WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 4: LEHIGH AT CORNELL

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (1-2)

AT

CORNELL BIG RED (0-3)

ITHACA, N.Y. • NOVEMBER 20, 2017 • 7 P.M.

NEWMAN ARENA AT BARTELS HALL (4,473)

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh women's basketball team will cap its four game road trip to start the season on Monday evening with a trip to upstate New York to take on Cornell, its first matchup with an Ivy League opponent since the 2012-13 season.

After shooting 40.0 percent from the field and averaging 74 points through the first two games of the season, Lehigh struggled to score in its 62-42 loss on Friday night against Villanova, shooting just 23 percent including 22.2 percent from long range. Sophomore Cameryn Benz was a bright spot for Lehigh, scoring a career-high 14 points and pulling down seven rebounds, one shy of her career-high. Benz is tied for the second on the team in scoring this season with classmate Camryn Buhr at 10.3 points per game. Buhr and point guard Hannah Hedstrom each average a team-leading 7.3 rebounds per game, with Benz pulling down 6.3 boards per game.

Cornell (0-3) is getting familiar with the Patriot League early this season, dropping a 78-63 decision to Loyola (Md.) and most recently falling 74-70 at home against Colgate. The Big Red also lost 51-39 at Pittsburgh on Nov. 13.

Both teams have gotten off to strong starts on the glass, with Lehigh holding a +3.5 rebounding margin, and Cornell sitting at +7.7.

IF LEHIGH BEATS CORNELL

- ❖ Lehigh would win its second straight game against Cornell.
- ❖ Lehigh would win its first road game at an Ivy League opponent since 1/9/2008 at Penn (lost last two at Princeton and Columbia).

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 347-310 into Monday's game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record. She has led LU to three Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths during her tenure. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. CORNELL

Lehigh and Cornell will meet for just the seventh time on Monday, and just the third time ever in Ithaca. Lehigh won the first ever matchup between the two on Jan. 7, 1984 at the Cornell Tournament, and the Big Red took the only other matchup in Ithaca 80-68 on Jan. 5, 1996. Lehigh holds a 4-2 mark in the all-time series.

The most recent matchup was won by Lehigh 79-57 in the opening game of the 2002 Christmas City Classic at Stabler Arena.

SCOUTING THE BIG RED

Cornell enters Monday's matchup sporting a 0-3 record and has dropped both games so far this season against Patriot League opponents. After opening the season with a 15-point loss at Loyola, the Big Red dropped a 51-39 decision at Pittsburgh before falling 74-70 in Thursday's home opener against Colgate.

Sophomore guard Samantha Widmann is the only Cornell player averaging in double figures with 17.3 points per game and ranks third with 5.7 rebounds. Danielle Jorgenson leads the team with 3.3 assists per game ranks second in scoring with 7.7 ppg. Elodie Furey has a team-best seven rebounds per game and boasts a field goal pct. of 37.0 percent.

As a team, Cornell is shooting just 33 percent overall and 25 percent from beyond the arc, while averaging 57.3 points per game. On the defensive end, they have allowed opponents to shoot 48.1 percent thus far and 67.7 points per contest. The Big Red have also averaged 23 turnovers in their first three games.

Widmann is coming off a career-night in the home opener against Colgate, scoring a career-best 25 points on 5-of-14 shooting with six rebounds, while going 12-of-15 from the free throw line. Jorgenson finished with 14 points on 6-of-11 shooting, and Stephanie Umeh added 10 points.

CORNELL HEAD COACH DAYNA SMITH

Smith was named the seventh head women's basketball coach at Cornell University prior to the 2002-03 season. In her 15 seasons at the helm of the Big Red program, Smith has led Cornell to unprecedented success. She is the winningest coach in the history of the program, and the second-longest tenured active women's basketball coach in the Ivy League.

During her head coaching tenure, Smith's players have earned 28 All-Ivy honors, including one Ivy League Player of the Year award and one All-America selection.

Smith led the 2007-08 team to the most successful season in program history, as the Big Red closed out the year with a school record for wins (20), as well as setting records for most conference wins (11), points scored (1,889), 3-pointers made (200) and assists (436) in a season.

After winning its first-ever Ivy League title, the Big Red earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, where they faced No. 1 UConn.

Smith graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 1996 with a degree in business management.

RARE IVY LEAGUE MATCHUP

Lehigh is playing its first game against an Ivy League opponent since an 87-80 loss at Columbia on Dec. 28, 2013. Lehigh has played just five games against the Ivy League since the 2009-10 season, going 2-3 in those games, including 1-2 on the road. Lehigh has gone 1-1 vs. Princeton, 1-1 vs. Columbia, and 1-0 vs. Penn during that stretch.

Lehigh has not played Cornell since the 2002 Christmas City Classic at Stabler Arena, and has not faced the Big Red in Ithaca since Jan. 5, 1996.

ROAD WARRIORS

Lehigh is opening the season with four consecutive road games for just the second time in program history. The only other time Lehigh played four straight games away from home to start a season was 1994-95, a year before Sue Troyan took over as head coach. Lehigh lost all four of those games by double digits.

ROUGH NIGHT FOR THE OFFENSE

Lehigh struggled offensively on Friday night vs. Villanova, shooting 23 percent from the field, making just 14 of 61 field goals. It was Lehigh's worst night shooting in both categories since a 53-37 home loss to Bucknell on Jan. 23, 2013 when LU shot just 20.7 percent overall (12-for-58).

BLOCK PARTY

Junior Meagan Eripret (6th) and freshman Mariah Sexe (T-8th) both rank in the top 10 in the Patriot League in blocks per game, with 1.3 and 1.0, respectively. As a team, Lehigh is tied for second in the Patriot League with 3.0 blocks per game. Sexe scored seven points with three rebounds and one assist in her debut at Minnesota. Eripret is coming off a two-block performance against Villanova.

BIG TURNAROUND ON THE BOARDS

Lehigh outrebounded Minnesota and Monmouth, and was even on the boards against Villanova, and holds a rebounding margin of +3.7, which ranks third in the Patriot League. Lehigh currently leads the Patriot League by collecting 45.7 rebounds per game. Last season, Lehigh's rebounding margin through its first three games was -37.0.

SCORING HIGHS: THE GOOD AND BAD

In the season opener at Minnesota, Lehigh scored 73 points, their most ever against a power conference opponent. The 107 points allowed by the Mountain Hawks was also a program record for the most point allowed in a single game. It was just the fifth 100+ point game allowed by Lehigh, joining 101 to Florida Int'l on 1/2/93, 103 to UConn on 3/15/97, 104 to La Salle on 2/19/77 and 106 to Richmond on 12/1/96.

PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

Lehigh was picked seventh in the Patriot League Preseason Poll and is looking to rebound after a ninth place finish in last year's Patriot League standings. LU fell in the first round of the league tournament to Loyola. It was the first time Lehigh had failed to qualify for at least the semifinals since the league went to the current tournament format in 2013-14.

2017 Preseason Poll

- T-1. Bucknell - 140 (7 first-place votes)
T-1. Army West Point - 140 (7)
3. American - 134 (5)
4. Navy - 119 (1)
5. Boston U. - 91
6. Holy Cross - 81
7. Lehigh - 64
8. Colgate - 55
9. Loyola - 54
10. Lafayette - 22

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Junior Hailey Pascoe and freshman Ann-Marie Jacobs both suffered season ending knee injuries within a few minutes of each other at practice on Oct. 6. After starting 24 games as a freshman in 2015-16 and earning Patriot League All-Rookie honors, Pascoe appeared in all 30 games last season, ranking second on the team and ninth in the PL by shooting 38.8 percent from three-point range. She averaged 6.7 points per game and two rebounds per contest last season.

QUINCI MANN

- Named Third Team All-Patriot League in 2017, the second all-league honor of her career after garnering second team honors as a sophomore in 2016. She was previously a PL All-Rookie selection in 2014-15.
- Ranked third in the Patriot League with 15.4 ppg last season.
- Scored at least 20 points in 11 games last season, tied for the most in the Patriot League with Army's Madison Hovren.
- Tied her career-high with five three-pointers at Colgate on 2/22.
- Ranked 34th in the nation, second in the PL, with a free throw percentage of 85.2 percent. Climbed to as high as 19th nationally in free throw pct. in mid-February.
- Went 16-for-16 from the free throw line against Loyola on Feb. 1, setting a new program record for made free throws in one game. Her 16 made free throws was the second most in a single game in the Patriot League last season, and tied for ninth most in a single game in the nation.

PLAYING ON THE BIG STAGE

On Dec. 10, Lehigh will play LIU Brooklyn as part of a doubleheader at the Barclays Center, home of the Brooklyn Nets. This will mark the first time in program history Lehigh has played in an arena that served as the home for an NBA team at the time. Lehigh defeated NJIT 65-54 at the Prudential Center in Newark on Dec. 18, 2008, which two years later became the temporary home for the former New Jersey Nets. LU also played Villanova at PPL Center in Allentown, Pa. on Nov. 17.

NOT ENOUGH THIS TIME

Lehigh lost just two games all of last season when scoring at least 70 points - Feb. 25 at Colgate and Dec. 30 vs. Army West Point. Lehigh held a 7-2 record in games where they scored at least 70 points, and was 3-18 when scoring under 70, including a 1-9 mark when scoring in the 50's. Lehigh averaged 76.9 points in their wins and 56.4 in their losses in 2016-17. Lehigh is 1-1 in such games this season.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

NOVEMBER 17, 2017
VILLANOVA 62, LEHIGH 42

ALLENTOWN, Pa. – On a night where both team struggled offensively, the Villanova women’s basketball team prevailed for a 62-42 win over Lehigh on Friday night at PPL Center in Allentown. Sophomore Cameryn Benz led the Brown and White with a career-high 14 points and seven rebounds, sophomore Camryn Buhr tallied eight points and six rebounds, and senior Mae Williams and sophomore Gena Grundhoffer each collected seven rebounds. Sophomore Hannah Hedstrom added four points, six rebounds and three assists, and Paige Galiani added five points on 2-of-2 shooting.

For the game, Lehigh shot 23 percent from the floor (14-for-61) and 22.2 percent (4-for-18) from three-point range. Villanova shot 31.9 percent overall (22-for-69) and just 18.9 percent (7-for-37) from downtown. Both teams pulled down 48 rebounds, while Nova held a 28-18 edge in the paint, and also turned the ball over only seven times to Lehigh’s 14. With the loss, Lehigh drops to 1-2 on the season and Villanova improves to 2-0.

“We just could not find the bottom of the basket,” said head coach Sue Troyan. “Neither team shot particularly well. Honestly, I thought it was one of our worst shooting performances in a long time. It’s going to be hard to win games when three of our top scorers are a combined 3-for-30 at one point. For us to be successful they’re going to have to be better than that.”

Both teams started 0-for-5 before Adrianna Hahn hit a three-pointer for Nova at the 6:17 mark to break the stalemate. Lehigh got on the board shortly after on a pair of Hedstrom free throws and Benz ended Lehigh’s 0-for-7 stretch to start the game with a triple at the 4:08 mark as Nova led 9-5 at the media timeout.

Benz added a pair of free throws at the 1:41 mark to get Lehigh within 12-7, but that would be it as Lehigh shot just 1-for-13 in the opening frame and trailed 14-7 going into the break.

Nova hit two baskets in the first 2:26 of the second to take an 18-7 lead, forcing a Lehigh timeout. Grundhoffer hit a jumper coming out of the timeout at 7:09 and Benz followed with a three-pointer to get Lehigh within six at 18-12, but LU shot just 3-for-12 in the quarter and was at 4-for-25 in the first half as Nova took a 30-16 lead into halftime. The Wildcats shot 35.3 percent (12-for-34) in the first half and just 3-for-20 from three-point range.

“In the first quarter, I thought we played pretty good defense and got good looks at the basket, but the shots were not falling,” Troyan said. “I thought the third quarter probably caught up to us from a confidence standpoint and I thought we let up on the defensive end. We came out in the second half and could not get a bucket, they began to get some momentum, and that affected our defensive intensity.”

Grundhoffer opened the third quarter with a bucket underneath, but Nova scored the next 10 points to go up 20-18, forcing a LU timeout with 6:32 remaining. Lehigh would then go 3:29 without a basket until Meagan Eripret put in layup to make it 46-20. Benz would add a jumper, and then answer a Villanova basket with another layup before Eripret sank a free throw and Hedstrom put in a layup with three seconds left to make it a 48-27 game after three quarters.

The Mountain Hawks outscored Nova 15-14 in the fourth quarter and scored the first four points off a Mann free throw and a triple by Clougherty. After six straight Villanova points put them back up 54-31, Buhr got two free throws, Benz answered a Nova basket with a layup, and Galiani followed with five straight Lehigh points, including a three-pointer and a long jumper. Buhr tacked on a layup in the final minute to move Lehigh over the 40-point threshold.

“Paige is a great shooter,” Troyan said. “She may be the best shooter we have in our program and she’s working hard on the defensive end to get better in that regard. I have the utmost confidence in her that when she goes in the game, the ball will go in. It’s just a matter of can do the other things as well.”

GETTING TO KNOW EMILY

Nickname: Em

Why did you choose Lehigh?: Lehigh has a perfect balance between competitive athletics and challenging academics all taking place on a beautiful campus. It seemed like a university that would supply me with the skills that I need for years after college.

What's your favorite thing about Lehigh?: The community. The people here at Lehigh feel like family; everyone looks out for one another.

Thoughts on Lehigh Coaching Staff (Coach Sue Troyan): The first time I spoke to Coach Troyan, I could tell she cared about more than just basketball. Coach always makes sure that I am excelling on and off the court. On the basketball side of things, Coach Troyan is an experienced coach who knows what she's doing.

Major & Why: Finance With a Minor in Actuarial Science. This major/minor combination will leave me set after my years at Lehigh. Actuaries are a part of high level business decision making and solve real problems in the world. Being an actuary allows you to have a low-stress, highly desired work/life balance with a rewarding salary.

Favorite Place on Campus: Lehigh Lookout

Favorite Food: Asian

Favorite Color: Blue

Favorite Musical Artist: PnB Rock

Favorite Movie: Love & Basketball

Favorite TV Show: The Get Down

Favorite Website: Twitter, Amazon, Netflix

Favorite Pro Team: LA Clippers

Favorite Athlete in Another Sport: Odell Beckham Jr.

Favorite Place to Study: My room

Hobbies: Shopping, Sleeping, Netflix

Most Admired Person & Why: My parents because they are hardworking, talented people

Magazine Cover I'd Like To Be On: GQ

Place I'd Like To Visit: Jamaica

Dream Job: Actuary

If I Didn't Play Basketball I'd Play: Soccer

If I Had $1 Billion, I Would: Go on a shopping spree
