AT

BOSTON UNIVERSITY TERRIERS (8-12, 3-7 Patriot)

BOSTON, MASS. • FEBRUARY 3, 2018 • 2 P.M.

CASE GYM (1,800)

SETTING THE SCENE

After a one-week layoff from game action, the Lehigh women's basketball team will head up to Beantown for an important road matchup against Boston University. Both teams will be looking to get back on track with Lehigh coming off its first back-to-back losses of the season and BU trying to end a five-game losing streak.

Last Saturday, Lehigh's fourth quarter rally fell just short in a 53-50 loss at Navy. Lehigh closed the game on a 13-4 run over the final 11 minutes to help trim a 14-point second half deficit down to two. In Patriot League play, Lehigh is ranks third with 62.1 points per game and is fourth in scoring defense (59.0) and scoring margin (+3.1). The Mountain Hawks are the only team in league play shooting over 40 percent (40.1) from three-point range.

Three of BU's five straight losses have been by five points or less. Since the start of league play, BU's Payton Hauck (51.9) and Nia Irving (51.5) lead the league in field goal percentage. Boston (40.8) and Lehigh (39.9) rank third and fourth, respectively, in Patriot League play in field goal percentage.

After this weekend, Lehigh will conclude its stretch of six of seven games on the road with a Wednesday night showdown at Bucknell.

IF LEHIGH BEATS BOSTON UNIVERSITY

- ❖ Lehigh would sweep the Terriers for the third time in the last four years.
- ❖ Lehigh would avoid losing three games in a row for the first time this season.

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 358-317 into Saturday's game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record. She has led LU to three Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths during her tenure. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. BOSTON UNIVERSITY

The Mountain Hawks enter Saturday 6-6 all-time against Boston University. Lehigh has won six of the last eight meetings between the two schools.

After the Terriers won the first four matchups in the series, Lehigh won five straight from February 2014 to January 2016 before BU won both matchups last season.

The Mountain Hawks took a 74-58 victory over BU earlier this season at Stabler Arena, powered by a strong second quarter where they out-scored BU 26-10, and tied in the other three quarters. Last year at BU, the Terriers took a 64-50 decision behind 20 pts from Sophie Beaudry and a 41.7 percent shooting performance.

BU is Lehigh's least frequent league opponent, with the next closest being Loyola (16 games). Lehigh's highest scoring output came on Jan. 3, 2015 when the Mountain Hawks put up 85. The largest margin of victory for either side came in Lehigh's 28-point, 72-44 win on Dec. 30, 2012.

Lehigh is 2-2 all-time at Case Gym, and 2-3 vs. BU away from Stabler.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY HEAD COACH KATY STEDING

Katy Steding is in her fourth season as the Terrier's head coach. A 16-year coaching veteran, Steding came to BU after spending two seasons at California where she helped lead the Golden Bears to their first Pac12 title and a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament. Before joining the coaching staff at Cal, Steding was an associate head coach at the University of San Francisco from 2010-12, an assistant at Columbia in 2009-10, and an assistant for the WNBA's Atlanta Dream in 2008.

BU is Steding's second head-coaching position, as she spent seven seasons at the helm of the Warner Pacific College (NAIA) program in her native Oregon, helping it transition from a club-level program to a varsity team.

A three-time Pac-10 All-Conference selection at Stanford, Steding helped lead the Cardinal to their first NCAA Championship in 1990.

Steding graduated from Stanford in 1990 with a degree in psychology, embarked on a professional playing career overseas, and earned a spot on the U.S. National Team in 1995. The team compiled a 60-0 record that culminated with a gold medal at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics. Steding played professionally in the American Basketball League before playing with the Sacramento Monarchs and Seattle Storm of the WNBA. She retired from professional basketball in 2001.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

JANUARY 27, 2018
NAVY 53, LEHIGH 50

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – A valiant fourth quarter comeback attempt by the Lehigh women's basketball team fell just short as the Mountain Hawks were clipped by Navy 53-50 on Saturday night at Alumni Hall. Camryn Buhr scored 11 of her team-high 16 points in the fourth quarter, and Lehigh forced eight of its 20 turnovers in the final 10 minutes, trimming a 14-point deficit with 13 minutes left to down to three. Mae Williams and Gena Grundhoffer scored eight points apiece, Hannah Hedstrom had a team-high eight rebounds and Meagan Eripret tallied four rebounds off the bench.

For the game, Navy (17-4, 7-3 PL) outshot Lehigh (12-9, 6-4 PL) 37.0-33.9 percent and outrebounded LU 39-36. After shooting 6-for-9 in the first half from beyond the arc, the Mids were held to just 1-for-6 from downtown in the second half. Both teams scored 20 points off turnovers while Lehigh doubled-up the Mids 32-16 in the paint. Navy also went 6-for-6 from the line, while Lehigh struggled for the second straight game at 6-for-13.

"I didn't think we came out in the first half with a lot of intensity," said head coach Sue Troyan. "I thought they had their way with us on the offensive end, but I thought we really improved in the second half. We really locked down on the defensive end and caused some turnovers. I'm really disappointed though with our first half performance."

Taylor Dunham drained two early threes, and following a fastbreak bucket, Navy built a 10-2 lead at the 6:14 mark, forcing a Lehigh timeout.

Lehigh broke a 0-for-5 stretch when Grundhoffer added a layup, and Buhr followed with an offensive rebound and putback to make it 10-6. Devaney later added a three-pointer in transition, Benz drove the lane in the final minute for a lay in, and Devaney beat the first quarter buzzer with a foul line jumper to make it 20-15 after one. Lehigh shot 46.7 percent in the first quarter, but Navy started 4-of-6 from three-point range.

Dunham and Williams matched threes in the opening minutes of the second quarter as Lehigh got within 23-20, but Navy built a 30-22 edge at the media timeout with 4:46 remaining. Navy grew the lead to nine following two free throws at the 4:04 mark and after a three-pointer by Mann at 2:37, Navy closed the half on a 6-0 run to go up 38-26, taking advantage of a pair of turnovers in the final minute. Navy out shot Lehigh 42.4-39.3 percent in the opening half and was 6-for-9 from long range. Williams broke a 0-for-6 stretch with a layup and followed with her second three-pointer of the game to make it 44-33 with 5:15 remaining in the third. Navy added another basket to go up 45-33 at the media timeout with 3:44 left. Mann added four straight to get back within 10 once again at 47-37, and Benz added a layup with 30 seconds left. Despite outscoring Navy 13-11 in the frame, Lehigh shot just 3-for-12 in the quarter and trailed by 10, 49-39 after three.

"We had some good looks at the basket, but they didn't fall for us," Troyan said. "Our defensive effort was certainly much better in the third quarter, but we weren't able to put it together on the offensive end."

Buhr, along with the Lehigh defense, powered a fourth quarter comeback attempt as Lehigh forced eight turnovers in the final 10 minutes, and Buhr scored all 11 of Lehigh's points in the frame. A 7-0 run made it 49-47 with 3:50 to go. Buhr used two free throws in the opening seconds to make it an eight-point game, and after a scoring drought of just over three minutes, she added a jumper in the paint to cut it to 49-43 by the media timeout with 4:53 to go.

Navy's Kaila Clark broke the run with a jumper at 2:24 to make it 51-47. After two more Navy free throws, Buhr tallied a layup with 1:08 left and one point from the line with 43 seconds left to make it a one-possession game, 53-50. Lehigh's defense forced a long shot late in the shot clock in the final 10 seconds, grabbed the defensive rebound, and Navy fouled with three seconds left. After missing the first free throw, Lehigh missed the second on purpose for a chance at an offensive rebound, but was unable to come down with one.

"I think it is an important timeframe for them just to catch their breath," Troyan said. "The second half of league play will be much like the first with a lot of one possession games down the stretch and we have to be prepared and get better."
