WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 5: MANSFIELD AT LEHIGH

MANSFIELD MOUNTAINEERS (3-2, 1-1 PSAC)

AT

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (2-2, 0-0 PATRIOT)
BETHLEHEM, PA. • NOVEMBER 22, 2017 • 6 P.M.
STABLER ARENA (5,600)

SETTING THE SCENE

Coming off a win at Cornell on Monday night, the Lehigh women's basketball teams will have a quick turnaround before hosting their home opener on Wednesday night against Mansfield. The home opener comes after a four-game road trip to start the season, tied for the longest in program history. Lehigh has won its last four home openers dating back to 2013.

While a regular season game for the Mountain Hawks, the matchup will be an exhibition for Mansfield and will not count towards their regular season record. Lehigh shot a season-best 48.9 percent from the floor in Monday's win at Cornell and has held the opposition to just 57 points in each of the last two games. The game was a welcome rebound for the Mountain Hawks, who previously shot just 23.0 percent against Villanova in Friday's loss.

Eight of the team's 10 wins last year came at Stabler Arena, where LU outscored its opponents by a 71.3-69.9 margin. Over their current four-game winning streak in home openers, the Mountain Hawks have outscored the opposition 81.8-71.2.

LEHIGH'S PROJECTED STARTERS

IF LEHIGH BEATS MANSFIELD

- ❖ Lehigh would win a game against a PSAC opponent for the fourth straight season.
- ❖ Lehigh would win its home opener for the fifth straight season.

LEHIGH HEAD COACH SUE TROYAN

Sue Troyan (Dickinson '88) is in her 23rd season at the helm of the Mountain Hawks, and carries a career record of 348-310 into Wednesday's game. Since arriving in Bethlehem, she has turned the Lehigh program into a perennial Patriot League contender. A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year, Troyan guided Lehigh to 19 wins and a Patriot League championship game appearance in 2014-15. Over the previous eight full seasons, Troyan has led Lehigh to a 167-114 record. She has led LU to three Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament berths during her tenure. Prior to becoming the head basketball coach, Troyan served as an assistant basketball coach and head softball coach at Lehigh, leading the softball team to a 126-90 record in five seasons.

ALL-TIME VS. MANSFIELD

Lehigh and Mansfield will meet for just the second time in program history on Wednesday night. The only other matchup occurred on January 25, 1977 in Grace Hall, with Lehigh prevailing 72-53.

This is the third year in a row Lehigh has played a school from the Div. II Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC), which are the school's only games against non-Division I opponents since the 1986-87 season.

In those games the last three seasons, Lehigh has defeated East Stroudsburg 77-53 in 2014 and 78-72 in 2016, and Kutztown 81-51 in 2015.

SCOUTING THE MOUNTAINEERS

Mansfield is off to a 3-2 start this season, including a 1-1 mark in PSAC play. The Mountaineers are coming off a 71-49 loss to (D-II) nationally ranked No. 10 California (Pa.) on Sunday. Mansfield previously defeated Seton Hill 77-73 on Saturday.

Senior Brielle Kelly, who scored her 1,000th career point in Saturday's win over Seton Hill, leads the Mountaineers with 16.8 points and 7.2 rebounds per game. She has scored in double digits in all five games this season.

Fellow senior Alyssa Mullins is averaging 13 points per game to go with 6.6 rebounds, and freshman Erin Gibbons is off to a solid start to her collegiate career, scoring in double figures at 11.0 points per contest.

The Mountaineers have gone largely with a seven-man rotation through their first five games, with seven players averaging at least 18.6 minutes per game. The team is young, featuring eight freshman on their 15-man roster, but all four of their seniors have made at least two starts.

As a team, Mansfield is shooting 39.8 percent from the floor and holds a scoring margin of -3.6. They have averaged 60 points and 22.6 turnovers per game.

Mansfield was picked to finish ninth of out nine teams in the PSAC East Division Preseason Poll, following a 5-21 (3-19 PSAC) finish in 2016-17.

MANSFIELD HEAD COACH MICHAEL WHITLING

Michael Whitling is in his second season as the head coach at Mansfield after taking over in July 2016.

Whitling joined the Mountaineers after serving as an assistant coach with Gannon from 2013 to 2016, where he helped lead the Golden Knights to two D-II NCAA Tournament appearances. During his tenure, Gannon compiled a three-year record of 66-23 and made numerous appearances in the national rankings, sitting as high as No. 2 in the country during the 2013-14 season.

Whitling also has prior coaching experience at Anderson University in South Carolina and was a graduate assistant at Clarion.

A Knox, Pa. native, Whitling graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance from Clarion in 2004 and earned his master's in education in 2008. A three-year starter on the school's baseball team, he earned Second Team All-PSAC West honors.

SAVING THE BEST FOR LAST

In total, the Mountain Hawks are being outscored in each of the first three quarters this season, but have not been outscored in the fourth quarter of any game, besting their opponents by a wide margin of 84-66. Lehigh outscored Monmouth by nine and Cornell by seven in the fourth quarter to secure their two wins, and outscored Minnesota and Villanova by one in the final frame of their two losses.

ROAD WARRIORS

Lehigh opened the season with four consecutive road games for just the second time in program history, going 2-2 on the trip. The only other time Lehigh played four straight games away from home to start a season was 1994-95, a year before Sue Troyan took over as head coach. Lehigh lost all four of those games by double digits.

ROUGH NIGHT FOR THE OFFENSE

Lehigh struggled offensively on Friday night vs. Villanova, shooting 23 percent from the field, making just 14 of 61 field goals. It was Lehigh's worst night shooting in both categories since a 53-37 home loss to Bucknell on Jan. 23, 2013 when LU shot just 20.7 percent overall (12-for-58).

BLOCK PARTY

Junior Meagan Eripret (T-7th) and freshman Mariah Sexe (T-9th) both rank in the top 10 in the Patriot League in blocks per game, with 1.0 and 0.8, respectively. As a team, Lehigh is tied fourth in the Patriot League with 2.8 blocks per game. Sexe scored seven points with three rebounds and one assist in her debut at Minnesota. Eripret tallied a two-block performance against Villanova.

BIG TURNAROUND ON THE BOARDS

Lehigh has yet to be outrebounded through its first four games, outrebounding Minnesota and Monmouth, and was even on the boards against Villanova and Cornell. Through the first four games, Lehigh held a rebounding margin of +2.8, which ranks third in the Patriot League. Lehigh also ranked second the Patriot League by collecting 42.0 rebounds per game.

Last season, Lehigh's rebounding margin through its first three games was -37.0.

SCORING HIGHS: THE GOOD AND BAD

In the season opener at Minnesota, Lehigh scored 73 points, their most ever against a power conference opponent. The 107 points allowed by the Mountain Hawks was also a program record for the most point allowed in a single game. It was just the fifth 100+ point game allowed by Lehigh, joining 101 to Florida Int'l on 1/2/93, 103 to UConn on 3/15/97, 104 to La Salle on 2/19/77 and 106 to Richmond on 12/1/96.

PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

Lehigh was picked seventh in the Patriot League Preseason Poll and is looking to rebound after a ninth place finish in last year's Patriot League standings. LU fell in the first round of the league tournament to Loyola. It was the first time Lehigh had failed to qualify for at least the semifinals since the league went to the current tournament format in 2013-14.

Junior Hailey Pascoe and freshman Ann-Marie Jacobs both suffered season ending knee injuries within a few minutes of each other at practice on Oct. 6. After starting 24 games as a freshman in 2015-16 and earning Patriot League All-Rookie honors, Pascoe appeared in all 30 games last season, ranking second on the team and ninth in the PL by shooting 38.8 percent from three-point range. She averaged 6.7 points per game and two rebounds per contest last season.

QUINCI MANN

- Named Third Team All-Patriot League in 2017, the second all-league honor of her career after garnering second team honors as a sophomore in 2016. She was previously a PL All-Rookie selection in 2014-15.
- Ranked third in the Patriot League with 15.4 ppg last season.
- Scored at least 20 points in 11 games last season, tied for the most in the Patriot League with Army's Madison Hovren.
- Tied her career-high with five three-pointers at Colgate on 2/22.
- Ranked 34th in the nation, second in the PL, with a free throw percentage of 85.2 percent. Climbed to as high as 19th nationally in free throw pct. in mid-February.
- Went 16-for-16 from the free throw line against Loyola on Feb. 1, setting a new program record for made free throws in one game. Her 16 made free throws was the second most in a single game in the Patriot League last season, and tied for ninth most in a single game in the nation.

PLAYING ON THE BIG STAGE

On Dec. 10, Lehigh will play LIU Brooklyn as part of a doubleheader at the Barclays Center, home of the Brooklyn Nets. This will mark the first time in program history Lehigh has played in an arena that served as the home for an NBA team at the time. Lehigh defeated NJIT 65-54 at the Prudential Center in Newark on Dec. 18, 2008, which two years later became the temporary home for the former New Jersey Nets. LU also played Villanova at PPL Center in Allentown, Pa. on Nov. 17.

NOT ENOUGH THIS TIME

Lehigh lost just two games all of last season when scoring at least 70 points - Feb. 25 at Colgate and Dec. 30 vs. Army West Point. Lehigh held a 7-2 record in games where they scored at least 70 points, and was 3-18 when scoring under 70, including a 1-9 mark when scoring in the 50's. Lehigh averaged 76.9 points in their wins and 56.4 in their losses in 2016-17. Lehigh is 1-1 in such games this season.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

NOVEMBER 20, 2017
LEHIGH 62, CORNELL 57

ITHACA, N.Y. - Senior Quinci Mann scored a game-high 19 points and four rebounds on 7-of-13 shooting and sophomore Gena Grundhoffer went 5-for-9 for 14 points to lift the Lehigh women's basketball team past Cornell 62-57 in a hard-fought, back-and-forth contest on Monday night. The game featured 11 lead changes and 37 combined turnovers as Lehigh shot 48.9 percent overall and 35 percent from three-point range, and held Cornell to 39.3 percent overall and just 4-for-16 from long range. The Big Red (0-4) outscored Lehigh (2-2) 33-28 in the paint and 24-18 off turnovers, while LU held an 11-7 edge in second chance points.

Sophomore Camryn Buhr netted nine points on 4-of-7 shooting and led the team with seven boards. Senior Mae Williams hit two three-pointers and finished with six points, three rebounds and two assists, and senior Bernadette Devaney had five points. Mann and Buhr led the team with three assists each.

"I thought we executed really well down the stretch," said head coach Sue Troyan. "It was a pretty close game and Quinci did a good job of knocking down free throws, we did a good job of executing and getting the ball to the right person in certain situations. I thought a lot of different kids stepped up in different ways today."

Each team pulled down 31 rebounds as Lehigh bookended the game with strong first and fourth quarters, but Cornell did hold a 17-9 edge on the offensive glass.

"I thought we did a good job defensively," Troyan said. "I didn't think we were great on the defensive end with rebounding, but I thought it was a game where they made some defensive plays and that was probably the difference in the game. I thought we gave up too many second chance opportunities and offensive boards. We probably could've controlled the game a lot better had we limited their chances there."

Lehigh started the game 4-for-6 from three-point range to take a 14-8 lead prior to the under-five media timeout. Williams started 2-for-2 from the outside, while Grundhoffer and Devaney each connected on their first three-point attempts.

Following the break, Hedstrom scooped in a bucket and Mann hit her first three of the contest to up the Lehigh edge to 19-10. Mann gave LU its largest lead of the half following a layup one minute later to make it 21-11. Clougherty added Lehigh's fourth three with 48 seconds left to go up 24-13, before Cornell ran off five straight points, including a buzzer-beating three-pointer, to make it 24-18 after one.

The Big Red kept the momentum going, eventually getting the run up to 15-4 to knot the game at 28-28 with 3:51 to go in the second quarter. Benz hit a pair from the free throw line with 3:17 remaining to retake the lead at 30-28 and Devaney sank a jumper with 2:28 to go to make it 32-28. Much like the first quarter, Cornell closed the period with five straight with points from Dylan Higgins and Samantha Clement, and a free throw from Samantha Widmann with 1:11 left to take a 32-32 lead into the locker room.

Cornell grabbed the final eight rebounds of the half, with Lehigh not earning one beyond the second quarter media timeout at 4:54. The Mountain Hawks shot 60 percent overall in the first quarter, but cooled off to 3-for-11 in the second, and went 0-for-5 from long range after starting the game 6-for-9.

Mann scored four points early in the third quarter, along with a Grundhoffer turnaround layup to help LU hold a 38-35 lead at the 7:13 mark. Cornell took advantage of sloppy Lehigh play and converted four straight to retake the lead 39-38 off a steal and breakaway layup just under five minutes in. The teams each traded jumpers before Grundhoffer knotted the game 43-43 with a three-pointer with 1:19 left before Danielle Jorgenson added a layup to give the Big Red the two point lead entering the fourth.

Down 46-43 early in the fourth, Mann drove the lane and hit back-to-back layups with the left hand to put Lehigh back up 47-46, forcing a Cornell timeout with 7:36 on the clock.

After falling behind by one with 7:27 left, Lehigh upped the pressure on defense and retook the lead for good, taking advantage of eight Cornell turnovers in the frame to go on an 11-3 run to build up a 58-50 lead with 2:29 left following two free throws by Grundhoffer. Cornell got to within four points with 37 seconds left, but Mann hit four free throws in as many attempts in the closing seconds to ice the game away despite a three-pointer by Jorgenson as time expired.

"We played one of our best quarters coming out of the gate, and then we got pretty out of sync in the second," Troyan said. "But, again we responded. Cornell was hungry to get a win and competed well in their first three games, so we knew it was going to be a dogfight down the stretch. I'm proud of how the kids responded in the second half made that run in the fourth quarter."

GETTING TO KNOW EMILY

Nickname: Em

Why did you choose Lehigh?: Lehigh has a perfect balance between competitive athletics and challenging academics all taking place on a beautiful campus. It seemed like a university that would supply me with the skills that I need for years after college.

What's your favorite thing about Lehigh?: The community. The people here at Lehigh feel like family; everyone looks out for one another.

Thoughts on Lehigh Coaching Staff (Coach Sue Troyan): The first time I spoke to Coach Troyan, I could tell she cared about more than just basketball. Coach always makes sure that I am excelling on and off the court. On the basketball side of things, Coach Troyan is an experienced coach who knows what she's doing.

Major & Why: Finance With a Minor in Actuarial Science. This major/minor combination will leave me set after my years at Lehigh. Actuaries are a part of high level business decision making and solve real problems in the world. Being an actuary allows you to have a low-stress, highly desired work/life balance with a rewarding salary.

Favorite Place on Campus: Lehigh Lookout

Favorite Food: Asian

Favorite Color: Blue

Favorite Musical Artist: PnB Rock

Favorite Movie: Love & Basketball

Favorite TV Show: The Get Down

Favorite Website: Twitter, Amazon, Netflix

Favorite Pro Team: LA Clippers

Favorite Athlete in Another Sport: Odell Beckham Jr.

Favorite Place to Study: My room

Hobbies: Shopping, Sleeping, Netflix

Most Admired Person & Why: My parents because they are hardworking, talented people

Magazine Cover I'd Like To Be On: GQ

Place I'd Like To Visit: Jamaica

Dream Job: Actuary

If I Didn't Play Basketball I'd Play: Soccer

If I Had $1 Billion, I Would: Go on a shopping spree
