SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh men’s basketball team continues its challenging road stretch on Wednesday when it travels to face defending Ivy League Champion Princeton. Opening tipoff is set for 8 p.m. on NBC Sports Philadelphia (formally The Comcast Network). The Mountain Hawks are coming off losses at No. 10 USC and Pitt, but will be vying for their second straight win over the Tigers.

Most recently, Lehigh hung close at Pitt of the ACC on Saturday, but couldn’t get over the hump. The Mountain Hawks led, or were within striking distance, for much of the game, but Pitt shot 60 percent in the second half (15-of-25) which proved too much for Lehigh to overcome. The first half was very defensive with Pitt holding a 32-27 halftime advantage, but the teams exploded for 89 second-half points with the Panthers holding a 48-41 edge.

Lehigh looked to be making a late charge as a 5-0 run pulled it within four at 72-68 with 3:23 remaining, but Pitt ended the game on an 8-0 run for the 80-68 win. Junior James Karnik was the story for Lehigh, posting 14 points and 10 rebounds for his first-career double-double. Nine of his boards came in the first half while 10 of his points came in the second, finishing 7-9 from the field for the game. He became the first Mountain Hawk to record a double-double vs. a power conference foe since Tim Kempton at Syracuse in the 2015-16 season opener. In addition to Karnik, junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points, six rebounds and four assists on his birthday. Leufroy has played on his birthday each and every year of his career, falling at Virginia, beating Mississippi State then falling at Pitt.

Senior Kahron Ross tallied nine points and six assists, moving ever closer to the Lehigh career assists record. He owns 564, needing just three more to pass Marquis Hall for second place in school history and third place in league history. Next after Hall would be Mackey McKnight, whose 578 assists record. He owns 564, needing just three more to pass Marquis Hall for second place in school history.

Lehigh’s offense struggled in the first half Saturday, shooting just 35.5 percent from the field, including 22.2 percent from three-point range (2-of-9), but it bounced back to shoot 50 percent from the field and long distance in the second half. In the end, Lehigh scored in the 60s for a second straight game after its 342 points through four games were its most since the 1991-92 season. The Mountain Hawks continue to take care of the basketball, turning the ball over just 10 times on Saturday, having not turned the ball over 13 times all season (average of just 10.3).

Following Wednesday’s game at Princeton, the challenging schedule continues as the Mountain Hawks travel to Virginia to face the Cavaliers for the second time in the last three years.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Lehigh’s win last season marked just its fifth all-time win over Princeton in 35 meetings, but it was the Mountain Hawks’ second in their last three contests. Prior to the Jan. 6, 2008 win (68-49), Princeton had won 23 straight meetings. Lehigh’s previous victory was during the 1929-30 season (30-23) with the other Lehigh wins in 1925-26 (33-25) and 1920-21 (24-20). The first-ever meeting between the sides was in 1905-06, a 46-22 Princeton win.

LAST MEETING

BELLEHEM, Pa. (11/20/16) - Tied at 34 at the half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team opened the second on a 8-0 run and didn’t trail the rest of the way, beating preseason Ivy League favorite Princeton on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena, 76-67. Replacing an injured Kahron Ross in the starting lineup, freshman Jordan Cohen scored 20 points on 7-of-8 shooting while dishing six assists. Senior Tim Kempton scored a game-high 24 points while adding 11 rebounds for his second straight double-double.

LAST TIME OUT

PITTSBURGH (11/25/17) – The Lehigh men’s basketball team took an early first-half lead and stayed within a few possessions for much of the game, but couldn’t get over the hump as Pitt downed the Mountain Hawks, 80-68 on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh was within four (72-68) with 3:23 remaining, but the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to pull away. Freshman James Karnik led the charge with his first-career double-double, posting 14 points on 7-of-9 shooting along with 10 rebounds. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-3 on the season, heading into a game at Princeton Wednesday night.

IF LEHIGH BEATS PRINCETON

- Lehigh would win back-to-back games against Princeton for the first time in program history and improve to 6-30 all-time against the Tigers.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap a two-game road losing streak and improve to 2-2 on the road this season.
- Lehigh would win for the 10th time in its last 14 games dating back to last season.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- Senior Kahron Ross needs five points to move past Ed Cahin ’55 into 31st place in school history for career points and he needs nine points to move past Charles Blue ’82 into 30th place. He needs 19 points to move past Bill Cheslock ’88 into 29th place and 23 points to move past Ray Green ’78 into 28th. Ross enters the game with 1,050 career points.
- Ross needs three assists to move past Marquis Hall into second place in school history and third in Patriot League history in career assists. Ross is currently at 564. He is currently 14 points from tying Mackey McKnight’s school-record 578 assists (which is second in league history).

MILESTONE WATCH

A number of Lehigh players have recently reached significant career milestones or have milestones within grasp, which were reached or could be reached this season.

Player | Milestone | Currently Away
--- | --- | ---
Kyle Leufroy | 1,000 points | 762 238
Kyle Leufroy | 1,050 | 238
Kahron Ross | 600 assists | 564 38
Kahron Ross | 1,000 points | 564 38
Kahron Ross | 100 steals | 564 38
Kahron Ross | 100 made 3-pointers | 564 38

COMPETITIVE LOSS AT PITT (NOV. 25)

- Lehigh hung close at Pitt of the ACC on Saturday, but couldn’t get over the hump. The Mountain Hawks led, or were within striking distance, for much of the game, but Pitt shot 60 percent in the second half (15-of-25) which proved too much for Lehigh to overcome.
- The first half was very defensive with Pitt holding the Mountain Hawks to 32-32 halftime advantage, but the teams exploded in the second half while 10 of his points came in the second, finishing 7-of-9 from the field for the game. He became the first Mountain Hawk to record a double-double vs. a power conference foe since Tim Kempton at Syracuse in the 2015-16 season opener.
- Junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points, six rebounds and four assists on his birthday. Leufroy has played on his birthday each and every year of his career, falling at Virginia, beating Mississippi State then falling at Pitt.
- Senior Kahron Ross tallied nine points and six assists, moving ever closer to the Lehigh career assists record.

SCOUTING PRINCETON

Coming off an NCAA Tournament appearance last season, Princeton is 2-3 on the season following an 83-70 loss at Penn State (65-56) and at Saint Joseph’s (71-58). Devin Cannady entered the game with 1,050 career points. He is currently 14 points from tying Mackey McKnight’s school-record 1,064 assists (which is second in league history).

LAST GAME VS. PRINCETON NOTABLES

- Lehigh earned an impressive victory over pre-season Ivy League favorite Princeton, despite playing without All-Patriot League point guard Kahron Ross who missed the game due to injury.
- Jordan Cohen stepped up in a big way, scoring 20 points on just eight field goal attempts (finishing 7-of-8 from the field, 3-of-4 from three-point range and 3-of-3 from the free throw line) in his first-career game in Stabler Arena. Cohen also dished six assists compared to just four turnovers in 39 minutes of action. Meanwhile, Tim Kempton enjoyed another strong game, scoring 24 points on 7-of-13 shooting while adding 11 rebounds for his second straight double-double and 35th of his career. He also added a career-high tying four assists, three blocks and a steal.
- Austin Price scored 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three-point range.
- As a team, the Mountain Hawks shot 57 percent from the field (26-of-46), including 63 percent from three-point range (10-of-16). Included was a 14-of-16 effort from the free throw line. Lehigh missed just 22 shots all afternoon.
- The 20 missed field goals marked Lehigh’s fewest since Jan. 26, 2012 when the Mountain Hawks were 21-of-41 in a 71-60 win over Navy. The six missed three-pointers were Lehigh’s fewest in any game with at least 10 makes since Dec. 5, 2007 when Lehigh was 11-of-13 from long range in a 76-61 win over Stony Brook.

POSITIVE MOMENTS AT NO. 10 USC (NOV. 22)
- The No. 10 Trojans jumped out to a 33-15 lead just over 10 minutes into the game, but the Mountain Hawks outscored USC 19-11 the rest of the half to pull within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play.
- Senior Kahron Ross was the story, especially early. He finished with a career-high tying 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting, with 20 of the points coming in the first half. The 20 points in a half tied a career high (also accomplished in the second half at Navy his sophomore year).
- Junior Lance Tejada wasn’t far behind Ross, recording 19 points on 8-of-17 shooting.
- Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially in the second half. He recorded seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, every point and all two rebounds coming in the second half.
- The USC game marked a homecoming for a pair of Southern California natives: junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana).

FIRST-EVER WIN VS. SIENA (NOV. 17)
- Lehigh earned a 91-90 overtime win vs. Siena, the team’s second OT victory in six days to begin the season.
- The game was a matchup of two teams who advanced to their respective conference finals last season.
- Lehigh’s two overtime victories in the nonleague schedule is already most in school history in the Patriot League era (which began in 1990).
- Leufroy went full-court in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score at 80 and force overtime. In the ensuing overtime period, junior Lance Tejada scored six points for the second straight OT (also doing so at Marist). He finished with a career-high 26 points while Leufroy tied a career high with 23.
- Sophomore Pat Andree was also strong, recording 16 points and nine rebounds, including a number of big plays late in regulation and the beginning of overtime. He scored eight of his points in the stretch of 4:33, including a three-pointer just four seconds into overtime.
- The win marked Lehigh’s first-ever win over Siena in the third-ever meeting. Prior to this season, the sides hadn’t met since 1985.

GRITTY OT WIN AT MARIST IN OPENER (NOV. 11)
- Junior Lance Tejada scored a career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut, including six of the Mountain Hawks’ 15 points in overtime, to lead Lehigh to an 84-76 overtime win at Marist, its first season-opening victory since 2008.
- Tejada was especially strong early and late on Saturday, scoring 14 first-half points on 5-of-10 shooting (and 4-of-8 from three-point range) while scoring eight points in the final 5:05. With five seconds left in regulation, he evened the score with two free throws while he had six points on 3-of-3 shooting, along with a steal in overtime.
- The Red Foxes jumped out to an early overtime lead, but Lehigh ended the game on a 13-2 run. Tejada had a jumper, steal then layup in the matter of 28 seconds to turn a 74-74 tie into a 78-74 advantage. The Mountain Hawks wouldn’t look back.
- Senior Kahron Ross finished with 17 points to reach 990 for his career. Twelve of those points came in the second half, finishing the night a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range. His third trey gave Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds remaining in regulation.
- Sophomore Pat Andree added 13 points while junior Kyle Leufroy had nine points, a career-high tying nine rebounds, three steals and two assists. After getting into first-half foul trouble, freshman Caleb Bennett made a major impact after halftime, posting all nine points on 3-of-4 shooting, along with four rebounds. Included were several key driving layups at opportune times.
- The win marked Lehigh’s first-season-opening victory since beating Saint Peter’s (a MAAC team, like Marist) on Nov. 15, 2008.
- It was Lehigh’s first season opener to go to overtime since Nov. 29, 1986, a 99-98 win over Harvard.
- In the process, the Mountain Hawks snapped a four-game losing streak against MAAC opponents, marking Lehigh’s first win vs. the MAAC since a 76-69 home win over Quinnipiac on Dec. 9, 2013. It was Lehigh’s first road win against the MAAC since Dec. 28, 2011 at Saint Peter’s, snapping a three-game road losing streak.

ROSS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; MOUNTAIN HAWKS PICKED FOURTH
Senior Kahron Ross was named preseason All-Patriot League while the Mountain Hawks were picked fourth in the preseason poll, as announced by the league on Wednesday, Oct. 18. Ross was an All-League honoré following each of his first three seasons and entered his senior campaign needing just 46 assists to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader in that category and only 27 points to reach 1,000 in his career. He looks to lead a Mountain Hawks’ squad coming off two straight appearances in the Patriot League Championship Game.

ROSS AND LEUFROY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

In early November, Lehigh head coach Brett Reed announced that senior Kahron Ross and junior Kyle Leufroy will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ captains. Ross and Leufroy are Lehigh’s most experienced returning players, who look to lead a young squad in 2017-18. Both started and played key roles in the Mountain Hawks’ back-to-back Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League point guard, who enters his senior campaign with 533 career assists, needing just 34 to become Lehigh’s all-time career leader and 67 to break the Patriot League career mark. Leufroy has also been a mainstay for the Mountain Hawks since his freshman campaign. Last season, Leufroy averaged 11.4 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, one year after averaging 10.6 and 4.0, respectively to earn a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie team.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

For a second straight season, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. The Mountain Hawks continued to come together as a team in advance of the 2017-18 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last eight years (2010-17), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in seven of those seasons.
- Over the last eight years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish in both season and second in quarterfinal home games (seven).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (79) and number of double-figure win seasons (five).
- Over the last five years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 52.

ROSS RUNNING THE POINT

- Senior Kahron Ross looks to become Lehigh’s third straight four-year starter at point guard following Marquis Hall and Mackey McKnight. Ross currently stands third in school history with 564 career assists.
- Ross is a three-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering third team as a freshman (and Rookie of the Year), first team as a sophomore and second team as a junior.
- So far this season, Ross is averaging 12.8 points, 3.2 rebounds and 5.2 assists per game.
- Ross is currently No. 5 in the nation among active players in career assists.
- Ross was stellar at No. 10 USC, scoring 20 first-half points and finishing with 24 (to tie a career high). He shot 9-of-13 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line.
- Last season, Ross averaged 9.8 points, 3.1 rebounds and 5.3 assists (55th in the nation).
- Ross opened the season with an impressive effort at No. 7/8 Xavier, posting six points and 12 assists, just two from tying his own school record of 14 set at Arizona State. Nine of his assists came in the first half, and he turned the ball over just three times for the game.

- He scored 18 points at Mississippi State, 13 coming in the second. Seven points came in the first 1:23 of the second half. Two days later, Ross scored 21 points in his homecoming game at Arkansas State.
- Ross just missed a triple-double on Jan. 25 at Colgate, posting 16 points, 21 points in his homecoming game at Arkansas State.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum became the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.

MCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fifth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers, coming off a 2015-16 season which saw him win the Kia NBA Most Improved Player award.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.5 points per game (20th in the NBA), 4.3 rebounds and 2.5 assists in 20 games this season. He has reached double-figure points in all but one game, including 20+ points in 13 contests and 30+ points in one (Stats before games Tuesday, Nov. 28).
- McCollum scored 36 points against Memphis on Tuesday, Nov. 7, shooting 14-of-26 from the field, including 4-of-10 from three-point range.
- McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-of-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Phoenix.
- McCollum went on to score 35, 27 points then 35 points over his next three games (at Golden State, vs. the Lakers and vs. Detroit). He then had 25 points at Los Angeles and 27 in a 102-86 home win over defending NBA champion Cleveland on Jan. 11 and 26 points at Orlando on Jan. 13. McCollum became the first Trail Blazer to post eight straight games of 25+ points since Clyde Drexler in 1987. His eight straight 25+ point games was tied for the third-longest streak in team history.
- On Feb. 2, it was officially announced that for a second straight year, McCollum would take part in the three-point contest at NBA All-Star Weekend.

LEHIGH AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS

- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.
- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.
- In the Western Conference playoffs, posting 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5.
- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-18 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.
- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley. A week later, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat.
- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News’ website titled “Why I’m returning to Lehigh for my senior year,” sitting his degree as one of the primary reasons.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Most recently, last season, Lehigh had a game at Arkansas State, which is located in the same hometown as Kahlom Ross. This year, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for junior Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and sophomore Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.).

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, five Lehigh players tallied a semester GPA over 3.4: graduate student Devon Carter 3.66 (Psychology), Jordan Cohen 3.58 (Arts and Sciences), Pat Andre 3.55 (Arts and Sciences), Brandon Alston 3.52 (Economics). and Caleb Sedore 3.43 (Arts and Sciences), each being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. In addition, Josh Wolf had a 3.07 (Arts and Sciences) and Austin Price recorded a 3.03 (Finance).

- Last fall, four Lehigh student-athletes posted semester GPAs of 3.2 or higher: Cohen 3.64 (Arts and Sciences), Carter 3.33 (Psychology), Alston 3.26 (Economics) and Leufroy 3.20 (Business).

- Four Mountain Hawks own cumulative GPAs over 3.0: Marques Wilson 4.0 (Business), Cohen 3.65 (Arts and Sciences), Andreu 3.45 (Arts and Sciences) and James Karnik 3.30 (Business).

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

Lehigh has one double-double this season, by freshman James Karnik at Pitt (Nov. 26).

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh has led the Patriot League in scoring in four of the last eight seasons. The Mountain Hawks averaged a league-leading 75.1 points per game in 2009-10, 73.6 in 2010-11, 75.7 in 2011-12 and 73.1 in 2012-13. In 2012-13, the Mountain Hawks eclipsed 70 points in 19 of 31 games, 80 ten times, 90 three times and 100 once. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks averaged 68.1 points per game, which was fourth in the league. In 2015-16, Lehigh averaged 70.9 points per contest (fifth in the Patriot League) which included seven games with 80 or more points. Last season (2016-17), the Mountain Hawks averaged 76.0 points per game, second in the Patriot League. Lehigh beat Saint Francis (Pa.) 100-67 as the 100 points marked the first time Lehigh eclipsed 100 since February of 2015, a 103-74 win over Army.

So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 78.8 points per game, third in the Patriot League. Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to last season, it hadn’t happened since the 1999-00 campaign.

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. In the following season 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation’s best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. Last year, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. Lehigh was 19-of-19 from the charity stripe at Lafayette (Feb. 19), which was just the 16th time in the nation that a team was perfect from the line all season. So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 70.8 percent (75-of-106), fourth in the Patriot League.

LEHIGH ON NATIONAL, REGIONAL TV

Lehigh men’s basketball will appear on national and local TV several times this season. More than 20 games can be seen in HD for free on the new Patriot League Network, at least two on CBS Sports Network, ESPN3, Pac-12 Networks, ACC Network Extra and more. In addition, all home Patriot League games not picked up by CBS air locally in the Lehigh Valley on Service Electric 2 Sports.

HOME SWEET STABLER

The Mountain Hawks have won seven of their last eight, 42 of their last 62, 64 of their last 88 and 77 of their last 106 in the friendly confines of Stabler Arena. They had an 11-game home win streak snapped vs. Bryant on Dec. 29, 2012 and an eight-game winning streak snapped on Jan. 5, 2014 against Boston University. Lehigh also had an eight-game home winning streak snapped during the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game.

Here’s a look at Lehigh’s home success since the start of the 2002-03 season:
Overall Record: 157-57 (.734)
Non-League Record: 74-20 (.787)
Patriot League Record (Regular and Postseason): 83-37 (.692)
Longest Winning Streak: 16 games (11/25/03 - 12/6/04)

UP NEXT...

The Mountain Hawks will head to Virginia on Saturday to face the No. 15/18 Cavaliers. Opening tipoff is set for 12 p.m. on ACC Network Extra (WatchESPN).

BRETT REED
Head Coach
11th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2017-18 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 11th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 10 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2017-18 with 182 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed’s 58.0 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last eight years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Tim Kempton was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilbao Basket in the top league in Spain. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 10 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Nordfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlorn Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate’s Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

The success continued in 2016-17 as the Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. In the end, Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buburberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s...
WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

“Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. In just a few years, he has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He’s building a program that can withstand one of sport’s ultimate challenges – the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment.”
- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

“I’ve known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He’s an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter.”

“Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience.”

Antoni Wyche enters his ninth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2017-18, and seventh as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 153-103 in his eight seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2017.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in seven of the last eight seasons.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum finished the 2016-17 season 20th in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game). Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with current senior Kahron Ross, a three-time All-Patriot League honoree and former Rookie of the Year.

Ross became Lehigh’s fifth Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15. Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas for Bilboa Basket in the top league in Spain.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebouds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche’s first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvot in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvot in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Ad-ironduck Wildcats of USBL in 2003.

Harry Morra enters his third season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2017-18 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams.

In the end, Tim Kempton led the team in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

Under Morra’s watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their three-year old son Marcus.
Maye has continued his extensive involvement with the sport of basketball. He has served as a varsity assistant coach at his former high school (Stroudsburg) and has served as a personal basketball trainer for CoachUp. Maye has led individualized basketball workouts and skills training for young athletes, high school, college and professional players.

In addition, Maye has served as Camp Counselor for Hoop Group, helping young athletes enhance their basketball skills during their stay at various camps throughout the spring, summer and fall.

Noel Hightower begins his second season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2017-18, and first as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director’s Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffins' defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (128), most in steals (128). Hightower shot 53.4 percent from the field as a senior (63-of-118). He was also a standout track and field athlete, highlighted by winning a CACC Individual Championship in 2015 in the 110-meter hurdles.

Hightower has shown tremendous leadership, serving as a three-year captain. He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College’s Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh’s summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament’s operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

Humsey came to Lehigh after graduating earlier this year from the University of New England in Biddeford, Maine with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Humsey has solid experiences in the game of basketball, which includes serving as a Youth Basketball Instructor and Youth Basketball Coach with various organizations, including The Grid Knows, YES! AAU, Saco, and ME - assisting with clinics, running drills and teaching fundamentals and teamwork in an age-appropriate, fun and engaging way. He also has experiences.

Humsey also has experiences as camp assistant at a few Elite Camps throughout New England. Additionally, Humsey was team manager at The Winchendon School in Winchendon, Massachusetts from October, 2011 through May, 2013.

Riley Maye begins his first season at Lehigh as Director of Basketball Operations in 2017-18. Maye replaced Noel Hightower, who was promoted to an assistant coaching position. An East Stroudsburg native, Maye has extensive basketball experience, both as a coach and player.

Maye played college basketball at Norfolk State, graduating in 2014 with a Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology. He was a member of the 2012 Norfolk State team, a No. 15 seed that defeated second-seeded Missouri in the NCAA Tournament - the same day 15th-seeded Lehigh topped Duke. Maye worked his way into more playing time as his collegiate career progressed and as a senior, he averaged 4.5 points per contest, competing in 33 games with 10 starts.

A member of Norfolk State’s Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Maye was also recognized as the 2015-2016 Image Award recipient recognizing the Outstanding Collegiate Athlete in Monroe County.

After college, Maye went on to play professional basketball in Beijing, China, competing on a traveling professional tour team in numerous tournaments around the country in different cities and villages.

GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2017
MCCANN ARENA
LEHIGH 84, MARIST 76
POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. - Marist came back from a 38-26 halftime deficit to take control of the second half, but junior Lance Tejada tied the score with two free throws in the final seconds and followed with six points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to a hard-fought 84-76 road win on Saturday evening. Tejada finished with a game and career-high 24 points in his Lehigh debut. It marked the Mountain Hawks’ first-season-opening victory since 2008 and first season opener to go to overtime since 1986.

An East Carolina transfer, Tejada shot 9-of-20 from the field and 4-of-10 from three-point range while adding six rebounds, two steals and an assist.

Senior Kahron Ross scored 17 points, 12 in the second half to reach 900 career points while sophomore Jordan Cohen added 13 points and four rebounds.

Early on, Tejada broke a 5-5 tie with a layup, sparking an 11-2 run. The run followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andree and remaining, but Tejada was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 a trey to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Later in the half, Marist used a 7-2 run of its own to pull within 28-21 with 4:05 left in the first. However, Monmouth quickly answered with consecutive three-pointers, from Ross and Tejada, to take a 34-21 lead less than a minute later. Sophomore Ed Porter scored Lehigh’s final four points of the half before a Marist free throw with six seconds remaining pulled Marist within 38-26 after 20 minutes of play.

Marist opened the second half on a 10-0 run as a pair of three-pointers, from Ryan Funk and Kristinn Palsson, pulled the Red Foxes within 38-36, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:15 on the clock.

Lehigh used an 8-0 run, which included Ross’ second consecutive three-point play and a three-pointer from the top of the key, to take a 54-44 advantage with 9:26 on the clock.

A few minutes later, the back-and-forth half continued as Marist reeled off an 8-0 run to pull even at 58 then later took its first lead at 62-51 with 3:41 on the clock.

A late in regulation, Andree hit another three-pointer with one second remaining on the shot clock, evening the score at 64. On the next possession, Ross knocked down a trey to give Lehigh a 67-66 advantage with 58 seconds left in regulation.

Three Marist free throws gave the Red Foxes a 69-67 lead with 12 seconds remaining, but Tejada was fouled shooting a three-pointer and knocked down 2-of-3 from the free throw line with just five seconds remaining to force overtime.

Marist jumped out to an early overtime lead, but the Mountain Hawks answered with a 13-2 run to end the game. Included was a pair of Tejada baskets separated by 28 seconds, with a Tejada steal in between. The second gave Lehigh a 78-74 advantage with 2:58 on the clock. Lehigh sealed the win with a driving layup from freshman Caleb Bennett followed by four consecutive free throws, two each from Andree and Leufroy.

GAME 2 - NOV. 14, 2017
STABLER ARENA
MOMNOUTH 80, LEHIGH 72
BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Despite struggling offensively for much of the game, the Lehigh men’s basketball team forced 27 turnovers to hang with Monmouth, but in the end, the visitors surged past the Mountain Hawks in the home opener, 80-72 on Tuesday evening. Senior Kahron Ross finished with 13 points and a career-high six steals, also eclipsing 1,000 career points. Sophomore Jordan Cohen led the Lehigh offense with 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

As a team, Lehigh finished with 10 steals, reaching double figures for a second straight game to begin the season. Rookie players are tied for the fourth most in NCAA Division I so far this season while Lehigh’s 27 forced turnovers are most in Brett Reed’s 11-year tenure as head coach.

Ross knocked down a pair of free throws with 3:46 remaining in the second half to become the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points, finishing the night 5-of-10 from the field, including 1-of-2 from three-point range. He added four assists and four rebounds, turning the ball over just once.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks had just nine turnovers, tallying single-digit turnovers for the second straight game to begin the season while forcing 16 or more turnovers for a second consecutive contest. Lehigh forced 20 or more turnovers for the first time since forcing 22 on Dec. 1, 2012 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Along with Cohen and Ross, junior Kyle Leufroy posted 11 points and five rebouds while sophomore Pat Andree had 10 points and three boards. Freshman Caleb Bennett had eight points, a block and steal.

Early on, Monmouth jumped out to leads of 2-0 and 2-4, but the Mountain Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Cohen trey and ending with a Bennett layup, to take a 12-4 lead with 12:56 remaining in the first half.

A few minutes later, a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage, but Monmouth immediately responded with a 12-0 run capped off by a George Pappas three-pointer to give the Hawks 23-19 lead with 4:51 remaining in the first half.

Cohen steal and layup ended a 5:41 Mountain Hawks’ scoring drought, pulling Lehigh within 23-21. Monmouth’s lead swelled to eight with just over four minutes remaining in the first half.

Hawks used a 10-0 run, beginning with a Cohen trey and ending with a Bennett free throw, to take a 39-29 lead with 15:06 on the clock.

An Andree three just over two minutes into the second half pulled Lehigh within 39-35, but Monmouth scored nine of the next 11 points to open a double-figure advantage as a Micah Seaborn trey gave his team a 48-37 lead with 14:10 on the clock.

Lehigh pulled within single digits on multiple occasions, but Monmouth always had an answer. A Lance Tejada trey trimmed the Mountain Hawks’ deficit to 63-56 with 7:51 left in the second half, but Monmouth immediately went on a 7-0 run to take a 70-56 lead, on its way to the 80-72 victory.

STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 91, SIENA 90 (OT)

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Junior Kyle Leufroy converted a driving layup in the final seconds of regulation to tie the score, then classmate Lance Tejada scored six of Mountain Hawks’ 11 points in overtime to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to an exciting 91-90 victory over Siena on Friday evening in Stabler Arena.

With the win, Lehigh improves to 2-1 overall, six days after defeating Marist in overtime to open the season. Four Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points, led by a career-high 26 from Tejada along with six of the next seven points as a Romar Penn layup gave the Saints a 10-10 tie with 16:05 still left in the first.

Less than two minutes in, Siena took a quick 10-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks responded with an 11-0 run. The run began with a Leufroy three-pointer, the 100th of his career, and ended with a Leufroy layup, giving Lehigh a 13-10 advantage with 16:05 still left in the first.

The Saints again responded, opening a 21-15 advantage, but a 12-2 Lehigh run capped off by a Caleb Bennett layup, gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-23 lead midway through the first. The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes until late in the half, when a Bennett dunk gave Lehigh a 40-36 lead with two minutes remaining. However, Clarett, fourth of the first half, pulled Lehigh within six of the next seven points as a Romar Penn layup gave the Saints a 79-78 advantage with 2:06 on the clock.

Trailing 80-78 with seven seconds remaining, Leufroy took the inbounds and went all the way to the line to force a foul shot in the paint, forcing overtime.

Andree connected on a three-pointer just seconds into the overtime period and the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t give way. Andree, who finished with five points, went on to score six points in overtime for the second time, after also doing so in the season opener at Marist.

Sienna pulled within one on four occasions, including with 11 seconds remaining, but the Mountain Hawks were able to hold on for the 91-90 victory.

GAME 4 - NOV. 19, 2017
STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 95, EASTERN 70

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Six Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men’s basketball team defeated visiting Eastern University, 95-70 on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 3-1 after four games for the first time since 2008-09, heading into a four-game road trip beginning with a Wednesday night showdown at No. 10 USC.

In the end, Lehigh played strong team basketball as 21 of the Mountain Hawks’ 35 field goals were assisted. Freshman James Karnik tallied a team (and career) high 15 points and six rebounds, shooting 5-of-8 from the field.

Sophomore Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen each had 14 points while junior Kyle Leufroy scored 12, freshman Caleb Bennett tallied a career-high 11 and junior Lance Tejada recorded 10. Bennett was a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor and 2-of-3 from the free throw line.

Along with the six in double figures, senior Kahron Ross finished with four points and eight assists compared to zero turnovers in 22 minutes as he notched closer to the Lehigh and Patriot League career assist records.

From there, Lehigh’s lead remained between 13 and 18 as Wilson hit a jumper as the first-half clock expired to give the Mountain Hawks a 45-29 advantage after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh quickly extended its lead to 20 early in the second, but the Eagles wouldn’t go away. Eastern pulled within 13 at 64-51 midway through the half, but Lehigh answered with a 7-0 surge capped off by a Leufroy fastbreak layup to give his side a 71-51 lead with 9:33 remaining. However, Eastern rallied and trimmed the gap to eight before Andree hit a free throw with 3:31 on the clock, the way to the 95-70 victory.
Freshman Lance Tejada scored 11 of his 19 in the second half, shooting 8-of-17 for the game. James Karnik was stellar, scoring 24 points to tie a career high, 20 coming in the first half, while junior Lance Tejada added 19 points. Combined, Ross and Tejada shot 17-of-30 from the field. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-2 on the season.

With Ross’ 24 points, he moved from 34th to 32nd place in school history for career points (currently 1,041). Ross finished 9-of-13 from the field, 2-of-3 from three-point range and 4-of-5 from the free throw line. Tejada scored 11 of his 19 in the second half, shooting 8-of-17 for the game. Freshman James Karnik was strong, especially late, finishing with seven points and a career-high nine rebounds, seven points and seven boards in the second half.

In a homecoming game to Southern California, junior Kyle Leufroy opened the scoring on the game’s first possession, but the Trojans immediately staged a 10-0 run to take a 10-2 advantage with 16:40 remaining in the first half. USC eventually opened an 18-point lead as a Chimezie Metu dunk gave the Trojans a 33-15 lead with 8:16 left in the first.

Leigh fought back, taking an 13-2 run on the back of Ross. The run began with consecutive layups from Tejada and wrapped up with nine straight points from Ross, as the third placed Ross and Lehigh with 3:38 remaining, then a second-chance layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 35-28 not long after. USC reopened a 13-point lead, but Ross sunk consecutive floaters in the final 40 seconds of the half, including one as the buzzer expired, to pull Lehigh within 44-34 following 20 minutes of play.

USC quickly went on a 10-0 run in the first 1:49 of the second half as a Jonah Matthews trey gave the Trojans a 54-34 lead. A few minutes later, a Karnik offensive rebound and layup marked Lehigh’s fifth straight point to pull Lehigh within 54-39. USC responded to repon a 20-point advantage for much of the second half. The Mountain Hawks had several surges, but the Trojans always had an answer. A Karnik layup ended a strong second half for the freshman center, pulling Lehigh within 88-63 at the final horn.

For the game, the Mountain Hawks shot 36 percent from the field (25-of-70) and just 25 percent from three-point range (7-of-28). USC finished at 47 percent (33-of-70) and 46 percent from long distance (12-of-26). The Trojans won the battle of the boards, 49-32.

Lehigh at Princeton

PITTSBURGH – The Lehigh men’s basketball team took an early first-half lead and stayed within a few possessions for much of the game, but couldn’t get over the hump as Pitt downed the Mountain Hawks, 80-68 on Saturday afternoon.

Lehigh was within four (72-68) with 3:23 remaining, but the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to pull away. Freshman James Karnik led the charge with his first-career double-double, posting 14 points on 7-of-9 shooting along with 10 rebounds. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 3-3 on the season, heading into a game at Princeton Wednesday night.

Junior Kyle Leufroy had 14 points for the Mountain Hawks while senior Kahron Ross and junior Lance Tejada scored nine points apiece. Ross added six assists and a steal. Freshman Caleb Bennett scored seven points and was a perfect 2-of-2 from the field, while junior Jordan Cohen had seven points as well.

An early 6-0 Lehigh run turned a 5-2 deficit into an 8-5 lead as a Tejada-three pointer, Karnik field goal and Cohen free throw gave Lehigh a three-point advantage with 14:27 remaining in the first half. The teams traded baskets over the ensuing minutes as a Leufroy three-pointer gave the Mountain Hawks a 15-13 advantage with 10:05 remaining in the stanza.

Pitt responded with eight of the next 10 points to take a 21-17 lead, eventually extending its lead to eight at 29-21 with less than two minutes to go in the first. The margin remained nine at 32-23 with less than a minute remaining, but both Ross and Leufroy converted layups in the final seconds to pull the Mountain Hawks within 32-27 at the half.

A Tejada three-pointer less than two minutes into the second pulled Lehigh within 34-30, but Pitt gradually rebuilt its lead as a Kene Chukwuka gave the Panthers their first double-digit lead at 51-40 with 12:22 remaining.

A Bennett three-pointer and Karnik layup quickly pulled the Mountain Hawks back within five, but Pitt again answered to take a double-digit lead. From there, the margin swung between five and 10 until Lehigh made a late-game charge. Trailing 72-63 following a Jonathan Milligan layup, Lehigh used a 5-0 run behind Pat Andre’s second three-pointer in less than a minute, and two Ross free throws which cut Pitt’s lead to 72-68 with 3:23 still remaining.

However, Lehigh’s offense went cold and the Panthers ended the game on an 8-0 run to win, 80-68.
