SETTING THE SCENE

Following nearly a two-week layoff of games due to final exams, the Lehigh men’s basketball team will wrap up nonleague play on Thursday when it travels to Saint Francis (Pa.) to face the Red Flash. Opening tipoff is set for 7 p.m. on NEC Front Row. The Mountain Hawks are coming off a 75-60 win over defending NEC Champion Mount St. Mary’s last Saturday (Dec. 9) and are set to face the team the Mountain Hawks play in last season’s NEC Championship Game. With a win, Lehigh would be 6-5 for a second straight season heading into Patriot League play.

Last time out, the Mountain Hawks opened a quick 16-6 lead, Mount St. Mary’s responded to take a 34-33 halftime advantage, but Lehigh outscored the Mountaineers 42-26 in the second half to win, 75-60. It marked the first time all season the Mountain Hawks have won when trailing at the half. The game was similar to Lehigh’s win at Mount St. Mary’s last season. Last year, the Mountain Hawks turned a 38-33 halftime deficit into a runaway 90-71 win. Lehigh has outscored the Mountaineers 94-64 in the second half over the past two seasons.

In the end, Lehigh’s 26 points allowed marked a season best for the second half, as was its 60 points allowed for the game. The Mountain Hawks had allowed 26 points in the first half at Marist and 25 in the first half at Princeton. Lehigh held Mount St. Mary’s to just 33 percent shooting (a season best) and 25 percent from three-point range. The Mountain Hawks held Mount St. Mary’s 13.6 points under its season average while the Mountaineers’ 60 points were their second-lowest total of the season.

Senior Kahron Ross led the way with a team-high 18 points while adding six rebounds, five assists and two steals. Ross found Caleb Bennett three-pointer with 16:17 remaining in the second half for his 579th career assist, passing Mackey McKnight to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader. Ross is now Lehigh’s record holder for assists in a game, season and career. Currently owning 582 assists, he is also second in Patriot League history and needs just 18 to become the league’s all-time career leader. Ross also moved from 27th to 25th place in school history for career points (currently 1,110).

Junior Lance Tejada added 16 points and a career-high seven rebounds off the bench while freshman James Karnik just missed his second-career double-double with nine points and nine boards in just 18 minutes due to foul trouble. As a team, Lehigh outrebounded the Mountaineers 44-26, the Mountain Hawks’ best margin (+18) since outrebounding Holy Cross 40-20 last January. Lehigh was also +20 last year vs. Mount St. Mary’s as the Mountain Hawks have held an 84-49 edge over the last two meetings.

Lehigh improved to 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, also winning at USC and Virginia. The Mountain Hawks will be facing their third consecutive defending conference finalist in Saint Francis (Pa.), who was also predicted to win the NEC this year. It marks Lehigh’s fifth game vs. a conference finalist overall, defeating Siena (MAAC), Princeton (Ivy) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) who advanced to their respective championship games while falling to Yale (Ivy).

Last season, Lehigh picked up an impressive 100-67 win over Saint Francis (Pa.) in a game which saw Pat Andree knock down a school record-tying 10 three-pointers.

ROSS - PL PLAYER OF WEEK (DEC. 11)

After leading Lehigh in scoring in both of its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11. Ross averaged 18.5 points in two games last week, a loss to Yale and a win over Mount St. Mary’s and added five assists in each game, with the second one against the Mountaineers giving him 579 for his career, moving Ross past Mackey McKnight into the top spot in Lehigh’s career assist list. The award marks the first Player of the Week honor of Ross’ career and is the first Patriot League weekly award won by a men’s basketball player this season. The Jonesboro, Ark., native led Lehigh with 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added five assists against Yale, before leading the Mountain Hawks with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and five assists in Saturday’s 60 win over the defending NEC champion Mountaineers. The record-breaking assist came with 16:17 remaining in the second half on a three-pointer by freshman Caleb Bennett. FACING THE NO. 1 DEFENSE (DEC. 2)
- The Mountain Hawks dropped a 75-54 final at No. 15/18 UVA, the nation’s top-ranked defense.
- Lehigh hung tough in the early going as junior Lance Tejada knocked down three-pointers to even the score at six, then nine. Sophomore Ed Porter hit two free throws to pull Lehigh within 12-11, but the Cavaliers answered with 20 of the next 25 points, including a pair of 10-0 runs, to create separation. Lehigh trailled 37-19 at one point, but didn’t let the game get away, only getting outscored by three over the game’s final 23:26.
- The Mountain Hawks’ 54 points were the most scored by an opponent at UVA’s John Paul Jones Arena so far this season. Lehigh shot 40.4 percent from the field (five percent better than Virginia was allowing) and 41.7 percent from three-point range (16.7 percent better).
- Tejada led Lehigh’s offense with a game-high 22 points on 8-of-14 shooting and 5-of-9 from three-point range. Tejada became the first player to score 20 points or more against Virginia all season. Before Tejada, the previous high scorer was Isaac Vann of VCU, who scored 19. It was the first time in 10 games (dating back to last season) that UVA allowed a 20-point scorer. The last was Bonzie Colson of Notre Dame, who scored 21 in the ACC Semifinals last March. Tejada’s 22 points were most by any player against UVA since last February 15 when Duke’s Jayson Tatum (currently of the Boston Celtics) scored 28.
- Sophomore Jordan Cohen tied a career high with seven rebounds, marking a new career high against Division I opponents.

IMPRESSIVE W AT PRINCETON (NOV. 29)
- Lehigh played perhaps its best half of the season to jump out to a 47-25 halftime advantage. The Mountain Hawks shot 58 percent from the field, including 55 percent from three-point range while holding Princeton to 30 percent shooting and 0-10 from long distance.
- The Tigers came out strong in the second half, but Lehigh weathered the storm. Princeton pulled within eight with 10:36 still remaining, but the Mountain Hawks reopened a double-digit lead into the final five minutes. The Tigers had one last run in them, pulling as close as two in the final two minutes, but sophomore Jordan Cohen hit a tough shot with just over 30 seconds remaining to give the Mountain Hawks a four-point advantage then Lehigh was a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line to wrap up the 85-76 win.
- Junior Lance Tejada led the Mountain Hawks in scoring with 18 points while junior Kyle Leufroy had 17 points and senior Kahron Ross tallied 14 points. In total, the backcourt group of Cohen, Tejada, Leufroy and Ross combined for 60 points on 20-of-39 shooting. Leufroy was 6-of-9 from the field with six rebounds.
- Ross added five assists to move to 569 in his career, passing Marquis Hall ‘10 for second in career and third in Patriot League history. With Ross’ 14 points, he also moved from 32nd to 30th in school history for career points (currently 1,064), passing Ed Cahn ’55 and Charles Blue ’82. Wednesday was Ross’ 100th career game.
- A pair of freshmen impressed as James Karnik had seven points and a career-high 12 rebounds while also causing multiple loose ball fouls to help the Mountain Hawks maintain possession. Caleb Bennett scored eight points as well on a perfect 4-of-4 shooting.

POSITIVE MOMENTS AT NO. 10 USC (NOV. 22)
- The No. 10 Trojans jumped out to a 33-15 lead just over 10 minutes into the game, but the Mountain Hawks outscored USC 19-11 the rest of the half to pull within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play.
- Senior Kahron Ross was the story, especially early. He finished with a career-high tying 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting, with 20 of the points coming in the first half. The 20 points in a half tied a career high (also accomplished in the second half at Navy his sophomore year).
- Junior Lance Tejada wasn’t far behind Ross, recording 19 points on 8-of-17 shooting.
- Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially in the second half. He recorded seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, every point and all but two rebounds coming in the second half.
- The USC game marked a homecoming for a pair of Southern California natives: junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana).

FIRST-EVER WIN VS. SIENA (NOV. 17)
- Lehigh earned a 91-90 overtime win vs. Siena, the team’s second OT victory in six days to begin the season.
- The game was a matchup of two teams who advanced to their respective conference finals last season.
- Lehigh’s two overtime victories in the nonleague schedule is already most in school history in the Patriot League era (which began in 1990).
- Leufroy went full-court in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score at 80 and force overtime. In the ensuing overtime period, junior Lance Tejada scored six points for the second straight OT (also doing so at Marist). He finished with a career-high 26 points while Leufroy tied a career high with 23.
- Sophomore Pat Andree was also strong, recording 16 points and nine rebounds, including a number of big plays late in regulation and the beginning of overtime. He scored eight of his points in the stretch of 4:33, including a three-pointer just four seconds into overtime.
- The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever win over Siena in the third-ever meeting. Prior to this season, the sides hadn’t met since 1985.

Ross Named Preseason All-League; Mountain Hawks Picked Fourth
Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

2017-18 Patriot League Men’s Basketball Preseason Poll

Ross and Leufroy Named Team Captains
In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

Lehigh Takes Part in the Program
For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

Sustained Success
- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

ROSS RUNNING THE POINT

- Senior Kahron Ross looks to become Lehigh’s third straight four-year starter at point guard following Marquis Hall and Mackey McKnight. Ross is first in school history with 582 career assists.
- Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering third team as a freshman (and Rookie of the Year), first team as a sophomore and second team as a junior.
- So far this season, Ross is averaging 13.7 points, 3.3 rebounds and 4.9 assists per game.
- Ross is currently No. 5 in the nation among active players in career assists and tied for fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.60).
- In the season opener at Marist (Nov. 11), Ross scored 12 of his 17 points in the second half, including a three-pointer in the final minute of regulation to give the Mountain Hawks a one-point lead. Ross finished the game 3-of-3 from three-point range.
- Three days later, in the home opener vs. Monmouth Nov. 14), Ross scored 13 points and set a career-high six steals. Ross knocked down two free throws with 3:46 left in the second half to give him 1,000 career points. He became the 35th player in school history for career points.
- Ross was stellar at No. 10 USC (Nov. 22), scoring 20 first-half points and finishing with 24 (to tie a career high). He shot 9-of-13 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line.
- Ross posted 14 points and five assists on Nov. 29 at Princeton, propelling him to 569 career assists to pass Marquis Hall for second in school history.
- Ross became the school’s record holder for assists in a season.
- In the Patriot League Championship Game vs. Holy Cross, Ross became the school’s record holder for assists in a season.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fifth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers, coming off a 2015-16 season which saw him win the Kia NBA Most Improved Player award.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.3 points per game (19th in the NBA), 4.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists in 29 games this season. He has reached double-figure points in all but one game, including 20+ points in 19 contests and 30+ points in one (Stats before games Tuesday, Dec. 19).
- McCollum tallied 20+ points in six consecutive games, from Dec. 9 against Houston through Dec. 18 at Minnesota.
- McCollum scored 36 points against Memphis on Tuesday, Nov. 7, shooting 14-of-26 from the field, including 4-of-10 from three-point range.
- In 2016-17, McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-of-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Phoenix.
- McCollum went on to score 35, 27 points then 35 points over his next three games (at Golden State, vs. the Lakers and vs. Detroit). He then had 25 points at Los Angeles and 27 in a 102-86 home win over defending NBA champion Cleveland on Jan. 11 and 26 points at Orlando on Jan. 13. McCollum became the first Trail Blazer to post eight straight games of 25+ points since Clyde Drexler in 1987. His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.
- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists as a rookie during his rookie season.
- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.
- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sportining News’ website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” sitting earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule game nights near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, five Lehigh players tallied a semester GPA over 3.4: graduate student Devon Carter 3.66 (Psychology), Jordan Cohen 3.58 (Arts and Sciences), Pat Andree 3.55 (Arts and Sciences), Brandon Alston 3.52 (Economics) and Caleb Sedore 3.43 (Arts and Sciences), each being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. In addition, Josh Wolf had a 3.07 (Arts and Sciences) and Austin Price recorded a 3.03 (Finance).
- Last fall, four Lehigh student-athletes posted semester GPAs of 3.2 or higher: Cohen 3.64 (Arts and Sciences), Carter 3.33 (Psychology), Alston 3.26 (Economics) and Leufroy 3.20 (Business).
- Four Mountain Hawks own cumulative GPAs over 3.0: Marques Wilson 4.0 (Business), Cohen 3.65 (Arts and Sciences), Andree 3.45 (Arts and Sciences) and James Karnik 3.30 (Business).

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- Lehigh has one double-double this season, by freshman James Karnik at Pitt (Nov. 26).
- The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double-doubles last season, 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Pat Andree.

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh has led the Patriot League in scoring in four of the last eight seasons. The Mountain Hawks averaged a league-leading 75.1 points per game in 2009-10, 73.6 in 2010-11, 75.7 in 2011-12 and 73.1 in 2012-13. In 2012-13, the Mountain Hawks eclipsed 70 points in 19-of-31 games, 80 ten times, 90 three times and 100 once. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks averaged 68.1 points per game, which was fourth in the league. In 2015-16, Lehigh averaged 70.9 points per contest (fifth in the Patriot League) which included seven games with 80 or more points. Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks averaged 76.0 points per game, second in the Patriot League. Lehigh beat Saint Francis (Pa.) 100-67 as the 100 points marked the first time Lehigh eclipsed 100 since February of 2013, a 103-74 win over Army.

So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 76.4 points per game, third in the Patriot League. Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to last season, it hadn’t happened since the 1999-00 campaign. The Mountain Hawks have also eclipsed 80 points at Marist (Nov. 11) and at Princeton (Nov. 29).

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than their opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation’s best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. Last year, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. Lehigh was 19-of-19 from the charity stripe at Lafayette (Feb. 19), which was just the 16th time in the nation that a team was perfect from the line all season. So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 74.0 percent (125-of-169), second in the Patriot League.

Associate Head Coach: Antoni Wyche (Notre Dame ’99)

Assistant Coaches: Harry Morra (DeSales ’04) and Noel Hightower (Chestnut Hill ’16)

Director of Basketball Operations: Riley Maye (Norfolk State ’14)
The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nolfkastate defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough at home, against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half. The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keever (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went on careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the game in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s... first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahron Ross, a three-time All-Patriot League honoree and former Rookie of the Year.

Ross became Lehigh’s fifth Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2010-11. Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche’s first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvot in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvot in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Adironack Wildcats of USBL in 2003.

Harry Morra enters his third season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2017-18 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Tim Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their three-year old son Marcus.
Noel Hightower begins his second season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2017-18, and first as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director’s Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffins’ defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (577), second in offensive rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (352), seventh in rebounds per game (5.4), second in blocks (114) and fifth in steals (128). Hightower shot 53.4 percent from the field as a senior (63-of-118). He was also a standout track and field athlete, highlighted by winning a CACC Individual Championship in 2015 in the 110-meter hurdles.

Hightower has shown tremendous leadership, serving as a three-year captain. He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College’s Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh’s summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament’s operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

Riley Maye begins his first season at Lehigh as Director of Basketball Operations in 2017-18. Maye replaced Noel Hightower, who was promoted to an assistant coaching position. An East Stroudsburg native, Maye has extensive basketball experience, both as a coach and player.

Maye played college basketball at Norfolk State, graduating in 2014 with a Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology. He was a member of the 2012 Norfolk State team, a No. 15 seed that defeated second-seeded Missouri in the NCAA Tournament - the same day 15th-seeded Lehigh topped Duke. Maye worked his way into more playing time as his collegiate career progressed and as a senior, he averaged 4.5 points per contest, competing in 33 games with 10 starts.

A member of Norfolk State’s Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Maye was also recognized as the 2015-2016 Image Award recipient recognizing the Outstanding Collegiate Athlete in Monroe County.

After college, Maye went on to play professional basketball in Beijing, China, competing on a traveling professional tour team in numerous tournaments around the country in different cities and villages.

Maye has continued his extensive involvement with the sport of basketball. He has served as a varsity assistant coach at his former high school (Stroudsburg) and has served as a personal basketball trainer for CoachUp. Maye has led individualized basketball workouts and skills training for young athletes, high school, college and professional players.

In addition, Maye has served as Camp Counselor for Hoop Group, helping young athletes enhance their basketball skills during their stay at various camps throughout the spring, summer and fall.

Jack Humsey begins his first season on the Lehigh men’s basketball staff as video coordinator in 2017-18.

Humsey came to Lehigh after graduating earlier this year from the University of New England in Biddeford, Maine with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Humsey has solid experiences in the game of basketball, which includes serving as a Youth Basketball Instructor and Youth Basketball Coach with various organizations, including The Grind Knows, YES! AAU, Saco, and ME - assisting with clinics, running drills and teaching fundamentals and teamwork in an age-appropriate, fun and engaging way. He also has experiences.

Humsey also has experiences as camp assistant at a few Elite Camps throughout New England. Additionally, Humsey was team manager at The Winchendon School in Winchendon, Massachusetts from October, 2011 through May, 2013.

Billly Dunn begins his first season as character coach for the Lehigh men’s basketball program in 2017-18.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. The Saints again responded, opening a 21-15 advantage, but a 12-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Caleb Bennett layup, gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-23 lead midway through the first. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes until late in the half, a Bennett dunk gave Lehigh a 40-36 lead with two minutes remaining. However, Clar雷’s fourth trey of the first half pulled Siena within 40-39 following 20 minutes of play.

However, Siena responded with six of the next seven points as a Romar Penn layup gave the Saints a 79-78 advantage with 2:06 on the clock. Trailng 80-78 with seven seconds remaining, Leufroy took the inbounds and went all the way to force a tough shot in the paint, forcing overtime.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Six Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men’s basketball team defeated visiting Eastern University, 95-70 on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 3-1 after four games for the first time since 2008-09, heading into a four-game road trip beginning with a Wednesday night showdown at No. 10 USC.

In the end, Lehigh played strong team basketball as 21 of the Mountain Hawks’ 35 field goals were assisted. Freshman Marques Wilson and sophomore Ed Porter each posted career-high point totals of seven and six, respectively.

Lehigh broke a 10-11 run with a 1-point, beginning with a Cohen three-pointer and ending with a Cohen jumper which gave the Mountain Hawks a 22-11 advantage with 12:27 left in the first half. Not long after, Lehigh went on a 10-0 run to take a 32-14 lead. The run began with a jumper from Porter, included four points from Leufroy and ended with a Wilson jumper to give Lehigh a 32-14 advantage with exactly nine minutes to go in the first.

From there, Lehigh’s lead remained between 13 and 18 as Wilson hit a jumper as the first-half clock expired to give the Mountain Hawks a 45-29 advantage after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh quickly extended its lead to 20 early in the second, but the Eagles wouldn’t go away. Eastern pulled within 13 at 64-51 midway through the half, but Lehigh answered with a 7-0 surge capped off by a Leufroy fastbreak layup to give his side a 71-51 lead with 9:33 remaining. GAME 5 - NOV. 22, 2017
GALEN CENTER
NO. 10 USC 88, LEHIGH 63

LOS ANGELES – The Lehigh men’s basketball team battled to pull within 10 at the half, but USC began the second on a 10-0 run and the Mountain Hawks couldn’t get any closer than 15 the rest of the way in an 88-63 loss Wednesday evening at the Galen Center. Senior Kahron Ross was stellar, scoring 24 points to tie a career high, 20 coming in the first half, while junior Lance Tejada added 19 points. Combined, Ross and Tejada shot 17-of-30 from the field. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-2 on the season.

Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially late, finishing with seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, seven points and seven boards in the second half.

In a homecoming game to Southern California, junior Kyle Leufroy opened the scoring on the game’s first possession, but the Trojans immediately staged a 10-0 run to take a 10-2 advantage with 16:40 remaining in the first half. USC eventually opened an 18-point lead as a Chimezie Metu dunk gave the Trojans a 33-15 lead with 8:16 left in the first.

Lehigh fought back, staging an 13-2 run on the back of Ross as his three put Lehigh within 38 with 5:38 remaining, then a second-chance layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 35-28 not long after. USC reopened a 13-point lead, but Ross sunk consecutive floaters in the final 40 seconds of the half, including one as the buzzer expired, to pull Lehigh within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play.

usc quickly went on a 10-0 run in the first 1:49 of the second half as a Jonah Matthews trey gave the Trojans a 54-34 lead.
