SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh men’s basketball team will look to bounce back from consecutive defeats when it returns home on Wednesday to host Loyola. Opening tipoff in Stabler Arena is set for 7 p.m. Last week, the Mountain Hawks fell behind by 28 points vs. Colgate then 24 at Army, but came back to within two then seven, pulling right back into both contests down the stretch. Wednesday marks the first of two straight home games for the Mountain Hawks. Both Wednesday against Loyola and Saturday vs. Navy are part of Coaches vs. Cancer Suits and Sneakers Week. On Saturday, Lehigh Athletics will recognize and celebrate the life and legacy of former men’s basketball student-athlete and 1,000 point scorer Jared Hess ’00, who succumbed to leukemia (blood cancer) 10 years ago on Jan. 25, 2018.

Fans on both Wednesday and Saturday are encouraged to join the coaches, who will be wearing sneakers with their suits to promote healthy living. The goal of Coaches vs. Cancer is to increase cancer awareness and promote healthy living through awareness efforts, fundraising activities and advocacy programs.

Last time out, Army West Point used an early 11-0 run to take an 18-5 lead. The margin eventually reached 24 at 39-15 before the Mountain Hawks pulled within 50-31 at the half. Lehigh began the second half on a 13-4 run, sparked by freshman Marquis Wilson, who scored seven points in that stretch (including a four-point play) and assisted on the other six points. He finished the game with 20 points to shatter his previous career high, along with a career-high seven rebounds and career-high tying three assists. Wilson tallied 18 of his points in the second half, with all 20 over the game’s final 21:47.

While Wilson was the story in the second half, junior Lance Tejada carried the offense in the first. Tejada scored 14 over the first 20 minutes, finishing with 25 points - his third game this season with 25+ points and sixth with more than 20. Those marks are most by a Lehigh guard since current Portland Trail Blazer C.J. McCollum scored 25+ six times in 12 games in his injury-shortened 2012-13 season. McCollum eclipsed 20 points eight times that year.

Meanwhile, Wilson and Tejada became the first duo to eclipse 20 in the same game since Nov. 17 when Tejada had 26 and junior Kyle Leufroy scored 23 in a 91-90 overtime win over Siena. Wilson and Tejada combined to shoot 10-of-15 from three-point range (4-of-4 and 6-of-9, respectively). Tejada’s six makes tied a career high, marking the fourth time this season he’s had five or more made threes and eighth time he’s had at least four.

Tejada has connected on 58-of-120 three-pointers this season (48.3 percent), the percentage good for first in the Patriot League and eighth in the nation.

Freshman Caleb Bennett added nine points in just 11 minutes while senior Kahron Ross recorded nine points and six assists without a turnover. Sophomore Pat Andree added eight points, six boards, an assist and steal.

The loss snapped the Mountain Hawks’ four-game winning streak against Army.

Lehigh will look to snap a mini two-game losing streak vs. Loyola. Wednesday could prove significant in the standings as the two teams are currently tied for sixth in the standings with identical 3-5 marks. Wednesday officially ends the first round of Patriot League play. Lehigh will then play Navy for the second time on Saturday.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Loyola won a pair of nail-bitters last season, 84-83 and 62-60, to take a 9-8 lead in the all-time series. The Mountain Hawks led for 39:14 in the first meeting and 26:34 in the second, but the Greyhounds came back in both contests for victories. Prior to last year, both sides alternated wins since Loyola joined the Patriot League for the 2013-14 season. Prior to meeting as league opponents, the teams previously played on Nov. 26, 1988, an 86-72 Lehigh victory. The sides first met in 1912-13, a 41-19 Lehigh victory. Loyola’s first win was in 1915-16 by a 35-15 final.

LAST MEETING

BALTIMORE (2/11-17) - The Lehigh men’s basketball team used a 12-1 second-half run to take a 10-point lead, but Loyola got back into the game with a 7-0 run and eventually scored what proved to be the game-winner in the final minute as the Mountain Hawks (12-10, 6-5 Patriot League) dropped another tough game to the Greyhounds, 62-60 on Wednesday evening. Wednesday marked the third straight game Lehigh has lost to Loyola in the final minute.

LAST TIME OUT

WEST POINT, N.Y. (1/20-18) - Freshman Marques Wilson helped spark a second-half rally, scoring 18 second-half points to help the Lehigh men’s basketball team trim a 19-point halftime deficit down to seven, but the Mountain Hawks couldn’t pull any closer in a 93-81 defeat at Army West Point on Saturday afternoon. Wilson finished with 20 points to shatter his previous career high while junior Lance Tejada tallied 25 points. The duo finished the game 10-of-15 from three-point range.

SCOUTING LOYOLA

Loyola enters Wednesday with a 5-14 record, including a 3-5 mark in the Patriot League. The Greyhounds won two of their first three league games, beating preseason No. 3 Navy and No. 2 Boston University at home, but have lost four of their last five. Most recently, Loyola dropped a 77-72 final at Colgate. Andre Walker leads Loyola in scoring and is fourth in the league, averaging 16.5 points per game, while Chuck Champion averages 13.2, Cam Gregory 12.8, Isaiah Hart 10.9 and Andrew Kontos 10.1. Gregory leads Loyola in rebounding (8.8) while Hart owns a team-leading 58 assists. The Greyhounds are 5-3 at home this season, but 0-11 on the road.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kaltron Ross needs two three-pointers for 100 in his career.
- Junior Lance Tejada has knocked down 58 three-pointers on the season (in 120 attempts). Tejada is on pace to potentially challenge the Lehigh school record of 92 by Brett Eppenheimer in 1997-98. That mark is also tied for ninth in Patriot League history.
- Tejada’s current 48.3 percentage from three would also be sixth in league history for a single season (minimum one made three-pointer per game).

Hand in with 582 career assists, 17 shy of the Patriot League record.

five assists against Yale.

After leading Lehigh in scoring in both if its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11.

After the tough start, Lehigh scored 42 points over the final 12:55 of the first half to help the Mountain Hawks score 80 points for the first time since Nov. 29 at Princeton (seven games ago). Lehigh scored 3.25 points per minute over that stretch, which was a 130 point per 40 minute clip.

Ross named Senior Class Award candidate (Dec. 29)

Lehigh men’s basketball standout Kahron Ross has been named one of just 30 candidate nation-wide for the Senior CLASS Award, as announced on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Lehigh and Patriot League career assists leader joins a long list of Mountain Hawks recognized by the prestigious award. Most recently, both Tim Kempton and Austin Price were named candidates last year, and Kempton was a finalist. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The award focuses on four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Ross is one of just three honorees from the Patriot League, along with Shawn Anderson (Navy) and Luke Morrison (Army West Point). Prior to the honors from Kempton and Price last year, C.J. McCollum and Gabe Knutson were named candidates in 2012-13. McCollum went on to be named a finalist and a first team Senior CLASS All-American. Marquis Hall was a finalist in 2009-10.

Nonleague success

Lehigh finished nonleague play with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) while falling to USC (Pacific-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

Ross - PL Player of the week (Dec. 11)

After leading Lehigh in scoring in both of its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11. Ross averaged 18.5 points in two games last week, a loss to Yale and a win over Mount St. Mary’s and added five assists in each game, with the second one against the Mountaineers giving him 579 for his career, moving Ross past Mackey McKnight into the top spot in Lehigh’s career assist list. The award marks the first Player of the Week honor for Ross’ career and is the first Patriot League weekly award won by a men’s basketball player this season. The Jonesboro, Ark., native led Lehigh with 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added five assists against Yale, before leading the Mountain Hawks with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and five assists in Saturday’s 75-60 win over the defending NEC champion Mountaineers. The record-breaking assist came with 16:17 remaining in the second half on a three-pointer by freshman Caleb Bennett.

He finished the weekend with 582 career assists, 17 shy of the Patriot League record.

Ross and leufroy named team captains

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

Lehigh Men’s basketball vs. Holy Cross (Jan. 5)

- Lehigh fell into an early 19-3 hole, but responded to take a 45-40 halftime lead and 67-51 second-half advantage. The Mountain Hawks outscored the Crusaders 54-22 in the middle stages of the game, but Holy Cross used a 15-2 run to pull within three with 5:09 still remaining. Not long after, Lehigh scored five straight points behind a Kyle Leufroy layup and Lance Tejada three-pointer, giving the Mountain Hawks an eight-point cushion, on their way to the 83-77 victory.

- Returning from injury, Tejada led the offense with 25 points off the bench, shooting 6-of-8 from three-point range. He also set a career high with five assists. Sophomore Pat Andre posted 17 points and seven boards, including 5-of-9 from long distance. He was integral in the first half, scoring 14 points to help Lehigh climb out of its early hole.

- Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points for the second time in the last three games and second consecutive Friday. Senior Kahron Ross had 12 points, Leufroy tallied 11 and sophomore Jordan Cohen scored 10. Ross moved up another spot in the Lehigh record book, passing Fred Ketcho for 23rd place in school history for career points.

- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers (on 26 attempts) to tie a Stabler Arena record. The last time the Mountain Hawks had 15 was last December 12 against Saint Francis (Pa.) when Lehigh was 15-of-31, led by Andre’s school-record tying 10 made threes (on 12 attempts). The last time Lehigh eclipsed 50 percent from three-point range was last Feb. 15 at Navy (52.6 percent, 10-of-19). The Mountain Hawks’ 57.7 three-point percentage was its best percentage since a 58.8 percentage (10-of-18) at Bucknell last Jan. 11.

- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers against Holy Cross compared to 14 two-pointers, marking the second time this season it had more made threes than twos, the other being at Virginia (10 made threes, nine made twos in that contest).

- After the tough start, Lehigh scored 42 points over the final 12:55 of the first half to help the Mountain Hawks score 80 points for the first time since Nov. 29 at Princeton (seven games ago). Lehigh scored 3.25 points per minute over that stretch, which was a 130 point per 40 minute clip.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH

Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

2017-18 Patriot League Men’s Basketball Preseason Player of the Year

Nana Foulland, Bucknell, Sr., C

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nordfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half. The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by wins against power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefe (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State. Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school-record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Bucberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knuston achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s... first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2017.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their three-year old son Marcus.
Noel Hightower begins his second season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2017-18, and first as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director’s Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffins’ defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (577), second in offensive rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (352), seventh in rebounds per game (5.4), second in blocks (114) and fifth in steals (128). Hightower shot 53.4 percent from the field as a senior (63-of-118). He was also a standout track and field athlete, highlighted by winning a CACC Individual Championship in 2015 in the 110-meter hurdles.

Hightower has shown tremendous leadership, serving as a three-year captain. He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College’s Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh’s summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament’s operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

Maye has continued his extensive involvement with the sport of basketball. He has served as a varsity assistant coach at his former high school (Stroudsburg) and has served as a personal basketball trainer for CoachUp. Maye has led individualized basketball workouts and skills training for young athletes, high school, college and professional players.

In addition, Maye has served as Camp Counselor for Hoop Group, helping young athletes enhance their basketball skills during their stay at various camps throughout the spring, summer and fall.

Jack Humsey begins his first season on the Lehigh men’s basketball staff as video coordinator in 2017-18.

Humsey came to Lehigh after graduating earlier this year from the University of New England in Biddeford, Maine with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Humsey has solid experiences in the game of basketball, which includes serving as a Youth Basketball Instructor and Youth Basketball Coach with various organizations, including The Grind Knows, YES! AAU, Saco, and ME - assisting with clinics, running drills and teaching fundamentals and teamwork in an age-appropriate, fun and engaging way. He also has experiences.

Humsey also has experiences as camp assistant at a few Elite Camps throughout New England. Additionally, Humsey was team manager at The Winchendon School in Winchendon, Massachusetts from October, 2011 through May, 2013.

Billy Dunn begins his first season as character coach for the Lehigh men’s basketball program in 2017-18.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2017
MCCANN ARENA
LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Marist came back from a 28-36 halftime deficit to take two straight halftime leads, but junior Lance Tejada tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a hard-fought 84-76 road win on Saturday evening. Tejada finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1996.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejada shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 990 career points while sophomore Tony Crook tallied 13 rebounds and four assists.

Junior Kyle Leffroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejada broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejada's four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock.

A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini 5-0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left in the first. However, the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with consecutive three-pointers, from Ross and Tejada, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later.

Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh's final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 15:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross' second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 then later took its first lead at 61-62 with 3:41 on the clock.

After halftime, An Andree three-pointer with one second remaining on the shot clock, evening the score at 64. On the next possession, Ross knocked down a trey to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds remaining, but Tejada was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 from the free throw line with just five seconds remaining to force overtime.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 9-2 run to end the game. Included was a pair of Tejada baskets separated by an Andree basket to give Lehigh a 78-77 lead in the opening minute of the extra session.

Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andree and Leffroy.

GAME 2 - NOV. 14, 2017
STABLER ARENA
MOMMOUTH 80, LEHIGH 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men's basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in the home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Ross' totals are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh's 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed's 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leffroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards.

Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a trey by Andree and a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

Cohen steal and layup ended a 5:41 Monmouth Hawks' scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth’s lead swelled to eight with just over a minute left in the first, but an Andree trey in the final seconds pulled Lehigh within 33-28 at the half.

Andree three just two minutes into the second half pulled Lehigh within at 39-35, but Monmouth scored nine of the next 11 points to open a double-figure advantage as a Micah Seaborn trey gave his team a 48-37 lead with 15:06 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejada trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks’ deficit to 56-50 with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.
GAME 3 - NOV. 17, 2017
STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 91, SIENA 90 (OT)

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Junior Kyle Leufroy converted a driving layup in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score, then classmate Lance Tejada scored six of Mountain Hawks’ 11 points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to an exciting 91-90 victory over Siena on Friday evening in Stabler Arena. With the win, Lehigh improves to 2-1 overall, six days after defeating Marist in overtime to open the season. Four Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by a career-high 26 from Tejada along with four from Fairchild and 15 from Leufroy. The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever victory in Siena in the first meeting between the two sides since 1985.

Tejada finished the evening 9-of-14 from the field, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Leufroy added eight rebounds, four assists and a steal, eclipsing 250 career rebounds in the process.
