Setting the Scene

Following a thrilling 71-67 win at Holy Cross Monday, the Lehigh men’s basketball team returns home for two straight games beginning on Saturday when it hosts Boston University. Opening tipoff on “Throwback Day” is set for 2 p.m. The Mountain Hawks picked up an exciting victory Monday to snap a four-game overall (and road) losing streak and wrap up the regular season sweep against the Crusaders.

Monday’s win wrapped up a busy month of January which saw Lehigh play 10 games, its most games in a month since January of 1994 when it also played 10 contests. Sophomore Jordan Cohen helped wrap up January in style by finishing Monday with a season-high 19 points, 16 in the second half and 12 in Lehigh’s 16-2 run to begin the second half. That run turned a 35-33 lead into a 51-35 advantage. The Mountain Hawks’ advantage eventually reached 19 following a Pat Andre three and Lehigh led 64-46 following a Caleb Bennett three-pointer with 5:34 remaining. Holy Cross responded with a quick 19-3 run in just over four minutes to pull as close as two, but Lehigh made a key defensive stop and freshman James Karnik grabbed a tough rebound off a Caleb Crockett three-pointer, to help wrap up the victory.

Along with Cohen’s 19 points, senior Kahron Ross tallied 13, 11 coming in the first half. In the process, Ross moved from 23rd into a tie for 21st place in school history for career points (currently 1,231). He also went 2-of-4 from three-point range to eclipse 100 made treys in his career. Leufroy added 12 points, shooting 2-of-3 from three-point range. Andre and Bennett each scored eight points; Bennett was a perfect 2-for-2 from beyond the arc. Through two games against Holy Cross, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 55 percent from long distance. Lehigh picked up the victory, despite missing juniors Lance Tejada and Caleb Sedore with undisclosed injuries.

Defense helped spark the Mountain Hawks Monday, allowing just 46 points over the game’s first 34:30, including just two over the first seven second-half minutes. Lehigh’s swarming full-court ball pressure led to several steals and fast break opportunities. All seven Mountain Hawks who played recorded at least one steal as Lehigh recorded 10 steals for the game, reaching double digits for the fourth time this season and first time since Nov. 19 against Eastern University.

On the other end, Lehigh continued its stellar three-point shooting, finishing at 52 percent (11-of-21) from behind the arc. Through two games against Holy Cross, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 55 percent from distance (26-of-47). Lehigh was 15-of-26 in the first meeting vs. the Crusaders. Monday marked Lehigh’s second straight game shooting 50+ percent from long distance after a 12-of-22 effort vs. Navy, marking the first time the Mountain Hawks eclipsed 50 percent from three in consecutive games since Dec. 30, 2015 vs. Army West Point (10-of-18) and Jan. 2, 2016 at Boston University (10-of-17).

Overall, Lehigh has double-digit made threes in five straight games, shooting 59-of-123 in that span (48 percent). It marks the first time in Brett Reed’s tenure as head coach (11th season) that the Mountain Hawks have done so in five consecutive games; last year, Lehigh had double-digit threes in four straight games on two separate occasions. Lehigh’s season percentage is up to 39.8 percent from distance, 44.8 percent in league play.

Saturday marks the first of two home games in three days; Lehigh will also host Bucknell on Monday (Feb. 5) for its second straight Monday night on CBS Sports Network.
IF LEHIGH BEATS BOSTON UNIVERSITY
- Lehigh would beat Boston University for the second time in its last three tries.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap a four-game regular season losing streak against the Terriers.
- Lehigh would improve to 16-2 over its last 18 February games (since February, 2016).
- The Mountain Hawks would snap a two-game home losing streak and improve to 6-5 at home this season.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...
- Senior Kahron Ross needs one point to pass Norm Brandt for 21st place in school history in career scoring and 12 points to pass Bob Fortune for 20th. Ross currently owns 1,231 career points. (See page four for complete list.)
- Junior Lance Tejeda has knocked down 66 three-pointers on the season (in 135 attempts). Tejeda is on pace to potentially challenge the Lehigh school record of 92 by Brett Eppenheimer in 1997-98. That mark is also tied for ninth in Patriot League history.
- Tejeda’s current 49.9 percentage from three would also be tied for fifth in league history for a single season (minimum one made three-pointer per game).
Here’s the complete list entering the season.
1. John Schoof, American (2012-13) 50.7
2. Mark Jerz, Holy Cross (2006-07) 50.0
3. Matt Bell, Army (2004-05) 48.9

STRONG D VS. AMERICAN (JAN. 14)
- Lehigh’s defense stood tall, holding American to just 35 percent shooting for the game on the way to a 76-66 win. The Eagles’ 35 percent shooting marked the best mark for the Mountain Hawks’ D this season (second to allowing just 33 percent shooting by Mount St. Mary’s on Dec. 9).
- Lehigh’s 23 first-half points allowed marked its fewest points allowed in a half (first or second) all season. The Mountain Hawks held the league’s second-leading scorer Sa’eed Nelson to just 4-of-13 shooting from the field.
- Sophomore Pat Andree led the Lehigh offense with 19 points along with nine rebounds, shooting 3-of-6 from three-point range. Meanwhile, freshman James Karnik posted his third-career double-double, scoring a career-high 16 points while tying a career-high 12 rebounds. Junior Lance Tejeda added 13 points and four boards while classmate Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and three rebounds.
- Senior Kahron Ross was strong, scoring six points and adding eight assists.
- The Mountain Hawks assisted on 16 of their 25 field goals while holding a 40-32 edge in rebounds.
ROSS NAMED SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE (DEC. 29)
Lehigh men’s basketball standout Kahron Ross has been named one of just 30 candidate nation-wide for the Senior CLASS Award, as announced on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Lehigh and Patriot League career assists leader joins a long list of Mountain Hawks recognized by the prestigious award. Most recently, both Tim Kempton and Austin Price were named candidates last year, and Kempton was a finalist. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The award focuses on four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Ross is one of just three honorees from the Patriot League, along with Shawn Anderson (Navy) and Luke Morrison (Army West Point). Prior to the honors from Kempton and Price last year, C.J. McCollum and Gabe Knutson were named candidates in 2012-13. McCollin went on to be named a finalist and a first team Senior CLASS All-American. Marquis Hall was a finalist in 2009-10.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS
Lehigh finished nonleague play with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

ROSS - PL PLAYER OF WEEK (DEC. 11)
After leading Lehigh in scoring in both of its games and reaching another career milestone, senior guard Kahron Ross was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Monday, Dec. 11. Ross averaged 18.5 points in two games last week, a loss to Yale and a win over Mount St. Mary’s and added five assists in each game, with the second one against the Mountaineers giving him 579 for his career, moving Ross past Mackey McKnight into the top spot in Lehigh’s career assist list. The award marks the first Player of the Week honor of Ross’ career and is the first Patriot League weekly award won by a men’s basketball player this season. The Jonesboro, Ark., native led Lehigh with 19 points on 7-of-14 shooting and added five assists against Yale, before leading the Mountain Hawks with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and five assists in Saturday’s 75-60 win over the defending NEC champion Mountaineers. The record-breaking assist came with 16:17 remaining in the second half on a three-pointer by freshman Caleb Bennett. He finished the weekend with 582 career assists, 17 shy of the Patriot League record.

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS
In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH
Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM
For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. A. In that game, Hawks ended up coming together as a team after Lehigh's 2017-18 season, they gave off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS
Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

- Ross was strong in a 79-74 win at Lafayette (Dec. 29), scoring a team-high 17 points while adding five rebounds and five assists. In the process, he became the first player in the program’s 100+ year history to go 4-0 at Lafayette in a career.

- Ross finished his freshman season averaging 10.4 points (third on the team), 5.8 assists (most on the team, and league) and 2.8 rebounds. He was the nation’s leader in assists among freshmen.
- Ross earned Patriot League Rookie of the Week five times (Nov. 24, Dec. 22, Jan. 12, Feb. 2, Feb. 9) and was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Lehigh’s fifth in the previous nine years.
- In his sophomore season, Ross averaged 11.2 points and 6.1 assists and was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, after earning third team laurels as a freshman. He led the Patriot League in assists in games, and finished 23rd nationally.
- Over the final seven games of the 2015-16 regular season, Ross averaged 17.6 points per game while dishing 48 assists compared to just 14 turnovers while also knocking down 13-of-20 three-pointers.
- In the Patriot League Championship Game vs. Holy Cross, Ross became the school’s record holder for assists in a season.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS
- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS
- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fifth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers, coming off a 2015-16 season which saw him win the Kia NBA Most Improved Player award.
- McCollum is currently averaging 22.0 points per game (20th in the NBA), 4.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists in 50 games this season. He has reached double-figure points in all but one game, including 20+ points in 31 contests and 30+ points in four. McCollum also has a 50-point game (Jan. 31 vs. Chicago).
- McCollum tallied 20+ points in six consecutive games, from Dec. 9 against Houston through Dec. 18 at Minnesota.
- McCollum scored 36 points against Memphis on Nov. 7, shooting 14-of-26 from the field, including 4-of-10 from three-point range.
- McCollum exploded for 34 points on Dec. 28 vs. Philadelphia, including a perfect 14-of-14 from the free throw line. He also had 32 points less than a week later in a New Year’s Day win at Chicago.
- McCollum scored 25 points vs. San Antonio on Jan. 7, including the game-winning shot with 5.9 seconds remaining in a 111-110 win.
- McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31 when he scored a career-high 50 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range. It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn’t play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State’s Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.
- In 2016-17, McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-of-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Phoenix.
- McCollum went on to score 35, 27 points then 35 points over his next three games (at Golden State, vs. the Lakers and vs. Detroit). He then had 25 points at Los Angeles and 27 in a 102-86 home win over defending NBA champion Cleveland on Jan. 11 and 26 points at Orlando on Jan. 13. McCollum became the first Trail Blazer to post eight straight games of 25+ points since Clyde Drexler in 1987. His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.
- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.
- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.
- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley.
- A number of Mountain Hawks currently stand among the nation’s leaders in career categories.

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second-longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s .580 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nordfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shuttered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds.

Along Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s...
In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2017
MCCANN ARENA
LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Marist came back from a 38-26 halftime deficit to take a second-half lead, but junior Lance Tejeda tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men's basketball team to a hard-fought 84-76 road win on Saturday evening. Tejeda finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first-season-opening victory since 2008 and first-season opener to go to overtime since 1986.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejeda shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist. Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 990 career points while sophomore Leif Leufroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejeda broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejeda's four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock.

A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini-5:0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage. Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left in the first. However, the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with consecutive three-pointers, from Ross and Tejeda, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later. Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh's final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross' second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 then later took its first lead at 61-62 with 3:41 on the clock. After halftime, Marist had a huge momentum boost with one more three-pointer remaining on the shot clock, evening the score at 64. On the next possession, Ross knocked down a trey to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds remaining, but Tejeda was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 from the free throw line with just five seconds remaining to force overtime.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 13-2 run to end the game. Included was a pair of Tejeda baskets separated by 28 seconds, with a Tejeda steal in between. The second gave Lehigh a 78-74 advantage with just 2.5 seconds on the clock. Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andrej and Leufroy.

GAME 2 - NOV. 14, 2017
STABLER ARENA
MOMMONTH 80, LEHIGH 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men's basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in their home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Monmouth's total of four is for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh's 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed's 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a trey from Tejeda and with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

A 6-1 run from Caleb Bennett and layup ended a 5:41 Marist Hawks' scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth's lead swelled to eight with just over a minute left in the first, but an Andree trey in the final seconds pulled Lehigh within 33-28 at the half.

Andree three just over two minutes into the second half pulled Lehigh within 19 at 39-35, but Monmouth scored nine of the next 11 points to open a double-figure advantage as a Micah Seaborn trey gave his team a 48-37 lead with 15:06 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejeda trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks' deficit to 63-56 with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.
BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Junior Kyle Leufroy converted a driving layup in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score, then classmate Lance Tejada scored six of the Mountain Hawks’ 11 points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to an exciting 91-90 victory over Siena on Friday evening in Stabler Arena. With the win, Lehigh improves to 2-1 overall, six days after defeating Marist in overtime to open the season. Four Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by a career-high 26 from Tejada along with a season-high 23 from Leufroy. The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever victory in Stabler Arena in the first meeting between the two sides since 1983.

Tejada finished the evening 8-14 from the field, including 4-7 from three-point range. Leufroy added eight rebounds, four assists and a steal, eclipsing 250 career rebounds in the process. Sophomore Pat Andre just missed his second-career double-double, posting 16 points and nine rebounds, shooting 5-of-11 from the field and 3-of-5 from the three-point range. Senior Kahron Ross tallied 10 points and a season-high eight assists compared to just two turnovers.

Less than two minutes in, Siena took a quick 10-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks responded with an 11-0 run. The run began with a Leufroy three-pointer, the 100th of his career, and ended with a Leufroy layup, giving Lehigh a 13-10 advantage with 16:05 still left in the first.

The Saints again responded, opening a 21-15 advantage, but a 12-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Caleb Bennett layup, gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-23 lead midway through the first. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes until late in the half, a Bennett dunk gave Lehigh a 40-36 lead with two minutes remaining. However, Clarett’s fourth trey of the first half pulled Siena within 40-39 following 20 minutes of play.

Early in the second, an 8-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Tejada trey, gave Lehigh a 51-45 lead. A few minutes later, Siena posted a 7-0 run to retake a 55-54 advantage with 14:56 left in the second half. The ensuing minutes saw eight ties (at 55, 57, 59, 62, 64, 66, 71 and 73) before consecutive Andree layups, at 4:29 and 3:52 gave Lehigh a 77-73 advantage. However, Siena responded with six of the next seven points as a Roman Penn layup gave the Saints a 79-78 advantage with 2:06 on the clock.

Trailing 80-78 with seven seconds remaining, Leufroy took the inbounds and went all the way in to finish a tough shot in the paint, forcing overtime.

Andree connected on a three-pointer just seconds into the overtime period and the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t trail the rest of the way. Tejada went on to score six points in overtime for the second time, after also doing so in the season opener at Marist. Siena pulled within one on four occasions, including with 11 seconds remaining, but the Mountain Hawks were able to hold on for the 91-90 victory.

GAME 4 - NOV. 19, 2017 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 95, EASTERN 70

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Six Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men’s basketball team defeated visiting Eastern University, 95-70 on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 3-1 after four games for the first time since 2008-09, heading into a four-game road trip beginning with a Wednesday night showdown at No. 10 USC.

In the end, Lehigh played strong team basketball as 21 of the Mountain Hawks’ 35 field goals were assisted. Freshman James Karnik tallied a team (and career) high 15 points and six rebounds, shooting 5-of-8 from the field. Sophomores Pat Andre and Jordan Cohen each had 14 points while junior Kyle Leufroy scored 12, freshman Caleb Bennett tallied a career-high 11 and junior Lance Tejada recorded 10. Bennett was a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor and 2-of-2 from the free throw line.

Along with the six in double figures, senior Kahron Ross finished with four points and eight assists compared to zero turnovers in 22 minutes as he inch ed closer to the Lehigh and Patriot League career assist records. Freshman Marques Wilson and sophomore Ed Porter each posted career-high point totals of seven and six, respectively.

Lehigh broke a 10-1 tie with an 11-2 run, beginning with a Cohen three-pointer and ending with a Cohen jumper which gave the Mountain Hawks a 22-11 advantage with 12:27 left in the first half. Not long after, Lehigh went on a 10-0 run to take a 32-14 lead. The run began with a jumper from Porter, included four points from Leufroy and ended with a Wilson jumper to give Lehigh a 32-14 advantage with exactly nine minutes to go in the first.

From there, Lehigh’s lead remained between 13 and 18 as Wilson hit a jumper as the first-half clock expired to give the Mountain Hawks a 45-29 advantage after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh quickly extended its lead to 20 early in the second, but the Eagles wouldn’t go away. Eastern pulled back within 13 at 64-51 midway through the half, but Lehigh answered with a 7-0 surge capped off by a Leufroy fastbreak layup to give his side a 71-51 lead with 9:33 remaining.

Lehigh’s lead eventually reached 27 following a Tejada trey with 3:31 on the clock, on the way to the 95-70 victory.
Los Angeles – The Lehigh men’s basketball team battled to pull within 10 at the half, but USC began the second on a 10-0 run and the Mountain Hawks couldn’t get any closer than 15 the rest of the way in an 88-63 loss on Wednesday evening at the Galen Center. Senior Karon Ross was stellar, scoring 24 points to tie a career high, 20 coming in the first half, while junior Lance Tejada added 19 points. Combined, Ross and Tejada shot 17-of-30 from the field. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-2 on the season.

With Ross’ 24 points, he moved from 34th to 32nd place in school history for career points (currently 1,041). Ross finished 9-of-13 from the field, 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line. Tejada scored 11 of his 19 in the second half, shooting 8-of-17 for the game. Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially late, finishing with seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, seven points and seven boards in the second half.

In a comeback game to Southern California, junior Kyle Leufroy opened the scoring on the game’s first possession, but the Trojans immediately staged a 10-0 run to take a 10-2 advantage with 16:40 remaining in the first half. USC eventually opened an 18-point lead as a Chimezie Metu fall to 3-3 on the season, heading into a game at Princeton Wednesday afternoon. Lehigh was within four (72-68) with 3:23 remaining, but the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to pull away. Freshman Caleb Bennett scored seven points and was a perfect 2-of-2 from the field, while junior Jordan Cohen had seven points as well.

An early 6-0 Lehigh run turned a 5-2 deficit into an 8-5 lead as a Tejeda three-pointer, Karnik field goal and Cohen free throw gave Lehigh a three-point advantage with 14:27 remaining in the first half. The teams traded baskets over the ensuing minutes as a Leufroy three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 15-13 advantage with 10:05 remaining in the stanza.

Pitt responded with eight of the next 10 points to take a 21-17 lead, eventually extending its lead to eight at 29-21 with less than two minutes to go in the first. The margin went to nine at 33-24 with less than a minute remaining, but both Ross and Leufroy converted layups in the final seconds to pull the Mountain Hawks within 32-27 at the half.

A Tejeda three-pointer less than two minutes into the second pulled Lehigh within 34-30, but Pitt gradually rebuilt its lead as a Kene Chukwuka gave the Panthers their first double-digit lead at 51-40 with 12:22 remaining.

A Bennett three-pointer and Karnik layup quickly pulled the Mountain Hawks back within five, but Pitt again answered to take a double-digit lead. From there, the margin swung between five and 10 until Lehigh made a late-game charge. Trailing 72-63 following a Jonathan Milligan layup, Lehigh used a 5-0 run behind Pat Andree’s third-pointer in less than a minute, and two Ross free throws which cut Pitt’s lead to 72-68 with 3:31 still remaining.

However, Lehigh’s offense went cold and the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to win, 80-68.
GAME 7 - NOV. 29, 2017

Lehigh jumped out to a quick 5-0 lead behind a Karnik layup and Tejada three-pointer. The Tigers later pulled within 10-6 and then 12-8, but four was as close as Princeton would get the rest of the half. A 5-0 Mountain Hawks’ surge behind a Leffroy jumper and Tejada three-pointer gave Lehigh its first double-digit lead at 23-13 with 11:10 left in the stanza. Princeton scored the next four points, but the Mountain Hawks responded with a 9-2 run. Consecutive Leffroy baskets gave Lehigh a 32-19 lead with 7:39 on the clock, forcing the Tigers to call their second timeout of the half.

The Mountain Hawks went into halftime leading 43-32 on a 9-0 run behind a Bennett jumper, Porter layup, Cohen driving bank shot and Ross three-pointer as the first half expired. In the end, Lehigh held Princeton scoreless for the final 3:36 of the first.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team came back from a 34-33 halftime deficit, using a 17-2 second-half run to cruise to a 75-60 victory against pending NEC Champion Mount St. Mary's on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena.
