46 percent for USC (12-of-26). The Mountain Hawks have continued to take care of the ball, turning the ball over just 10 times. Lehigh is averaging just 10.4 turnovers this season, turning the ball over 13 times or fewer in all five games thus far.

Saturday will mark the third time in the last six seasons Lehigh will play at Pittsburgh. The Mountain Hawks fell at Pitt in consecutive seasons in 2012-13, but that marked the Panthers’ last season in the Big East). Lehigh has enjoyed success against power conference opponents, posting a 3-6 record since the beginning of 2014-15 (which marked current senior point guard Kahron Ross’ freshman season). In that span, Ross and the Mountain Hawks have defeated opponents from the Big East (DePaul), SEC (Arizona State) and SEC (Mississippi State). Five of the losses were against ranked opponents with the Mountain Hawks playing tough - being down by no more than 10 at the half of any game and even taking second-half leads vs. Villanova in 2014-15 and Xavier in 2016-17. The sixth loss was to a Syracuse team that went on to make the Final Four in 2015-16. In that game, the Mountain Hawks began the second half on a 18-4 run to pull within six with 12:35 still remaining.

Most recently, Lehigh played at a talented USC team Wednesday. The Trojans jumped out to a 33-15 lead just over 10 minutes into the game, but the Mountain Hawks outscored USC 19-11 the rest of the half to pull within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play. Ross was the story, especially early. He finished with a career-high tying 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting, with 20 of the points coming in the first half. Junior Lance Tejada wasn’t far behind, recording 19 points on 8-of-17 shooting. Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially in the second half. He recorded seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, every point and all but two rebounds coming in the second half. The USC game marked a homecoming for a pair of Southern California natives: junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana).

After scoring 342 points through four games (Lehigh’s most since 1991-92), the Mountain Hawks scored a season low 68 points. Ross and Tejada shot a combined 17-of-30, but the rest of the team was just 8-of-40. As a team, Lehigh was just 25 percent from three-point range (7-of-28), compared to 46 percent for USC (12-of-26). The Mountain Hawks have continued to take care of the ball, turning the ball over just 10 times. Lehigh is averaging just 10.4 turnovers this season, turning the ball over 13 times or fewer in all five games thus far.

Saturday will mark the third time in the last six seasons Lehigh will play at Pittsburgh. The Mountain Hawks fell at Pitt in consecutive seasons in 2012 (78-53) and 2013 (77-58). Ironically, Saturday will mark the third straight season Lehigh plays a power conference opponent on Nov. 25, which is Leufroy’s birthday. Two years ago, the Mountain Hawks lost at Virginia while last year, they defeated Mississippi State.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (11/20/13) - The Lehigh men’s basketball team fell into an early hole which proved too much as Pittsburgh walked away with a 77-58 win on Wednesday evening at the Petersen Events Center. Freshman Tim Kempton led the offense with a career-high 20 points while junior Stefan Cvrkalj chipped in nine points in just 10 minutes. The Mountain Hawks won the second half, 35-30, as they allowed just 17 Panthers points over the final 14 minutes.

LOS ANGELES (11/22/17) – The Lehigh men’s basketball team battled to pull within 10 at the half, but USC began the second on a 10-0 run and the Mountain Hawks couldn’t get any closer than 15 the rest of the way in an 86-63 defeat on Wednesday evening at the Galen Center. Senior Kahlron Ross was stellar, scoring 24 points to tie a career high, 20 coming in the first half, while junior Lance Tejada added 19 points. Combined, Ross and Tejada shot 17-of-30 from the field. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-2 on the season.

LAST MEETING: Pitt 77-58, November 20, 2013
- Lehigh would win for the 10th time in its last 13 games dating back to last season.

FIRST-EVER WIN VS. SIENA (NOV. 17)

- Lehigh earned a 91-90 overtime win vs. Siena, the team’s second OT victory in six days to begin the season.
- The game was a matchup of two teams who advanced to their respective conference finals last season.
- Lehigh’s two overtime victories in the nonleague schedule is already most in school history in the Patriot League era (which began in 1990).
- Leufroy went full-court in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score at 80 and force overtime. In the ensuing overtime period, junior Lance Tejada scored six points for the second straight OT (also doing so at Marist). He finished with a career-high 26 points while Leufroy tied a career high with 23.
- Sophomore Pat Andree was also strong, recording 16 points and nine rebounds, including a number of big plays late in regulation and the beginning of overtime. He scored eight of his points in the stretch of 4:33, including a three-pointer just four seconds into overtime.

- The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever win over Siena in the third-ever meeting. Prior to this season, the teams hadn’t met since 1985.

HOME OPENING LOSS VS. MONMOUTH (NOV. 14)
- The Mountain Hawks helped force 27 Monmouth turnovers, the most turnovers Lehigh has forced in Brett Reed’s 11 seasons as head coach. However, Lehigh’s offense struggled to knock down shots, connecting on just 50 percent of its free throws and only 28 percent of its three-pointers. The Mountain Hawks hung tough through much of the game, but couldn’t get over the hump.

- Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for the second straight game to begin the season. The Mountain Hawks also had single-digit turnovers themselves for a second straight contest.
- Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the offense with a game-high 18 points, just two from tying his career high of 20 - ironically set in last year’s home opener against Princeton. Cohen finished 7-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range.
- Senior Kahron Ross posted 13 points, a career-high six steals and career-high four assists compared to just one turnover. With 3:46 remaining, Ross knocked down a pair of free throws to become the 35th player in school history to reach 1,000 career points. The last Mountain Hawk to reach the milestone was Austin Price in the 2015-16 regular season finale at Army West Point; Price also scored his 1,000th via a free throw.
- Junior Kyle Leufroy added 11 points on Tuesday while sophomore Pat Andree scored 10.
- The Mountain Hawks were outrebounded 53-24, but Monmouth had 27 turnovers and 14 fewer missed shots than Lehigh, which helped lead to the rebound discrepancy.
- Monmouth earned its first-ever win at Lehigh.

GRITTY OT WIN AT MARIST IN OPENER (NOV. 11)
- Junior Lance Tejada scored a career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut, including six of the Mountain Hawks’ 15 points in overtime, to lead Lehigh to an 84-76 overtime win at Marist, its first season-opening victory since 2008.

- Tejada was especially strong early and late on Saturday, scoring 14 first-half points on 5-of-10 shooting (4-of-8 from three-point range) while scoring eight points in the final 5:05. With five seconds left in regulation, he evened the score with two free throws while he had six points on 3-of-3 shooting, along with a steal in overtime.

- The Red Foxes jumped out to an early overtime lead, but Lehigh ended the game on a 13-2 run. Tejada had a jumper, steal then layup in the matter of 28 seconds to turn a 74-74 tie into a 78-74 advantage. The Mountain Hawks wouldn’t look back.

- Senior Kahron Ross finished with 17 points to reach 990 for his career. Twelve of those points came in the second half, finishing the night a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range. His third trey gave Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds remaining in regulation.

Sophomore Pat Andree added 13 points while junior Kyle Leufroy had nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, three steals and two assists. After getting into first-half foul trouble, freshman Caleb Bennett made a major impact after halftime, posting all nine points on 3-of-4 shooting, along with four rebounds. Included were several key driving layups at opportune times.

- The win marked Lehigh’s first season-opening victory since beating Saint Peter’s (a MAAC team, like Marist) on Nov. 15, 2008.

- It was Lehigh’s first season opener to go to overtime since Nov. 29, 1986, a 99-98 win over Harvard.

- In the process, the Mountain Hawks snapped a four-game losing streak against MAAC opponents, marking Lehigh’s first win vs. the MAAC since a 76-69 home win over Quinnipiac on Dec. 9, 2013. It was Lehigh’s first road win against the MAAC since Dec. 28, 2011 against Saint Peter’s, snapping a three-game road losing streak.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH
Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoree following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returnees, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 558 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish in championship and second in quarterback home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

ROSS RUNNING THE POINT

Senior Kahron Ross looks to become Lehigh’s third straight four-year starter at point guard following Marquis Hall and Mackey McKnight. Ross currently stands third in school history with 558 career assists.
- Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering third team as a freshman (and Rookie of the Year), first team as a sophomore and second team as a junior.
- So far this season, Ross is averaging 13.6 points, 3.4 rebounds and 5.8 assists per game.
- Ross is currently no. 4 in the nation among active players in career assists.
- Ross was stellar at No. 10 USC, scoring 20 first-half points and finishing with 24 (to tie a career high). He shot 9-of-13 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line.
- Last season, Ross averaged 9.8 points, 3.1 rebounds and 5.3 assists (35th in the nation).
- Ross opened the season with an impressive effort at No. 7/8 Xavier, posting six points and 12 assists, just two from tying his own school record of 14 set at Arizona State. Nine of his assists came in the first half, and he turned the ball over just three times for the game.

- Ross just missed a triple-double on Jan. 25 at Colgate, posting 16 points, nine assists and a career-high eight rebounds.
- Ross finished his freshman season averaging 10.4 points (third on the team), 5.8 assists (most on the team, and league) and 2.8 rebounds. He was the nation’s leader in assists among freshmen.
- Ross earned Patriot League Rookie of the Week five times (Nov. 24, Dec. 22, Jan. 12, Feb. 2, Feb. 9) and was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Lehigh’s fifth in the previous nine seasons.
- In his sophomore season, Ross averaged 11.2 points and 6.1 assists and was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, after earning third team laurels as a freshman. He led the Patriot League in assists per game, and finished 23rd nationally.
- Over the final seven games of the 2015-16 regular season, Ross averaged 17.6 points per game while dishng 48 assists compared to just 14 turnovers while also knocking down 13-20 three-pointers.
- In the Patriot League Championship Game vs. Holy Cross, Ross became the school’s record holder for assists in a season.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS
- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fifth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers, coming off a 2015-16 season which saw him win the Kia NBA Most Improved Player award.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.5 points per game (20th in the NBA), 4.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists in 17 games this season. He has reached double-figure points in all but one game, including 20+ points in 11 contests and 30+ points in one (Stats before games Friday, Oct. 24).
- McCollum scored 36 points against Memphis on Tuesday, Nov. 7, shooting 14-26 from the field, including 4-9 from three-point range.
- In 2016-17, McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-18 shooting against Phoenix.
- McCollum went on to score 35, 27 points then 35 points over his next three games (at Golden State, vs. the Lakers and vs. Detroit). He then had 25 points at Los Angeles and 27 in a 102-86 home win over defending NBA champion Cleveland on Jan. 11 and 26 points at Orlando on Jan. 13. McCollum became the first Trail Blazer to post eight straight games of 25+ points since Clyde Drexler in 1987. His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.

- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.
- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-20 from the field and 7-11 from three-point range in Game 5.
- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line since at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.
- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News’ website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” sitting earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS
Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahron Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM
- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, five Lehigh players tallied a semester GPA over 3.4: graduate student Devon Carter 3.66 (Psychology), Jordan Cohen 3.58 (Arts and Sciences), Pat Andre 3.55 (Arts and Sciences), Brandon Alston 3.52 (Economics) and Caleb Sedore 3.43 (Arts and Sciences), each being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. In addition, Josh Wolf had a 3.07 (Arts and Sciences) and Austin Price recorded a 3.03 (Finance).

So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 69.5 percent (66-of-95).

Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Coach: Brett Reed (Eckerd College '95), 11th Season

Associate Head Coach: Antoni Wyche (Notre Dame '99)

Assistant Coaches: Harry Morra (DeSales '04) and Noel Hightower (Chestnut Hill '16)

Director of Basketball Operations: Riley Maye (Norfolk State '14)
The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ‘13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nashville State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough nonconference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half. The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sopho. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State. Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semis and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five First Team for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Terry Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s... first All-District selection since 1998.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed’s immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year’s senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed several excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight and Austin Price join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schafer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

Departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahlron Ross, a three-time All-Patriot League honoree and former Rookie of the Year. A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC.
