WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 18: COLGATE

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (10-7, 4-2 Patriot)
 AT
COLGATE RAIDERS (4-13, 0-6 Patriot)
HAMILTON, N.Y. • JANUARY 17, 2018 • 7 P.M.
COTTERELL COURT (1,750)

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh women's basketball team will hit the road once again this Wednesday night to take on Colgate. The Mountain Hawks are in third place in the Patriot League standings after a 4-2 start to league play, with both of their losses coming on the road. Lehigh is looking to rebound after an 82-64 defeat at first place American on Sunday.

Colgate is looking for its first win in league play following a 0-6 start. Lehigh is 8-1 at home this season, but has struggled to find consistency on the road where they have lost four straight. Wednesday will take them back to upstate New York where they picked up their last road win at Cornell on Nov. 20.

Colgate hung tough with Bucknell in their last game before falling 84-64 after this Bison closed the game on a 31-11 run. Lehigh surrendered over 70 points for just the third time all season in their loss at American. Lehigh shot 35 percent in the game and over 38 percent from beyond the arc, but American shot 50 percent from the floor and a season-high 63.2 percent from downtown with three players scoring at least 20 points to improve to 6-0 in the league. LU Sophomore Camryn Buhr picked up her fourth double-double of the season with 20 points and 11 rebounds.

Lehigh will return home this Saturday to host Alumnae Day at Stabler Arena at 2 p.m. Prior to the game, Lehigh will hold a pregame ceremony to welcome back members of its first Patriot League championship team from 1997.

IF LEHIGH BEATS COLGATE

- ❖ Lehigh would end its four game road losing streak.
- ❖ Lehigh would surpass its win total from last season (overall and on the road).

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 356-315 into Wednesday's game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record. She has led LU to three Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths during her tenure. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. COLGATE

Wednesday's matchup will be the 65th all-time between Lehigh and Colgate. Over the last 10 matchups dating back to the start of the 2012-13 season, the Mountain Hawks hold a 7-4 record, including a 2-3 record on the road and 5-1 mark at Stabler Arena. Lehigh leads the all-time series 38-26. Colgate has won three of the last five meetings overall and three of the last four in Hamilton.

The two teams have split the regular season series each of the last four years, and Colgate has not won the season series (including PLT matchups) since taking two of three in the 2004-05 season. The home team has won each game over the last two seasons. Last year in Hamilton, Lehigh rallied from down 20 to take a three-point lead late in the third quarter before Colgate outscored Lehigh 18-15 in the fourth. Quinci Mann led Lehigh with 23 points with five three-pointers and Mae Williams scored a then career-high 10 points on 4-of-7 shooting. Colgate's Kateri Stone netted 29 points on 8-of-12 from the field and 6-of-7 from beyond the arc.

On Mar. 1 at Stabler Arena, Lehigh shot a season-high 53.6 percent and used 19 points from Mann and 17 from Gena Grundhoffer to pull away in the second half for an 83-74 win in the regular season finale.

SCOUTING THE RAIDERS

Colgate enters Wednesday as the only remaining team without a win in Patriot League play (4-13, 0-6 PL). The Raiders have dropped nine straight dating back to an 84-64 home win against UMass Lowell on Dec. 2.

Thus far in league play, Colgate has allowed an average of 70 points per game and a -15.5 scoring margin, along with nine assists and 3.8 steals per game, all last in the league. However, they do rank third in league play by holding opponents to just 28.8 percent shooting from three-point range. Colgate (-2.0) ranks one spot higher than Lehigh (-3.5) in PL rebounding margin, with the teams ranking seventh and eighth, respectively. The Raiders also rank third in the league in blocked shots, with 3.5 per game, compared to the Mountain Hawks who come in last at 2.3.

Overall this season, junior Summer King ranks fourth in the PL with a .481 field goal percentage. She is also fifth overall with 1.1 blocks per game. King leads the Raiders with 9.3 points and 6.4 rebounds per game. Kateri Stone is next among active players with 6.8 ppg and Nia Ahart averages six points per contest and is shooting 40 percent from the field, including a team-best 38.7 percent from three-point land. Abby Schubiger (4.3 ppg) is coming off a career-best 14 points against Bucknell.

In their last game, the Raiders were tied at 46 with Bucknell late in the third quarter before the Bison ran off a 31-11 run to close the game and win 77-57. Colgate, who owns a league-low -9.0 turnover margin and averages over 20 turnovers per league game, only turned the ball over six times in the game, including just once in the first half.

Colgate will be without the services of sophomore Rachel Thomsson, who went down with a season ending injury against Holy Cross on Dec. 29. Last year as a freshman, she ranked third on the team with 10.2 points. She was the team's second leading scorer (8.9 ppg) and rebounder (5.3 rpg) this season.

COLGATE HEAD COACH BILL CLEARLY

Following an eight-year tenure at Bloomsburg University, Bill Cleary in the midst of his second season at Colgate. Previously in four years at Bloomsburg, the Huskies won an NCAA record 102 games and made four straight NCAA Division II Tournament appearances from 2012-2015. The team won a Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference championship and five straight PSAC East Division titles.

Cleary was named the PSAC East Coach of the Year three times and was named the 2015 WBCA Atlantic Region Coach of the Year. He also coached four of his players to reach 1,000 career points. Prior to Bloomsburg, Cleary spent five years at fellow DII foe Wilmington. After winning just two games for the sixth straight year in his first season on the job, Cleary turned Wilmington around to a 22-9 program by his fifth year and led the team to a Div. II ECAC title.

Cleary graduated with a degree in political science from Villanova in 1998.

ROUGH ROAD

Lehigh is in the midst of a stretch where they are playing six of seven games on the road. Lehigh is off to an 8-1 start at home this season, their best home start since going undefeated at home in 2009-10, but are 2-5 on the road this season and have dropped four straight away from home. Lehigh was 2-12 on the road last season.

BIG GAMES AT 'GATE

Quinci Mann has scored at least 19 points in three of her last four games vs. Colgate, averaging 19 points in those four games. For her career against Colgate, she is averaging 15.2 PPG.

Also, last season Mae Williams netted a then career-high 10 points at Colgate on Feb. 22.

SIZZLING FROM THE FIELD

Since the start of league play, the Mountain Hawks rank in the top four in every major offensive category, including a league leading three-point percentage of .447. That number is more than five percent higher than the next closest team (American) who sits at 39.6 percent. Lehigh also tops the league with 8.5 made 3FGs per league game, nearly two above second place American.

In their four league home games, Lehigh has shot 45.4 percent from the floor and an even 50 percent (40-for-80) from three-point range. Lehigh has averaged 10 made three-pointers in home league games, while surrendering just 3.5.

STEPPING UP IN THE SECOND HALF

After being held to just two points on 1-of-5 shooting in the first half against Bucknell, Quinci Mann scored 25 points in the second half, going 7-for-11 to finish with a career-high 27 points and lead the team to a comeback win. Her previous career-high of 26 was set last February vs. Loyola.

As a team, Lehigh shot 65.2 percent in the second half, including a 5-for-5 clip from three-point range.

ONE-TWO PUNCH

Camryn Buhr (1st) and Quinci Mann (4th) rank among the top three-point shooters during league play, and were first and second, respectively, entering this week. Buhr is shooting 70 percent (7-for-10) and Mann shooting 57.6 percent (19-for-33).

BLOWN OFF THE BOARDS

In non-league play, Lehigh was outrebounded only once in 11 games, but has been outrebounded in four of their first six league games, including by a 43-25 margin against Bucknell. During non-league play, Lehigh held a +3.9 rebounding margin, but currently ranks eighth in league play at -3.5. Overall, this season the Mountain Hawks are fourth in rebounding margin at +1.3.

BUHR'S BIG GAMES

Sophomore Camryn Buhr picked up her fourth double-double of the season on Sunday at

American, and her third in league play. Overall, she leads the team with 7.1 rebounds and ranks second with 13.1 ppg. In league play, she ranks fifth in rebounds (8.0) and assists (3.3), and leads the league by shooting 70 percent from downtown and with 37.6 minutes per game.

A HED ABOVE THE REST

Sophomore Hannah Hedstrom has emerged as one of Lehigh's top rebounding threats, in addition to being among the league leaders in assists. During league games, she ranks second on the team with 6.5 rebounds per game, and is collecting 5.7 per contest overall.

Hedstrom also ranks fifth overall with 3.4 assists per game, but sits 10th during league play with 2.5 apg.

She has collected at least three steals in four games this season and leads the team with 1.4 steals per game this year.

TOP WOMANN

During league play, Quinci Mann ranks second in the Patriot League with 17.2 points per game, is first with 3.2 three-pointers per game, and is a perfect 18-for-18 from the free throw line to lead the league. She is fourth in the league with a 57.6 3FG% and ranks eighth in minutes played (31.8). She also holds a field goal percentage of .446. She is the only player averaging over three triples per contest.

Her recent dominating stretch at the free throw line has moved her into second place overall in the PL at 81.8 percent.

Mann has knocked down at least four three-pointers in four games this season and has had two games with at least five triples. It is the most 4+ three-point games she has had in one season.

MANN'S MOVING UP THE MILESTONE LADDER

In Lehigh's game at American, Quinci Mann passed Danielle Baldwin '00 and Sara Ellis '07 and moved up two spots to ninth place on the school's all-time scoring list.

In the Jan. 2 win over Navy, she moved into third place on Lehigh's career three-point list, passing Erica Prosser '11.

Earlier this year, she sank a career-high six three-pointers on Nov. 29 against Mount St. Mary's.

FINISHING STRONG

The Mountain Hawks have been at their best in the fourth quarter this season, where they have outscored their opponents by an average of 16.7-13.9. Lehigh has only been outscored twice in the fourth quarter this season (11-8 at Sacred Heart and 23-19 at American).

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

JANUARY 14, 2018
AMERICAN 82, LEHIGH 64

WASHINGTON D.C. – American had three players score at least 20 points to power past Lehigh 82-64 on Sunday afternoon. Carl had a game-high 27 points on 11-of-13 shooting and four three-pointers to lead the Eagles (13-4, 6-0 PL). Sophomore Camryn Buhr led Lehigh (10-7, 4-2 PL) with her fourth double-double of the season with 20 points and 11 rebounds on 8-of-13 shooting. Quinci Mann and Gena Grundhoffer scored 11 points apiece, and Hannah Hedstrom added eight and freshman Mary Clougherty scored a career-high seven points. American shot 50 percent from the floor and 63.2 percent from beyond the arc to Lehigh's 35 percent overall and 38.1 percent from long range. American also outrebounded Lehigh 34-32 while converting 18 of their 19 free throw attempts.

"They shot the ball really well and we struggled shut down Carl," said head coach Sue Troyan. "She had a lot of clean looks at the basket and we didn't defend her. Give American credit, they don't give you a lot on the offensive end and you really have to execute to run your stuff well, and I didn't think we settled for great shots throughout the game."

American started the game fast and took a 7-0 lead before Buhr hit a free throw. Lehigh missed their first eight shots from the field before Cameryn Benz came away with a steal and found Mann in transition for a three-pointer to make it 9-4 at the media timeout.

Benz drained one from downtown coming out of the timeout to make it 9-7 before the Eagles went on a 7-2 run to take a 16-9 lead. Clougherty sank a late three as Lehigh cut the deficit to 16-12 after one quarter. LU finished the quarter by hitting four of their last six shots and came away with all five of their first half steals in the opening frame.

Lehigh missed its first four shots of the second quarter before Buhr made it 20-14 at the 7:21 mark and Hedstrom made it a six-point game once again with a left-handed layup off the glass just over a minute later. From there, American closed the half on an 18-10 run to hold a 42-26 edge at the break.

"Cam Buhr is so consistent for us right now," Troyan said. "She's playing well and just a great competitor. Besides her, we struggled to make a lot of shots from the field."

"Mary played well," Troyan said of Clougherty, a native of nearby Virginia who played in front of a hometown crowd. "I'm glad she had some opportunities here and stepped up and played well for us. I actually thought she did the best job for us when we had her guard Carl at the end and they couldn't get the ball to her."

American grew the lead to 19 over the first 4:31 of the second half before Buhr responded with a three. Hedstrom got it back to 13 with a three-point play following a jumper while drawing a foul. The AU lead grew to 17 once more before Benz and Grundhoffer combined for three points over the final two minutes to make it 59-45 entering the fourth.

Mann, Grundhoffer and Hedstrom all hit threes in less than two minutes in the middle of the fourth quarter to get LU back within 12 at 66-54 with 5:36 left, but American had the answer as Katie Marenyi and Carl combined for 17 of the American's 23 points in the fourth to keep the Mountain Hawks at bay. Marenyi had a layup and a three-pointer to grow the lead to 18 on two separate occasions, and American drained another three to give them a game-high 22 point, 82-60 lead with 1:11 remaining. Buhr and Clougherty each tacked on two points in the final minute for Lehigh.

"Whoever was opened on the perimeter, they knocked it down," Troyan said. "We're not going to win too many games giving up 80 points. We have to be better than that."

GETTING TO KNOW EMILY

Nickname: Em

Why did you choose Lehigh?: Lehigh has a perfect balance between competitive athletics and challenging academics all taking place on a beautiful campus. It seemed like a university that would supply me with the skills that I need for years after college.

What's your favorite thing about Lehigh?: The community. The people here at Lehigh feel like family; everyone looks out for one another.

Thoughts on Lehigh Coaching Staff (Coach Sue Troyan): The first time I spoke to Coach Troyan, I could tell she cared about more than just basketball. Coach always makes sure that I am excelling on and off the court. On the basketball side of things, Coach Troyan is an experienced coach who knows what she's doing.

Major & Why: Finance With a Minor in Actuarial Science. This major/minor combination will leave me set after my years at Lehigh. Actuaries are a part of high level business decision making and solve real problems in the world. Being an actuary allows you to have a low-stress, highly desired work/life balance with a rewarding salary.

Favorite Place on Campus: Lehigh Lookout

Favorite Food: Asian

Favorite Color: Blue

Favorite Musical Artist: PnB Rock

Favorite Movie: Love & Basketball

Favorite TV Show: The Get Down

Favorite Website: Twitter, Amazon, Netflix

Favorite Pro Team: LA Clippers

Favorite Athlete in Another Sport: Odell Beckham Jr.

Favorite Place to Study: My room

Hobbies: Shopping, Sleeping, Netflix

Most Admired Person & Why: My parents because they are hardworking, talented people

Magazine Cover I'd Like To Be On: GQ

Place I'd Like To Visit: Jamaica

Dream Job: Actuary

If I Didn't Play Basketball I'd Play: Soccer

If I Had $1 Billion, I Would: Go on a shopping spree
