WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 3: LEHIGH AT VILLANOVA

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (1-1)

AT

VILLANOVA WILDCATS (1-0)

ALLENTOWN, PA. • NOVEMBER 17, 2017 • 5 P.M.

PPL CENTER (9,000)

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh women's basketball team will take on Villanova at PPL Center in Allentown on Friday afternoon in what will be the first appearance at the arena for both programs. Each team is coming off an 18-point road victory in their last game, with Lehigh topping Monmouth on Tuesday and Villanova winning its season-opener at Hartford last Friday.

Senior Quinci Mann scored a game-high 24 points at Monmouth to move into 13th place on Lehigh's all-time scoring list, and fifth on the school's career three-point list. Camryn Buhr netted a career-high 16 points and tied a career-best with nine rebounds, Cameryn Benz pulled down a career-high eight rebounds, and Gena Grundhoffer also tallied 16 points. LU outrebounded Monmouth 47-38 and held Monmouth to 18.1 percent shooting from three-point range.

Through two games, Mann is second in the Patriot League in 3FG pct (37.5) and 3FG/game (2.5). Freshman Mariah Sexe also ranks in the top five in the PL with 1.5 blocks per game.

This will be the second matchup between the two schools at PPL Center. The Villanova and Lehigh men's programs squared off in the first-ever basketball game at the arena on Nov. 14, 2014.

IF LEHIGH BEATS VILLANOVA

- ❖ Lehigh would beat Villanova for the first time away from home.
- ❖ Lehigh would end its six-game losing streak against the Wildcats.

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 347-309 into Friday game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record. She has led LU to three Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths during her tenure. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. VILLANOVA

Lehigh and Villanova will meet for the 10th time in program history on Friday afternoon. It will be the first time the two teams meet off of either school's campus. Lehigh enters the game winless against Nova on the road, having lost all four of the previous road meetings. This game will mark the ninth time in the last 10 seasons the two teams have met up.

After winning the inaugural matchup 88-52 during the 1983-84 season, Villanova made it two in a row during the 2008-09 season with a 58-52 win. Lehigh grabbed its only win of the series on Dec. 5, 2009 with an 80-65 win at Stabler Arena.

Three of the last six games between the two have gone to overtime, with Nova winning all three times.

Villanova has outscored the Mountain Hawks by an average of 63.0-51.5 in games at The Pavilion. Lehigh averages just under 61 ppg against Villanova at home, with their highest output coming in their 15-point win back in 2009.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Villanova was picked third in the Big East Preseason Poll, after going 20-15 overall last season, where they won four games in the WNIT before falling 65-61 at Michigan. Nova returns four starters and eight letterwinners in 2017-18 from last year's squad.

Junior guard Adrianna Hahn was named to the Preseason All-Big East Team after averaging 12.6 ppg and shooting a team-leading 41.1 percent from three-point range last season.

Villanova enters the matchup exactly one week after their only game of the season. The Wildcats shot nearly 47 percent from the field in their season-opening 71-53 win at Hartford, while holding the Hawks to just 30.5 percent shooting, and just 1-of-15 from three-point range.

In the opener, Hahn led all scorers with 18 points on 7-of-20 shooting with four three-pointers. Four Wildcats reached double figures with Mary Gedaka registering a double-double with 15 pts and 11 rbs, Kelly Jekot picking up 10 pts and seven rbs, and Jannah Tucker scoring 10 pts. Nova outrebounded Hartford 45-33 and created seven steals off 10 Hartford turnovers.

In last year's game at The Pavilion, Hahn scored 11 points and Tucker added 10 to lead all returners in Villanova's 59-37 win over Lehigh. Gedaka chipped in eight points as Nova shot 40 percent for the game, and held Lehigh to 28.1 percent from the field.

VILLANOVA HEAD COACH HARRY PERRETTA

In the midst of his 40th season, Harry Perretta holds a career record of 724-454. He is one of only 14 coaches in Div. I women's basketball history to win 700 games at one school.

Under his guidance, Villanova has won 20+ games in five straight seasons, a feat Perretta has accomplished 19 times in his career.

Perretta began his career as the youngest head coach in Villanova history at age 22 in 1978, leading the team to a 17-8 mark and later led the Wildcats to the AIAW final four in 1982.

Perretta attended Lycoming College where he played basketball for one year before becoming an assistant for both the varsity and junior varsity programs. He earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and earned a secondary teaching certificate in 1978.

ROAD WARRIORS

Lehigh is opening the season with four consecutive road games for just the second time in program history. The only other time Lehigh played four straight games away from home to start a season was 1994-95, a year before Sue Troyan took over as head coach. Lehigh lost all four of those games by double digits.

FAST OUT OF THE STARTING BLOCKS

Freshman Mariah Sexe ranks tied for third in the Patriot League with 1.5 blocks per game through the first two games of the season, including two at Monmouth on Tuesday. As a team, Lehigh is second in the Patriot League with 3.5 blocks per game. Sexe scored seven points with three rebounds and one assist in her debut at Minnesota.

BIG TURNAROUND ON THE BOARDS

Lehigh has outrebounded Minnesota and Monmouth in each of the first two games of the season, and holds a rebounding margin of +5.5, which ties for second in the Patriot League. Last season, Lehigh's rebounding margin through its first three games (excluding a game where they outrebounded D-II East Stroudsburg) was -37.0.

SCORING HIGHS: THE GOOD AND BAD

In the season opener at Minnesota, Lehigh scored 73 points, their most ever against a power conference opponent. The 107 points allowed by the Mountain Hawks was also a program record for the most point allowed in a single game. It was just the fifth 100+ point game allowed by Lehigh, joining 101 to Florida Int'l on 1/2/93, 103 to UConn on 3/15/97, 104 to La Salle on 2/19/77 and 106 to Richmond on 12/1/96.

PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

Lehigh was picked seventh in the Patriot League Preseason Poll and is looking to rebound after a ninth place finish in last year's Patriot League standings. LU fell in the first round of the league tournament to Loyola. It was the first time Lehigh had failed to qualify for at least the semifinals since the league went to the current tournament format in 2013-14.

2017 Preseason Poll

- T-1. Bucknell - 140 (7 first-place votes)
T-1. Army West Point - 140 (7)
3. American - 134 (5)
4. Navy - 119 (1)
5. Boston U. - 91
6. Holy Cross - 81
7. Lehigh - 64
8. Colgate - 55
9. Loyola - 54
10. Lafayette - 22

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Junior Hailey Pascoe and freshman Ann-Marie Jacobs both suffered season ending knee injuries within a few minutes of each other at practice on Oct. 6. After starting 24 games as a freshman in 2015-16 and earning Patriot League All-Rookie honors, Pascoe appeared in all 30 games last season, ranking second on the team and ninth in the PL by shooting 38.8 percent from three-point range. She averaged 6.7 points per game and two rebounds per contest last season.

QUINCI MANN

- Named Third Team All-Patriot League in 2017, the second all-league honor of her career after garnering second team honors as a sophomore in 2016. She was previously a PL All-Rookie selection in 2014-15.
- Ranked third in the Patriot League with 15.4 ppg last season.
- Scored at least 20 points in 11 games last season, tied for the most in the Patriot League with Army's Madison Hovren.
- Tied her career-high with five three-pointers at Colgate on 2/22.
- Ranked 34th in the nation, second in the PL, with a free throw percentage of 85.2 percent.

Climbed to as high as 19th nationally in free throw pct. in mid-February.

- Went 16-for-16 from the free throw line against Loyola on Feb. 1, setting a new program record for made free throws in one game. Her 16 made free throws was the second most in a single game in the Patriot League last season, and tied for ninth most in a single game in the nation.

PLAYING ON THE BIG STAGE

On Dec. 10, Lehigh will play LIU Brooklyn as part of a doubleheader at the Barclays Center, home of the Brooklyn Nets. This will mark the first time in program history Lehigh has played in an arena that served as the home for an NBA team at the time. Lehigh defeated NJIT 65-54 at the Prudential Center in Newark on Dec. 18, 2008, which two years later became the temporary home for the former New Jersey Nets.

LU will also play Villanova at PPL Center in Allentown, Pa. on Nov. 17.

SCORING BIG

Lehigh's game vs. Monmouth snapped a streak of six straight games dating back to last year where LU had allowed a 20-point scorer. They included Loyola's Lauren Daugherty (21), Lafayette's Harriet Ottewill-Soulsby (21), Colgate's Kateri Stone (29); Army's Madison Hovren (20), and Colgate's Rachel Thomsson (25) to end last season. In this year's season opener, Minnesota's Gadiva Hubbard and Carlie Wagner scored 22 points apiece.

NOT ENOUGH THIS TIME

Lehigh lost just two games all of last season when scoring at least 70 points - Feb. 25 at Colgate and Dec. 30 vs. Army West Point. Lehigh held a 7-2 record in games where they scored at least 70 points, and was 3-18 when scoring under 70, including a 1-9 mark when scoring in the 50's. Lehigh averaged 76.9 points in their wins and 56.4 in their losses in 2016-17.

Lehigh is 1-1 in such games this season.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

NOVEMBER 14, 2017
LEHIGH 75, MONMOUTH 57

WEST LONG BRANCH, N.J. – A strong team effort led the Lehigh women's basketball team past Monmouth 75-57 on Tuesday night at the OceanFirst Bank Center. Senior Quinci Mann led all scorers with 24 points on 7-of-16 shooting with four three-pointers. Sophomore Camryn Buhr tallied a career-high 16 points and tied a career-high with nine rebounds. Sophomore Gena Grundhoffer also scored 16 points with five rebounds, and sophomore Hannah Hedstrom tied a career-high with nine rebounds. Sophomore Camryn Benz set a career-high with eight rebounds and chipped in seven points, and senior Mae Williams added five points and four rebounds.

Lehigh held a 47-38 advantage on the glass, shot 40.3 percent for the game and was 8-for-21 from three-point range. Lehigh held Monmouth to 36.1 percent shooting and just 18.2 percent from beyond the arc. Lehigh also won the turnover battle 14-11. Both teams now sit at 1-1 on the season.

"The focal point of our scout yesterday was to learn from the mistakes we made in Minnesota where we gave up a ton of easy buckets in transition," Troyan said. "I thought they really took the lessons learned from Saturday and applied them to this game and that is the importance of having a game like that."

Buhr started the game 5-for-5 overall, hitting three shots prior to the first media timeout when the score was knotted 7-7. After a Monmouth free throw put the Hawks up 8-7 coming out of the break, Benz hit a straightaway three-pointer to put Lehigh up 10-8, sparking a 7-0 run. After a Mann bucket, Benz highlighted the run with steal, and finished with a second chance bucket at the other end to make it 14-8, forcing a Monmouth timeout with 2:37 to go in the quarter. Monmouth went 7:39 without a field goal until hitting a buzzer-beating layup to make the score 16-12 after one.

Lehigh stormed out to a 35-14 lead thanks to a 19-2 over the first five minutes of the second quarter. Williams and Mann started the period with three-pointers, sandwiched around a Buhr layup to make it 24-12. Following a Monmouth bucket, Buhr added a layup, Mann followed with two straight threes, and Bernadette Devaney tacked on a triple of her own to give Lehigh its largest lead of the night at 35-14 with 3:31 left until halftime. Monmouth would get within 12 with just over one minute remaining, but Lehigh answered with a Mann jumper and Hedstrom free throw to carry a 41-26 lead into the half.

"I thought it was a pretty complete quarter at both ends of the floor in terms of making shots, sharing the basketball, and we played really good transition defense," Troyan said. "I honestly thought it was just really good team basketball."

Lehigh shot 53.3 percent from the field in the opening half, including 46.2 percent from three-point range, but struggled mightily for the free throw line (3-for-12). Mann led all scorers with 13 points on 5-of-8 shooting and 3-of-6 from beyond the arc. Buhr added 10 points on 5-of-7 shooting.

"On the defensive end, she defended their best player," Troyan said of Buhr. "I thought Cam did a great job of finding her in transition and not allowing her to get any easy buckets. So as good of a game as it was for her on the offensive end, I thought it might have been her best defensive game as well."

Monmouth used five points from Rosa Graham to cut into the Lehigh lead to start the third quarter, where Lehigh held a 12-point, 47-35 lead, at the media timeout with 4:46 remaining.

Monmouth chipped away and got the game within single digits at the 4:25 mark following a layup and free throw Middleton to cut it to 47-38. Mann hit two free throws to make it an 11-point game, before MU got to within seven with 16 seconds left following a Dockery layup. Williams hit two free throws for Lehigh after being fouled with less than on second left to get the lead back to nine, 53-44 through three quarters. Lehigh closed the third by missing their last six shots over the final 5:46.

A strong 9-0 run to start the fourth quarter increased the Lehigh edge back to 18, forcing a Monmouth timeout with 7:57 to go. Mann started the frame with her fourth triple of the game, followed by two clutch layups from Buhr to make it 60-44, forcing the Monmouth timeout. Mann added a jumper coming out of the timeout to make it an 18-point game with just over seven minutes remaining, and Monmouth would get no closer than 13 points the rest of the way, as Lehigh hit 8-of-9 free throws in the quarter and 14-of-15 overall in the second half to pull away.

GETTING TO KNOW EMILY

Nickname: Em

Why did you choose Lehigh?: Lehigh has a perfect balance between competitive athletics and challenging academics all taking place on a beautiful campus. It seemed like a university that would supply me with the skills that I need for years after college.

What's your favorite thing about Lehigh?: The community. The people here at Lehigh feel like family; everyone looks out for one another.

Thoughts on Lehigh Coaching Staff (Coach Sue Troyan): The first time I spoke to Coach Troyan, I could tell she cared about more than just basketball. Coach always makes sure that I am excelling on and off the court. On the basketball side of things, Coach Troyan is an experienced coach who knows what she's doing.

Major & Why: Finance With a Minor in Actuarial Science. This major/minor combination will leave me set after my years at Lehigh. Actuaries are a part of high level business decision making and solve real problems in the world. Being an actuary allows you to have a low-stress, highly desired work/life balance with a rewarding salary.

Favorite Place on Campus: Lehigh Lookout

Favorite Food: Asian

Favorite Color: Blue

Favorite Musical Artist: PnB Rock

Favorite Movie: Love & Basketball

Favorite TV Show: The Get Down

Favorite Website: Twitter, Amazon, Netflix

Favorite Pro Team: LA Clippers

Favorite Athlete in Another Sport: Odell Beckham Jr.

Favorite Place to Study: My room

Hobbies: Shopping, Sleeping, Netflix

Most Admired Person & Why: My parents because they are hardworking, talented people

Magazine Cover I'd Like To Be On: GQ

Place I'd Like To Visit: Jamaica

Dream Job: Actuary

If I Didn't Play Basketball I'd Play: Soccer

If I Had $1 Billion, I Would: Go on a shopping spree
