The Mountain Hawks hung tough through much of the game, but couldn’t get over the hump. Brett Reed’s defensive pressure forced the Hawks’ advantage into a 23-19 Monmouth lead. The Mountain Hawks didn’t score a point for more than five minutes and struggled to get much going the rest of the game. Lehigh did pull within five at the half and four early in the second half, but couldn’t get any closer in the eventual 80-72 loss. In the end, Lehigh lost its home opener for just the third time in its last 12 tries.

Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the offense with a game-high 18 points, just two from tying his career high of 20 - ironically set in last year’s home opener against Princeton. Cohen finished 7-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-5 from three-point range. Senior Kahron Ross posted 13 points, a career-high six steals and career-high four assists compared to just one turnover. With 3:46 remaining, Ross knocked down a pair of free throws to become the 35th player in school history to reach 1,000 career points.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH

Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS
In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed has announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM
For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

NEAR THE TOP IN THE NATION
Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks finished top 30 in the nation in several team categories: 12th in free throw percentage (77.2), 23rd in three-point field goal percentage (39.2), 29th in field goal percentage (47.9) and 46th in defensive rebounds per game (27.13). Individually, Tim Kempton finished fourth in defensive rebounds per game (8.47), seventh in double-doubles (21), 13th in rebounds per game (10.4), 28th in free throws made (168) and 44th in field goal percentage (54.7). Meanwhile, Kahron Ross was 35th in assists per game (5.3) and 50th in total assists (164).

His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.

- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.

- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.

- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.

- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.

- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sportng News' website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” sitting earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

Common Homecomings

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players' hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kaltron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks will be traveling to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

BRETT REED
Head Coach
11th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norse State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomores. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went on careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with an injury in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

That season, McCollum picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

During the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buehberger, Zach Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers.

Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees.

Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an associate coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahlorn Ross, a three-time All-Patriot League honoree and former Rookie of the Year. Ross became Lehigh’s fifth Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15. Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche’s first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvot in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvot in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Ad-ironadk Wildcats of USBL in 2003.

Antoni and his wife Jill reside in Bethlehem with their daughters Keilah and Jaya.

Harry Morra enters his third season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2017-18 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before beating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Tim Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College Basketball All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahlorn Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Tejada finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks’ first season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1986.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejada shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 990 career points while sophomore Marist Freshman Kaiwan Marquis added 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting. Junior Kyle Leufroy filled up the stat sheet with nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, two assists and three steals.

Early on, Tejada broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run was capped off by the first two of Tejada’s four first-half three-pointers, the second giving the Mountain Hawks a 16-7 lead with 13:39 on the first-half clock. A few minutes later, Lehigh went on a mini 5-0 surge capped off by a Jordan Cohen layup to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-9 advantage.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left in the first. However, the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with a combination of three-pointers, from Ross and Tejada, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later. Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh’s final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining put Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross’ second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 then later took its first lead at 62-61 with 3:41 on the clock.

Late in regulation, Andrim etched out comeback three-pointer with one second remaining on the shot clock, evening the score at 64. On the next possession, Ross knocked down a three to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds remaining, but Tejada was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 from the free throw line with just five seconds remaining to force overtime.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 12-2 run to run Lehigh out to 74-69.

Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andrace and Leufroy.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men’s basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in the home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Ross and Cohen are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh’s 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed’s 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and five rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebounds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Tejada trey and ending with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks a 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

A Cohen steal and layup ended a 5:41 Marist Hawks’ scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth’s lead swelled to eight with just over a minute left in the first, but an Andree trey in the final seconds pulled Lehigh within 33-28 at the half.

An Andree three just over two minutes into the second half pulled Lehigh within of its 39-35, but Monmouth scored nine of the next 11 points to open a double-figure advantage as a Micah Seaborn trey gave his team a 48-37 lead with 15:06 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejada trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks’ deficit to five with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.
