SETTING THE SCENE

Following a strong regular season, which featured the Mountain Hawks contending for a Patriot League regular season title until the final day, the third-seeded Lehigh men's basketball team, begins its quest for an even bigger goal on Thursday when it hosts No. 6 seed Army West Point in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Opening tipoff in Stabler Arena is set for 7 p.m. The Mountain Hawks begin a quest for their first league tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth since 2012, but it won't be easy as it starts with a tough Army squad that held double-figure second-half leads against the Mountain Hawks in both regular-season contests before Lehigh stormed back to win both.

Lehigh entered the final day of the regular season tied for first place, needing both Bucknell and Colgate to lose, and to win itself at Loyola, in order to secure the No. 1 seed. The Bison trailed Army by double figures with less than 10 minutes remaining while Colgate and Lafayette were tied with a minute remaining, but both came back to win and the Mountain Hawks fell at Loyola that evening to finish 12-6 in the league. With the Raiders and Bison having already won, even if Lehigh had beaten the Greyhounds, it would have been the No. 3 seed regardless due to tiebreaker.

One of the stories on Saturday for Loyola was its three-point shooting. The Greyhounds were 12-of-16 for the game. Without a late miss by Loyola, it would have tied the Patriot League record for three-point percentage in a game (12-of-15, 80.0 percent). The Mountain Hawks trailed by nine at the half, but Loyola proved too much in the second. On multiple occasions, Lehigh pulled back within 11, but couldn't get any closer.

Lehigh's backcourt combined for 46 points behind 16 apiece from both senior Kyle Leufroy and junior Jordan Cohen, and 14 from senior Lance Tejada. With his 16 points, Leufroy moved into the top 50 in Patriot League history for career scoring (currently 1,397). All three went on to be named All-Patriot League on Monday, with Tejada earning first-team laurels and Leufroy and Cohen being named to the third team. It marked Tejada's second All-League honor in his two years playing at Lehigh (named to the second team last season) while it was the first-career award for both Leufroy and Cohen.

Also strong on Saturday was freshman Nic Lynch, who saw increased minutes due to a first-half James Karnik injury. Lynch delivered with 12 points and 13 rebounds for his third-career double-double. It marked Lehigh's first double-double since exactly one month prior, when Leufroy had 22 points and 10 boards at Army West Point.

Lehigh is 1-3 all-time vs. Army in the Patriot League Tournament, having not played since 2010, a 64-45 Mountain Hawks' quarterfinal victory on the way to the tournament title. In the first regular season meeting this season, Lehigh staged the largest comeback (19 points) in Brett Reed's tenure as Mountain Hawks' head coach. Lehigh still trailed by 18 (55-37) with 13:39 remaining before outscoring Army 38-15 the rest of the way for the 75-70 win. In the second meeting (at Lehigh) just two weeks ago, the Black Knights led 59-48 with 12:57 remaining, but Lehigh staged a massive 29-5 run to take a 13-point lead. If the Mountain Hawks win on Thursday, they would advance to the Patriot League Semifinals and play on Sunday afternoon, either at second-seeded Bucknell or home vs. 10th-seeded Holy Cross.

LEHIGH GARNERS PATRIOT LEAGUE POSTSEASON HONORS

(Announced March 4 and 6)

STARTING BACKCOURT GARNERS ALL-LEAGUE

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Following impressive regular seasons on the hardwood, Lehigh men's basketball seniors Lance Tejada and Kyle Leufroy, and junior Jordan Cohen, were all named All-Patriot League, as announced on Monday. Tejada was named to the first team while Leufroy and Cohen both received third-team recognition. It marked the first-career All-League honors for Leufroy and Cohen, and the second for Tejada.

Lehigh has now featured multiple All-League honorees three times in the last four years. Prior to the 2015-16 season, it had happened just one other time in program history.

A second-team honoree last season, Tejada leads the Mountain Hawks in scoring, averaging 14.6 points per game. He leads the league in three-pointers made (85) and stands fifth in three-point percentage (43.6), which is also good for 22nd nationally. After a bit of a slow start (averaging 9.3 points per game over the first six contests), Tejada has averaged 15.9 since. Included was a career-high 36 points at Holy Cross, nearly single-handedly carrying the Mountain Hawks to a thrilling 99-94 overtime win. In that game, he knocked down 10 three-pointers (on 12 attempts) to tie a school record, a record held by teammate Pat Andree (accomplished in 2016) and Joe Knight (accomplished in 2005). Tejada has reached double-figure points in 17-of-18 league games, including 14 straight to close out the regular season. He eclipsed 20 points twice in that 14-game streak, posting 22 at Navy and 20 vs. Army West Point. Tejada's 1,087 career points are good for 29th in program history.

Leufroy earns All-League recognition for the first time after being named to the All-Rookie team three years ago. Leufroy is in the midst of the best season in his decorated collegiate career, averaging career highs in scoring (14.0) and rebounding (5.2) while his 101 assists has shattered his previous career high of 76. Leufroy has scored 20+ points seven times this season after doing so just six times over his first three years combined. He enjoyed a career-high 26-point effort against Bucknell, but perhaps his biggest performance was at Army, when he tallied 22 points and 10 rebounds in Lehigh's 19-point comeback victory (the largest comeback in Brett Reed's 12-year tenure as Mountain Hawks' head coach). Leufroy recorded 16 points and eight boards in the second half alone. Leufroy's other-career double-double was at Holy Cross when Lehigh made an 18-point comeback which was at the time, the largest comeback in Reed's tenure. Leufroy stands seven in the league in three-point percentage (43.1) while he leads the league in free throw percentage (91.1), stands 11th in scoring and tied for 12th in rebounding. Leufroy currently stands 15th in program history with 1,396 career points.

Cohen has been stellar in his first season as full-time starter, with his 13.1 points good for fourth on the Mountain Hawks and 17th in the league. He leads the Patriot League in three-point percentage (49.5, 45-of-91), which would stand second nationally if he had enough makes to qualify. He is also challenging the all-time Patriot League record of 50.7 held by American's John Schoof in 2012-13. Cohen's 13.6 points per game in league play is good for second on the Mountain Hawks. His overall free throw percentage (84.2) is fifth in the league while his 1.3 steals per game are tied for sixth. Among Cohen's many highlights, he enjoyed back-to-back incredible games, scoring a career-high 32 then 33 points in consecutive contests vs. Boston University and at Lafayette. Cohen scored 14 points in overtime alone against the Leopards, scoring 21 of Lehigh's final 30 points for the game, all coming in the span of 7:58 (final 2:58 of regulation and five minutes of overtime). The game after Lafayette, Cohen hit the go-ahead (and what proved to be game-winning) three-pointer in the final two minutes at Army. Cohen is shooting 52.5 percent from the field, which is eighth in the Patriot League and No. 1 among guards.

ANDREE AND COHEN NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-LEAGUE

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Enjoying impressive success on and off the court, Lehigh men's basketball juniors Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen were each named to the Academic All-Patriot League team on Wednesday. For a second straight year, Andree and Cohen comprise two of the five players on the team as both have played key roles on the Mountain Hawks' success, while also owning GPAs over 3.5 in the classroom. They also become just the second and third student-athletes in school history to earn Academic All-League multiple years, joining Gabe Knutson '13 who did so three straight seasons.

To be eligible for the Academic All-Patriot League team, a student-athlete must have at least a 3.20 cumulative GPA and be a starter or key player in his/her sport. Freshmen, or students in their first academic year at their school, are not eligible for the honor.

Andree owns a 3.54 cumulative GPA in Psychology. Along with his 2018 Academic All-League honor, he has been named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll on multiple occasions for semester GPAs over 3.2. He's earned a spot on the Dean's List for a semester GPA over 3.6, and garnered the Faculty Athletics Council Award.

On the court, Andree has thrived, currently tied for 14th in the Patriot League in scoring (13.6) and tied for sixth in rebounding (6.4). Those marks are good for third and first on the Mountain Hawks, respectively. He is third in the league in three-pointers made (68) and sixth in three-point percentage (43.3). Andree has scored double-figure points in all but five games he's played this season, beginning with a career-high 31 points at Monmouth in the season opener. He later had 23 in the Patriot League opener vs. Lafayette and 22 at home vs. Navy. Andree has knocked down multiple threes in all but six games he's played in 2018-19.

Meanwhile, Cohen adds Academic All-League to his third team All-Patriot League honor received earlier this week. Last month, Cohen was also named to the 2019 Google Cloud Academic All-District team and is now in contention for Academic All-America. Like Andree, Cohen was named 2018 Academic All-League, has been named to the Dean's List, has earned a spot on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll and has garnered the Faculty Athletics Council Award during his time at Lehigh.

Cohen currently leads the Patriot League in three-point percentage (49.5, 45-of-91), which would stand second nationally if he had enough makes to qualify. He is averaging 13.1 points (fourth on the Mountain Hawks and 17th in the league) and 3.7 assists (sixth in the Patriot League). Cohen is averaging 13.6 points in league play, which is second on the team. Cohen's overall free throw percentage (84.2) is fifth in the league while his 1.3 steals per game are tied for sixth. He enjoyed back-to-back incredible games, scoring a career-high 32 then 33 points in consecutive contests vs. Boston University and at Lafayette in January. Cohen scored 14 points in overtime alone against the Leopards, scoring 21 of Lehigh's final 30 points for the game, all coming in the span of 7:58 (final 2:58 of regulation and five minutes of OT). The game after Lafayette, he hit the go-ahead (and what proved to be game-winning) three-pointer in the final two minutes at Army West Point.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Lehigh has won three straight and six of the last seven to pull within 64-45 in the all-time series. Army's last win at Lehigh came on Dec. 30, 2015 via an 88-82 final. Since, the Mountain Hawks have won 83-69, 84-53 (Lehigh's largest-ever margin of victory vs. Army) and 91-81. The first-ever meeting between the two sides came in 1906-07, a 26-24 Lehigh victory. Army won the next matchup in 1914-15 by a 19-6 final.

LAST MEETING

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (2/20/19) - The Lehigh men's basketball team went on a 29-5 run in the span of just 6:42 to turn a 59-48 deficit into a 77-64 lead, on the way to beating Army West Point, 91-81 on Wednesday evening in Stabler Arena. Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points, led by senior Lance Tejada, who was 3-of-4 from three-point range and 7-of-7 from the charity stripe. Junior Jordan Cohen added 16 points, seven rebounds and six assists (13 points, five rebounds and three assists coming in the second half).

LAST TIME OUT

BALTIMORE (3/2/19) - Loyola knocked down 12-of-16 three-pointers to help spark its offense, and it proved too much for the Lehigh men's basketball team to overcome as the Greyhounds picked up a 92-73 win on Saturday evening in Reitz Arena. Freshman Nic Lynch was strong off the bench, recording 12 points and a career-high 13 rebounds in 22 minutes, good for his third-career double-double. Senior Kyle Leufroy and junior Jordan Cohen each scored a team-high 16 points in the defeat. The Mountain Hawks (19-10, 12-6 PL) will enter the Patriot League Tournament as the No. 3 seed.

- Over the last 10 years, the Mountain Hawks are second in the league in number of tournament championships (two), second in average finish (2.80) and second in quarterfinal home games (nine).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (102) and number of double-figure win seasons (seven).
- Over the last seven years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 75.
- Lehigh is one of just two teams to post 10+ Patriot League regular season victories in each of the last five years.

LAST GAME VS. ARMY NOTABLES

- Lehigh came back from an 11-point deficit within 12:57 remaining by staging a monster 29-5 run to take a 13-point lead. The 91-81 win clinched the Mountain Hawks a top-four seed and home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- The Mountain Hawks used another balanced offensive attack, with five players scoring double-figure points for the sixth time this season (including the fifth time in 15 league games).
- Senior Lance Tejada led the way with 20 points, despite foul trouble. He picked up his second foul just over two minutes in, but returned to knock down a pair of first-half threes before scoring 12 in the second half and finishing the game 3-of-4 from distance. Leufroy added 17 points, six assists and four rebounds while junior Jordan Cohen filled up the stat sheet with 16 points, seven rebounds, six assists, a block and steal. Classmate Pat Andree had 15 points, seven rebounds, three assists, a block and steal while sophomore James Karnik recorded 11 points on just five field-goal attempts, also converting 5-of-6 from the free throw line. Freshman Joe Foley dazzled in the first half, scoring all of his career-high eight points in the first 20 minutes to help keep the Mountain Hawks within seven heading into halftime.
- Lehigh's 29-4 second-half run came in the stretch of just 6:42. After scoring 48 points over the game's first 27:21, the Mountain Hawks scored 43 over the game's final 12:39. Lehigh's 56 second-half points marked a season high for a second half. Lehigh did score more in a half this season, netting 57 in the first half on Jan. 26 against Boston University.
- The Mountain Hawks continued their impressive shooting, connecting on 50.0 percent from the field (29-of-58), including 50.0 percent from three (10-of-20) and 82.1 percent from the free throw line (23-of-28).

as the best single-game percentage by any team in the nation this season.

- The Mountain Hawks also hit 19-of-20 free throws, becoming the first Division I team to shoot 75 percent from three and 95 percent from the charity stripe in the same game since Temple in 2010 vs. Rhode Island. They are one of just three Division I teams to accomplish the feat in the last 20 years.

- Senior Lance Tejada tied a school-record 10 made three-pointers (on 14 attempts) on Jan. 9 at Holy Cross, tying a record previously held by Joe Knight in 2005 and current teammate Pat Andree in 2016.

STRONG ROAD WIN IN NATION'S CAPITAL (FEB. 27)

- The Mountain Hawks' defense stood tall early, not allowing a point for 3:44 and just two points over 5:31. Lehigh used a 9-0 run, beginning and ending with a Lance Tejada three, to take a 15-5 lead. American pulled as close as seven late in the stanza, but the Mountain Hawks went on to open a 36-22 halftime advantage.

- Lehigh kept the momentum going in the second, opening a 23-point lead on multiple occasions. American pulled as close as nine, but the Mountain Hawks immediately responded to reopen a 16-point lead on the way to the 80-66 win.

- The 14-point defeat by the Eagles marked their largest of the season. Their previous largest defeat was 12 points to Northwestern.

- It marked Lehigh's ninth straight win vs. American, all coming in senior Kyle Leufroy's career as he wrapped up undefeated regular seasons vs. both Lafayette and American. Leufroy finished with 18 points, six assists and three rebounds, shooting 9-of-9 from the free throw line.

- Freshman Jeameril Wilson, making his second-career start, had a career-high 17 points to go with six rebounds, two steals and a block. Sophomore James Karnik had 17 points (12 coming in the second half) along with eight boards and two blocks in just 23 minutes due to early foul trouble. Junior Jordan Cohen recorded 11 points while Tejada had 10, as five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures for the seventh time this season (and sixth time in 17 Patriot League games).

- The Mountain Hawks' defense was active all game, especially in the first half, as Lehigh allowed just 22 points - a season best for any half this season. For the game, Lehigh held the Eagles to just 40.3 percent shooting, including 23.8 percent from three.

- Lehigh eclipsed 50 percent shooting for the 13th time this season (the Mountain Hawks are 11-2 in those games). They took just 14 three-pointers, hitting six for a 42.9 percentage. Wilson was 2-of-2 from distance and is now 7-of-14 for the year from three.

- Lehigh wrapped up February 5-3 to improve to 27-5 in February since 2016.

LYNCH - PL ROOKIE OF WEEK (NOV. 12)

- After scoring double-figure points in each of his first two career games, including a double-double at an ACC opponent, freshman Nic Lynch was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.

- Lynch averaged 10.0 points and 6.5 rebounds in just 17.5 minutes for the week. - At Monmouth, Lynch tallied 10 points and three rebounds in just nine minutes due to foul trouble. He shot 5-of-7 from the floor. Eight of those points came in the first 4:22 of the second half to help Lehigh turn a six-point halftime advantage into a 13-point lead at the under-16 media timeout. At Miami, Lynch had 10 points and 10 boards for his first-career double-double.

2017-18 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Lehigh defeated three reigning conference champions: Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Bucknell.

- Lehigh handed Bucknell its final loss of the regular season. Mountain Hawks were one of just two Patriot League teams to defeat the Bison.

- Lehigh was 4-3 against reigning conference finalists. Along with Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Bucknell, the Mountain Hawks also beat Siena.

- Lehigh's four overtime victories and five overtime games marked its most since the 1986-87 season (when it also went 4-1).

- Lehigh posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14). That six-game streak of 50+ percent from three was tops in the nation.

- Lehigh tied a Stabler Arena record for made threes in a game with 15 (on 26 attempts) vs. Holy Cross.

- Lance Tejada and Pat Andree finished 1-2 in the Patriot League in three-point field goal percentage (45.3 and 42.9) (minimum 2.5 made threes/game). Tejada's 45.3 percentage was just outside the top 10 in Patriot League single-season history (10th place is 46.8).

- The Mountain Hawks picked up double-figure Patriot League plays for a fourth straight season and sixth time in the last seven years.

- Lehigh earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for a fourth straight season and eighth time in the last nine years.

- Kahron Ross became Lehigh's first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering second team honors.

- Tejada was also named second team All-League.

- Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen were both named Academic All-Patriot League, marking the first time in program history that Lehigh has had two honorees.

- Lehigh scored 54 points at the nation's top defense and eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Virginia. For perspective, UVA allowed 53 or fewer points in nine out of its 18 ACC regular season games.

- Tejada's 22 points in that game were tied for the sixth most points scored against UVA this season (complete list below).

- Ross was twice named Patriot League Player of the Week while Marques Wilson was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.

- Ross was named a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award, giving Lehigh three candidates over the past two seasons (also Tim Kempton and Austin Price).

- Ross broke the Lehigh career assists record vs. Mount St. Mary's and Patriot League career assists mark at Navy. Ross graduates Lehigh as the school's leader for assists in a game, season and career.

- Lehigh won its season opener at Marist for the first time since 2008-09, snapping an eight-game losing streak in openers.

COHEN NAMED PLAYER OF WEEK (FEB. 4)

Following sensational efforts at Lafayette and Army West Point, junior Jordan Cohen has been named Patriot League Player of the Week, as announced on Monday. Cohen scored 51 points on 20-of-28 shooting over a pair of games last week, helping the Mountain Hawks to road victories to improve to 15-6 on the season, 8-2 in league play. The weekly award marks Cohen's first of his career while it's Lehigh's first Player of the Week award of the season and third weekly award overall (with Nic Lynch and Jeameril Wilson each winning Rookie of the Week in November).

JEAMERIL WILSON - ROOKIE OF WEEK (NOV. 26)

After scoring 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting over two games, Jeameril Wilson was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week, as announced on Monday, Nov. 26. Wilson is Lehigh's second Rookie of the Week honoree in the first three weeks after Nic Lynch won the award on Nov. 12. Wilson began the week by posting a career-high 10 points, along with three rebounds and two assists in a career-high 25 minutes at Siena. He finished 4-of-6 from the floor, including a perfect 2-of-2 from three-point range. Eight of Wilson's points came in the final 4:07 of the first half to help Lehigh open a 42-37 halftime advantage, on the way to the 80-69 win. The Chicago, Illinois native went on to post four points, knocking down both of his field goal attempts at No.

COACH REED PUTTING UP THE W'S

Head coach Brett Reed reached 100-career Patriot League (regular season) wins last season, becoming just the fourth coach in league history to reach that plateau. Below is the list. Reed tied Jeff Jones of American coach for fastest to reach 100 PL wins in terms of number of seasons (11th season for both Reed and Jones). However, for both Flannery and Jones, it took fewer games to reach 100.

Here is where Reed stands among Patriot League laurels for total wins and Patriot League victories. Reed's 200th win came earlier this season, during a 78-72 home-opening win over Marist (Nov. 13). He tied Jones for third place with a home win over Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 22) and overtook Jones with an 86-83 victory over Lafayette (Jan. 2) in Stabler Arena. With the thrilling overtime win at Lafayette on Jan. 30, Reed moved past Jones all alone into third place for Patriot League victories.

TEJADA - PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; LEHIGH PICKED FIRST

For the third time in the last four years, Lehigh has finished atop the Patriot League preseason poll, as announced on Wednesday, Oct. 17. In addition, senior Lance Tejada was named to the preseason All-League team. Lehigh finished first in the poll with 145 points, five points ahead of Bucknell in second. Each of the last two times the Mountain Hawks were picked first, they advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game in both 2016 and 2017. Tejada is coming off an impressive first season in the Brown and White, leading the Mountain Hawks in scoring (14.7 points per game), which was good for ninth in the Patriot League. Tejada was one of the nation's top three-point shooters, converting 45.3 percent from long distance (77-of-170) (10th in the country). He scored double-figure points in 20-of-28 games while eclipsing 20 points on seven occasions. Tejada had three games of 25+ points and six of 20+ points, both marks most by a Lehigh guard since C.J. McCollum in 2012-13.

Head coach Brett Reed announced the Mountain Hawks' incoming class of 2023 on Thursday, Nov. 22, which features three talented student-athletes from around the country. Lehigh is set to welcome Jakob Alamudun, Jake Betlow and Reed Fenton to campus as freshmen for the 2019-20 season.

Fenton comes in from Latrobe, Pa. and Greater Latrobe High School. As a junior, Fenton averaged 23 points and five assists while garnering first team All-Section from Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, along with Pittsburgh Tribune

Westmoreland County Terrific 10 honors. As a sophomore Fenton averaged 16 points and four assists, earning second team All-Section. He was also a standout for the PK Flash AAU program. Strong in the classroom, Fenton is a Student Council member and member of the National Honor Society, standing in the top 10 percent of his class.

Alamudun averaged 21.4 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, making 87.4 percent of his free throws as a junior at Marina High School in California to earn a number of postseason honors. He finished fourth in Orange County in both scoring and rebounding. Among the accolades were All-CIF Southern Section Division 3A, first team All-Sunset League and third team All-Orange Country, while also garnering first team Los Angeles Times Daily Pilot Boys Dream Team recognition. Named to the 2017-18 Prep Hoops SoCal Most Improved List, Alamudun had multiple 15+ rebound performances, including a 30-point, 25-rebound effort in the Jim Harris Memorial Tournament of Champions. He was one of Orange County's most productive players, helping Marina to its first season above .500 since 2009-10. In the end, Alamudun was named first team All-Sunset League for three years, was a two-time All-CIF honoree, won the CIF Character Award and was All-Academic Sunset League every year. In addition, Alamudun won the Adidas Summer Championship (Silver Division) with his AAU team, the Cali Rebels.

Meanwhile, Betlow has been a standout throughout his high school career, most recently playing at St. Benedict's in New Jersey and helping his team to an unprecedented 12th State Prep A championship title in 2017-18. St. Benedict's was ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation during the season, while being named the No. 1 Independent/Prep Team in the state. Betlow finished the season earning All-Prep honors while this year - as a senior - he is a team captain and ranked among the top 10 seniors in New Jersey. In his freshman and sophomore years, he was part of two teams that combined for a 47-9 record. During that stretch, Betlow won the Somerset County Tournament and advanced to the South Jersey, Non-Public B final. Betlow led Gil St. Bernard with 81 three-pointers and was second on the team with a 12.2 points per game average as a freshman. He was named MVP of the Somerset County Championship and garnered first team All-County Tournament Team recognition, first team All-State freshman honors (by NJ Hoops/Rivals.com), first team All-Conference and honorable mention All-New Jersey (one of only two freshmen named in New Jersey). Below was named second team All-Area by Courier News and NJ Freshman of the Year by The Star Ledger. As a sophomore, Betlow went on to lead Montverde to a 22-4 record, which included finishing as runners-up in the Dicks National High School Basketball Championship.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS

Lehigh's 7-4 nonleague record in 2018-19 is its best since 2012-13 when it finished 10-3, one year before going 7-6 in 2013-14. The Mountain Hawks' only losses this season have come to three power-conference opponents (Miami, Kansas State and West Virginia) along with Ivy League power Yale. Among Lehigh's victories is a win over another strong Ivy League squad Princeton, while also beating preseason NEC favorite Saint Francis (Pa.). Last season, the Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary's (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players' hometowns whenever possible. Last season, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.). This year, Lehigh is traveling to Miami for Lance Tejada's (Miramar, Fla.) homecoming along with Kansas State to get a game close to the hometowns of Caleb Bennett (St. Joseph, Mo.) and Marques Wilson (Edmond, Okla.). The Mountain Hawks also opened the season at Monmouth, approximately a 15-minute drive from Pat Andree's hometown of Colts Neck, N.J.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his sixth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers.

- McCollum is currently averaging 21.1 points per game this season (before games Mar. 6), averaging 20+ points per game each of the previous three years as one of the NBA's most elite scorers.

- Among many highlights, McCollum scored 40 points against Milwaukee on Nov. 6, the most points ever scored by the Trail Blazers against the Bucks.

- McCollum scored 35 points in just 28 minutes on Dec. 30 vs. Philadelphia, shooting 13-of-18 from the field.

- McCollum recorded his first-career triple-double on Saturday, Jan. 26 vs. Atlanta, posting 28 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists in a 120-111 win.

- Last season, McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31, 2018 when he scored a career-high 50 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter with 28 in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range. It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn't play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State's Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.

- Last spring, three Mountain Hawks were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll - Pat Andree (3.60, Psychology), Shane Acoven (3.50, Computer Science (EN)) and Jordan Cohen (3.53, Finance).

- This fall (2018), six Mountain Hawks recorded a GPA over 3.0: David Roelke (3.81), Jordan Cohen (3.75), Caleb Bennett (3.73), Ed Porter (3.32), Pat Andree (3.25) and Jeameril Wilson (3.07).

- Both Andree and Cohen have been named to the five-member Academic All-Patriot League team each of the last two seasons. Prior to last year, Lehigh had never featured more than one student-athlete on the team.

- Cohen was also named 2019 Academic All-District and is in the running for Academic All-America.

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- The Mountain Hawks own nine double-doubles this season, three from freshman Nic Lynch (at Miami on Nov. 9, vs. Princeton on Nov. 16 and at Loyola on Mar. 2), two from junior Pat Andree (vs. Marist on Nov. 13 and vs. Lafayette on Jan. 2), two from sophomore James Karnik (vs. Loyola on Jan. 6) and two from senior Kyle Leufroy (at Holy Cross on Jan. 9 and at Army on Feb. 2).

- Lehigh posted seven double-double last season, four from James Karnik - at Pitt (Nov. 26), at Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 21), vs. American (Jan. 14) and vs. Bucknell (Feb. 5) - and three from Andree - at Lafayette (Dec. 29), at Colgate (Feb. 14) and at Loyola (Feb. 21).

- The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double-doubles the year prior (2016-17), 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Andree.

Every other year in between, Lehigh has finished in the top half of the league in scoring.

Last season, Lehigh scored 80+ points in six straight games (Feb. 3 to Feb. 21). Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to 2016-17, it hadn't happened since the 1999-00 campaign. The Mountain Hawks also scored 90 in a 92-89 overtime win over Bucknell (Feb. 5). They eclipsed 80 points in 21 other games.

In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation's best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. Last season (2017-18), the Mountain Hawks shot 77.7 percent (373-of-480), first in the Patriot League and 12th in the nation. Dr. Brett Reed
Head Coach

BRETT REED

Head Coach

12th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2018-19 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 12th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 11 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won more than 70 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2018-19 with 198 career victories and is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed owns a 57.6 career Division I winning percentage, good for sixth in Patriot League history and second among active coaches. Reed's 198 overall wins, and 102 Patriot League victories, are both fourth in league history.

Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national post-season appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last nine years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Reed's teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record over the last three Februaries (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In his tenure, the Mountain Hawks are 54-30 in the month of February.

During Reed's time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum '13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Tim Kempton '17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 11 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Kempton led the league in points (20.4) and rebounds (10.4) and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh went on to finish the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program's first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archrival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Pat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. Lehigh posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight, Austin Price and Tejada join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Andree and Jordan Cohen were named Academic All-League in 2017-18. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

ASSISTANT COACH
HARRY MORRA

Harry Morra enters his fourth season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2018-19 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program's historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also graduated as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). As a team, Lehigh has earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals eight times in the last nine years.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra's time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh's video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College's Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh's summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament's operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
& ENRICHMENT
BILLY DUNN

Billy Dunn begins his second season on the Lehigh men's basketball staff and first as Director of Operations and Enrichment.

In his first season at Lehigh, Dunn served as a resource for the Mountain Hawks' players and coaches, speaking into concepts of character and leadership while running a pregame chapel for those interested. Lehigh posted an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season, tying for third place in the league standings and earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Dunn received the team's Sixth Man of the Year Award at its annual end-of-year banquet.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. Dunn was head girls basketball coach at Emmaus High School for three years and co-founder of Push The Rock in Emmaus, Pa. leading basketball camps and coaching internationally. The organization's vision is to be a global leader in sports ministry.

Dunn earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Bible and Secondary Education from Cairn University, before going on to earn his Master of Science in Organizational Leadership, also from Cairn. He went on to serve as chaplain in professional sports for over eight years, including in the Philadelphia Phillies' organization. Dunn is currently spiritual formation pastor at Faith Church in Allentown. He has also served as professor at Cairn University in Leadership Studies, has been executive director at Habitat for Humanity and has worked with Leadership Development at Push The Rock.

VIDEO COORDINATOR
GREG TARCA

Greg Tarca enters his first season as video coordinator in 2018-19. Tarca came to Lehigh after graduating from Quinnipiac this past May as a four-year member of the men's basketball program.

Tarca played in 18 career games for Quinnipiac, earning a full scholarship in December of his senior year after spending four years as a walk-on. Tarca started his Senior Day game vs. Saint Peter's and scored a layup in the game's final minute. His impact went far beyond the court, which included serving as legislative chair of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Tarca led a group of student-athletes in weekly meetings, spoke on behalf of the organization and more.

Despite being fresh out of college, Tarca does have experience as a supervisor/coach at the Grundy Hoops Academy, facilitating basketball clinics for students ages eight to 16 and teaching fundamental basketball skills. Tarca has also interned at The Hoop Group, assisting in the recruitment of future campers nation-wide, building relationships with high school, college and AAU coaches, and assisting with logistics, planning and day-to-day operations of camps.

GAME 1 - NOV. 6, 2018 OCEANFIRST BANK CENTER LEHIGH 85, MONMOUTH 61

WEST LONG BRANCH, N.J. – The Lehigh men's basketball team opened a six-point halftime lead then used a 15-3 run early in the second to create separation, taking as much as a 30-point advantage on the way to an 85-61 win at Monmouth on Tuesday evening in the season opener for both teams. The 24-point win marked Lehigh's largest margin of victory in an opener since the 1985-86 season. Junior Pat Andree led the charge with a career-high 31 points in a homecoming game while senior Kyle Leufroy became the 36th player in school history to reach 1,000 career points. In the end, 10 Mountain Hawks scored on Tuesday with four reaching double figures.

Defensively, Lehigh held Monmouth to just 19-of-56 shooting (33.9 percent), including just 4-of-21 from three-point range (19.0 percent).

Andree's 31 points came on 9-of-15 shooting, including 6-of-10 from three-point range. Classmate Jordan Cohen had 15 points on 5-of-9 shooting while Leufroy had 11 points and nine rebounds. Freshman Nic Lynch added 10 points, eight coming in the second half.

Andree was red-hot in the first half, scoring 17 points. He helped fuel a 13-0 Mountain Hawks' run to build a lead they wouldn't relinquish. With Monmouth leading 7-3, Cohen connected on a jumper then Andree scored the game's next 11 points. His third trey of the early going gave Lehigh a 16-7 lead with 13:35 left in the first half.

Later in the half, a Cohen jumper gave Lehigh its first double-digit lead at 23-13. A few minutes later, a jumper from Lynch gave him his first-career points and gave the Mountain Hawks their largest first-half advantage of 11, 27-16, with 6:22 on the first-half clock.

Leading 36-30 at the half, Lehigh's lead hovered between five and nine over the first two minutes of the second half. That's when the Mountain Hawks took over, going on a 15-3 run to turn a 42-35 lead into a 57-38 advantage. Lynch helped spark the run, scoring eight early second-half points, including a dunk off a nifty feed from Leufroy, giving the Mountain Hawks a 51-38 lead just over four minutes into the stanza.

The lead kept expanding as the half progressed. The final seven minutes saw Leufroy knock down a corner three to reach 1,000 in his career, while sophomore James Karnik finished an alley-oop from Cohen, and Andree scored his 31st point to reach a new career high. Junior David Roelke and freshman Joe Foley also scored their first-career points in the final minute, joining Lynch and Jeameril Wilson as Mountain Hawks to do so on Tuesday.

For the game, Lehigh shot 49.2 percent from the field (29-of-59), including 40.7 percent from three-point range (11-of-27). The Mountain Hawks dominated the boards, 47-28.

GAME 2 - NOV. 9, 2018 WATSCO CENTER MIAMI 83, LEHIGH 62

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – The Lehigh men's basketball team trimmed an 18-point lead down to six with 12:10 left in the second half, but Miami immediately responded, pulling away down the stretch to beat the Mountain Hawks, 83-62 on Friday evening at Watsco Center. In a homecoming game, senior Lance Tejada scored a team-high 19 points, 16 coming in the second half. Freshman Nic Lynch posted his first-career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine boards.

Junior Pat Andree also recorded double figures for the Mountain Hawks with 10. Lehigh struggled to get going in the first half, but shot 45 percent from the field in the second half and 72 percent from the free throw line after marks of just 23 percent and 50 percent in the first.

Leufroy scored Lehigh's first five points, as his three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 6-5 with 18:09 on the clock. Miami answered with a 10-0 run as an Ebuka Izundu jumper gave the Hurricanes a 16-5 advantage with 16:09 remaining in the first.

Tejada and Andree knocked down treys in the span of 48 seconds to pull Lehigh within 19-11, but the Hurricanes again extended their lead to double figures. A Marques Wilson trey pulled Lehigh within 25-16, but a 9-0 Miami surge gave it an 18-point, 34-16 advantage, with 7:19 on the first-half clock. Trailing 37-19 with 5:14 remaining in the first, the Mountain Hawks' defense bore down, allowing just one point the rest of the stanza. Lehigh scored seven itself, behind a Leufroy three-pointer and four free throws, to pull within 38-26 following 20 minutes of play.

The Hurricanes opened the second half on a 10-3 run as a DJ Vasiljevic three-pointer gave Miami a 48-29 lead with 17:21 on the clock. A few minutes later, trailing 51-35, the Mountain Hawks staged a quick 7-0 run behind an Andree three, Tejada layup and two Tejada free throws, to pull back within single digits at 51-42.

After a Miami jumper, Tejada went on a personal 5-0 run, as his three-pointer pulled Lehigh as close as it had been since early in the first half, trailing by just six (53-47) with 12:24 remaining. That extended Lehigh's overall run to 12-2.

Miami's Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending to seven straight Hurricane points after an Anthony Lawrence layup. A Caleb Bennett layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 61-51 with just over nine minutes remaining, but that's as close as they would come as Miami pulled away down the stretch for the 83-62 win.

GAME 3 - NOV. 13, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 78, MARIST 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team trailed 62-53 with less than eight minutes remaining against a hot-shooting Marist team, but the Mountain Hawks answered in a big way, scoring 25 of the final 35 points to win their home opener, 78-72 on Tuesday evening in Stabler Arena. The Red Foxes knocked down 15 of their first 24 three-pointers, but the Mountain Hawks hung within striking distance while shooting 62 percent from the field themselves in the second half. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the charge with a career-high tying 23 points, 20 coming in the second half. The win was the 200th of head coach Brett Reed's career, becoming the fourth coach in Patriot League history to reach that milestone.

Leufroy finished 8-of-13 from the field, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Before the game, Leufroy was recognized for scoring his 1,000th career point in the season opener at Monmouth. By the end of Tuesday's game, his 23 points moved him from a tie for 35th all the way to 33rd on the Lehigh career scoring list (currently 1,036 points). Senior Lance Tejada had 16 points while junior Pat Andree tallied his fifth-career double-double with 16 points and 10 boards. Classmate Jordan Cohen added 11 points and seven rebounds while sophomore Caleb Bennett had seven points and four rebounds.

Marist jumped out to an early first-half lead, going up by seven on multiple occasions. After a Bennett free throw pulled the Mountain Hawks within 24-18 with 6:22 on the clock, the Red Foxes used consecutive threes to open a 30-18 advantage with 3:59 remaining.

Lehigh ended the half on a 10-3 run, behind three-pointers from Leufroy and Tejada and four points from Cohen, including an offensive rebound and putback as time expired, to pull the Mountain Hawks within 33-28 at the half.

Lehigh came out of halftime on an 8-2 run, as a Tejada trey gave the Mountain Hawks their first lead at 36-35 with 18:21 on the clock. The teams traded leads over the ensuing minutes, which included a four-point play from

After five straight Lehigh points gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-51 lead, the Red Foxes immediately used a 10-0 run, capped off by a Brian Parker trey, to give Marist a 62-53 lead with 8:56 remaining.

From there, the Mountain Hawks scored 16 of the next 22 points to take a 69-68 lead following an Andree layup with 4:38 on the clock. The lead went back-and-forth over the ensuing minutes, but a Cohen layup with 3:27 to go gave Lehigh a 73-72 advantage, a lead the Mountain Hawks wouldn't relinquish. Lehigh followed with a Leufroy jumper and three Leufroy free throws, while holding Marist scoreless for the final 4:00 to end the game on a 9-0 run.

GAME 4 - NOV. 16, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 72, PRINCETON 57

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team ended the first half on a 6-0 run, extending the run to 31-7 in the second half, going up 53-33 on the way to a 72-57 win over visiting Princeton on Friday night at Stabler Arena as part of Knoebels Night at Lehigh Basketball. The win marked Lehigh's third against the Tigers in as many seasons after winning just four times in the first 34 all-time meetings. The Mountain Hawks' defense stood tall, holding Princeton to just 28.3 percent shooting, Lehigh's best mark since Dec. 31, 2008 when it held NJIT to just 22.0 percent from the field.

With the win, Lehigh improves to 3-1 for a second straight season, marking the first time it has happened in consecutive years since 1924-25 and 1925-26. Freshman Nic Lynch led the offense with 16 points and 10 rebounds for his second double-double in his first four collegiate games.

Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points, including 3-of-6 shooting from three-point range. Two Mountain Hawks just missed double-doubles as junior Pat Andree had 12 points and eight rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and nine boards. Leufroy has now tallied nine rebounds in three of his first four games this season, again helping Lehigh to a dominant edge on the glass (49-37 on Friday). Junior Jordan Cohen added 12 points as five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures.

A low-scoring start saw Princeton jump out to early leads of 5-2 and 7-4 before the Mountain Hawks used an 8-0 surge to take a 12-7 lead. The run included two points each from Leufroy, Andree, Lynch and sophomore Caleb Bennett, as Bennett's driving layup gave Lehigh a 12-7 advantage with 11:42 left in the first half.

The Tigers pulled within three, but the Lehigh lead swelled back to eight as a Marques Wilson trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage with 8:32 on the clock.

Princeton chipped away, using a 5-0 run to pull within 21-19, then later used a 7-0 surge to go up 26-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Mountain Hawks answered with six straight points to end the half, behind a Tejada three and Lynch three-point play, giving Lehigh a 28-26 halftime advantage.

Lehigh came out of the locker room with a vengeance, scoring the first seven points to take a 35-26 lead and force a quick Princeton timeout. Eventually, the run reached 16-3 to begin the second half (22-3 dating back to the first half) as a Tejada three forced a second Tigers' timeout, then Andree's second trey in the first 3:59 of the stanza gave Lehigh a 44-29 lead with 16:01 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks' lead kept growing as the run eventually reached 31-7 since the end of the first half as a Lynch offensive layup and putback gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-33 advantage with 9:29 left in the second half.

Princeton made a late surge to within nine with 2:46 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks built their lead back to 15, which proved to be the final margin.

GAME 5 - NOV. 21, 2018 TIMES UNION CENTER LEHIGH 80, SIENA 69

ALBANY, N.Y. – The Lehigh men's basketball knocked shot 58.0 percent from the field, including 63.2 percent from three-point range, while also clamping down defensively when it mattered most as the Mountain Hawks picked up an 80-69 win over Siena at the Times Union Center Wednesday evening. Senior Kyle Leufroy scored a career-high 25 points to pace the offense while junior Jordan Cohen had 15, sophomore Marques Wilson scored 12 and freshman Jeameril Wilson recorded a career-high 10. Siena jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but the Mountain Hawks turned the tides due in large part to limiting its turnovers. After eight first-half turnovers, Lehigh had just four in the second.

The Mountain Hawks improved to 4-1 with the win, marking their best start in 10 years, since beginning the 2008-09 season 5-1.

One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division I opponent in 10 years, Lehigh's offense took center stage. The team's 58.0 shooting percentage on Wednesday (29-of-50) is its best mark since shooting 59.2 percent on Feb. 4, 2017 at American. The Mountain Hawks' 63.2 percent from three (12-of-19) is tied for the second best percentage in the NCAA this season and is Lehigh's best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinnipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It's also the Mountain Hawks' best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook.

Leufroy's 25 points came on 8-of-11 shooting, including 4-of-5 from three-point range. No one else had more than eight shot attempts. Along with the four Mountain Hawks in double figures, junior Pat Andree scored eight points, all in the second half, while sophomore James Karnik had six points and eight boards.

Siena used an early 7-0 surge to take a 12-5 lead, later leading 16-10 with 13:48 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks immediately had an answer, posting a 10-0 run, with the first five points from Leufroy and the last five from Marques Wilson, to give Lehigh a 20-16 advantage with 11:07 left in the first.

Later in the half, the Saints used a 9-0 run to turn a 22-18 Lehigh lead into a 27-22 Saints' advantage. With Lehigh trailing 32-31 with 2:57 remaining, the Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the final 16 points of the half, which included a pair of Jeameril Wilson threes, to help give Lehigh a 42-37 after 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks would never trail in the second, but it wasn't for a lack of resistance. Siena pulled within three (or less) on six different occasions, but Lehigh always responded.

After the Saints got within 55-53 with 12:13 on the clock, an Andree three sparked a 6-0 run and a 61-53 lead. A few minutes later, Andree hit another try to give the Mountain Hawks a seven-point, 64-57 advantage with 7:28 remaining.

Siena later pulled within three at 64-61, but a 10-0 Lehigh run erased any doubt. The run wrapped up with a Karnik dunk and four straight points from Cohen, on the way to the 80-69 final.

GAME 6 - NOV. 24, 2018 BRAMLAGE COLISEUM NO. 12 KANSAS STATE 77, LEHIGH 58

MANHATTAN, Kan. – The Lehigh men's basketball team found itself leading 31-26 late in the first half, but No. 12 Kansas State opened a 37-35 halftime advantage and pulled away in the second to beat the Mountain Hawks, 77-58 on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh continued to hang around for much of the second half, finding itself within 57-48 with 7:56 remaining and 64-52 with 4:30 on the clock, but the Wildcats scored 13 of the game's final 19 points to improve to 6-0 on the season. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 4-2 with both defeats coming against power-conference opponents.

Sophomore James Karnik led the offense with 15 points on 6-of-7 shooting, to go with eight rebounds and two assists. Junior Pat Andree had 12 points, including 4-of-7 from three-point range, while classmate Jordan Cohen posted 11 points and a career-high eight assists, along with three steals. Fourteen of the Mountain Hawks' 22 field goals were assisted.

After shooting 54.2 percent from the field in the first half (13-of-24), including 40 percent from three (4-of-10), the Mountain Hawks shot just 28.1 percent in the second (9-of-32) and 18.2 percent from distance (2-of-11).

Lehigh jumped out to early leads of 3-0, 5-3 then 7-5, with each of the Mountain Hawks' first seven points scored by Karnik. Kansas State used a 6-0 surge to take an 11-7 advantage, but the Mountain Hawks responded with 10 of the next 12 points, including three-pointers from Marques Wilson and Caleb Bennett, who were playing in front of many friends and family in homecoming games. Two Cohen free throws and a Jeameril Wilson layup gave Lehigh a 17-13 lead with 11:41 left in the first.

Not long after, the Wildcats used a 5-0 surge to take a 21-19 advantage, later taking a 24-21 lead. That's when Andree got hot from distance, knocking down two in the span of 24 seconds, followed by a Cohen jumper to cap off a 10-2 run which gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 31-26 with 5:37 remaining in the first.

Kansas State scored 10 of the next 12 points, but two Cohen free throws in the final minute helped Lehigh pull within 37-35 at the half.

The Mountain Hawks struggled offensively early in the second, not scoring for the first 4:01. On the other end, Kansas State scored six straight to open a 43-35 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:48 on the clock.

Behind a Leufroy layup and Cohen three-point play, the Mountain Hawks pulled back within 45-40 with 15:24 remaining.

Kansas State extended its lead back to 12 at 57-45 just over the midway point of the half, but a Karnik three-point play with 7:56 on the clock pulled Lehigh back within nine, 57-48, with 7:56 to go in the stanza.

However, from that point, the Mountain Hawks were outscored 20-10. Lehigh was still within 64-52 with 4:30 remaining, but the Wildcats used a 13-3 run to take a 77-55 lead, on the way to the 77-58 final.

GAME 7 - DEC. 1, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 82, ARKANSAS STATE 70

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Trailing 22-9 in the first half, the Lehigh men's basketball team immediately answered with a 16-0 run, outscoring Arkansas State 32-8 over the final 11:14 of the first half to beat the Red Wolves, 82-70 on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 20 points, 16 coming in the first half, while junior Pat Andree scored 14 and senior Lance Tejada had 12 and a career-high tying seven assists. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 5-2 over the season, their best record after seven games since the 2012-13 campaign.

Leufroy reached 20 points for the third time through seven games this season, and ninth in his career. He finished the game shooting 7-of-9 from the field, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range. Andree's 14 points came on 6-of-11 shooting while Tejada shot 5-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-4 from long distance. Junior Jordan Cohen had eight points, six rebounds and five assists while freshman Jeameril Wilson scored eight points, all in the second half.

Ty Cockfield led Arkansas State with 30 points on 9-of-21 shooting. He was the only Red Wolves' player to reach double-figure points.

Five straight points in the early going, behind layups from Leufroy and sophomore James Karnik, gave Lehigh a 9-8 lead just over five minutes into the contest. Arkansas State responded with a 14-0 run as a Kobe Wilson three-pointer gave the Red Wolves a 22-9 advantage with 11:14 remaining in the first half.

Lehigh had an answer, posting 16-0 run, beginning with a three-point-er and layup from Andree, and ending with a Karnik dunk off a tremendous pass from sophomore Caleb Bennett. A Tejada jumper wrapped up the run and gave the Mountain Hawks a 25-22 lead with 5:19 on the clock.

Lehigh continued to build its lead and when all was said and down, the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 32-8 run over the final 11:14. Leufroy ended the half with 16 points, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range, all coming in the final 4:40 of the half, to take a 41-30 halftime advantage.

Arkansas State scored 11 of the first 16 second-half points, pulling within five, 46-41, with 17:03 on the clock.

Not long after, Lehigh responded with an 8-0 run as a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 56-43 advantage with 12:41 to go. Arkansas State had another run in it, getting back to within 59-54 with 9:50 remaining, but that's as close as it would come. The Mountain Hawks later used an 8-1 run to erase any doubt, turning a 68-60 lead into a 76-61 advantage following eight straight points from Jeameril Wilson in the span of 1:04 – behind a three-point play, three and two free throws.

GAME 8 - DEC. 5, 2018 JOHN J. LEE AMPHITHEATER YALE 97, LEHIGH 87

NEW HAVEN, Conn. – The Lehigh men's basketball team knocked down 15 three-pointers, scored 51 first-half points and 87 for the game, but it wasn't enough as Yale outscored the Mountain Hawks 46-36 in the second half to win, 97-87 on Wednesday evening. Junior Jordan Cohen tied a career-high 21 points to pace the offense while senior Kyle Leufroy had a career-high 10 assists, but 40 of Yale's 46 second-half points came from inside the arc or the free throw line, while holding 25-12 edge in second-half rebounds, which proved too much for the Mountain Hawks to overcome. The loss drops Lehigh's record to 5-3 on the season, marking its first loss of the season not against a power-conference opponent.

Lehigh led by as much as eight on multiple first-half occasions, but Yale pulled even at the half. The Mountain Hawks led for the beginning stages of the second, but Lehigh went 5:45 without a field goal in the middle stages of the stanza, allowing the Bulldogs to take a lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Cohen's 21 points came on 7-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three. Senior Lance Tejada had 19 points, including 5-of-9 from distance, while classmate Pat Andree scored 16 points. Leufroy had nine points and five rebounds, to go with his career-high 10 assists.

It took just 1:10 into the game for each team to each knock down a pair of three-pointers. The Mountain Hawks created a little separation just under seven minutes in when freshman Jeameril Wilson finished a dunk off a great lead pass from Leufroy, then Cohen recorded a three-point play off a tremendous pass from Tejada. That gave Lehigh a 25-19 lead with 12:48 left in the first half.

A Marques Wilson corner trey gave Lehigh an eight-point, 30-22 advantage midway through the first, Yale got back within 32-28, but a Caleb Bennett free throw and Cohen three helped Lehigh regain an eight-point, 36-28 lead with 6:52 on the clock.

With the Mountain Hawks still leading by six with 4:11 left in the first, the Bulldogs scored eight of the next 10 points to even the score at 45, the fourth of six first-half ties. The sixth came following a Miye Oni basket in the final seconds to tie the score at 51 at halftime.

Lehigh knocked down three more treys in the first 2:33 of the second half to go back up five, 60-55.

However, from there, the Mountain Hawks scored just four points over the next 7:57, with Yale scoring 17 in that span to take a 72-64 advantage just over the midway point of the second half.

The Mountain Hawks answered by immediately going on a 7-1 run, capped off by a Leufroy layup to pull within 73-71. That's as close as Lehigh would get, though, as Yale's lead reached double figures for the first time (86-75) with 3:30 remaining, on the way to the 97-87 final.

GAME 9 - DEC. 8, 2018 KNOTT ARENA LEHIGH 85, MOUNT ST. MARY'S 78

EMMITSBURG, Md. – In a game of runs, the Lehigh men's basketball team opened a 26-point second-half lead before Mount St. Mary's responded, pulling as close as five with 2:41 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks knocked down 12-of-13 free throws from that point forward to wrap up the 85-78 road victory on Saturday. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 21 points, including a perfect 12-of-12 from the charity stripe, while also taking a big charge in the final minute to help the Mountain Hawks wrap up the victory. Sophomore James Karnik added 15 points and nine rebounds. With the win, Lehigh improves to 6-3 on the season heading into a two-week break for final exams.

Along with Leufroy and Karnik, junior Pat Andree added 13 points and nine boards while senior Lance Tejada had 11 points on 3-of-5 from the field. Making his first start of the season, sophomore Marques Wilson recorded seven points and seven rebounds.

Trailing 5-4 in the early going, the Mountain Hawks responded with a 19-4 run, beginning with a three-pointer from Andree and three more treys – from Andree, junior Jordan Cohen and Tejada – as a Caleb Bennett layup gave Lehigh a 23-9 advantage just over midway through the first half.

The Mountaineers pulled within 30-20 with 6:37 remaining in the first, but Lehigh ended the first half on a 6-0 run, capped off by a Karnik jumper, to take a 42-24 halftime advantage.

Lehigh scored 13 of the first 18 second-half points, beginning with four straight points from Karnik and later including five in a row from Marques Wilson. A Leufroy jumper gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 55-29 with 15:32 on the clock.

Increasing its full-court pressure, Mount St. Mary's slowly began to chip away, staging a 17-5 run to pull within 62-48 with 8:27 on the clock. Four straight Karnik points, beginning with a three-point play, helped Lehigh reopen a 66-48 advantage.

The Mountaineers responded with a 20-5 run as a Nana Opoku three-pointer pulled them within 73-68 with 2:41 remaining.

After Mount St. Mary's pulled within five, Lehigh buckled down and got enough defensive stops down the stretch, while hitting 12-of-13 free throws – including 8-of-8 by Leufroy – to wrap up the 85-78 victory. One of the biggest plays was a charge taken by Leufroy with 19 seconds remaining and the Mountain Hawks leading by seven.

GAME 10 - DEC. 22, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 88, SAINT FRANCIS (PA.) 76

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team staged a 26-8 run bridging the end of the first and beginning of the second halves to turn a 45-37 deficit into a 63-53 lead, on the way to an 88-76 win over visiting Saint Francis (Pa.) on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Lehigh's starting backcourt of senior Lance Tejada (22 points), senior Kyle Leufroy (20) and junior Jordan Cohen (19) combined for 61 of the Mountain Hawks' season-high 88 points, as Lehigh improved to 7-3 on the season.

In a battle of preseason conference favorites, Lehigh knocked down 13-of-23 three-pointers to improve its season percentage to 45.0 percent after entering the day at No. 5 in the nation. Defensively, the Mountain Hawks bounced back from a tough start to hold Saint Francis to just 26.5 percent shooting in the second half (9-of-34). The win marked the 205th of head coach Brett Reed's career to tie for third in Patriot League history.

Tejada's season-high 22 points came on 8-of-14 shooting, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Leufroy reached 20 points for the fifth time in 10 games this season, in the process, moving into 25th place in school history for career points (currently 1,143). Leufroy was 8-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-2 from three-point range. Leufroy added six assists while Cohen had 19 points, five assists and four rebounds, shooting 3-of-5 from long distance. Junior Pat Andree added 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, and finished 5-of-6 from the field.

After the Red Flash opened a 6-2 lead, the Mountain Hawks responded with seven straight points, behind a Cohen three-pointer, Andree layup and Leufroy jumper, to take a 9-6 advantage with 16:22 left in the first half.

Lehigh extended its lead to 14-10 following the first of three first-half treys from Tejada, but Saint Francis responded with nine of the next 11 points to take a 19-16 lead just before the midway point of the half.

The Red Flash continued to lead for the rest of the stanza, opening a seven-point, 32-25 lead with 7:01 on the clock. The margin reached eight with 29 seconds remaining, but Cohen knocked down a pair of free throws with four seconds left to pull within 45-39 at the half.

Lehigh came out of the locker room on fire, staging a 24-8 run (26-8 dating back to the first half). The Mountain Hawks retook the lead behind a Leufroy three-point play then another three-point play less than 30 seconds later gave Lehigh a five-point, 56-51 advantage with 15:54 remaining.

The run continued as five straight Andree points gave the Mountain Hawks their first double-digit lead at 63-53. The teams went back and forth from there, with Lehigh's lead getting trimmed to six (63-57) then reaching 12 (69-57), before being trimmed back down to six (71-65). But that's as close as Saint Francis would come. Leading 73-67, the Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the next 15 points, beginning with corner threes from Leufroy and Andree, and capped off by a Tejada three-pointer with less than two minutes to go, giving Lehigh an 84-71 advantage on the way to the 88-76 final.

GAME 11 - DEC. 30, 2018 WVU COLISEUM WEST VIRGINIA 78, LEHIGH 68

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – Lehigh and West Virginia played back-and-forth for much of the contest, but the Mountaineers (8-4) used a late run to turn a three-point lead into a 13-point advantage, on its way to beating the Mountain Hawks (7-4), 78-68 on Sunday at WVU Coliseum. In the final nonleague contest of the season, junior Pat Andree led the offense with 18 points, 15 coming in the first half while classmate Jordan Cohen added 14 as Lehigh's bid for its first-ever win over the Big 12 fell a little short. The Mountain Hawks will open Patriot League play on Wednesday when it hosts archrival Lafayette at 7 p.m.

The rebounding margin of 52-25 led to West Virginia tallying 30-2 edge in second-chance points, proving critical.

Andree's first half saw him score 15 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three. He finished the evening 4-of-9 from distance. Cohen was a perfect 2-of-2 from three, including a four-point play, while senior Kyle Leufroy was 1-of-2. Seniors Leufroy and Lance Tejada were the third and fourth Mountain Hawks to reach double-figure points, scoring 12 and 10, respectively.

After West Virginia jumped out front 7-2, Leufroy scored six of the next eight as his three-point play pulled Lehigh within 9-8 with 15:47 left in the first half.

Later in the half, Andree began to heat up, knocking down two treys in 1:08 to even the score at 11 then 14. A few minutes later, freshman Jeameril Wilson finished an alley-oop from Tejada to pull Lehigh even at 18 with 10:44 left in the stanza.

Only one point was scored by either side over the next 3:36, a Tejada technical free throw to put Lehigh in front 19-18, its first lead since 2-0. The rest of the half saw seven lead changes as Andree put the Mountain Hawks in front 30-29 with a three-pointer, and 32-31 with a jumper, but the Mountaineers scored seven of the final nine first-half points to take a 38-34 lead into the locker room.

Lehigh scored eight of the first 11 points in the second, capped off by a Cohen four-point play to give the Mountain Hawks the lead back, 42-41.

West Virginia came back with an 11-2 run to take a 52-44 advantage with 13:15 on the clock, but a 6-0 Lehigh surge, which included a Tejada three-pointer following a great look from sophomore Caleb Bennett, pulled the Mountain Hawks within 52-50 with 11:18 remaining.

The Mountaineers re-opened a 59-52 lead, but again, Lehigh answered with an Andree three and Cohen driving layup to get right back within 59-57 with 7:46 to go.

A Tejada and-one layup pulled the Mountain Hawks back within 62-59, but that's as close as they would come. West Virginia all but sealed the victory with a 12-2 run to take a 13-point advantage following a James Bolden trey with 2:26 remaining. Lehigh couldn't get closer than 10 the rest of the way, falling 78-68.

In his career, head coach Brett Reed has now faced three of the top four active coaches for Division I victories, with Lehigh getting outscored by an average of just five points over those three contests. Reed owns a win over Duke's Mike Krzyzewski and tight 10-point defeats against Syracuse's Jim Boheim and West Virginia's Bob Huggins, featuring competitive contests deep into the second half.

GAME 12 - JAN. 2, 2019 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 86, LAFAYETTE 83

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team shot an NCAA-best 78.6 percent from three-point range while missing just 21 shots all game (including free throws) as the Mountain Hawks erased an eight-point halftime deficit to beat archrival Lafayette, 86-83 in the Patriot League opener in Stabler Arena on Wednesday evening. Lehigh (8-4, 1-0 PL) knocked down 11-of-14 three-pointers and 19-of-20 from the free throw line, led by junior Pat Andree, who filled up the stat sheet with 23 points and 13 rebounds, shooting 7-of-8 from the field, 3-of-3 from three and 6-of-6 from the charity stripe. Senior Lance Tejada was 4-of-5 from long range, including a go-ahead trey with just over a minute remaining.

Lehigh has now won seven straight vs. Lafayette in the all-time series, a new school record, previously winning six in a row against its rivals one other time (1926-27).

Andree's double-double was his second of the season and sixth of his career. Tejada finished with 16 points and five assists while classmate Kyle Leufroy had 12 points. Six different Mountain Hawks drained a three, including sophomores Caleb Bennett and Marques Wilson who were each a perfect 1-for-1. Entering the day second in the nation in three-point percentage at 44.9 percent, the Mountain Hawks are up to 46.7 percent on the year after Wednesday night's effort. For perspective, the Patriot League record for a single season is 41.8 percent held by Holy Cross in 1990-91.

With Lehigh trailing 9-8 early, Lafayette staged a 7-0 run to open a 16-8 lead, forcing a Mountain Hawks' timeout with 12:30 left in the first. Lehigh answered by scoring 11 of the next 15 points, seven of the points from Andree. His basket with 9:22 remaining pulled Lehigh within 20-19 with 9:22 on the clock.

The Leopards again had an answer, scoring eight straight points to take a 28-19 lead. The margin reached 10 on multiple occasions, but three-pointers from Bennett with 4:07 remaining pulled Lehigh within 36-32, and Tejada with 3:02 to go pulled the Mountain Hawks within 38-35.

However, Lafayette held Lehigh scoreless the rest of the half while scoring five points of its own to take a 43-35 halftime advantage.

Lehigh began the second half on an 11-4 run as a Leufroy trey pulled the Mountain Hawks within 47-46.

Lafayette answered with seven straight points to retake its halftime lead of eight, 54-46 with 16:13 left in the stanza.

Back and forth they went. The Mountain Hawks answered with an 8-0 run of their own, capped off by a jumper from Bennett to even the score at 56. Then, before the second half was to its midway point, Lafayette used a 7-0 surge to go back up 65-58. Lehigh again answered, with a 7-0 run of its own as two Jordan Cohen free throws evened the score at 65 with 8:04 remaining. Over the ensuing minutes, neither team led by more than four, as an Andree trey gave Lehigh its largest lead at 71-67.

Lafayette responded as a Justin Jaworski three gave Lafayette an 83-81 lead with 1:28 remaining, its first lead since the 6:02 mark, but on the ensuing possession, Tejada nailed a trey of his own to give Lehigh an 84-83 advantage with 1:05 remaining. Cohen added two free throws and the Mountain Hawks forced a contested three in the final seconds that didn't fall to pick up the hard-fought victory.

GAME 13 - JAN. 6, 2019 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 89, LOYOLA 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team jumped out to an early 13-5 lead and fought off numerous Loyola charges to beat the Greyhounds, 89-72 on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 9-4 overall, standing as one of just two teams with a 2-0 Patriot League mark. Lehigh also improved to 6-0 at home for the first time since the 2002-03 season and are 2-0 in the league for the first time since 2012-13.

Senior Lance Tejada led the offense with 19 points, shooting 4-of-5 from three for the second straight contest. Tejada had 14 points, two assists, two rebounds and two steals at halftime. Sophomore James Karnik enjoyed a monster game, tallying career highs in points (18) and rebounds (13) for his fifth-career double-double and first this season. He finished 9-of-10 from the field in 26 minutes of action.

Rounding out four Mountain Hawks with double-figure points was junior Pat Andree, who added 13 points, seven rebounds, three assists and a steal. Senior Kyle Leufroy tallied 11 points, seven rebounds and seven assists. Sophomore Caleb Bennett had seven points and a career-high five assists.

Leading 5-2 early, the Mountain Hawks scored eight of the next 11 points as a Tejada jumper gave Lehigh a 13-5 advantage with 15:42 remaining in the first half. Loyola answered right back with 11 consecutive points as an Andrew Kostecka three-point play gave the Greyhounds a 16-13 advantage.

Midway through the half, Lehigh staged a 14-2 run to turn an 18-15 deficit into a 29-20 lead, capped off by a Tejada three-pointer followed by a Jeameril Wilson dunk, assisted by Tejada, just 16 seconds later. The lead later swelled to 14 as a Karnik jumper made the run 20-3 and gave Lehigh a 35-21 advantage with 7:00 left in the stanza.

The runs continued as the Greyhounds used a 10-2 run to pull within five at 39-34. Loyola got as close as three, but four straight Lehigh points to end the half, including a Nic Lynch offensive rebound and dunk, gave the Mountain Hawks a 47-40 halftime advantage.

Lehigh outscored Loyola 18-8 over the first 7:30 of the second half to take a 65-48 advantage. One of the highlights was an alley-oop from Tejada to Karnik. The Greyhounds immediately staged an 11-0 run to pull within 65-59 with 9:01 remaining, but Leufroy knocked down a big three to snap a 3:58 scoreless drought, and Tejada followed with a layup to put the Mountain Hawks back up double figures at 70-59 at the under-8 media timeout.

Lehigh carried the momentum forward into a 14-1 run to take a 79-60 lead following an Andree trey. The margin reached 21 at one point as baskets from sophomore Shane Acoveno and freshman Joe Foley in the final minute helped the Mountain Hawks to the 89-72 final.

GAME 14 - JAN. 9, 2019 HART CENTER LEHIGH 99, HOLY CROSS 94 (OT)

WORCESTER, Mass. – The Lehigh men's basketball team trailed by as many as 18 in the first half then 12 at halftime, but outscored Holy Cross 29-10 over the first 10:20 of the second half, on its way to a thrilling 99-94 overtime win on Wednesday evening at the Hart Center. Senior Lance Tejada was sensational, scoring a career-high 36 points shooting 11-of-16 from the field, including 10-of-14 from three-point range. The 10 made threes tied a school record, held by current junior Pat Andree in 2016 and Joe Knight in 2005. Tejada's 10th trey came with 10 seconds left in overtime, giving the Mountain Hawks a four-point advantage and all but wrapping up Lehigh's 10th win of the season. Lehigh is now 10-4 overall and 3-0 in the Patriot League, standing as the only undefeated team in the league.

Lehigh handed Holy Cross its first home defeat of the season. The Crusaders entered the game 10-5 overall following a strong nonleague season. Lehigh also picked up a second straight win at Holy Cross for the first time in school history. Last season's win in Worcester helped spark an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season. Carrying the momentum forward into this year, the Mountain Hawks are now 18-5 since last January's win at Holy Cross.

Tejada's 36 points are most by a Lehigh player since Tim Kempton also had 36 on Jan. 8, 2017 vs. American. He is the second Mountain Hawk to score 30 in a game this season (also Pat Andree at Monmouth).

Along with Tejada, three other Mountain Hawks scored in double figures. Senior Kyle Leufroy had 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds for his first-career double-double. Junior Jordan Cohen added 16 points on 5-of-8 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three, while Andree posted 11.

Lehigh's 99 points came against the No. 1 scoring defense in the Patriot League (65.3 entering the day). It's the most points scored against Holy Cross since Nov. 13, 2013. The last time a team scored 90 vs. the Crusaders was Nov. 15, 2016 at Syracuse.

Holy Cross was red hot in the first half, finishing the half shooting 70.0 percent from the field (21-of-30), including 81.8 percent from three (9-of-11).

An Andree trey gave Lehigh an early 9-8 lead, but Holy Cross scored 18 of the next 24 points as an Austin Butler three gave the Crusaders a 26-15 lead with 12:15 on the clock. The margin reached 14 following a Kyle Copeland three-pointer, giving Holy Cross a 38-24 advantage with 7:02 left in the first. The margin kept increasing, eventually reaching 18 (46-28) following a pair of Jehyve Floyd free throws with 5:22 on the clock.

Lehigh ended the half with seven of the final 10 points as a Tejada three as time expired pulled the Mountain Hawks within 59-47 following 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh came out of the locker room on fire, staging a 21-6 run to turn the 12-point deficit into a three-point lead. Tejada knocked down a trio of three-pointers before the half was four minutes old. A few minutes later, a James Karnik free throw pulled Lehigh even at 65 with 13:02 left in the second half, then a Cohen three-pointer coming out of a timeout gave the Mountain Hawks a 68-65 advantage, their first lead since 9-8.

The run continued as eight straight points gave Lehigh a double-figure lead, capped off by Tejada's seventh trey of the game to give the Mountain Hawks a 76-66 advantage with 9:40 still remaining.

With Lehigh leading 79-70, the Crusaders slowly chipped away. They ended up going on a 14-4 run over the next six minutes, taking an 84-83 lead following a Jacob Grandison jumper with 1:26 on the clock. A Leufroy three on the other end gave the Mountain Hawks a two-point lead before a Floyd basket evened the score, forcing overtime.

Tejada continued his hot shooting in the extra period, knocking down two early threes in the first 1:44 to help the Mountain Hawks go up 95-88 with 3:16 on the clock. Holy Cross pulled within one heading into the final minute, but Tejada drained a huge three with 10 seconds remaining, giving Lehigh a four-point lead, on the way to the 99-94 final.

GAME 15 - JAN. 12, 2019 COTTERELL COURT COLGATE 91, LEHIGH 78

HAMILTON, N.Y. – The Lehigh men's basketball team erased a 13-point first-half deficit to take multiple second-half leads, but Colgate outscored the Mountain Hawks 26-6 over a stretch of 7:48 to turn a 60-59 Lehigh lead into an 85-66 Raiders' advantage, on the way to the 91-78 final on Saturday at Cotterell Court. The loss marks Lehigh's first Patriot League defeat of the season as it falls to 10-5, 3-1 in league play. Freshman Nic Lynch helped spark the Mountain Hawks in the first half, scoring 12 straight Lehigh points. Classmate Joe Foley provided a spark as well, scoring a career-high seven points along with three rebounds and two assists.

Junior Pat Andree led the offense with 14 points, shooting 4-of-7 from three-point range. Classmate Jordan Cohen had 12 points, five rebounds and four assists while Lynch finished with 12 on 4-of-5 shooting, including 4-of-4 from the free throw line. Sophomore James Karnik tallied 10 points and eight rebounds, four of which were on the offensive glass. Sophomore Caleb Bennett scored all eight of his points in the second half.

Burns and Ivanauskas each scored 23 points to lead the Raiders while Rayman added 20.

Lehigh jumped out to an early 7-2 lead, but Colgate came back with a vengeance, posting a 20-2 run to take a 22-9 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with exactly 12 minutes left in the first. That's when Lynch stepped up in a big way, scoring 12 straight Mountain Hawks' points, the last an offensive rebound and putback to pull Lehigh within 31-21 with 6:22 on the first-half clock.

Colgate's lead reached 11 again, but the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 10-2 run, sparked by a pair of Andree treys, to pull Lehigh within 39-36 at the half.

Trailing 47-42 early in the second, Lehigh used a 9-2 run, capped off by a Bennett three-pointer, to give the Mountain Hawks a 51-49 lead with 14:00 on the clock. The ensuing nine minutes saw nine lead changes, including a nifty pass from Bennett to Karnik for a dunk.

However, after a Jeameril Wilson basket with 10:51 remaining, the Mountain Hawks scored just four points the next 7:48 and Colgate took advantage, scoring 26 points in that span to take an 85-66 lead, on the way to the 91-78 final.

For the game, the Mountain Hawks shot 51.6 percent from the field (32-of-62), including 45.0 percent from three-point range (9-of-20). Colgate finished at 53.7 percent (36-of-67) and 36.7 percent from behind the arc (11-of-30). Lehigh won the battle of the boards, 36-31. The Mountain Hawks turned the ball over 15 times to just five turnovers for Colgate.

GAME 16 - JAN. 16, 2019 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 83, AMERICAN 76

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men's basketball team jumped out to a 47-31 halftime lead, on the way to an 83-76 victory over American on Wednesday evening to improve to 7-0 in Stabler Arena this season. The Mountain Hawks opened a 19-point lead early in the second half, the Eagles got as close as two, but Lehigh responded down the stretch to improve to 11-5 on the season and 4-1 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks currently stand tied for first place in the league standings with Bucknell, heading into a Saturday evening showdown against the Bison. Tipoff is set for 7 p.m. in Stabler.

Junior Pat Andree, sophomore James Karnik and senior Lance Tejada each scored 14 points to lead the offense. Karnik added 11 rebounds for his sixth-career double-double and second in as many home games. Junior Jordan Cohen had 12 points and seven assists, including a huge shot with 1:02 remaining to put Lehigh up by six. Freshman Jeameril Wilson scored a career-high 11 points (all in the first half) while grabbing a career-high seven rebounds. It marked the first time since Nov. 16 vs. Princeton that five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures.

Senior Kyle Leufroy added eight points and four rebounds while junior Ed Porter, seeing his first action in more than a year, was efficient with six points in just four minutes.

A tight beginning saw the Mountain Hawks leading 13-11 just over five minutes in. With Lehigh leading 21-17 midway through the first half, the Mountain Hawks staged a 9-0 run, beginning with a layup from Wilson and ending with a Tejada three-pointer and Porter layup, to give the Mountain Hawks a 30-17 edge with 7:49 on the clock. Porter's layup came on his first offensive possession of the game, and season.

An Eagles' trey pulled them within nine at 32-23, but the Mountain Hawks held a 15-8 edge over the final 6:10. Five straight Lehigh points in the span of 31 seconds, behind a Karnik dunk and Wilson three-pointer, gave Lehigh a 43-27 advantage with 2:35 remaining.

A Leufroy jumper in the final seconds of the half gave Lehigh a 47-31 edge after 20 minutes of play.

Just 28 seconds into the second half, a Tejada trey gave Lehigh a 50-31 advantage. American responded, however, by staging a 21-6 run over the next 7:49, to pull within 56-52 with 11:43 remaining. Lehigh rebuilt its lead back to 10 following an Andree three, giving the Mountain Hawks a 68-58 lead with 7:21 left in the second half, but the Eagles had one more run in them.

American went on to stage a 10-2 run as a Stacy Beckton Jr. three-point-er pulled the Eagles within 70-68 with 2:50 remaining. But on consecutive possessions, Tejada and Cohen hit big shot to make the margin six, on the way to the 83-76 final and Lehigh's eighth straight win over American.

GAME 17 - JAN. 19, 2019 STABLER ARENA BUCKNELL 85, LEHIGH 83

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – In a game which saw neither team lead by more than two possessions, a 10-0 Bucknell run in the final five minutes gave it a six-point lead, Lehigh stormed back with five points in an eight-second span to tie, but Jimmy Sotos came down the other end and finished a tough shot to give the Bison an 85-83 win on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. The loss marked the Mountain Hawks' first of the season at home, as they fall to 11-6 overall and 4-2 in Patriot League play, one game behind Bucknell who's currently in first at 5-1.

Down by five after a Sotos free throw with 18 seconds remaining, senior Lance Tejada knocked down a three-pointer, then the Mountain Hawks forced a steal on the end line and Tejada found a cutting Pat Andree, who finished the layup with eight seconds remaining.

However, Sotos came down the other and drove to his right before banking a tough shot home with just over one second on the clock.

Senior Kyle Leufroy led Lehigh's offense with a career-high 26 points, eight rebounds, five assists and three steals. He was 6-of-9 from three-point range as the Mountain Hawks finished 14-of-23 on the afternoon, their third game this season over 60 percent. Tejada added 15 points, 12 coming in the first half, and seven assists. Sophomore James Karnik just missed his third straight double-double at home with 14 points and nine rebounds. Andree scored 14, including 3-of-5 shooting behind the arc.

Lehigh used a mini 8-0 surge in the early going, behind a Karnik layup and threes from Leufroy and Tejada, to take a 15-9 lead.

After the Bison responded with seven straight points, neither team led by more than four until a deep Andree three with 7:59 on the clock to give Lehigh a 27-22 advantage.

Another Tejada trey gave Lehigh a 40-34 lead with 3:36 left in the first, but the Bison ended the half on a 9-1 run to take a 43-41 lead into the locker room.

The first 5:08 of the second half saw three ties and eight lead changes. Trailing 56-55, Lehigh used a 7-0 surge to reopen a six-point lead following a Leufroy fastbreak layup and Jordan Cohen free throw, making the score 62-56 Mountain Hawks with 11:33 left in the second.

After two Bruce Moore free throws with 10:47 remaining to pull his team within four, the margin remained four or less until the final minute in a back-and-forth battle. A Leufroy three-pointer with 4:29 on the clock gave Lehigh a 76-72 lead, but that's the last the Mountain Hawks would score for more than four minutes. Bucknell went on a 10-0 run, stopped by a Karnik offensive rebound and putback with 23 seconds remaining, helping set the stage for the dramatic ending.

GAME 18 - JAN. 23, 2019 ALUMNI HALL LEHIGH 85, NAVY 74

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – For the second time in the last three games, five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points as the Lehigh men's basketball team led for nearly 37 minutes in an 85-74 win at Navy on Wednesday evening in Alumni Hall. Senior Lance Tejada led the offense with 22 points, including five three-pointers, while sophomore James Karnik scored 12 of his 14 points in the second half to help Lehigh pull away. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 12-6 on the season, 5-2 in Patriot League play.

Karnik finished with 14 points and five rebounds, shooting 5-of-8 from the field. Junior Pat Andree tallied 16 points and a career-high six assists while senior Kyle Leufroy tallied 15 points and sophomore Caleb Bennett scored a season-high 12. The Mountain Hawks, who are now 6-0 after a loss this season, forced a season-best 20 turnovers behind a season-high 11 steals.

Navy held early leads of 1-0 and 6-5, but the Mountain Hawks used a 9-0 run – beginning with four straight points from Leufroy and ending with five straight from Tejada – to take a 14-6 advantage with 14:11 on the clock.

The Mids responded by scoring 11 of the next 13 points to retake a 17-16 lead midway through the first half. The Mountain Hawks came right back with eight in a row, capped off by an emphatic Bennett fastbreak dunk following a behind-the-back pass from junior Jordan Cohen, giving Lehigh a 24-17 with just under eight minutes left in the first.

Lehigh maintained the lead the rest of the half, with Navy pulling as close as one with 1:39 remaining. However, Tejada's third three of the first half in the final seconds gave the Mountain Hawks a 40-34 lead after 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks maintained their lead throughout the second half, but the Mids wouldn't go away quietly. Early in the stanza, Andree found Karnik for the slam and less than a minute later, Tejada knocked down another trey to give the Mountain Hawks a 49-42 lead with 16:21 remaining.

Midway through the half, with Lehigh's lead at three, Karnik's aggressive offensive rebounding led to a flagrant foul on Navy. Karnik hit both free throws, then converted a layup on the ensuing possession to give Lehigh a 62-55 lead with 9:09 left in the second.

After Karnik's four-point possession, the Mountain Hawks would lead by at least six over the game's final 9:09. Leading 66-60, Lehigh scored 12 of the next 15 points to take control, 78-63, on the way to the 85-74 final.

GAME 19 - JAN. 26, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 94, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 78

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Behind a career-high 32 points from junior Jordan Cohen and career-high 21 from sophomore James Karnik, the Lehigh men's basketball team picked up an impressive 94-78 win over Boston University on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks (13-6, 6-2 Patriot League) scored a season-high 57 first-half points, shooting 79.3 percent from the field and finishing the contest at 67.3 percent, missing just 17 field goal attempts all game. The 67.3 percentage is the 13th best percentage by any team in the nation this season.

Cohen's final line was impressive, converting 12-of-14 field goals, including 4-of-5 from three-point range. He added five rebounds, three assists and a steal. Cohen became the third Mountain Hawk to eclipse 30 points on the season (joining junior Pat Andree and senior Lance Tejada) and the first to score 30 in Stabler Arena since Tim Kempton had 36 on Jan. 8, 2017 vs. American. Karnik was 9-of-10 from the floor, adding eight rebounds.

Three other Mountain Hawks posted double-figure points, including seniors Tejada (12) and Kyle Leufroy (12), and Andree (10), who also added eight rebounds. Defensively, Lehigh held Boston University All-League forward Max Mahoney to seven points (which tied his season low).

Lehigh jumped out to an early 9-0 lead as an Andree trey forced a Boston University timeout less than three minutes in.

From there, the Mountain Hawks continued to tack onto their lead, with it reaching 15-2 after two Tejada free throws. After the Terriers pulled within 21-10, Leufroy scored six straight points as his three-point play gave Lehigh a 27-10 advantage with 12:39 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks' lead reached 20 for the first time following a Tejada three-point play, which made the score 40-20 with 6:18 left in the first. Lehigh ended the half on a 5-0 run, all five points scored by Cohen. His fourth trey of the stanza gave the Mountain Hawks a 57-32 halftime advantage. Cohen finished the first half 8-of-8 from the field, including 4-of-4 from three-point range.

A Nic Lynch three-point play gave Lehigh its largest lead at 71-43 with 13:59 left in the second half. The Terriers slowly chipped away from there, pulling as close as 80-71 with just over five minutes remaining. Lehigh responded as Cohen scored 10 points over the game's final 5:28 to erase any doubt in the 94-78 victory.

GAME 20 - JAN. 30, 2018 KIRBY SPORTS CENTER LEHIGH 93, LAFAYETTE 86 (OT)

EASTON, Pa. – One game after scoring a career-high 32 points vs. Boston University, junior Jordan Cohen one-upped it on Wednesday by scoring 33, including 14 of the Mountain Hawks' 18 points in overtime, as the Lehigh men's basketball team defeated archrival Lafayette, 93-86 on Wednesday evening at Kirby Sports Center. With Lehigh's third straight win, it improves to 14-6 on the year, 7-2 in Patriot League play, remaining in a tie for first place in the standings. The win also gives Lehigh its fourth straight regular-season sweep vs. the Leopards as senior Kyle Leufroy becomes the first player in school history to finish his career 8-0 in the regular season against Lafayette. He also joins former teammate, and 2018 graduate, Kahron Ross as the only two in program history to go a perfect 4-0 at Lafayette in their careers.

Cohen scored seven points over the final 2:58 of regulation, along with his 14 in overtime. In the end, he scored 21 of Lehigh's final 30 points of the evening an incredible showcase. He finished 14-of-19 from the floor. Over his last two games, Cohen has scored 65 points on 26-of-33 shooting (78.8 percent).

Along with Cohen's performance, senior Lance Tejada added 17 points, 12 coming in the first half, while sophomore James Karnik had 15 on 6-of-8 shooting and Leufroy added 11.

The Mountain Hawks took early leads of 5-0 then 7-2. After Lafayette pulled within 7-6, a Tejada trey gave Lehigh a 10-9 lead at the under-16 media timeout. A Kyle Stout three-pointer gave Lafayette a 15-14 advantage, but Lehigh answered with seven straight points, including threes from Cohen and Tejada, to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-15 lead with 11:29 left in the first.

Lehigh continued to lead the remainder of the half, but couldn't extend its lead past six. Lafayette hit a three with 51 seconds on the clock, but two Tejada free throws with 10 seconds left in the stanza gave the Mountain Hawks a 36-32 halftime lead.

After Lehigh scored the first four points of the second, Lafayette responded with a 12-0 run as an Alex Petrie three-pointer gave the Leopards a 44-40 advantage with 16:39 on the clock.

Lafayette held onto the lead for most of the remainder of the half until Cohen came to life. After a Cohen jumper pulled Lehigh within 67-65, freshman Jeameril Wilson had a big steal and emphatic slam to even the score.

Less than a minute later, Cohen converted a three-point play with 1:54 remaining to give Lehigh its first lead since the 17:36 mark. The Mountain Hawks maintained the lead over the ensuing minutes, but Petrie converted a driving score with two seconds on the clock to force overtime.

Cohen immediately made his mark in the extra session, scoring just 15 seconds in. The Mountain Hawks ended up a perfect 6-of-6 from the field in overtime, all six field goals coming from Cohen. Fittingly, two Cohen free throws with eight seconds remaining gave him a career-high 33 points, rounding out the scoring in the 93-86 victory.

GAME 21 - FEB. 2, 2019 CHRISTL ARENA LEHIGH 75, ARMY WEST POINT 70

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Trailing by as many as 19 in the first half and 18 more than six minutes into the second half, the Lehigh men's basketball team responded by outscoring Army West Point, 38-15 over the game's final 13:26 for a thrilling 75-70 win on Saturday afternoon at Christl Arena. The 19-point comeback marked the largest comeback in Brett Reed's 12 seasons as head coach, besting the 18-point comeback earlier this season at Holy Cross. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the charge, posting 16 points and eight rebounds in the second half alone to finish with 22 and 10, good for his second-career double-double. Junior Jordan Cohen continued his stellar play, scoring 18 points on 6-of-9 shooting, including a three-pointer which put the Mountain Hawks up for good with less than two minutes remaining.

With its fourth straight win, Lehigh improves to 15-6 on the season, 8-2 in Patriot League play, remaining tied for first with Bucknell. The Mountain Hawks continued their February success, improving to 23-3 in February dating back to 2016. Entering the day, Army stood at 6-3 in the league, just one game behind Lehigh in the standings.

Lehigh's offense came to life, shooting 66.7 percent from the field in the second half, but it was defense which helped set the stage for the comeback. After allowing 41 points over the game's first 15:39, the Mountain Hawks allowed just 29 over the final 24:21.

Leufroy finished 6-of-11 from the field, including 5-of-9 from three-point range. Cohen was 6-of-9 and 4-of-5 from three. Senior Lance Tejada was strong with 12 points (nine in the first half). Sophomore James Karnik added 10 points and five rebounds, shooting 5-of-8 from the field. Junior Ed Porter made a big impact at both ends of the floor, scoring a season-high seven points in just eight minutes, shooting 3-of-3 from the field.

A Tejada trey with 14:32 on the first-half clock pulled the Mountain Hawks within 14-11, but the Black Knights responded with a 20-4 run to open a commanding 34-15 advantage. Trailing by 19 late in the stanza, neither team scored for 2:24, but the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 6-0 run, with a Cohen trey pulling Lehigh within 41-28 following 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh tried to stage a comeback early in the second, but Army had answers. The Mountain Hawks made their run trailing 58-45 with 10:58 remaining, when they scored 13 straight points, beginning with Leufroy's second trey in 29 seconds. Lehigh knocked down two more threes during the run, from Cohen and Leufroy, before a Karnik layup evened the score at 58 with 7:54 on the clock.

The Black Knights immediately responded with six straight points, but an 8-2 Lehigh run capped off by another Karnik basket gave the Mountain Hawks a 68-66 lead with just under three minutes remaining, their first lead since 3-0.

Army retook the lead on the ensuing possession, but Cohen knocked down a three near the top of the key to put Lehigh up 71-70 with 1:28 to go, a lead it wouldn't relinquish. The Mountain Hawks didn't allow a single point the rest of the way, while going 4-for-4 from the charity stripe, to wrap up the thrilling victory.

GAME 22 - FEB. 4, 2019 STABLER ARENA COLGATE 84, LEHIGH 62

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team couldn't get much going on Monday evening in Stabler Arena as Colgate jumped out to a 25-point halftime lead, proving too much for the Mountain Hawks to overcome in an 84-62 final. Senior Lance Tejada led the offense with 16 points, while freshman Jeameril Wilson tied a career-high 11 points on a perfect 4-of-4 shooting. Freshman Joe Foley filled up the stat sheet with six points, three assists, two rebounds, a block and steal.

Tejada finished 6-of-12 from the field, including 4-of-8 from three-point range. Junior Jordan Cohen added eight points while classmate Pat Andree had seven points and nine rebounds. Ivanauskas led Colgate with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting, while adding 10 rebounds and five assists.

A Tejada three-pointer pulled Lehigh within 13-10 with 14:13 left in the first half, but Colgate responded by scoring 20 of the next 26 points, as a Jack Ferguson trey gave the Raiders a 33-16 advantage with 8:15 on the clock.

A Cohen trey pulled Lehigh within 39-23 with 3:09 remaining in the stanza, but the Raiders ended the half on an 11-2 run to take a 50-25 halftime advantage.

The Raiders extended their lead early in the second, leading 65-33 just over five minutes in. Lehigh responded with a 13-2 run, which included threes from Andree and Tejada, and ended with a Wilson layup to pull within 67-46 with 10:34 remaining.

A few minutes later, two Wilson free throws got Lehigh within 20 at 70-50, but that's as close as it would come. Freshman Zedrek Farrell would go on to score his first collegiate points via a driving layup with exactly three minutes remaining.

For the game, the Mountain Hawks shot 48.0 percent from the field (24-of-50), but had 15 fewer field goal attempts than Colgate due in large part to the turnover margin (21 for Lehigh to eight for the Raiders). The Raiders finished at 46.2 percent (30-of-65). Rebounds were even at 33 apiece.

STABLER ARENA

LEHIGH 83, NAVY 57

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team responded from a tough loss to Colgate by defeating Navy Saturday afternoon at Stabler Arena, using a strong defensive effort throughout the contest to hold the Midshipmen to only 57 points in a 83-57 win. Saturday's game was part of Diversity and Inclusion day, presented by Lehigh's Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Equity. The point total tied a season-best for the Mountain Hawks' defense, who also allowed 57 in November vs. Princeton. Junior Pat Andree led the Lehigh offense with 22 points, shooting 5-of-7 from three as the Mountain Hawks improved to 16-7 on the season, 9-3 in Patriot League play heading into a first-place showdown at Bucknell Monday night.

Lehigh took command of the game early, outscoring the Midshipmen 42-23 in the first half. Navy only led for 2:27 of the contest, but a 20-2 Lehigh run gave it a dominant lead it wouldn't relinquish. The Mountain Hawks held the Midshipmen to just 27.9 percent shooting, a season best for the Lehigh defense.

Along with Andree's 22 points, sophomore center James Karnik had nine rebounds, seven of which were defensive. Senior Lance Tejada scored 17 points to reach 998 in his career (including his time at East Carolina), while classmate Kyle Leufroy added 10 points. Thirteen Mountain Hawks saw minutes in the contest.

Trailing 2-0 just over three minutes in, the Mountain Hawks scored 20 of the next 22 points, beginning with consecutive Andree threes and ending with a Jordan Cohen layup to give Lehigh a 20-4 edge with 9:58 left in the first half. Navy pulled as close as 10 on multiple occasions, but Lehigh used an 11-2 run, capped off by threes from Andree and Tejada, to take a 34-15 lead with 4:44 on the clock, on the way to the 42-23 halftime advantage.

Navy scored 13 of the first 20 second-half points to pull within 49-36, but that's as close as the Midshipmen would come. Lehigh used a 14-3 run, beginning with another Andree three and ending with a pair of Caleb Bennett free throws, to open its largest lead at 70-44 with 6:45 remaining.

Acoveno scored four points down the stretch, while freshman Zedrek Farrell added three, to help the Mountain Hawks wrap up the 83-57 victory.

For the game, Lehigh shot 46.6 percent from the field (27-of-58), including 46.2 percent from three (12-of-26). Navy finished at 27.9 percent (17-of-61) and 20.0 percent from long range (6-of-30). The Mountain Hawks held a 48-33 edge in rebounds.

SOJKA PAVILION

BUCKNELL 87, LEHIGH 75

LEWISBURG, Pa. - Lehigh used a 14-0 first-half run to open a 22-11 lead, but Bucknell pulled within three at the half and used a 15-1 second-half run to take a double-figure lead, on the way to downing the Mountain Hawks 87-75 on Monday evening in Sojka Pavilion. Lehigh trimmed a 16-point deficit with just over six minutes remaining down to nine with 4:06 on the clock, but that's as close as the Mountain Hawks would come. Sophomore James Karnik led Lehigh with 21 points to tie a career high, along with nine rebounds as five Mountain Hawks finished with double-figure points.

With the loss, Lehigh falls to 16-8 on the season, 9-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks stand alone in second place in the league standings, now two games behind the 11-2 Bison with five regular-season games remaining.

One of the nation's top shooting teams, Lehigh finished at 41.7 percent from the field (25-of-60) and just 27.3 percent from three-point range (6-of-22), struggling offensively for long stretches of Monday's game.

Along with Karnik's 21 points, junior Jordan Cohen had 15 and a game-high seven assists. Classmate Pat Andree had 12 points while seniors Kyle Leufroy and Lance Tejada each had 10. With a driving first-half layup, Tejada reached 1,000 collegiate points (including his time at East Carolina), becoming the 37th Lehigh player in school history to reach that milestone.

Bucknell was led by Kimbal Mackenzie, who scored 27 points while Nate Sestina had 15 points and 10 rebounds.

Trailing 11-8 early, the Mountain Hawks staged a big run, beginning with a basket from Andree and including threes from Tejada and later Leufroy. Leufroy's trey made it 14 straight Lehigh points, giving the Mountain Hawks a 22-11 edge with 8:13 left in the first half.

After Karnik gave Lehigh a 28-19 edge, the Bison scored seven straight points to quickly pull within two heading into the final media timeout of the half.

Threes from Tejada and later Andree gave Lehigh leads of seven and five points, but a Mackenzie hoop in the final seconds of the first pulled Bucknell within 38-35 at the half.

Karnik scored the first four second-half points to put Lehigh up seven, but that's when Bison turned the tides with a 15-1 run. Bucknell's lead eventually reached 16 at 66-50, with Lehigh scoring just 12 points over the first 13:38 of the second.

The Mountain Hawks scored 13 of the next 19 points as an Andree trey pulled Lehigh within nine at 72-63 with 4:06 still remaining.

From there, the Mountain Hawks scored 12 points over the final four minutes, but allowed 15, eight of which were free throws over the final 1:04 to help the Bison wrap up the victory.

GAME 25 - FEB. 16, 2019 CASE GYMNASIUM LEHIGH 84, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 79

BOSTON - The Lehigh men's basketball team opened a 19-point second-half lead then held off a late Boston University charge to down the Terriers, 84-79 on Saturday afternoon at Case Gymnasium. The win improved the Mountain Hawks' record to 17-8 on the year, 10-4 in Patriot League play as Lehigh wrapped up a regular-season sweep of Boston University for the first time in program history. The Mountain Hawks also improved to 8-0 after losses this year, having not lost back-to-back games all season. Once again, a balanced attack led the way as four Mountain Hawks scored between 13 and 18 points.

Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 18 points, while adding four steals to tie a career high. Classmate Lance Tejada had 17 points and six assists, while sophomore James Karnik tallied 14 points, shooting 5-of-6 from the field. Junior Jordan Cohen scored 13 points. Cohen, Leufroy and Tejada all finished 3-of-6 from behind the arc.

Not to be forgotten, junior Pat Andree finished with nine points and a career-high 16 rebounds, the most rebounds by a Mountain Hawk since Tim Kempton on Mar. 8, 2017 at Bucknell. Freshman Jeameril Wilson filled up the stat sheet with six points, four rebounds and two assists. Classmate Joe Foley had five points and a block while also making several important defensive plays, including taking a charge in the final minutes.

The teams went back-and-forth in the early going with seven lead changes before the first media timeout. Trailing 16-14, Leufroy knocked down a three to kick-start a 13-0 run with all the points scored by seniors - six from Leufroy and seven from Tejada. A Tejada trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-16 edge just over midway through the first half.

The Terriers came back to within 32-24, but a 7-0 Lehigh surge gave the Mountain Hawks a 39-24 lead.

In the second half, the Mountain Hawks used a 9-2 run to increase an 11-point lead to 18 as a Leufroy steal and layup gave them a 63-45 advantage with 9:56 on the clock.

Less than a minute later, two Wilson free throws gave Lehigh its largest lead at 65-46. However, the Terriers had one last run in them, trimming an 18-point Mountain Hawk lead with 5:36 remaining down to two with 25 seconds on the clock. Boston University had a chance to take a lead, but an Andrew Petcash three was off the mark, Karnik grabbed a tough rebound, was fouled and hit two clutch free throws to ice the victory.

GAME 26 - FEB. 20, 2019 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 91, ARMY WEST POINT 81

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men's basketball team went on a 29-5 run in the span of just 6:42 to turn a 59-48 deficit into a 77-64 lead, on the way to beating Army West Point, 91-81 on Wednesday evening in Stabler Arena. Five Mountain Hawks scored double-figure points, led by senior Lance Tejada, who was 3-of-4 from three-point range and 7-of-7 from the charity stripe. Junior Jordan Cohen added 16 points, seven rebounds and six assists (13 points, five rebounds and three assists coming in the second half). Wednesday's game was presented by JFR Salvage.

With the win, the Mountain Hawks move into a tie with Bucknell for first place in the league standings, owning identical 11-4 marks with three regular-season games remaining. The win clinches Lehigh a top-four seed and home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The nation's leader from three-point range, Lehigh finished 10-of-20 from long distance, including 6-of-10 in the second half. After scoring 48 points over the game's first 27:21, the Mountain Hawks scored 43 over the game's final 12:39. Lehigh's 56 second-half points marked a season high for a second half.

Tejada got two early fouls in the game's first 2:25, but found a way to make a big difference.

Along with Tejada and Cohen, senior Kyle Leufroy posted 17 points, four rebounds and six assists while junior Pat Andree had 15 points, seven rebounds, three assists, a block and steal. Sophomore James Karnik tallied 11 points and six boards. Freshman Joe Foley was strong off the bench as well, scoring a career-high eight points (all in the first half) to go with three boards.

Army jumped out to a 3-0 lead and went on to lead for the entire first half. The Black Knights scored six straight points to turn a 16-12 lead into a 22-12 advantage midway through the first. Lehigh's offense struggled in scoring just one point in the span of 4:30 and just five over a 6:53 stretch.

The Black Knights' lead reached as much as 12 on multiple occasions, but Lehigh would end the half with four straight points, via layups from Karnik and Leufroy, to pull within 42-35 at the half.

Lehigh quickly scored five straight second-half points to extend its run to 9-0 from the end of the first half, pulling within 42-40 with 17:24 remaining. Over the ensuing minutes, the Mountain Hawks couldn't get over the hump and Army took advantage, using an 8-0 run to reopen a 59-48 lead with 12:57 remaining.

That's when Lehigh took control, beginning with six straight points from Tejada - a three then a trio of free throws. A Cohen trey pulled Lehigh within two at 59-57. Not long after, a Cohen jumper evened the score at 61 before two Cohen free throws gave the Mountain Hawks a 63-61 advantage with 9:15 on the clock for their first lead of the game.

Lehigh extended its lead with a pair of threes, from Leufroy and Andree, in the span of 20 seconds to go up 69-61. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up their 29-4 run with threes from Andree and Cohen, and a jumper from Leufroy, to give Lehigh a 77-64 advantage with 6:15 on the clock.

Army responded to pull as close as four, 81-77, with 2:10 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks closed out the win by going 8-of-8 from the free throw line over the final 1:54. Karnik also put down an emphatic alley-oop with 1:33 on the clock, as Lehigh wrapped up the 91-81 win.

GAME 27 - FEB. 24, 2018 STABLER ARENA HOLY CROSS 73, LEHIGH 71

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – In a back-and-forth game which saw neither team lead by more than seven points, Holy Cross ended the game on an 8-0 run to hand the Lehigh men's basketball team a tough 73-71 defeat on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Lance Tejada led the offense with 18 points while classmate Kyle Leufroy scored 13 on their Senior Days. Both were honored prior to tipoff. Sunday was also CJ McCollum Day presented by Coordinated Health as his number went up in the rafters in a special halftime ceremony for the 2013 graduate and current Portland Trail Blazers' star.

With the loss, the Mountain Hawks fall to 18-9 on the season, 11-5 in Patriot League play with a pair of road games at American Wednesday and Loyola Saturday, both set for 7 p.m. tipoffs.

A three-pointer from junior Pat Andree gave Lehigh a 71-65 lead with 2:40 remaining, but the Crusaders' Matt Faw answered less than 10 seconds later, sparking Holy Cross' late rally. Lehigh missed its final seven shots, including three in the final 10 seconds.

Lehigh's two seniors combined for 31 points, while Andree added 13 points, eight rebounds and five assists. Junior Jordan Cohen had eight points, six assists and five rebounds while sophomore James Karnik tallied eight points and five boards.

The first half saw Lehigh jump out to an early lead as Tejada and Leufroy began the game a combined 3-of-3 from distance. Included was the first of two four-point plays in the first half for Tejada before a Leufroy triple gave the Mountain Hawks a 10-5 edge just over two minutes in.

Holy Cross responded by scoring 16 of the next 20 points, as a Faw trey gave the Crusaders a 21-14 edge with 12:46 on the clock. Lehigh answered right with an 8-0 run as an alley-oop from Tejada to Karnik gave the Mountain Hawks a 22-21 edge.

A few minutes later, Lehigh's lead reached five at 30-25 following another Karnik layup with 6:08 left in the first. Holy Cross ended the stanza with five straight points, beginning with a Patrick Benzan three, to give the Crusaders a 36-35 halftime lead.

At halftime, McCollum's number three was honored at Stabler Arena in a special halftime ceremony, as he joined Daren Queenan '88 (#12) and Mike Polaha '88 (#24) with their numbers honored.

The Crusaders added to their lead early in the second, with it reaching seven on two occasions. Holy Cross maintained the lead until less than seven minutes remaining as a Joe Foley layup, then a Leufroy trey just over a minute later, gave the Mountain Hawks a 63-61 lead with 6:54 remaining. A Tejada trey made it an 8-0 run and gave Lehigh a 66-61 advantage with 6:14 to go.

Lehigh's lead reached six (71-65) following Andree's trey with 2:40 remaining. However, that's when the Crusaders made their late run, capped off by a three-point play from Jehyve Floyd with 42 seconds remaining, to give Holy Cross a 73-71 lead, which proved to be the final.

GAME 28 - FEB. 27, 2018 BENDER ARENA LEHIGH 80, AMERICAN 66

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The Lehigh men's basketball team opened as much as a 23-point second-half lead and held off an Eagles' surge to pick up an impressive 80-66 win at American on Wednesday evening in Bender Arena. Five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures for the seventh time this season (and sixth time in Patriot League play), led by 18 points from senior Kyle Leufroy and a career-high 17 from freshman Jeameril Wilson. Sophomore James Karnik added 17 points as well, 12 coming in the second half. With the win, the Mountain Hawks are now in a three-way tie for first place (with Bucknell and Colgate) in the Patriot League standings at 12-5, heading into the final day of the regular season on Saturday.

With Wednesday's win, Leufroy finished off his second perfect regular season against a team in his career. He is now a perfect 8-0 in the regular season against archrival Lafayette and American (9-0 overall vs. American including the postseason).

Making his second start of the season, Wilson excelled at both ends of the floor, finishing with 17 points on 6-of-10 shooting, including 2-of-2 from three and adding six rebounds, two steals and a block.

Leufroy's 18 points included 9-of-9 from the free throw line, along with six assists. Karnik finished 6-of-7 from the field while adding eight rebounds and two blocks in just 23 minutes due to foul trouble. Junior Jordan Cohen added 11 points while senior Lance Tejada had 10, along with five assists.

Lehigh allowed just 22 first-half points, a season-low for points in any half. The half began with the Mountain Hawks not allowing a point for the game's first 3:44 and just two points over the first 6:31. Leading 6-5, Lehigh used a 9-0 run, beginning and ending with Tejada threes, to take a 15-5 advantage with exactly 13 minutes on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks' lead eventually reached 13 at 20-7, American pulled as close as seven (24-17), but a 6-0 Lehigh surge in the span of just 1:17, ending with a layup from freshman Nic Lynch, gave the Mountain Hawks a 30-17 edge with just over four minutes remaining.

Lynch would wrap up the first-half scoring with a three-point play in the final minute to give Lehigh a 36-22 halftime edge.

Leading 41-26 early in the second, Lehigh used an 8-0 run – featuring a Wilson three, Leufroy three and Cohen acrobatic move to the basket – to take a 49-26 lead with 14:18 on the clock.

Lehigh regained 23-point leads following a Cohen trey, and later Wilson three-point play, to give the Mountain Hawks a 55-32 edge with 12:29 remaining.

From there, American slowly chipped away, scoring 18 of the next 22 points, capped off by a Sa'eed Nelson layup, to pull within 59-50 with 6:11 on the clock. That's as close as the Eagles would get, however. Consecutive dunks from Wilson and Karnik in the span of 50 seconds gave the Mountain Hawks a 69-53 edge, on the way to the 80-66 final.

REITZ ARENA
LOYOLA 92, LEHIGH 73

BALTIMORE – Loyola knocked down 12-of-16 three-pointers to help spark its offense, and it proved too much for the Lehigh men's basketball team to overcome as the Greyhounds picked up a 92-73 win on Saturday evening in Reitz Arena. Freshman Nic Lynch was strong off the bench, recording 12 points and a career-high 13 rebounds in 22 minutes, good for his third-career double-double. Senior Kyle Leufroy and junior Jordan Cohen each scored a team-high 16 points in the defeat. The Mountain Hawks (19-10, 12-6 PL) will enter the Patriot League Tournament as the No. 3 seed and host sixth-seeded Army West Point in the quarterfinals on Thursday, Mar. 7 at 7 p.m. in Stabler Arena.

Seven of Lynch's 13 boards were on the offensive glass, while he also added a career-high three blocks and a steal. Leufroy finished with 16 points, five rebounds, four assists, a block and steal while Cohen tallied four rebounds, two assists and a steal. Senior Lance Tejada rounded out four Mountain Hawks in double figures with 14 points.

With Lehigh leading 8-4 early, Loyola staged a 13-2 run, capped off by a Kenneth Jones jumper to give the Greyhounds a 17-10 edge with 13:16 left in the first half.

Four quick Mountain Hawk points, behind baskets from freshmen Joe Foley and Lynch, pulled Lehigh within 19-16. A few minutes later, a Tejada trey pulled Lehigh within one, 25-24, with 8:49 left in the first half.

Not long after, the Greyhounds used a 7-0 run capped off by another three to take a 39-29 lead with 3:41 on the clock. A Cohen trey in the final minute pulled Lehigh within seven, but an Isaiah Hart basket gave the Greyhounds a 46-37 halftime edge.

Loyola quickly opened a double-figure lead in the second half, which remained for the remainder of the game. Early on, a Leufroy jumper pulled Lehigh within 53-42 then just 40 seconds later, a Leufroy trey pulled the Mountain Hawks back within 11 at 56-45.

Loyola continued to have answers, opening an 18-point, 72-54 lead. The Mountain Hawks scored seven straight to get back within 11, but that's as close as they would come. A 13-1 run gave the Greyhounds an 85-62 edge with 4:39 remaining, on the way to the 92-73 final.
