LEHIGH

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 2: LEHIGH AT MONMOUTH

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (0-1)

AT

MONMOUTH HAWKS (1-0)

W. LONG BRANCH, N.J. • NOVEMBER 14, 2017 • 7 P.M.

OCEANFIRST BANK CENTER (4,100)

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh women's basketball team continues its four game road trip to open the season on Tuesday night at Monmouth at 7 p.m. The Mountain Hawks will look to bounce back from a season-opening 107-73 loss at Minnesota on Saturday. Sophomore guard Hannah Hedstrom led the team with 12 points and seven rebounds. Senior Mae Williams had a career-high 11 points, while Quinci Mann and Cameryn Benz tallied 11 points apiece.

Freshman Mariah Sexe tallied seven points and three rebounds in her collegiate debut and Mary Clougherty chipped in three points, four rebounds and three assists. Sophomore Camryn Buhr tied for the team-high with seven rebounds.

Lehigh outrebounded Minnesota 42-40 and shot 45.9 percent in the second half, but gave up a program single-game record for points thanks in part to Minnesota shooting 51.3 percent overall (41-for-80), 52 percent from three-point range (13-for-25) and forcing 23 Lehigh turnovers off 12 steals.

Tuesday's matchup marks the fourth year in a row Lehigh and Monmouth will face off, with just one of the last five meetings being played at Monmouth. Lehigh is 1-0 all-time in the OceanFirst Bank Center, winning 82-70 in 2014.

IF LEHIGH BEATS MONMOUTH

- ❖ Lehigh would avoid its first 0-2 start since 2011-12.
- ❖ Lehigh would improve to 2-0 all-time at OceanFirst Bank Center.

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 346-309 into Tuesday night's game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record, which includes a pair of Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. MONMOUTH

The Mountain Hawks and Hawks will meet up for the 11th time in program history dating back to their first matchup on December 7, 1994, which Monmouth won by a score of 69-66.

Monmouth won the first three games of the series, including a 76-75 victory in the 1997-98. Each of the first three meetings were played in the 1990s. The two teams split the only two times they faced each other in the 2000s, with the home team winning each game.

Lehigh has faced Monmouth five times since the 2011-12 season, with the Mountain Hawks posting a 2-3 record. Last season, Monmouth ended LU's two-game winning streak in the series with an 11-point win in the Christmas City Classic. In 2015, Lehigh posted a 95-88 overtime win over Monmouth. Those 95 points are tied for the second-most points scored in a single game in program history.

The Mountain Hawks are 1-3 when facing Monmouth on the road. Lehigh's only road win at Monmouth came in their last and only trip to OceanFirst Bank Center on Nov. 15, 2014 with an 82-70 win.

SCOUTING THE HAWKS

Monmouth returns 11 of their 13 players from a team that went 15-16 overall last year, including a 9-11 mark in MAAC play. Monmouth was voted fifth out of 11 teams in the MAAC preseason poll.

The Hawks return six sophomores who accounted for nearly 35 points and 20 rebounds per game last season. Sophomore guard Kayla Shaw was voted Preseason All-MAAC Third Team after setting a program record last season with 93 three-pointers. Shaw scored a team-high 22 points in the team's season opening win over Sacred Heart.

In her debut with the Hawks after transferring last year from Utah Valley University, Rhaiah Spooner-Knight scored 11 points and sophomore Alexa Middleton tallied eight points and seven rebounds off the bench.

In their season-opener against Sacred Heart, Monmouth used a strong fourth quarter and hit 11 of their 12 free throws in the period to win 69-64. The Hawks held a strong edge in bench points at 18-4.

Monmouth received big points from its bench throughout last season, including in their victory over Lehigh where they outscored the Mountain Hawk's bench 45-18. Shaw led the Hawks with 17 points and Kayla Quintana added 16.

MONMOUTH HEAD COACH JENNY PALMATEER

Jenny Palmateer was introduced as Monmouth University's seventh head women's basketball coach on April 21, 2011. Under Palmateer's leadership, the Hawks have posted a 85-104 record, reached a conference tournament championship game once and the conference tournament semifinals twice.

Palmateer led the Hawks to the Northeast Conference Tournament Championship Game in her first season at the helm in West Long Branch. Following an injury-riddled start to the season, Palmateer's squad righted the ship and won eight-straight games, including Monmouth's first win over a Big East program in nearly 25 years with a dramatic Hawk Holiday Classic victory over Villanova.

In her 16 years as a collegiate assistant coach, Palmateer worked under three Hall of Fame coaches, Anne Donovan (Seton Hall), Kay Yow (N.C. State) and Debbie Ryan (Virginia).

Palmateer came to Monmouth after serving as the recruiting coordinator at Seton Hall in 2010-11.

ROAD WARRIORS

Lehigh is opening the season with four consecutive road games for just the second time in program history. The only other time Lehigh played four straight games away from home to start a season was 1994-95, a year before Sue Troyan took over as head coach. Lehigh lost all four of those games by double digits.

SCORING HIGHS: THE GOOD AND BAD

In the season opener at Minnesota, Lehigh scored 73 points, their most ever against a power conference opponent. The 107 points allowed by the Mountain Hawks was also a program record for the most point allowed in a single game. It was just the fifth 100+ point game allowed by Lehigh, joining 101 to Florida Int'l on 1/2/93, 103 to UConn on 3/15/97, 104 to La Salle on 2/19/77 and 106 to Richmond on 12/1/96.

PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

Lehigh was picked seventh in the Patriot League Preseason Poll and is looking to rebound after a ninth place finish in last year's Patriot League standings. LU fell in the first round of the league tournament to Loyola. It was the first time Lehigh had failed to qualify for at least the semifinals since the league went to the current tournament format in 2013-14.

2017 Preseason Poll

T-1. Bucknell - 140 (7 first-place votes)

T-1. Army West Point - 140 (7)

3. American - 134 (5)

4. Navy - 119 (1)

5. Boston U. - 91

6. Holy Cross - 81

7. Lehigh - 64

8. Colgate - 55

9. Loyola - 54

10. Lafayette - 22

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Junior Hailey Pascoe and freshman Ann-Marie Jacobs both suffered season ending knee injuries within a few minutes of each other at practice on Oct. 6. After starting 24 games as a freshman in 2015-16 and earning Patriot League All-Rookie honors, Pascoe appeared in all 30 games last season, ranking second on the team and ninth in the PL by shooting 38.8 percent from three-point range. She averaged 6.7 points per game and two rebounds per contest last season.

QUINCI MANN

- Named Third Team All-Patriot League in 2017, the second all-league honor of her career after garnering second team honors as a sophomore in 2016. She was previously a PL All-Rookie selection in 2014-15.

- Ranked third in the Patriot League with 15.4 ppg last season.

- Scored at least 20 points in 11 games last season, tied for the most in the Patriot League with Army's Madison Hovren.

- Tied her career-high with five three-pointers at Colgate on 2/22.

- Ranked 34th in the nation, second in the PL, with a free throw percentage of 85.2 percent. Climbed to as high as 19th nationally in free throw pct. in mid-February.

- Went 16-for-16 from the free throw line against Loyola on Feb. 1, setting a new program record for made free throws in one game. Her 16 made free throws was the second most in a single game in the Patriot League last season, and tied for ninth most in a single game in the nation.

PLAYING ON THE BIG STAGE

On Dec. 10, Lehigh will play LIU Brooklyn as part of a doubleheader at the Barclays Center, home of the Brooklyn Nets. This will mark the first time in program history Lehigh has played in an arena that served as the home for an NBA team at the time. Lehigh defeated NJIT 65-54 at the Prudential Center in Newark on Dec. 18, 2008, which two years later became the temporary home for the former New Jersey Nets.

LU will also play Villanova at PPL Center in Allentown, Pa. on Nov. 17.

SCORING BIG

Lehigh has allowed a 20-point scorer in six consecutive games dating back to last season. They include Loyola's Lauren Daugherty (21), Lafayette's Harriet Ottewill-Soulsby (21), Colgate's Kateri Stone (29); Army's Madison Hovren (20), and Colgate's Rachel Thompspon (25) to end last season. In this year's season opener, Minnesota's Gadiva Hubbard and Charlie Wagner scored 22 points apiece.

NOT ENOUGH THIS TIME

Lehigh lost just two games all of last season when scoring at least 70 points - Feb. 25 at Colgate and Dec. 30 vs. Army West Point. Lehigh held a 7-2 record in games where they scored at least 70 points, and was 3-18 when scoring under 70, including a 1-9 mark when scoring in the 50's. Lehigh averaged 76.9 points in their wins and 56.4 in their losses in 2016-17.

Lehigh is 0-1 in such games this season following their opening night loss at Minnesota.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

NOVEMBER 11, 2017
MINNESOTA 107, LEHIGH 73

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. - The Lehigh women's basketball team had four players score in double figures, but fell 107-73 in Saturday's season opener at Minnesota. Playing in front of her hometown crowd, sophomore Hannah Hedstrom scored 12 points and added seven rebounds, both just two shy of career highs. Senior Mae Williams netted a career-high 11 points and had five rebounds. Senior Quinci Mann added 10 points, four rebounds and two assists and sophomore Camryn Benz collected 10 points and four rebounds. Freshman Mariah Sexe, who was making her collegiate debut in her native Minnesota, had seven points, three rebounds and one block. Sophomore Camryn Buhr also added seven points and seven rebounds. Sophomore Gena Grundhoffer tallied six points, three rebounds and two blocks.

The 73 points scored by the Mountain Hawks are the most in program history against a power conference opponent, however the 107 points allowed is also a program record for a single game, surpassing the previous record of 106 set against Richmond during the Patriot League championship season of 1996-97.

Minnesota had seven players score in double digits, led by Carlie Wagner and Gadiva Hubbard with 22 points apiece. Hubbard was 6-for-7 from three-point range, while Wagner shot 10-for-19 overall.

Lehigh outrebounded the Golden Gophers 42-40, including 12-10 on the offensive glass. Minnesota shot over 51 percent from the field and an even 52 percent from three-point range, while LU was 27-for-68 (39.7 percent) overall and 8-for-22 from beyond the arc. The Mountain Hawks shot 45.9 percent in the second half after a 32.3 percent clip in the opening half.

After the Gophers opened up the scoring with a three, Mae Williams put one in following two LU offensive rebounds to get Lehigh on the board. Minnesota followed by running off 15 unanswered points to take an 18-2 lead, which included seven points from Hubbard. Benz broke the run with a three-pointer at the 5:11 mark of the first quarter, and then answered a Minnesota jumper with another three just over a minute later to make it 20-8.

The Minnesota defense forced nine Lehigh turnovers on six steals in the first 10 minutes, without committing a turnover of their own. The Gophers led 33-10 after one quarter and shot nearly 57 percent in the opening frame, while holding Lehigh to just 4-of-17 shooting (23.5 percent).

Coming out in the second quarter, Hedstrom and Bernadette Devaney scored buckets for Lehigh before Minnesota jumped out on a 13-2 to take a commanding 49-16 lead heading into the media timeout. Lehigh then scored 10 of the next 12 points, highlighted by a three-pointer from Sexe on her first collegiate shot attempt. Mann tacked on two more points before the end of the half as Minnesota carried a 57-28 lead into the locker room.

Wagner scored seven straight for Minnesota early in the third quarter to help build the lead up to a game-high 41 at the 3:01 mark. Lehigh then closed the frame on a 6-0 run thanks to a layup from Hedstrom, a jumper from Buhr and two free throws from Sexe to make it an 80-45 game heading into the fourth.

LU outscored Minnesota 28-27 over the final 10 minutes. Freshman Mary Clougherty hit a three-pointer to open the final quarter, extending the Lehigh run to 9-0, before the Gophers built the lead back to 40 on three separate occasions. Bryanna Fernstrom hit two free throws for Minnesota to eclipse the century mark with 2:45 to go, before Sexe and Buhr had two points apiece to make it 101-65. Minnesota hit a pair of threes in the final minute, sandwiched around a Williams triple, two free throws from Grundhoffer and a three-pointer from Mann to cap the scoring at 107-73.

The Mountain Hawks had a large section of fans on hand for the game, with both Hedstrom and Sexe being from the Minneapolis area, along with two commits in next season's recruiting class and several other players being from within driving distance of the Twin Cities.

"It was nice both for Mariah and Hannah to have such a big home crowd," head coach Sue Troyan said. "I think we had about 500 people here in our cheering section and to have that type of turnout for this group, and to have a homecoming of sorts was pretty awesome."

GETTING TO KNOW EMILY

Nickname: Em

Why did you choose Lehigh?: Lehigh has a perfect balance between competitive athletics and challenging academics all taking place on a beautiful campus. It seemed like a university that would supply me with the skills that I need for years after college.

What's your favorite thing about Lehigh?: The community. The people here at Lehigh feel like family; everyone looks out for one another.

Thoughts on Lehigh Coaching Staff (Coach Sue Troyan): The first time I spoke to Coach Troyan, I could tell she cared about more than just basketball. Coach always makes sure that I am excelling on and off the court. On the basketball side of things, Coach Troyan is an experienced coach who knows what she's doing.

Major & Why: Finance With a Minor in Actuarial Science. This major/minor combination will leave me set after my years at Lehigh. Actuaries are a part of high level business decision making and solve real problems in the world. Being an actuary allows you to have a low-stress, highly desired work/life balance with a rewarding salary.

Favorite Place on Campus: Lehigh Lookout

Favorite Food: Asian

Favorite Color: Blue

Favorite Musical Artist: PnB Rock

Favorite Movie: Love & Basketball

Favorite TV Show: The Get Down

Favorite Website: Twitter, Amazon, Netflix

Favorite Pro Team: LA Clippers

Favorite Athlete in Another Sport: Odell Beckham Jr.

Favorite Place to Study: My room

Hobbies: Shopping, Sleeping, Netflix

Most Admired Person & Why: My parents because they are hardworking, talented people

Magazine Cover I'd Like To Be On: GQ

Place I'd Like To Visit: Jamaica

Dream Job: Actuary

If I Didn't Play Basketball I'd Play: Soccer

If I Had $1 Billion, I Would: Go on a shopping spree
