LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (7-8, 2-2 PATRIOT LEAGUE)

MEN’S BASKETBALL

Setting the Scene

The Lehigh men’s basketball team will wrap up a stretch of five-of-six games on the road when it travels to Bucknell on Thursday to face the Bison. Opening tipoff of the 2017 Patriot League Championship Game rematch is set for 7 p.m. at Sojka Pavilion. The Mountain Hawks are coming off a 92-81 loss at Boston University on Monday in a game which saw Lehigh score just 25 points in the first half, but respond with 56 in the second.

The Mountain Hawks trailed by 24 at the half and fell behind by as many as 27 early in the second, but Lehigh pulled within 15 (62-47) with 11:18 still remaining. The Terriers responded and eventually reopened a 20-point lead. Trailing by 19 (80-61) with 3:32 on the clock, the Mountain Hawks outscored Boston University 18-8 over the next 2:27. Lehigh knocked down five three-pointers in that span (three by junior Lance Tejada and two by senior Kahron Ross). Ross’ second pulled his side to within nine at 88-79, but the Terriers hit enough of their free throws down the stretch to wrap up the win.

One game after scoring 19 second-half points vs. Holy Cross, Tejada scored 17 in the second half on Monday, knocking down 5-of-8 from long range over the final 20 minutes. It marked his seventh game this season with 4+ made treys as he’s shooting 50.5 percent from long distance on the season (47-of-93). Sophomore Pat Andree also caught fire in the second half, hitting 4-of-6 threes in the second to finish 5-of-9 for the game and 19 points, Andree’s fifth straight game with double-figure points. He’s averaging 15.4 points in that five-game stretch. Meanwhile, Ross added 12 points and four assists while junior Kyle Leufroy had nine points, six rebounds and a season-high five assists. Leufroy now has nine assists over the last two games. Classmate Caleb Sedore played key minutes for the first time in his career, seeing time in both the first and second halves, grabbing a defensive rebound.

In the end, Lehigh connected on 12-of-23 second-half three-pointers to finish 14-of-32 for the game (43.8 percent). This came just one game after tying a Patriot League record for made threes. Along with its 15-of-26 from distance against Holy Cross, the Mountain Hawks are now 29-of-58 (50 percent) over their last two games. Lehigh also eclipsed 80 points in back-to-back games for the first time since Nov. 17 and 19 (91-70 overtime win over Siena followed by 95-70 win over Eastern University).

Monday’s game in Boston was a rematch of the 2017 Patriot League Semifinals. Like last postseason, Lehigh will now travel to Bucknell three days later. Thursday will wrap up a challenging road swing which saw the Mountain Hawks play five-of-six games on the road, including the first three-of-four in Patriot League play. Three of the league road contests are against the teams picked ahead of Lehigh in the preseason poll - Navy (picked third), Boston University (picked second) and Bucknell (picked first). Lehigh will look to continue its success at Sojka Pavilion. All-time, the Mountain Hawks are 7-11 all-time in the building while the rest of the league is 19-101.

TONIGHT’S GAME

Lehigh has won eight of the last 13 meetings against Bucknell to pull within 102-67 in the all-time series. Last season, Lehigh earned regular season victories at Bucknell (82-71) and Lehigh (79-71), but fell in the Patriot League Championship Game at Soja Pavilion (81-65). The Mountain Hawks have won five of their last eight games at Soja; Lehigh stands 7-11 all-time at Soja Pavilion while the rest of the league is just 19-101. Four of the five that have been greater than seven points have been Lehigh victories. Bucknell is the second-most played rival of all-time, only behind Lafayette.

LAST MEETING

LEWISBURG, Pa. (3/8/17) – A 15-0 run spanning the end of the first half and the start of the second helped Bucknell break open a tight back-and-forth affair as the host Bison claimed the Patriot League Tournament title with a 81-65 win over Lehigh Wednesday night at a sold-out Soja Pavilion.

LAST TIME OUT

BOSTON (1/18/18) – Trailblazing at 24 the half and by as many as 27 in the second, the Lehigh men’s basketball team pulled as close as nine with just over one minute remaining, but it wasn’t enough as the Mountain Hawks fell at Boston University, 92-81 on Monday evening. Junior Lance Tejada led the offense with 21 points, 17 coming in the second half while sophomore Pat Andree tallied 19 points, 16 after halftime. Lehigh responded from a 25-point first half by scoring a season-high 56 in the second.

Bucknell is 9-8 on the season following a come-from-behind, overtime win at Lafayette Monday. The Bison were outscored 38-31 in the first half, but came back for an 80-75 victory. The Bison are 3-1 in Patriot League play, with their lone loss coming at home to Boston University. Senior Zach Thomas leads Bucknell in scoring (21.9) and rebounding (9.5) while classmate Nana Foulland averages 16.6 and 6.5, respectively. Another senior, Stephen Brown, is third on the Bison in scoring (13.0) and leads the team with 55 assists in 17 games (3.2 average). Brown enjoyed an up-and-down nonleague season, winning games over Atlantic 10 foes Richmond and La Salle while finishing 6-7 in nonleague action against a very challenging schedule. The Bison lead the Patriot League in scoring (81.8 per game) while allowing the most (90.6). Bucknell has been without two key players for several weeks due to injury - Avi Toomer and Kimbal Mackenzie.

IF LEHIGH BEATS BUCKNELL

- Lehigh would improve to 8-11 all-time at Sojka Pavilion while the rest of the Patriot League is just 19-101 (as of Tuesday, Jan. 9).
- The Mountain Hawks would win at Bucknell for the third time in their last four tries.
- Lehigh would beat the Bison for the fourth time in its last five tries overall.
- Lehigh would win for the 14th time in its last 23 games dating back to last season.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kahron Ross needs five three-pointers for 100 in his career.
- Junior Lance Tejada has knocked down 47 three-pointers on the season (in 93 attempts). Tejada is on pace to potentially challenge the Lehigh school record of 92 by Brett Eppenheimer in 1997-98. That mark is also tied for ninth in Patriot League history.
- Tejada’s current 50.3 percentage from three would also be second in league history for a single season (minimum one made three-pointer per game).

Here’s the complete list:

1. John Schoof, American (2012-13) 50.7
2. Mark Jerz, Holy Cross (2002-03) 50.0

HOME WIN OVER HOLY CROSS (JAN. 5)

- Lehigh fell into an early 19-3 hole, but responded to take a 45-40 halftime lead and 67-51 second-half advantage. The Mountain Hawks outscored the Crusaders 54-22 in the middle stages of the game, but Holy Cross used a 15-2 run to pull within three with 5:09 still remaining. Not long after, Lehigh scored five straight points behind a Kyle Leufroy layup and Lance Tejada three-pointer, giving the Mountain Hawks an eight-point cushion, on their way to the 83-77 victory.

- Returning from injury, Tejada led the offense with 26 points on 8-of-15 (53.3%) from the field, but a 2-for-11 start to the second half. He was integral in the first half, scoring 14 points to help Lehigh climb out of its early hole.

- Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points for the second time in the last three games and second consecutive Friday. Senior Kahron Ross had 12 points, Leufroy tallied 11 and sophomore Jordan Cohen scored 10. Ross moved up another spot in the Lehigh record book, passing Fred Ketcho for 23rd place in school history for career points.

- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers (on 26 attempts) to tie a Stabler Arena record. The last time the Mountain Hawks had 15 was last December 12 against Saint Francis (Pa.) when Lehigh was 15-of-31, led by Andre’s school-record tying 10 made threes (on 12 attempts). The last time Lehigh eclipsed that percentage from three-point range was last Feb. 15 at Navy (52.6 percent, 10-of-19). The Mountain Hawks’ 57.7 three-point percentage was its best percentage since a 58.8 percentage (10-of-18) at Bucknell last Jan. 11.

- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers against Holy Cross compared to 14 two-pointers, marking the second time this season it had more made threes than twos, the other being at Virginia (10 made threes, nine made twos in that contest).

LAST GAME V. BUCKNELL NOTABLES

- Tim Kempton led the way for the Mountain Hawks with 22 points and 17 rebounds. With those numbers, Kempton moved past former Bucknell star Mike Muscala for fourth place in the Patriot League’s career scoring list (2,043) and into second place in the league’s career rebounding list (1,095).

- Kempton’s 22 points came on 9-of-21 shooting. As a team, Lehigh shot 45 percent (27-of-60) but just 4-of-14 from three and an uncharacteristic 7-of-15 (46.7%) from the free throw line.

- Kyle Leufroy was Lehigh’s highest scorer with 14 points and he added six rebounds. Austin Price added 11 as he and Kempton were named to the All-Tournament Team, along with Bucknell’s Mackenzie, Foulland and Thomas.

- The Mountain Hawks shot 45 percent from the field, but a 2-for-11 start to the second half allowed the Bison to build an 18-point lead.
- After the tough start, Lehigh scored 42 points over the final 12:55 of the first half to help the Mountain Hawks score 80 points for the first time since Nov. 29 at Princeton (seven games ago). Lehigh scored 3.25 points per minute over that stretch, which was a 130 point per 40 minute clip.

ROSS NAMED SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE (DEC. 29)
Lehigh men’s basketball standout Kahron Ross has been named one of just 30 candidate nation-wide for the Senior CLASS Award, as announced on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Lehigh and Patriot League career assists leader joins a long list of Mountain Hawks recognized by the prestigious award. Most recently, both Tim Kempton and Austin Price were named candidates last year, and Kempton was a finalist. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

The award focuses on four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Ross is one of just three honorees from the Patriot League, along with Shawn Anderson (Navy) and Luke Morrison (Army West Point). Prior to the honors from Kempton and Price last year, C.J. McCollum and Gabe Knutson were named candidates in 2012-13. McCollum went on to be named a finalist and a first team Senior CLASS All-American. Marquis Hall was a finalist in 2009-10.

PL OPENING WIN AT RIVALS (DEC. 29)
- Lehigh trailed by 10 (42-32) heading into the final minute of the first half, but junior Lance Tejada knocked down a corner three and senior Kahron Ross converted a driving layup as time expired to pull the Mountain Hawks within 42-37 at the half. Lehigh carried the momentum into the second, opening the half on a 12-5 run (17-5 dating back to the first half) as a Pat Andree three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 49-47 lead with 14:35 on the clock.
- Lafayette would pull even three times, but could never retake a lead and Lehigh went on to the 79-74 victory, its second straight Patriot League opening win.
- The Mountain Hawks improved to 17-11 all-time in Patriot League openers.
- Lehigh improved to 4-0 on the season in games that were within two points at any point in the final two minutes of regulation, also winning at Marist (84-76 in overtime), vs. Siena (91-90 in overtime) and at Princeton (85-73).
- Ross led the Mountain Hawks in scoring with 17 points, along with five rebounds and five assists. In the process, he became the first player in the program’s 100+ year history to go a perfect 4-0 at Lafayette in a career.
- Freshman James Karnik continued his strong play, tallying a career-high tying 15 points and six rebounds, despite sitting a big chunk of the first half due to foul trouble. Junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points, highlighted by a clutch pull-up jumper to put Lehigh up by four in the final minute. Tejada also had 14 points, including 3-0-4 from three-point range.
- A balanced team effort saw five Mountain Hawks record double-figure points for the first time since Nov. 19 vs. Eastern. The fifth was Andree, who bounced back from a tough first half to record 11 points and seven rebounds in the second, finishing with 11 points and 11 boards for his second-career double-double and first against a Division I opponent. Andree was 3-0-5 from three-point range in the second.
- The game saw just 12 combined turnovers, only five from the Mountain Hawks, their fewest since Feb. 18, 2013 when they had four vs. Bucknell. It was also the fewest by any Patriot League team this season.
- The win marked Lehigh’s fifth straight against Lafayette overall.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS
Lehigh finished nonleague play with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

ROSS - PL PLAYER OF WEEK (DEC. 11)
After leading Lehigh in scoring in both of its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11. Ross averaged 18.5 points in two games last week, a loss to Yale and a win over Mount St. Mary’s and added five assists in each game, with the second one against the Mountaineers giving him 579 for his career, moving Ross past Mackey McKnight into the top spot in Lehigh’s career assist list. The award marks the first Player of the Week honor of Ross’ career and is the first Patriot League weekly award won by a men’s basketball player this season. The Jonesboro, Ark., native led Lehigh with 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added five assists against Yale, before leading the Mountain Hawks with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and five assists in Saturday’s 75-60 win over the defending NEC champion Mountaineers. The record-breaking assist came with 16:17 remaining in the second half on a three-pointer by freshman Caleb Bennett. He finished the weekend with 582 career assists, 17 shy of the Patriot League record.

McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE
Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation’s best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. Last year, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 74.7 percent (165-of-221), second in the Patriot League.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS
Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahrnn Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM
- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, five Lehigh players tallied a semester GPA over 3.4: graduate student Devon Carter 3.66 (Psychology), Jordan Cohen 3.58 (Arts and Sciences), Pat Andre 3.55 (Arts and Sciences), Brandon Alston 3.52 (Economics) and Caleb Sedore 3.43 (Arts and Sciences), each being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. - The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double doubles last season, 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Andre.

In 2012-13, the Mountain Hawks eclipsed 70 points in 19-of-31 games, 80 ten times, 90 three times and 100 once. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks averaged 68.1 points per game, which was fourth in the league. In 2015-16, Lehigh averaged 70.9 points per contest (fifth in the Patriot League) which included seven games with 80 or more points. Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks averaged 76.0 points per game, second in the Patriot League. Lehigh beat Saint Francis (Pa.) 100-67 as the 100 points marked the first time Lehigh eclipsed 100 since February of 2015, a 103-74 win over Army.

HOME SWEET STABLER
The Mountain Hawks have won nine of their last 11, 44 of their last 65, 66 of their last 91 and 79 of their last 109 in the friendly confines of Stabler Arena. They had an 11-game home win streak snapped vs. Bryant on Dec. 29, 2012 and an eight-game winning streak snapped on Jan. 5, 2014 against Boston University. Lehigh also had an eight-game home winning streak snapped during the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game.

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nortfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half. The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keever (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knuston achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s... first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time as Lehigh and assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees.

Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship. Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
ANTONI WYCHE

Harry Morra enters his third season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2017-18 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Tim Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five First Team for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their three-year old son Marcus.
Noel Hightower begins his second season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2017-18, and first as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director’s Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffins’ defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (577), second in offensive rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (352), seventh in rebounds per game (5.4), second in blocks (114) and fifth in steals (128). GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2017
MCCANN ARENA
LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Marist came back from a 26-38 halftime deficit to take the second-half lead, but junior Lance Tejeda tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a hard-fought 84-76 road win on Saturday evening. Tejeda finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1986.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejeda shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 990 career points while sophomore Jordan Leufroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejeda broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejeda's four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock.

A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini 5-0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 on the clock. However, the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with consecutive three-pointers, from Ross and Tejeda, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later.

Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh's final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross' second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 and then later took its first lead at 62-61 with 3:41 on the clock.

Late in regulation, and with Marist having come back with a big two-pointer and one three-pointer remaining on the clock, the Red Foxes scored the final 12 points of the half, scoring the game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds on the clock, but the Mountain Hawks had the final possession and pushed the ball to the three-point line, where junior Kalin Pace, after being fouled, nailed the game-winning three-pointer to pull ahead 72-69.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 13-2 run to end the game. Included was a pair of Tejeda baskets separated by 28 seconds, with a Tejeda steal in between. The second gave Lehigh a 78-74 advantage with 2:32 on the clock. Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andrej and Leufroy.

GAME 2 - NOV. 14, 2017
STABLER AREA
MONMOUTH 80, LEHIGH 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men's basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in the home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Ross' totals are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh's 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed's 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 20-2 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Trey and finishing with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

A 9-0 Monmouth run turned a 23-21 deficit into a 32-21 lead with 3:56 left in the first half. The Hawks continued to dominate the Mountain Hawks in the second half, finishing the game 69-37 with 15:06 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejeda trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks' deficit to 65-56 with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.
GAME 3 - NOV. 17, 2017

STABLER ARENA

LEHIGH 91, SIENA 90 (OT)

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Junior Kyle Leufroy converted a driving layup in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score, then classmate Lance Tejada scored six as the Mountain Hawks’ 11 points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to an exciting 91-90 victory over Siena on Friday evening in Stabler Arena.

With the win, Lehigh improves to 2-1 overall, six days after defeating Marist in overtime to open the season. Four Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by a career-high 26 from Tejada along with a season-high 23 from Leufroy. The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever victory over Siena in the first meeting between the two sides since 1985.
