to tie the score at eight with 1:17 left in the third quarter, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger answered with nine seconds remaining in the stanza and Lehigh followed by outscoring the Pride 4-0 in the fourth, on the way to the program's first-ever win over Hofstra.
- The Mountain Hawks also ended the Pride's four-game winning streak, scoring double-figure goals against Hofstra for the first time this season; the most goals Hofstra had previously allowed was nine against Ohio State. The Pride had allowed just 22 total goals over their four-game winning streak.
- Junior Andrew Pettit helped lead a Lehigh offense which scored 13 goals against the nation's No. 1 defense. Pettit finished with three goals and four assists, having a hand in more goals (seven) than the Pride were allowing all season (6.33 entering Tuesday). Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks stage an 8-2 run to turn a 3-0 deficit into an 8-5 lead.
- In total, Lehigh's starting attackmen combined for 17 points as junior Tristan Rai added three goals and two assists while classmate Lucas Spence had two goals and a career-high tying three assists.
- Senior Nolan Apers scored two goals, which came consecutively in the fourth quarter to give Lehigh a 12-8 lead. Sophomore Austin Pierce scored a man-up goal earlier in the quarter while a Spence goal rounded out the scoring in the fourth.
- Eichelberger tied a career-high two goals for a second straight game. Lehigh assisted on 10 of its 13 goals Tuesday and has assisted on 23-of-32 goals over its past two games.
- Lehigh's defense continued its strong play; after allowing three goals in the game's first 10:43, the Mountain Hawks allowed just five over the final 49:17 to lower its already strong goals against average to 8.11, still No. 6 nationally.
- Junior Craig Chick led the way with four caused turnovers to move him from 96 to 100 in his career, eclipsing Tripp Telesco's school record of 97. Chick is currently No. 16 in NCAA history in career caused turnovers, just six from tying the Patriot League career mark of 106 held by Colgate's Bobby Lawrence.
- Freshman Teddy Leggett excelled as well, recording five groundballs and two caused turnovers.
- Sophomore Conor Gaffney continued his strong play in the faceoff circle, winning 15-of-24 against Hofstra's Kyle Gallagher, who entered the day having won 61.8 percent on the year. Gaffney reached 250 career faceoff wins and 150 groundballs in the victory.

Following an exciting 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point, four members of the Lehigh men's lacrosse team have earned Patriot League weekly awards while the Mountain Hawks have jumped into the national polls for the first time since 2015. Juniors Andrew Pettit and Craig Chick were named the league's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively, sophomore Conor Gaffney was named Faceoff Specialist of the Week and freshman James Spence garnered Goalie of the Week. Also on Monday, the Mountain Hawks were ranked No. 16 in the Maverick Media Poll and 17 in the USILA Coaches Poll as Lehigh jumped into the national rankings for the first time in more than three years. Lehigh was also ranked No. 14 in this week's Nike/U.S. Lacrosse Division I Men's Top 20. The last time the Mountain Hawks were nationally-ranked, they stood No. 20 in the Feb. 23, 2015 Maverick Media Poll.

LEHIGH PICKED SIXTH, THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team has been picked sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall and sophomore Conor Gaffney were named preseason All-League, as announced on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The Mountain Hawks are coming off their seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth last season; Lehigh and Army West Point are the only two teams to advance to each of the last seven league tourneys.

Chick was named defensive specialist on the preseason All-League team after garnering first team All-Patriot League and Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America as a sophomore. Chick posted a school-record 40 caused turnovers in 2017, one year after leading the nation with 37. Bouhall also garnered preseason recognition after second team All-League honors following last season. Bouhall recorded 42 groundballs and 20 caused turnovers last year after tallying 35 groundballs and 18 caused turnovers as a freshman in 2016. Rounding out Lehigh's preseason All-League honorees was Gaffney, who finished eighth nationally in faceoff percentage as a freshman (61.0 percent, 139-of-228). Gaffney added 96 groundballs as his 8.00 groundballs per game stood fifth nationally.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced in the fall that senior Ian Strain will serve as the Mountain Hawks' 2018 captain while junior Craig Chick and seniors John Mehok and Nolan Apers were named assistant captains. Strain has plenty of experience in a leadership role after serving as co-captain with Cody Triolo and Donny Stires last season. The captains were voted on by the team. Junior Andrew Pettit was added as an assistant captain during the season, as announced on Mar. 20.

MOLNAR NAMED TO TEAM ISRAEL

In November, former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Noah Molnar '13 was named to the roster for the men's national team which is set to compete in the upcoming 2018 FIL World Championships. The championships will take place from July 12-21 in Netanya, Israel. Molnar is a two-time Patriot League Champion with the Mountain Hawks and is currently a mainstay for the Denver Outlaws of Major League Lacrosse. Israel is coming off a seventh-place finish at the 2014 championships, with nine players from that team set to return in 2018. The roster is composed of both Israeli players, as well as members of the Jewish diaspora, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL). In conjunction with the Israel Lacrosse Tzedakah Program, each player will be competing in honor of a charity of his choosing. Molnar finished his Lehigh career with 71 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (currently tied for eighth in school history).

IMPRESSIVE JUNIORS

Lehigh's current junior class has been stellar. Last year, they combined for 80 goals (58.4% of team total), 42 assists (46.7%), 145 groundballs (32.6%) and 76 caused turnovers (65.5%) last season (2017). As a team, Lehigh finished with 137 goals, 90 assists, 445 groundballs and 116 caused turnovers. Seven started much of last season (Eddie Bouhall, Craig Chick and Matt Rimol on defense, Lucas Spence in the midfield and Andrew Pettit and Tristan Rai at attack, and Chris Kiernan in goal). Mickey Fitzpatrick also started three games in the midfield.

So far this year, the class has combined for 101 goals (out of 144, 70.1% of team total) and 63 assists (out of 90, 70.0%). Defensively, the junior class has tallied 169 groundballs (out of 427, 39.6%) and 66 caused turnovers (out of 108, 61.1%).

PROLIFIC PETTIT

Junior Andrew Pettit was one of the Patriot League's, and nation's, top goal scorers last season. He finished the year with 35 goals in 14 games. His goal total was second in the league while his 2.5 goals per contest was No. 1 in the Patriot League and No. 17 nationally. Pettit began last season with multiple goals in his first nine games of the season before he was held goal-less at Loyola on Apr. 8. Pettit was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point as his streak reached 10 dating back to 2016.

So far this season, Pettit has 52 points (33 goals, 19 assists) through 13 games. Pettit is currently 30th in the nation in goals per game (2.54) (as of Tuesday, Apr. 17). He has led the Mountain Hawks in goals (or tied for the lead) seven times in 13 games, and has six hat tricks so far in 2018. One highlight was a career-high tying five-goal effort at Army West Point, which included a natural hat trick (three straight goals) in the fourth quarter to turn a one-goal deficit into a two-goal lead. He also had seven points (three goals, four assists) in a 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), contributing to more goals himself (7) than Hofstra (the nation's No. 1 scoring defense) were allowing entering the day (6.33). He was added to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List on Mar. 22.

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 24 of his last 28 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 25-career multi-goal games, 28-career multi-point games and 13-career hat tricks.

NOONE WINS MLL CHAMPIONSHIP WITH MACHINE

One year after falling to former Lehigh teammate Noah Molnar and his Denver Outlaws in the MLL Finals, Mike Noone got revenge as his Ohio Machine captured the 2017 title with a 17-12 win over Molnar's Outlaws. Noone played in 10 games during the regular season, posting 10 groundballs and a caused turnover. Molnar finished the 2017 regular season with four goals, two assists, 19 groundballs and seven caused turnovers. Noone had a groundball and caused turnover in the championship game held Saturday, Aug. 19 at Ford Center at the Star in Frisco, Texas, while Molnar collected a groundball.

EXTRA-MAN PROFICIENCY

The Mountain Hawks have converted an impressive 67.6 percent of their man-up opportunities this season (23-of-34). That percentage is good for first in the nation, ahead of Maryland's 62.5 percentage. Both Lehigh would be No. 2 in NCAA history if the season ended today. Detroit holds the all-time record, converting at a 70.8 percent clip in 2014. Second place entering the year was Marist at 60.7 percent in 2016.

CHAOTIC CHICK

Junior Craig Chick has emerged as a premier defensive player in the country as he is first in caused turnovers since the beginning of 2016 (111) (as of Tuesday, Apr. 17). He is already 10th in NCAA history in career caused turnovers.

Chick finished his freshman season as the national leader in caused turnovers with 37. His big breakout came on Apr. 12 at Princeton when he posted 10 groundballs and eight caused turnovers. The eight caused turnovers were the most by a Lehigh player since Evan Guerrero had nine against Saint Joseph's on Feb. 14, 2009. Chick tied for the most caused turnovers in the nation in 2016 (Division I) and tied Princeton's Sherrerd Field record, originally set by Villanova's Brian Karalunas. Chick followed with seven groundballs and seven caused turnovers just four days later against Cornell. Chick finished the season with 41 groundballs and 25 caused turnovers over his last eight games. As a sophomore, Chick posted 58 groundballs and school-record 40 caused turnovers (third in the nation). On five different occasions, Chick tallied four or more caused turnovers and had a stretch of 10 straight games with multiple caused turnovers.

So far in 2018, Chick has 34 caused turnovers, currently second in the nation. Here are some game-by-game highlights.

- Posted four groundballs and two caused turnovers against No. 9/11 Cornell (4/14), moving into the top 10 in NCAA history in career caused turnovers with No. 111.
- Tallied two groundballs and a caused turnover vs. No. 11/12 Loyola (4/7) while scoring Lehigh's first goal of the game.
- At Boston University (3/31), recorded four caused turnovers for a third consecutive game. In the process, he became the Patriot League all-time career leader for caused turnovers, eclipsing the previous record of 106 held by Colgate's Bobby Lawrence.
- Against Navy (Mar. 24), posted four caused turnovers for a second straight game while adding four groundballs.
- Recorded four groundballs at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), passing Tripp Telesco for the Lehigh career record and also reaching 100 career caused turnovers in the process. He became just the 16th player in NCAA history to reach that milestone.
- Had a groundball and two caused turnovers at Lafayette (Mar. 17).
- Tallied a groundball and caused turnover against No. 16/18 Rutgers (Mar. 14).
- Collected seven groundballs and three caused turnovers to lead Lehigh to a big 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10). Chick was rewarded with Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career.
- Finished with three groundballs and three caused turnovers, helping the Mountain Hawks hold Colgate (Mar. 3) to fewer shots on goal (13) than it was averaging goals (15.75) entering the game. The Raiders entered as the No. 3 scoring offense in the nation.
- Posted five groundballs and three caused turnovers in dominant win over Holy Cross (Feb. 24). Also scored first goal of the season.
- Recorded a groundball and caused turnover at No. 13/14 UNC (Feb. 17).
- Tallied two groundballs and four caused turnovers at Mercer (Feb. 10) to earn honorable mention recognition on the Patriot League weekly honor roll.

DEFENSE IS KEY

• Lehigh owned the nation's second-ranked defense in 2012 (6.61 goals per game) and followed by finishing sixth in 2013 (7.94) and second in 2014 (7.22). In 2015, the Mountain Hawks allowed 10.06 goals per game while they allowed 10.87 per contest in 2016. Last season (2017), Lehigh allowed 10.00 goals per game. So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are allowing 9.00 goals per game, 19th in the nation.

Cornell had been averaging 18.6 goals over its previous five games entering the day. Lehigh held the Big Red to just six goals over the game's final 42:44. Lehigh held Cornell to by far its lowest shot total of the season (23). The Big Red's previous lowest was 30

• Lehigh's defense allowed just six goals at Boston University (Mar. 31), exactly five goals below the Terriers' season average. The six goals were a season low; the Terriers hadn't scored fewer than eight in a game all season. It also came just 11 days after Boston University scored 18 goals at Harvard

• The Mountain Hawks held No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20) to just eight goals, including only five over the game's final 49:17, allowing Lehigh to turn an early 3-0 deficit into a 13-8 win.

• Lehigh held No. 16/18 Rutgers to eight goals (Mar. 14), just the second time the Scarlet Knights were held to single digits and just one more goal than their previous season low of seven at Army. The Mountain Hawks allowed just 25 shots and 15 shots on goal, well below Rutgers' averages of 34.8 and 22.3 entering the game.

• The Mountain Hawks held No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10) to a season-low seven goals, two fewer goals than its previous season low of nine vs. Rutgers. Lehigh held Army almost six goals fewer than its average entering the game (12.80).

• Lehigh held Colgate (Mar. 3) to just 19 shots for the game, only 13 on goal - 2.75 fewer shots on goal than the Raiders were averaging goals through four games. The 19 shots were 22 fewer shots than Colgate's average of 41.0 entering the game. The Mountain Hawks held Raiders' leading scorer Mike Hawkins to just two points (two goals). Hawkins had been averaging 4.75 points per game (19 in his first four games). Lehigh held Colgate scoreless for the game's final 19:48, allowing the Mountain Hawks to end the game on a 4-0 run to turn a 7-6 deficit into a 10-7 victory.

• Lehigh dominated against Holy Cross (Feb. 24), shutting out a team in the first quarter for the first time since Mar. 5, 2017 at Colgate. The Mountain Hawks allowed their fewest goals (4) since the 2016 season opener vs. NJIT and fewest in a Patriot League game since Mar. 29, 2014. Only three goals came in half-field offense; one came in transition off a faceoff win.

• The Mountain Hawks fell down 6-3 early at Mercer (Feb. 10), but responded to allow just two goals over the game's final 46:15. After allowing 11 first-quarter shots, Lehigh allowed just 18 over the final three quarters.

KEVIN CASSESE

Smith Family Head Coach
11th Season as Lehigh Head Coach

Kevin Cassese enters his 11th season as Lehigh's head men's lacrosse coach in 2018. Cassese's impact has been immediate, leading the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014. Cassese has led to Lehigh to seven straight Patriot League Tournaments.

The Mountain Hawks finished last season with a 7-7 record and 4-4 mark in league play. Lehigh's season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program's seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth. Three Mountain Hawks earned All-League, including Craig Chick, who was named to the first team and garnered honorable mention All-America recognition by Inside Lacrosse. Chick broke a school record with 40 caused turnovers, one year after leading the nation in that category.

The program's breakthrough came in 2012 when Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program's first NCAA Tournament. The Mountain Hawks followed that with a 12-5 campaign in 2013, winning both the regular season and tournament titles. Despite losing a large and talented senior class, Lehigh still went 13-5 in 2014 and advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game once again.

In 2012, Cassese led the Mountain Hawks to a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and their highest-ever national ranking; Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-of-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex (and in front of a national audience on ESPNU).

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks' defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. Cassese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while freshman Matt Poillon became Lehigh's first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games to finish undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco who finished with 44 groundballs and 36 caused turnovers. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook) and advancing to their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament. Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. A young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program's sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University.

Setting the stage for the program's breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program's first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation's eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com's computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Cassese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Cassese's watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Seven have been selected in the Major League

Lacrosse Collegiate Draft since 2013 while multiple others have been picked in the player pool. Roman Lao-Gosney (Florida) has played in more than 50 career games since joining the league in 2012 while twin brother Cameron (Florida), Mike Noone (Ohio) and Noah Molnar (Denver) are all veterans of the league with Molnar winning an MLL Championship in 2016 and Noone in 2017. In addition, Taylor was the first selection of defending National Lacrosse League Champion Saskatchewan Rush in the 2015 NLL Collegiate Draft. He was picked 12th overall and went on to win a championship with the Rush in 2016.

Cassese's players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as defenseman Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012.

On a personal level, Cassese made his coaching debut for US Lacrosse at the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, serving as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men's National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation's top midfielder. He was also a standout in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments are a pair of MLL Rookie of the Week honors and a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games. He was named MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the 2007 Major League Lacrosse Championship, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese's coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke's interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant where he directed the nation's top extra man offense and helped the Seawolves to a 10-6 record in the spring of 2005.

A native of Port Jefferson Station, New York and graduate of Comsewogue High School, Cassese and his wife, Katie Granson Cassese who attended nearby Freedom High School, were married in Bethlehem in December of 2006. They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

ERROL WILSON

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Lehigh

Errol Wilson is in his seventh season as a Lehigh assistant coach, and fourth as associate head coach in 2017.

The former Stony Brook goalie has held several roles with the Mountain Hawks. After his first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Wilson has served as offensive coordinator since 2016, a role he held at Brown University. Over his tenure at Lehigh, has also served as associate offensive coordinator, goalie coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator.

In his first season on staff, Wilson helped lead the Mountain Hawks to new heights, including a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and its highest-ever national ranking (No. 4) along with its first Patriot League Tournament Title and NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked Wilson's second NCAA Tournament appearance as assistant coach after leading Brown to the 2009 tournament where it dropped an overtime heartbreaker at Johns Hopkins.

Wilson worked with All-American goalie Matt Poillon, who finished second nationally with a 6.75 GAA and fourth with a 59.7 save percentage, becoming Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Poillon earned four Patriot League Goalie of the Week honors while garnering Rookie of the Week twice. In addition, each one of Lehigh's close defensemen was named All-Patriot League: Ty Souders (First), Mike Noone (second) and Lukas Mikelinich (second).

The Mountain Hawks owned the nation's No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. The squad extended its shutout streak to an incredible 90:14 before the Quakers scored with 5:04 remaining in the second quarter. The streak spanned from the fourth quarter against Villanova, through the entire Manhattan contest and the first 24:56 at Penn.

The Mountain Hawks followed in 2013 by finishing sixth nationally in scoring defense (7.94 goals per game) with Poillon earning Goalie of the Year honors for a second straight season. Noone and Souders also garnered All-League honors for the second year in a row while both garnering honorable mention All-America recognition. Lehigh held Saint Joseph's to only one goal, VMI to only two, Holy Cross, Lafayette and Bucknell to five and Army, UMass and Penn to just six goals apiece. One of the most dominant performances came in the Patriot League Championship game as the Mountain Hawks won 11-5 for their second straight league title and NCAA Tournament berth.

Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader. Over the three-year timeframe from 2012-14, Lehigh owned the nation's lowest goals against average. Wilson also worked with an offense that came into its own as the season progressed. Dan Taylor finished the season with 76 points, leading the team and Patriot League in scoring which also stood seventh in the nation. He was named an All-American after the season, as was Poillon and defenseman Tripp Telesco.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh went onto its sixth straight league tournament appearance in 2016, highlighted by an exciting 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University. In Wilson's first season as offensive coordinator in 2016, senior attackman Reid Weber was named first team All-Patriot League while freshman Tristan Rai jumped onto the national scene with a vengeance; scoring 31 goals on just 58 shots; his .534 shooting percentage was good for second in the nation. The Mountain Hawks followed in 2017 by reaching their seventh straight league tournament, highlighted by consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked opponents – defeating No. 16/18 Boston University 10-6 and No. 13/14 Princeton 15-10. The 15 goals tied for a season high, also set against NIJT and Lafayette. Rai continued his strong play with 46 points (22 goals, team-high 24 assists) while classmate Andrew Pettit emerged as well, tallying 46 himself behind a team-high 35 goals. Pettit began the season with nine straight multi-goal games. His first game without multiple goals came Apr. 8 at Loyola as he was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point.

At Rutgers, Wilson helped the Scarlet Knights win five of their first six games in 2011 and coached a defense which allowed only 8.27 goals per game.

Prior to Rutgers, Wilson served as assistant coach at Brown for four seasons (2007-10). While there, he was both offensive coordinator and goalie coach, helping the Bears reach new heights by winning an Ivy League Championship in 2008, then earning an NCAA Tournament berth in '09. Wilson worked with and mentored one of the nation's top goalies in Jordan Burke. The 2009 USILA Goalie of the Year, Burke was twice named the Ivy League Player of the Year and New England Player of the Year, while earning First Team All-America honors as well.

Wilson was a four-year letterwinner at Stony Brook where he was teammates with goalie and former Lehigh assistant and current Dartmouth head coach Brendan Callahan. Wilson resides in Bethlehem with his wife Pat and sons Roman and Solomon.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Will Scudder '11 enters his fifth season on the coaching staff in 2018 and third as defensive coordinator. Scudder replaced Tom Compitello who accepted a position at Sacred Heart, then was promoted prior to the 2015 season. Scudder was promoted to associate defensive coordinator, faceoff coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator after Brendan Callahan was named head coach at Dartmouth. He was then named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season when Errol Wilson was named offensive coordinator. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks' defense had plenty of highlight moments. Individually, freshman long-stick midfielder Craig Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks' berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation's No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Eddie Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

As a player, Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks' program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

CASEY EIDENSHINK

Assistant Coach
First Season at Lehigh

Former Mountain Hawks' standout Casey Eidenshink begins his first season at Lehigh as assistant coach in 2018. Both a close defenseman and long-stick midfielder as a player, the 2016 graduate was an All-Patriot League and Academic All-League honoree at Lehigh, finishing his collegiate career with a GPA over 3.3.

Eidenshink played in 55 games over his career, with 30 starts, tallying 115 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (tied for eighth in school history). He played in seven games during Lehigh's 2013 Patriot League Championship campaign. Eidenshink then played in all 18 games as a sophomore, recording 29 groundballs and 16 caused turnovers to help the Mountain Hawks back to the league title game. He had a career-high 50 groundballs and 23 caused turnovers as a junior, along with 32 groundballs and nine caused turnovers as a senior.

As a senior, Eidenshink was named a candidate for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award, played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game and was a USILA Scholar-All-American. He was selected by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2016 Major League Lacrosse Supplemental Draft.

Following his playing days, Eidenshink has worked for Lincoln Investment Planning as a Junior Research Analyst. He worked under two Portfolio/Wealth Managers, assisting with Mutual Fund and ETF research for their portfolios, which are globally diversified and set up to help clients save and prepare for their retirements.

Eidenshink has taught the game of lacrosse as part of the HeadStrong Lacrosse Club. He graduated Lehigh in May of 2016 with a Bachelor of Science in Finance.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y.
NO. 12/14 LEHIGH 13, NO. 18/19 HOFSTRA 8

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. - After trailing 3-0 early, the Lehigh men's lacrosse team staged a 7-1 run to take a 7-4 lead, later breaking an 8-8 tie with five unanswered goals to lead the No. 12/14 Mountain Hawks a big 13-8 road win at No. 18/19 Hofstra on Tuesday evening. The win marks Lehigh's first in program history over the Pride as the Mountain Hawks improve to 7-2 on the season, picking up their third straight road victory overall, two coming against ranked opponents. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with seven points (three goals, four assists) to tie a career high. Classmate Craig Chick tallied four caused turnovers to become the Lehigh all-time career record holder and reach exactly 100 caused turnovers in his career.

Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks score the most goals this season against the nation's No. 1 ranked scoring defense. The Pride were allowing just 6.33 goals per game. Prior to Lehigh's 13 goals, the most goals Hofstra had allowed all season was nine to Ohio State. Hofstra entered the game on a four-game winning streak in which it allowed just 22 total goals in that span.

Each of Lehigh's starting attackmen tallied five points or more. Along with Pettit, junior Tristan Rai recorded his second consecutive hat trick with three goals and two assists while Lucas Spence had two goals and three assists. Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger and senior Nolan Apers each scored twice.

Chick's four caused turnovers gave him exactly 100 for his career, passing Tripp Telesco's previous school record of 97. Freshman Teddy Leggett added five groundballs and two caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 15-of-24 faceoffs, facing Hofstra's Kyle Gallagher, who had won 62 percent entering the day.

The Pride jumped out to the quick 3-0 lead and it took time for Lehigh's offense to settle in, but the Mountain Hawks scored two goals in the final 34 seconds of the first quarter to help spark the offense - Pettit on the extra man and Rai even strength. Hofstra responded to take a 4-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks had another answer. Pettit scored at 6:37 of the second quarter to pull Lehigh within 4-3, then Pettit found Rai for goals at 2:17 and 0:19 to give the Mountain Hawks a 5-4 halftime advantage.

Eichelberger and Spence began the third quarter with goals to give Lehigh a 7-4 lead. Later in the stanza, the Pride scored three in a row to even the score at eight, but Eichelberger netted his second with nine seconds left in the third quarter to give Lehigh a 9-8 lead.

The Mountain Hawks carried the momentum into the fourth quarter as an Austin Pierce man-up goal gave Lehigh a 10-8 lead. Apers added consecutive goals and Spence rounded out the scoring. Freshman goalkeeper James Spence made two fourth-quarter saves as the Mountain Hawks shut-out Hofstra for the game's final 16:17.

Final shots were 31-24 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 31-20 edge in groundballs. Spence finished with six saves in goal.

GAME 10 • MAR. 24, 2018
BETHLEHEM, PA.
NAVY 10, NO. 12/14 LEHIGH 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The No. 12/14 Lehigh men's lacrosse team held the advantage in practically every statistical category, but Navy goaltender Ryan Kern made a career-high 18 saves to shut the door on every Mountain Hawks' comeback attempt as Lehigh dropped a 10-7 final on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,178 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. Two consecutive man-up goals from junior Andrew Pettit pulled Lehigh even at four at the half, but Navy began the second half on a 3-0 run and would never trail. The loss marks Lehigh's first Patriot League defeat of the season as the Mountain Hawks fall to 7-3 overall, 4-1 in league play.

Lehigh's starting attackmen each recorded three points as Pettit and junior Lucas Spence had two goals and an assist while classmate Tristan Rai recorded a goal and two assists. Senior Ian Strain finished with a goal and assist.

Defensively, junior Eddie Bouhall had six groundballs and four caused turnovers to eclipse 50 caused turnovers in his career, while Craig Chick scored his second goal of the season and added four groundballs and four caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney was stellar facing off, winning 13-of-21 on the day against Navy's Joe Varello, who entered the day winning 63.2 percent of his draws on the day.

Navy jumped out to a 2-0 lead just 5:03 into the game before Strain scored his first of the season at the 6:52 mark. The teams traded goals until late in the second quarter when Pettit and the Mountain Hawks scored twice on a nonreleasable Navy penalty, at the 2:50 and 2:04 marks, to pull Lehigh even at 4-4 at the half.

The Midshipmen began the third quarter on a 3-0 run before Chick and Spence scored in the span of 1:08. Lehigh attempted to pull even in the final minute, but Bouhall's shot was saved by Kern, leading to a transition goal on the other end as Navy took an 8-6 lead into the fourth.

That advantage swelled to 10-6 with 3:59 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rai scored just 13 seconds later and Lehigh won the ensuing faceoff looking to pull even closer, but Kern made his 17th stop of the afternoon on sophomore Andrew Eichelberger, all but ending the Mountain Hawks' hopes of a comeback.

Final shots were 38-26 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 39-27 edge in groundballs. Lehigh caused 14 of Navy's 19 turnovers while the Mountain Hawks turned the ball over just 11 times themselves. Lehigh was 2-of-2 on the extra man and improved to 62.1 percent on the year. If the season ended today, that mark would be second in NCAA history for a single season.

GAME 11 • MAR. 31, 2018
BOSTON, MASS.
NO. 17/19 LEHIGH 7, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 6

BOSTON - Trailing 6-4 with 3:57 remaining in the third quarter, No. 17/19 Lehigh didn't allow a goal for the game's final 18:57 while ending the game with three unanswered goals to pick up a dramatic 7-6 win at Boston University on Saturday. The Lehigh defense shut-out the Terriers for the fourth quarter despite playing defense for the majority of the stanza. It set the stage for junior Mickey Fitpzatrick as the Duxbury, Massachusetts native collected a groundball off a save and fired home the game-winner with just 38 seconds remaining. In doing so, the Mountain Hawks clinched their eighth consecutive Patriot League Tournament berth.

With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 8-3 on the season, including 5-1 in Patriot League play as they remain in a three-way tie for first place in the league standings.

Junior Craig Chick led the defense with two groundballs and four caused turnovers to break the Patriot League career caused turnover record, ending the game with 108 in his career. The record came in Chick's 40th career game, passing Colgate's Bobby Lawrence, who recorded 106 caused turnovers in 65 contests.

Boston University scored three goals in the first 4:59 of the third quarter to quickly turn a 4-2 Mountain Hawks' lead into a 5-4 Terriers' advantage. The lead reached 6-4 later in the stanza, forcing Lehigh head coach Kevin Cassese to call timeout.

Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger led Lehigh's offense with two goals while juniors Andrew Pettit, Lucas Spence, Alexander Tumminello and Fitzpatrick all had a goal and assist. Freshman Teddy Leggett added five groundballs and a caused turnover.

Tumminello opened the scoring with an extra-man goal late in the first quarter. Lehigh has now recorded a man-up goal in six straight games, converting 11-of-14 extra-man opportunities in that span to increase its season percentage to 63.3 (19-of-30).

The Terriers responded with two goals in the first 2:13 of the second quarter to take a 2-1 advantage, but the Mountain Hawks answered with the final three goals of the half, from junior Tristan Rai, Pettit and Eichelberger, to take a 4-2 halftime lead.

After Boston University's third-quarter surge to retake the lead, Spence pulled Lehigh within 6-5 at 1:52 of the third and Eichelberger scored his second just 1:27 into the fourth, knotting the game at six. Boston University controlled possession over the ensuing minutes, but the Mountain Hawks' defense limited the Terriers' opportunities and when they had chances, freshman James Spence came up big between the pipes. After Fitzpatrick's go-ahead goal, the Mountain Hawks won the ensuing faceoff and wouldn't give up possession as they wrapped up the hard-fought victory.

Lehigh finished with a 30-29 edge in shots while the Mountain Hawks held a 29-23 advantage in groundballs. Sophomore faceoff specialist Conor Gaffney bounced back from going 0-for-6 in the third quarter to win all three taken in the fourth. Spence was stellar in goal, making a career-high 13 saves.

BETHLEHEM, PA.
NO. 11/12 LOYOLA 16, NO. 15/17 LEHIGH 10

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – No. 11/12 Loyola jumped out to a 7-0 second-quarter lead, which proved too much for the No. 15/17 Lehigh men's lacrosse team to overcome in a 16-10 defeat on Saturday at the Ulrich Sports Complex. The Mountain Hawks scored seven of the game's final nine goals, holding a 6-2 fourth-quarter edge, but it wasn't enough. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with his 13th-career hat trick while sophomore Austin Pierce scored two goals in the span of 16 seconds in the fourth and senior Brady Thompson netted his first-career goal.

Along with Pettit and Pierce, juniors Tristan Rai, Lucas Spence and Mickey Fitzpatrick all tallied a goal and assist while senior Ian Strain dished two assists. In the end, the Mountain Hawks won just 6-of-21 faceoffs through the first three quarters and couldn't get into any rhythm.

Spencer finished the day with seven points (four goals, three assists) and had a hat trick by the end of the first quarter.

The Greyhounds opened a 7-0 lead before Craig Chick fired home a shot with 3:38 remaining in the second quarter. Loyola extended its lead to 10-1 just minutes into the third quarter. Pettit scored two straight goals, but the Greyhounds erased any doubt by scoring four times in the span of 3:03 to take a 14-3 advantage late in the third.

Fitzpatrick converted on the extra man late in the third, then Lehigh went on to outscore the Greyhounds 6-2 in the fourth. That quarter included Pettit's third goal, two goals from Pierce at the 2:48 and 2:32 marks, then the first-career from Thompson to pull Lehigh within 16-10 at the final horn.

The Mountain Hawks outshot Loyola 14-6 in the fourth to lead 33-32 for the game. The Greyhounds held a 33-30 edge in groundballs. Loyola won 18-of-30 faceoffs. One bright spot for Lehigh was freshman Joel Trucksess, who won 6-of-9. The Mountain Hawks converted their only extra-man opportunity and have now converted 12 of their last 15.

Despite the loss, Lehigh did clinch at least a top-four seed in the Patriot League Tournament due to out-of-town scores. If it finishes as the No. 3 or 4 seed, Lehigh will be home for a Patriot League Quarterfinal game for the first time since 2014. The Mountain Hawks are still mathematically alive to earn a top-two seed and bye into the Patriot League Semifinals.

GAME 13 • APR. 14, 2018
BETHLEHEM, Pa.
NO. 9/11 CORNELL 12, NO. 17/18 LEHIGH 10

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – No. 9/11 Cornell used a 4-0 first-half run to turn a 2-2 tie into a 6-2 lead as the Big Red topped the No. 17/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team, 12-10 on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,231 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. The Mountain Hawks pulled within 6-4 at the half, but Cornell slowly built its lead back up in the second. Junior Lucas Spence led the Lehigh offense with four goals while sophomore Conor Gaffney enjoyed a strong bounce-back game, winning 16-of-23 faceoffs with nine groundballs.

Saturday was Senior Day as the Mountain Hawks recognized their five seniors - Nolan Apers, JJ Foley, John Mehok, Ian Strain and Brady Thompson - prior to opening faceoff. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 8-5 on the season with one regular-season game remaining, at Bucknell next Friday night. Currently standing 5-2 in league play, the Mountain Hawks will be the No. 3 seed with a win against the Bison and the No. 4 seed with a loss. Either way, Lehigh is guaranteed to host a Patriot League Quarterfinal game on Tuesday, Apr. 24.

In the end, Lehigh's defense held the nation's No. 1 offense more than three goals below its season average. The Mountain Hawks held the Big Red to their fewest goals in six games, since they scored 11 on Mar. 17 vs. Yale. Cornell had been averaging 18.6 goals over its last five games entering the day. Lehigh held the Big Red to just six goals over the game's final 42:44.

Along with Spence's four goals, junior Tristan Rai tallied two goals and an assist while classmate Andrew Pettit had two goals and four groundballs. Defensively, junior Craig Chick recorded four groundballs and two caused turnovers to reach 111 in his career. He moved into sole possession of 10th place in NCAA history in that category. With his four groundballs, Chick eclipsed 150 GBs in his career.

Three others also tallied two caused turnovers apiece – junior Eddie Bouhall, freshman Teddy Leggett and Strain. Strain added a goal and six groundballs on his Senior Day. Leggett recorded four groundballs to eclipse 50 on the season.

The Mountain Hawks' extra man continued to impress, finishing 3-of-3 on the day. Lehigh has now converted seven straight man-up opportunities and 15 of its last 18 to improve to a nation's leading 67.6 percent on the season (23-of-34).

Spence began the scoring just over a minute into the game on the extra man. Later in the quarter, a tremendous individual effort by Pettit evened the score at two. The Big Red reeled off the next four goals, but a man-up tally from Pettit, followed by an even-strength goal from Rai on a delayed penalty, pulled Lehigh within 6-4 at the half.

Cornell scored the first two second-half goals and five of the first seven to open an 11-6 lead early in the fourth. Lehigh didn't back down as junior Austin Pierce scored on the man advantage at 12:20 and Rai finished a pass from sophomore Crew Cintron at 7:30 to pull within 11-8. The Big Red took a 12-8 lead at the 4:44 mark, but Spence scored his third goal with 3:45 remaining and fourth with 36 seconds on the clock. Freshman Joel Trucksess won the ensuing faceoff, but his shot was wide as the 12-10 score proved to be the final.

Lehigh finished with a 32-23 edge in shots and 39-30 advantage in groundballs. Freshman James Spence made three saves in the first 37:30 before being relieved by sophomore Colin Kirst who made two stops. Caelahn Bullen had 10 saves for Cornell.
