SETTING THE SCENE

Comming off a heartbreaking double overtime defeat, the Lehigh men’s basketball team remains home on Saturday to host Navy. Opening tipoff in Stabler Arena is set for 7 p.m. and the game is presented by Northampton and Lehigh County Drug and Alcohol Administrations with the Center for Humanistic Change. Saturday is also part of Coaches vs. Cancer Suits and Sneakers Week as the cause is extra meaningful for the Lehigh Basketball and Lehigh Athletics family. Before opening tipoff, former men’s basketball student-athlete and 1,000 point scorer Jared Hess ’00 will be remembered - 10 years after he succumbed to leukemia (blood cancer) on Jan. 25, 2018. Saturday would have been Hess’ 40th birthday.

Fans on Saturday are encouraged to join the coaches, who will be wearing sneakers with their suits to promote healthy living. The goal of Coaches vs. Cancer is to increase cancer awareness and promote healthy living through awareness efforts, fundraising activities and advocacy programs.

The Mountain Hawks look to get back in the win column after three straight defeats and five losses in their last six games. There have been plenty of strong moments in that stretch, though. Last time out, Lehigh jumped out to a 17-point first-half lead, but Loyola rallied in the second. The Mountain Hawks rebounded from a tough shooting stretch to regain an 11-point lead heading into the final five minutes, but Loyola’s full-court pressure caused six straight Lehigh turnovers, helping the Greyhounds go on a 13-0 run in the span of 2:12. Lehigh forced overtime, but Loyola went on to the 91-88 double overtime victory.

Wednesday marked Lehigh’s third overtime game of the season (and first defeat). It was the Mountain Hawks’ first double overtime game since last season’s Patriot League Semifinals at Boston University, which ironically ended with the same 91-88 final, but this time in favor of Lehigh. One game after scoring a career-high 20 points at Army, sophomore Marques Wilson paced the Mountain Hawks’ offensive attack, scoring 12 of Lehigh’s first 15 points, pacing 15 in the first half and 19 for the game. Wilson also tallied career highs in rebounds (8), assists (5), steals (3) and blocks (2). Junior Lance Tejada scored 15 points, 12 coming after halftime, including two quick threes to begin the second overtime. Senior Kahron Ross also had 15 points along with six assists and two blocks, playing 48 of the 50 minutes. Sophomore Pat Andree scored 15 points, all coming after halftime, finishing 3-of-4 from three-point range to improve to 55.0 percent in Patriot League play (33-of-60). Freshman Caleb Bennett scored a career-high 12 points, which included a pair of thunderous dunks that got the Stabler Arena crowd to its feet. Junior Caleb Sedore also scored a career-high five points in eight minutes of action.

Sophomore Jordan Cohen had four points and four assists to eclipse 100 helpers in his career.

Lehigh shot 47.6 percent for the game (30-of-63) compared to Loyola’s 38.0 percent (30-of-79), but the Mountain Hawks turned the ball over 23 times (15 in the second half) compared to 14 for the Greyhounds. Loyola also took advantage of a 50-37 rebounding edge to hold a 17-10 advantage in second-half points. Loyola scored 28 points off turnovers compared to 15 for the Mountain Hawks.

Saturday begins the second round of Patriot League play; Lehigh is currently in a tie for seventh place in the standings, but is only a game behind Navy and Loyola, who are tied for fifth, and just two games behind Army West Point in fourth and three behind Colgate in third. After Saturday’s game, the Mountain Hawks will quickly hit the road for a Monday evening tilt at Holy Cross before returning home to host Boston University and Bucknell in the span of three days (Feb. 3 and Feb. 5).

Career-high 12 points vs. Loyola

Wen Gold medal with USA at Maccabiah Games

Three-star, top 50 shooting guard recruited by ESPN

Made collegiate debut vs. Mount St. Mary’s (12/9)
IF LEHIGH BEATS NAVY

- Lehigh would win at least one game vs. Navy for an eighth straight season. The Mountain Hawks would avoid being swept by Navy for the first time since 2009-10.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap their seaon-high-three-game losing streak.
- Lehigh would win its third straight game vs. Navy at home. The Mountain Hawks would improve to 9-1 overall in their last 10 home games against the Midshipmen.
- Lehigh would win a Patriot League regular season game for the 10th time in its last 17 tries.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kahron Ross needs one three-pointer for 100 in his career.
- Ross needs 15 points to pass Austin Rowland for 22nd place in school history for career points, he needs 16 points to pass Norm Brandl for 21st and 27 points to pass Bob Fortune for 20th. Ross currently owns 1,216 career points. (See page four for complete list).
- Junior Lance Tejada has knocked down 62 three-pointers this season (in 129 attempts). Tejada is on pace to potentially challenge the Lehigh school record of 92 by Brett Eppenheimer in 1997-98. That mark is also tied for ninth in Patriot League history.
- Tejada’s current 48.1 percentage from three would also be tied for sixth in league history for a single season (minimum one made three-pointer per game). Here’s the complete list entering the season.
  1. John Schoof, American (2012-13) 50.0
  2. Mark Jerz, Holy Cross (2002-03) 50.0
  3. Matt Bell, Army (2006-07) 50.0
  4. Mark McGwire, Colgate (2013-14) 48.0
  5. Chad Michaels, Army (1990-91) 48.9
  6. Jim Nairus, Holy Cross (1990-91) 48.1
  7. Austin Tillotson, Colgate (2013-14) 48.0
  8. Andy Smith, Army (2000-01) 47.6
- Lehigh’s 23 first-half points allowed marked its 10th time this season the Mountain Hawks have limited Navy to 30 or less points in the first half.

STRONG D VS. AMERICAN (JAN. 14)

Lehigh’s defense stood tall, holding American to just 35 percent shooting for the game on the way to a 76-66 win. The Eagles’ 35 percent shooting marked the second best mark for the Mountain Hawks’ D this season (second to allowing just 33 percent shooting by Mount St. Mary’s on Dec. 9).

- Lehigh’s 23 first-half points allowed marked its fewest points allowed in a half (first or second) all season. The Mountain Hawks held the league’s second-leading scorer Sa’eed Nelson to just 4-of-13 shooting from the field.

- Sophomore Pat Andree led the Lehigh offense with 19 points along with nine rebounds, shooting 3-of-5 from three-point range. Meanwhile, freshman James Karnik posted his third-career double-double, scoring a career-high 16 points while tying a career-high 12 rebounds. Junior Lance Tejada added 13 points and four boards while classmate Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and three rebounds.
- Senior Kahron Ross was strong, scoring six points and adding eight assists.
- The Mountain Hawks assisted on 16 of their 25 field goals while holding a 40-32 edge in rebounds.
- Lehigh’s fifth straight win against American helped it improve to 5-2 at home, 2-0 in league play. - Freshman Marques Wilson also continued his strong play against Patriot League opponents, contributing two points, two rebounds, two assists and two steals off the bench. Classmate Caleb Bennett had four points and two rebounds.
- American pulled within four on multiple occasions, but the Mountain Hawks opened a 15-point, 69-54 lead following a Tejada trey with 3:35 remaining. The Eagles had one last charge in the final minute to get as close as six, but that’s as close as they would come.

HOME WIN OVER HOLY CROSS (JAN. 5)
- Lehigh fell into an early 19-3 hole, but responded to take a 45-40 halftime lead and 67-51 second-half advantage. The Mountain Hawks outscored the Crusaders 54-22 in the middle stages of the game, but Holy Cross used a 15-2 run to pull within three with 5:09 still remaining. Not long after, Lehigh scored five straight points behind a Kyle Leufroy layup and Lance Tejada three-pointer, giving the Mountain Hawks an eight-point cushion, on their way to the 83-77 victory.
- Returning from injury, Tejada led the offense with 25 points off the bench, shooting 6-of-8 from three-point range. He also set a career high with five assists. Sophomore Pat Andree posted 17 points and seven boards, including 5-of-9 from long distance. He was integral in the first half, scoring 14 points to help Lehigh climb out of its early hole.
- Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points for the second time in the last three games and second consecutive Friday. Senior Kahron Ross had 12 points, Leufroy tallied 11 and sophomore Jordan Cohen scored 10. Ross moved up another spot in the Lehigh record book, passing Fred Ketcho for 23rd place in school history for career points.
- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers (on 26 attempts) to tie a Stabler Arena record. The last time the Mountain Hawks had 15 was last December 12 against Saint Francis (Pa.) when Lehigh was 15-of-31, led by Andree’s school-record tying 10 made threes (on 12 attempts). The last time Lehigh eclipsed 50 percent from three-point range was last Feb. 15 at Navy (52.6 percent, 10-of-19). The Mountain Hawks’ 57.7 three-point percentage was its best percentage since a 56.5 percentage (10-of-18) at Bucknell last Jan. 11.
- Lehigh made 15 three-pointers against Holy Cross compared to 14 two-pointers, marking the second time this season it had more made threes than twos, the other being at Virginia (10 made threes, nine made twos in that contest).
- After the tough start, Lehigh scored 42 points over the final 12:55 of the first half to help the Mountain Hawks score 80 points for the first time since Nov. 29 at Princeton (seven games ago). Lehigh scored 3.25 points per minute over that stretch, which was a 130 point per 40 minute clip.

ROSS NAMED SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE (DEC. 29)
Lehigh men’s basketball standout Kahron Ross has been named one of just 30 candidate nation-wide for the Senior CLASS Award, as announced on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Lehigh and Patriot League career assists leader joins a long list of Mountain Hawks recognized by the prestigious award. Most recently, both Tim Kempton and Austin Price were named candidates last year, and Kempton was a finalist. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School (CLAY-AIS), the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The award focuses on four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Ross is one of just three honorees from the Patriot League, along with Shawn Anderson (Navy) and Luke Morrison (Army West Point). Prior to the honors from Kempton and Price last year, C.J. McCollum and Gabe Knutson were named candidates in 2012-13. McCollum went on to be named a finalist and a first team Senior CLASS All-American. Marquis Hall was a finalist in 2009-10.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS
Lehigh finished nonleague play with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

ROSS - PL PLAYER OF WEEK (DEC. 11)
After leading Lehigh in scoring in both of its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11. Ross averaged 18.5 points in two games last week, a loss to Yale and a win over Mount St. Mary’s and added five assists in each game, with the second one against the Mountaineers giving him 579 for his career, moving Ross past Mackey McKnight into the top spot in Lehigh’s career assist list. The award marks the first Player of the Week honor of Ross’ career and is the first Patriot League weekly award won by a men’s basketball player this season. The Jonesboro, Ark., native led Lehigh with 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added five assists against Yale, before leading the Mountain Hawks with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and five assists in their game against Lafayette after being held scoreless in the first half. Ross then scored 13 of his 18 points in the final 10 minutes of their win over Colgate, as Lehigh improved to 5-2 at home and 2-0 in league play.

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign.

Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH

Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-Lehigh honoree each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

LH EAHD TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior year. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sports News’ website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” sitting earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

In 2015-16, Lehigh averaged 70.9 points per contest (fifth in the Patriot League) which included seven games with 80 or more points. Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks averaged 76.0 points per game, second in the Patriot League. Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Coach: Brett Reed (Eckerd College ’95), 11th Season
Associate Head Coach: Antoni Wyche (Notre Dame ’99)
Assistant Coaches: Harry Morra (DeSales ’04) and Noel Hightower (Chestnut Hill ’16)
Director of Basketball Operations: Riley Maye (Norfolk State ’14)
The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and in the same day (Nordfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half. The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State. Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s Division 1 College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school-record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Bublicher, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s... first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time as Lehigh and assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahron Ross, in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). In this first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPN Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions. Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their three-year old son Marcus.
Maye has continued his extensive involvement with the sport of basketball. He has served as a varsity assistant coach at his former high school (Stroudsburg) and has served as a personal basketball trainer for CoachUp. Maye has led individualized basketball workouts and skills training for young athletes, high school, college and professional players. In addition, Maye has served as Camp Counselor for Hoop Group, helping young athletes enhance their basketball skills during their stay at various camps throughout the spring, summer and fall.

LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Marist came back from a 28-36 halftime deficit to take two second-half leads, but junior Lance Tejeda tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a 90-84 win on Saturday evening. Tejeda finished with a career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first-season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1998.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejeda shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 900 career points while sophomore Kyle Leufroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejeda broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejeda's four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock.

A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini 5-0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left. However, back-to-back three-pointers, from Ross and Tejeda, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later. Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh's final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

MOMNOUTH 80, LEHIGH 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men's basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in the home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Ross and Tejeda are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh's 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed's 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Cohen trey and ending with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

Cohen steal and layup ended a 5:41 Mountain Hawks' scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth's lead swelled to eight with just over a minute left in the first, but an Andree trey in the final seconds pulled Lehigh within 33-28 at the half.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejeda trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks' deficit with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.

The Saints again responded, opening a 21-15 advantage. But a 12-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Caleb Bennett layup, gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-23 lead midway through the first. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes until late in the half, a Bennett dunk gave Lehigh a 40-36 lead with two minutes remaining. However, Clarett’s fourth trey of the first half pulled Siena within 40-39 following 20 minutes of play.

Early in the second, an 8-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Tejada trey, gave Lehigh a 51-45 lead. A few minutes later, Siena posted a 7-0 run to retake a 55-54 advantage with 14:56 left in the second half. Andree connected on a three-pointer just seconds into the overtime period and the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t let the rest of the way. Tejada went on to score six points in overtime for the second time, after also doing so in the season opener at Marist. Siena pulled within one on four occasions, including with 11 seconds remaining, but the Mountain Hawks were able to hold on for the 91-90 victory.

USC eventually opened an 18-point lead as a Chimezie Metu dunk gave the Trojans a 33-15 lead with 8:16 left in the first.

Lehigh fought back, staging an 13-2 run on the back of Ross. The run began with consecutive layups from Tejada and wrapped up with nine straight Ross points to keep the Trojans within 30. At 3:38 remaining, then a second-chance layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 35-28 not long after. USC reopened a 13-point lead, but Ross sunk consecutive floaters in the final 40 seconds of the half, including one as the buzzer expired, to pull Lehigh within 44-32 following 20 minutes of play.

USC quickly went on a 10-0 run in the first 1:49 of the second half as a Jonah Matthews trey gave the Trojans a 54-34 lead.
