SETTING THE SCENE

Following five games in 15 days, the No. 17/19 Lehigh men's lacrosse team begins its final four-game stretch of the season on Saturday when it travels to Boston University to face the Terriers. Opening faceoff is set for 3:30 p.m. The Mountain Hawks are coming off a tough 10-7 defeat to Navy on Saturday, marking Lehigh's first Patriot League loss of the season. It was Lehigh's second consecutive home defeat, also dropping a hard-fought 8-7 final to No. 16/18 Rutgers 10 days prior. The Mountain Hawks did win all three road games over those 15 days, including two over nationally-ranked teams.

Most recently, Lehigh got off to a slow start against Navy, but scored three of the final four first-half goals, to pull even at four at the half. Junior Andrew Pettit scored two extra-man goals in the span of 46 seconds to quickly turn a 4-2 deficit into a 4-4 deadlock. The Midshipmen responded by scoring the first three third-quarter goals before the stanza was 10 minutes old. Juniors Craig Chick and Lucas Spence scored goals in the span of 1:08 late in the third to pull the Mountain Hawks within 7-6. Eddie Bouhall had a shot in the final minute of the third looking to pull Lehigh even, but Navy goalkeeper Ryan Kern made one of his 18 saves, leading to a transition goal on the other end and an 8-6 Midshipmen lead. Navy went on to take a 10-6 lead, on the way to the 10-7 victory.

Kern was the story of the game as Lehigh held the statistical edge in nearly every category except goals and saves. The Mountain Hawks held a 38-26 edge in shots, 39-27 advantage in groundballs and won 13-of-21 faceoffs. Lehigh was 2-of-2 on the extra man to increase its season percentage to 62.1 percent (18-of-29). That percentage is just behind Maryland's 62.5 percentage for first place in the nation. Both Maryland and Lehigh would be among the top three percentages in NCAA history if the season ended today. Detroit holds the all-time record, converting at a 70.8 percent clip in 2014. Second place entering the year was Marist at 60.7 percent in 2016.

Pettit finished the day with two goals and an assist, as did Spence. Classmate Tristan Rai had a goal and two assists while senior Ian Strain scored his first goal of the season, while adding an assist. Defensively, Chick posted a goal, four groundballs and four caused turnovers to reach 104 in his career; he is now within two of tying and three of breaking the Patriot League all-time record held by Colgate's Bobby Lawrence. Bouhall tied career highs in groundballs (6) and caused turnovers (4) to eclipse 50 caused turnovers in his career. Attackman Rai recorded a career-high two caused turnovers and now has a caused turnover in three straight contests. Freshman Teddy Leggett recorded five groundballs and two caused turnovers for a second straight game.

Sophomore Conor Gaffney continued his strong play facing off, winning 13-of-21 with eight groundballs. It marked Gaffney's second straight game over 60 percent on the day against an opponent who entered the day over 60 percent on the season. Gaffney was recognized with Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Week honors for a third consecutive week. He has earned a league weekly award in 4-of-8 weeks this season and 10-of-20 weeks in his career.

Saturday will mark a rematch of last season's Patriot League Quarterfinal at Boston University. The Mountain Hawks dropped a 10-4 final, their first-ever loss against the Terriers. In the regular season, Lehigh picked up a 10-6 win over No. 16/18 Boston University.

IF LEHIGH BEATS BOSTON UNIVERSITY

- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 5-1 in league play and clinch their eighth consecutive Patriot League Tournament berth.
- Lehigh would win its fourth straight road game, longest since winning its first six road games of the 2012 season.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 8-3 on the season, their best record after 11 games since 2013 (when they were also 8-3).
- Lehigh would improve to 5-1 or better in Patriot League play for the first time since 2013 (when it finished 6-0).

LEHIGH LACROSSE AT A GLANCE...

- Lehigh's 39 victories from 2012-14 was tied for third in the nation during that span. The win total only trailed Duke and Loyola and was tied with Denver.
- The Mountain Hawks are 33-20 against Patriot League opponents since the beginning of 2012 (regular season and postseason).
- Lehigh has reached double-figure victories in three of the last six seasons (2012, 2013, 2014) after having double-figure wins just four times in the first 112 years of program history: 1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (3/24/18) – The No. 12/14 Lehigh men's lacrosse team held the advantage in practically every statistical category, but Navy goaltender Ryan Kern made a career-high 18 saves to shut the door on every Mountain Hawks' comeback attempt as Lehigh dropped a 10-7 final on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,178 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. Two consecutive man-up goals from junior Andrew Pettit pulled Lehigh even at four at the half, but Navy began the second half on a 3-0 run and would never trail. The loss marks Lehigh's first Patriot League defeat of the season as the Mountain Hawks fall to 7-3 overall, 4-1 in league play.

LAST TIME VS. BOSTON U

BOSTON (4/25/17) – The Lehigh men's lacrosse team jumped out to early leads of 1-0 and 3-2, but Boston University's defense clamped down and held the Mountain Hawks scoreless for 43:47, going on an 8-0 run to down the Mountain Hawks 10-4 on a rainy Tuesday evening in Boston. Senior Cody Triolo led the offense with three goals for his first-career hat trick while Conor Gaffney finished a strong freshman campaign by winning 12-of-18 faceoffs to finish the year winning 61.0 percent (139-of-228).

SCOUTING BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Boston University has had an up-and-down season, currently standing 5-5 on the year. After beginning the season in the national rankings, the Terriers won four of their first six games with their only losses coming to Ohio State (15-9) and Navy (10-8). Boston University lost three straight, vs. Colgate, at Bucknell and at Harvard in overtime before bouncing back with a 12-8 win at Lafayette this past Saturday. The Terriers lost some talented seniors from last year's team, including leading scorer Cal Dearth and goalie Christian Carson-Banister. Boston University still features plenty of talent, though, as freshman Chris Gray leads the team with 46 points (18 goals, team-leading 28 assists) while James Burr has 34 (26 goals, eight assists) and Jack Wilson owns 30 (22 goals, eight assists). Four different players have 50 or more faceoff attempts, together winning 45.0 of its draws on the season. Joe McSorley has been solid in goal, owning a 11.18 goals against average and 0.511 save percentage.

ALL-TIME SERIES WITH BOSTON U

Lehigh won the first four games against Boston University in the all-time series before dropping a 10-4 final in Boston in last season's Patriot League Quarterfinals. Lehigh's 10-6 regular-season win earlier in the year was actually the Mountain Hawks' largest-ever margin of victory against the Terriers. The other wins were 10-7 in 2014, 10-9 in 2015 and 8-7 in 2016. The last time the teams played a regular-season game in Boston, Chris Appell scored the game-winning goal late in regulation to send the Mountain Hawks home winners.

RISE OF THE DEFENSE

Stellar defense played a key role in Lehigh's success from 2012-14 when it won two consecutive Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 then made it back to the title game in 2014. This season, the Mountain Hawks are once again featuring a top 10 defense.

LAST GAME VS. BOSTON U (NOTES)

- Cody Triolo led the offense with three goals for his first-career hat trick.
- Conor Gaffney finished a strong freshman campaign by winning 12-of-18 faceoffs to finish the year winning 61.0 percent (139-of-228).
- Final shots were 31-30 in favor of the Terriers while Lehigh held a 31-30 edge in groundballs. Gaffney was a perfect 5-of-5 facing off in the fourth quarter to finish 12-of-18 for the game. He became Lehigh's first player to eclipse 60 percent facing off since Ryan Snyder in 2011.
- Craig Chick had five groundballs and four caused turnovers to finish with a school-record 40 caused turnovers on the season, surpassing the 39 set by Evan Guerrero in 2009.
- Eddie Bouhall also had three groundballs and a caused turnover.
- With the loss, Lehigh ended its season at 7-7 following its seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team was tied for third in the nation in wins from 2002-14, winning 39 games over those three seasons. Duke led the way with 48 wins in that span while Loyola had 44 and Lehigh and Denver tallied 39.

WIN ON LONG ISLAND (MAR. 20)

- Lehigh trailed 3-0, but went on to post two separate 5-0 runs, including five straight goals to end the game. Hofstra scored its third straight goal to tie the score at eight with 1:17 left in the third quarter, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger answered with nine seconds remaining in the stanza and Lehigh followed by outscoring the Pride 4-0 in the fourth, on the way to the program's first-ever win over Hofstra. - The Mountain Hawks also ended the Pride's four-game winning streak, scoring double-figure goals against Hofstra for the first time this season; the most goals Hofstra had previously allowed was nine against Ohio State. The Pride had allowed just 22 total goals over their four-game winning streak.

- Junior Andrew Pettit helped lead a Lehigh offense which scored 13 goals against the nation's No. 1 defense. Pettit finished with three goals and four assists, having a hand in more goals (seven) than the Pride were allowing all season (6.33 entering Tuesday). Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks stage an 8-2 run to turn a 3-0 deficit into an 8-5 lead.

- In total, Lehigh's starting attackmen combined for 17 points as junior Tristan Rai added three goals and two assists while classmate Lucas Spence had two goals and a career-high tying three assists.

- Senior Nolan Apers scored two goals, which came consecutively in the fourth quarter to give Lehigh a 12-8 lead. Sophomore Austin Pierce scored a man-up goal earlier in the quarter while a Spence goal rounded out the scoring in the fourth.

- Eichelberger tied a career-high two goals for a second straight game. Lehigh assisted on 10 of its 13 goals Tuesday and has assisted on 23-of-32 goals over its past two games.

- Lehigh's defense continued its strong play; after allowing three goals in the game's first 10:43, the Mountain Hawks allowed just five over the final 49:17 to lower its already strong goals against average to 8.11, still No. 6 nationally.

- Junior Craig Chick led the way with four caused turnovers to move him from 96 to 100 in his career, eclipsing Tripp Telesco's school record of 97. Chick is currently No. 16 in NCAA history in career caused turnovers, just six from tying the Patriot League career mark of 106 held by Colgate's Bobby Lawrence.

- Freshman Teddy Leggett excelled as well, recording five groundballs and two caused turnovers.

- Sophomore Conor Gaffney continued his strong play in the faceoff circle, winning 15-of-24 against Hofstra's Kyle Gallagher, who entered the day having won 61.8 percent on the year. Gaffney reached 250 career faceoff wins and 150 groundballs in the victory.

LEHIGH RISES INTO NATIONAL RANKINGS; FOUR EARN WEEKLY AWARDS (MAR. 12)

Following an exciting 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point, four members of the Lehigh men's lacrosse team have earned Patriot League weekly awards while the Mountain Hawks have jumped into the national polls for the first time since 2015. Juniors Andrew Pettit and Craig Chick were named the league's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively, sophomore Conor Gaffney was named Faceoff Specialist of the Week and freshman James Spence garnered Goalie of the Week. Also on Monday, the Mountain Hawks were ranked No. 16 in the Maverick Media Poll and 17 in the USILA Coaches Poll as Lehigh jumped into the national rankings for the first time in more than three years. Lehigh was also ranked No. 14 in this week's Nike/U.S. Lacrosse Division I Men's Top 20. The last time the Mountain Hawks were nationally-ranked, they stood No. 20 in the Feb. 23, 2015 Maverick Media Poll.

LEHIGH PICKED SIXTH, THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team has been picked sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall and sophomore Conor Gaffney were named preseason All-League, as announced on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The Mountain Hawks are coming off their seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth last season; Lehigh and Army West Point are the only two teams to advance to each of the last seven league tourneys.

Chick was named defensive specialist on the preseason All-League team after garnering first team All-Patriot League and Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America as a sophomore. Chick posted a school-record 40 caused turnovers in 2017, one year after leading the nation with 37. Bouhall also garnered preseason recognition after second team All-League honors following last season. Bouhall recorded 42 groundballs and 20 caused turnovers last year after tallying 35 groundballs and 18 caused turnovers as a freshman in 2016. Rounding out Lehigh's preseason All-League honorees was Gaffney, who finished eighth nationally in faceoff percentage as a freshman (61.0 percent, 139-of-228). Gaffney added 96 groundballs as his 8.00 groundballs per game stood fifth nationally.

DIVERSIFYING THEIR GAMES

Juniors Mickey Fitzpatrick and Eddie Bouhall improved their games this summer by heading indoors. The two traveled west to play box (indoor) lacrosse. Fitzpatrick and Bouhall played in the Junior A Lacrosse League, marking Bouhall's first time playing box lacrosse. Fitzpatrick first experienced box lacrosse as a member of the U.S. Under-19 team a few summers ago, then again following his freshman season at Lehigh.

PAIR OF GAMES TO AIR ON CBS SN

The Patriot League and CBS Sports Network announced in December its 2018 broadcast schedule on Thursday, which includes two Lehigh men's lacrosse games. The Mountain Hawks' home contests vs. Loyola on Saturday Apr. 7 and Cornell the following Saturday (Apr. 14) will air on CBS Sports Network. Lehigh will host defending Patriot League Champion Loyola on Apr. 7 looking for its first-ever win against the Greyhounds. The Mountain Hawks have been close, including the last time Loyola came to town when Lehigh dropped a slim 11-10 final in 2016. The following Saturday, Lehigh will face Cornell for a third straight season on Alumni Day and Senior Day. The last time the teams played in Bethlehem, the Big Red pulled out a 13-12 thriller in a game that was also broadcast by CBS Sports Network.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced in the fall that senior Ian Strain will serve as the Mountain Hawks' 2018 captain while junior Craig Chick and seniors John Mehok and Nolan Apers were named assistant captains. Strain has plenty of experience in a leadership role after serving as co-captain with Cody Triolo and Donny Stires last season. The captains were voted on by the team.

MOLNAR NAMED TO TEAM ISRAEL

In November, former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Noah Molnar '13 was named to the roster for the men's national team which is set to compete in the upcoming 2018 FIL World Championships. The championships will take place from July 12-21 in Netanya, Israel. Molnar is a two-time Patriot League Champion with the Mountain Hawks and is currently a mainstay for the Denver Outlaws of Major League Lacrosse. Israel is coming off a seventh-place finish at the 2014 championships, with nine players from that team set to return in 2018. The roster is composed of both Israeli players, as well as members of the Jewish diaspora, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL). In conjunction with the Israel Lacrosse Tzedakah Program, each player will be competing in honor of a charity of his choosing. Molnar finished his Lehigh career with 71 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (currently tied for eighth in school history). As a sophomore, he posted career highs in goals (6), assists (4) and points (10) while also tallying 27 groundballs and 14 caused turnovers. Molnar continued with 21 groundballs and 21 caused turnovers in Lehigh's 2012 Patriot League Championship campaign, then adding 15 groundballs and 11 caused turnovers in 2013 as the Mountain Hawks won their second straight league title.

SUPER SOPHOMORES

Lehigh's current junior class has been stellar. Last year, they combined for 80 goals (58.4% of team total), 42 assists (46.7%), 145 groundballs (32.6%) and 76 caused turnovers (65.5%) last season (2017). As a team, Lehigh finished with 137 goals, 90 assists, 445 groundballs and 116 caused turnovers. Seven started much of last season (Eddie Bouhall, Craig Chick and Matt Rimol on defense, Lucas Spence in the midfield and Andrew Pettit and Tristan Rai at attack, and Chris Kiernan in goal). Mickey Fitzpatrick also started three games in the midfield.

So far this year, the class has combined for 81 goals (out of 117, 69.2% of team total) and 54 assists (out of 78, 69.2%). Defensively, the junior class has tallied 135 groundballs (out of 329, 41.0%) and 53 caused turnovers (out of 85, 62.4%).

PROLIFIC PETTIT

Junior Andrew Pettit was one of the Patriot League's, and nation's, top goal scorers last season. He finished the year with 35 goals in 14 games. His goal total was second in the league while his 2.5 goals per contest was No. 1 in the Patriot League and No. 17 nationally. Pettit began last season with multiple goals in his first nine games of the season before he was held goal-less at Loyola on Apr. 8. Pettit was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point as his streak reached 10 dating back to 2016.

So far this season, Pettit has 45 points (27 goals, 18 assists) through 10 games. Pettit is currently 19th in the nation in goals per game (2.70) (as of Tuesday, Mar. 27). He has led the Mountain Hawks in goals (or tied for the lead) six times in 10 games, and has five hat tricks so far in 2018. One highlight was a career-high tying five-goal effort at Army West Point, which included a natural hat trick (three straight goals) in the fourth quarter to turn a one-goal deficit into a two-goal lead. He also had seven points (three goals, four assists) in a 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), contributing to more goals himself (7) than Hofstra (the nation's No. 1 scoring defense) were allowing entering the day (6.33).

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 22 of his last 25 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 23-career multi-goal games, 25-career multi-point games and 12-career hat tricks.

NOONE WINS MLL CHAMPIONSHIP WITH MACHINE

One year after falling to former Lehigh teammate Noah Molnar and his Denver Outlaws in the MLL Finals, Mike Noone got revenge as his Ohio Machine captured the 2017 title with a 17-12 win over Molnar's Outlaws. Noone played in 10 games during the regular season, posting 10 groundballs and a caused turnover. Molnar finished the 2017 regular season with four goals, two assists, 19 groundballs and seven caused turnovers. Noone had a groundball and caused turnover in the championship game held Saturday, Aug. 19 at Ford Center at the Star in Frisco, Texas, while Molnar collected a groundball.

CHAOTIC CHICK

Junior Craig Chick has emerged as a premier defensive player in the country as he is first in caused turnovers since the beginning of 2016 (104) (as of Tuesday, Mar. 27). He is already 13th in NCAA history in career caused turnovers.

Chick finished his freshman season as the national leader in caused turnovers with 37. His big breakout came on Apr. 12 at Princeton when he posted 10 groundballs and eight caused turnovers. The eight caused turnovers were the most by a Lehigh player since Evan Guerrero had nine against Saint Joseph's on Feb. 14, 2009. Chick tied for the most caused turnovers in the nation in 2016 (Division I) and tied Princeton's Sherrerd Field record, originally set by Villanova's Brian Karalunas. Chick followed with seven groundballs and seven caused turnovers just four days later against Cornell. Chick finished the season with 41 groundballs and 25 caused turnovers over his last eight games. As a sophomore, Chick posted 58 groundballs and school-record 40 caused turnovers (third in the nation). On five different occasions, Chick tallied four or more caused turnovers and had a stretch of 10 straight games with multiple caused turnovers.

So far in 2018, Chick has 27 caused turnovers, currently second in the nation. Here are some game-by-game highlights.

- Against Navy (Mar. 24), posted four caused turnovers for a second straight game while adding four groundballs.
- Recorded four groundballs at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), passing Tripp Telesco for the Lehigh career record and also reaching 100 career caused turnovers in the process. He became just the 16th player in NCAA history to reach that milestone.
- Had a groundball and two caused turnovers at Lafayette (Mar. 17).
- Tallied a groundball and caused turnover against No. 16/18 Rutgers (Mar. 14).
- Collected seven groundballs and three caused turnovers to lead Lehigh to a big 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10). Chick was rewarded with Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career.
- Finished with three groundballs and three caused turnovers, helping the Mountain Hawks hold Colgate (Mar. 3) to fewer shots on goal (13) than it was averaging goals (15.75) entering the game. The Raiders entered as the No. 3 scoring offense in the nation.
- Posted five groundballs and three caused turnovers in dominant win over Holy Cross (Feb. 24). Also scored first goal of the season.
- Recorded a groundball and caused turnover at No. 13/14 UNC (Feb. 17).
- Tallied two groundballs and four caused turnovers at Mercer (Feb. 10) to earn honorable mention recognition on the Patriot League weekly honor roll.
- Began the season with three groundballs and two caused turnovers vs. NJIT (Feb. 3).

Patriot League student-athlete*EXTRA-MAN PROFICIENCY

The Mountain Hawks have converted an impressive 62.1 percent of their man-up opportunities this season (18-of-29). That percentage is just behind Maryland's 62.5 percentage for first place in the nation. Both Maryland Lehigh would be among the top three percentages in NCAA history if the season ended today. Detroit holds the all-time record, converting at a 70.8 percent clip in 2014. Second place entering the year was Marist at 60.7 percent in 2016.

CHALLENGING 2018 SCHEDULE

The Mountain Hawks' 2018 schedule is highlighted by nonleague matchups at North Carolina, vs. Rutgers, at Hofstra and vs. Cornell. North Carolina finished the 2017 season ranked No. 10 in the national USILA Coaches Poll, Rutgers finished No. 12, and Hofstra No.16. Lehigh plays five teams ranked in the preseason USILA Coaches Poll: Rutgers (7), North Carolina (9), Loyola (13), Army West Point (16) and Hofstra (19). The Mountain Hawks face five teams ranked in the preseason Maverick Media Poll: Rutgers (8), North Carolina (9), Loyola (10), Army West Point (16) and Boston University (20).

RAI'S SCORING

- Junior Tristan Rai enjoyed a sensational start to his collegiate career, finishing 2016 second on the Mountain Hawks in goals (31) and points (41). He led the nation in shooting percentage (.534), turning 58 shots into 31 goals.

- As a sophomore, Rai tied for the team lead with 46 points (24 goals, team-leading 22 assists).

- So far as a junior, Rai owns 33 points via 16 goals and 17 assists.

- For his career, Rai has double-figure goals in 20 games, multiple points in 29 and 15 hat tricks.

DOMINANT DEFENSIVE EFFORTS

- The Mountain Hawks have allowed five or fewer goals 21 times since 2012. Lehigh has allowed single-digit goals 59 times, including seven times in nine 10 in 2018 and six times in 14 games in 2017. Please see below for the complete rundown of games allowing five goals or fewer.

DEFENSE IS KEY

• Lehigh owned the nation's second-ranked defense in 2012 (6.61 goals per game) and followed by finishing sixth in 2013 (7.94) and second in 2014 (7.22). In 2015, the Mountain Hawks allowed 10.06 goals per game while they allowed 10.87 per contest in 2016. Last season (2017), Lehigh allowed 10.00 goals per game. So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are allowing 8.30 goals per game, eighth in the nation.

• The Mountain Hawks held No. 18/19 Hofstra to just eight goals, including only five over the game's final 49:17, allowing Lehigh to turn an early 3-0 deficit into a 13-8 win.

• Lehigh held No. 16/18 Rutgers to eight goals (Mar. 14), just the second time the Scarlet Knights were held to single digits and just one more goal than their previous season low of seven at Army. The Mountain Hawks allowed just 25 shots and 15 shots on goal, well below Rutgers' averages of 34.8 and 22.3 entering the game.

- The Mountain Hawks held No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10) to a season-low seven goals, two fewer goals than its previous season low of nine vs. Rutgers. Lehigh held Army almost six goals fewer than its average entering the game (12.80).

- Lehigh held Colgate (Mar. 3) to just 19 shots for the game, only 13 on goal - 2.75 fewer shots on goal than the Raiders were averaging goals through four games. The 19 shots were 22 fewer shots than Colgate's average of 41.0 entering the game. The Mountain Hawks held Raiders' leading scorer Mike Hawkins to just two points (two goals). Hawkins had been averaging 4.75 points per game (19 in his first four games). Lehigh held Colgate scoreless for the game's final 19:48, allowing the Mountain Hawks to end the game on a 4-0 run to turn a 7-6 deficit into a 10-7 victory.

- Lehigh dominated against Holy Cross (Feb. 24), shutting out a team in the first quarter for the first time since Mar. 5, 2017 at Colgate. The Mountain Hawks allowed their fewest goals (4) since the 2016 season opener vs. NJIT and fewest in a Patriot League game since Mar. 29, 2014. Only three goals came in half-field offense; one came in transition off a faceoff win.

- The Mountain Hawks fell down 6-3 early at Mercer (Feb. 10), but responded to allow just two goals over the game's final 46:15. After allowing 11 first-quarter shots, Lehigh allowed just 18 over the final three quarters.

- Lehigh's defense allowed eight goals in the season opener vs. NJIT (Feb. 3), including just four goals over the game's final 42:40. The Mountain Hawks allowed just eight second-half shots and only 20 shots for the game.

SHUTOUT STREAKS

- In 2012, the Lehigh defense was dominant in stretches, pitching a shutout streak of 15 or more minutes in 15-of-17 games, including 13-of-14 wins. Then in 2013, the defense posted 17 separate shutout streaks of 15+ minutes including in 10 of its 12 wins. In 2014, the Mountain Hawks had 15 streaks of 15+ minutes and 25 streaks of 10+ minutes. In 2015, Lehigh had 11 streaks of 15+ minutes and 25 of 10+ minutes.

- In 2016, the Mountain Hawks owned four streaks of 20+ minutes, eight streaks of 15+ minutes and 20 of 10+ minutes.

- In 2017, Lehigh owned 11 streaks of 15+ minutes and 20 of 10+ minutes.

- So far in 2018, the Mountain Hawks own eight streaks of 15+ minutes and 24 of 10+ minutes.

- Lehigh held Navy (Mar. 24) scoreless for 11:56 between the first and second quarters, helping the Mountain Hawks erase an early 2-0 deficit and pull even at four at the half.

- The Mountain Hawks held Hofstra (Mar. 20) scoreless for two long stretches: 16:02 (bridging the second and third quarters) and the game's final 16:17. In both instances, Lehigh's offense staged a 5-0 run.

- Lehigh held a strong Rutgers (Mar. 14) offense scoreless for 10:31 (bridging the second and third quarters), 12:50 (bridging the second and third) and 14:22 (bridging the third and fourth).

- The Mountain Hawks held a strong Army (Mar. 10) offense scoreless for three long stretches: 10:10 (bridging the first and second quarters), 15:16 (bridging the second and third) and 11:39 (bridging the third and fourth), allowing the Lehigh offense to post a pair of 4-0 runs on its way to a 9-7 win.

- Lehigh held Colgate (Mar. 3) scoreless for the game's first 14:45 and later for a stretch of 12:11 bridging the second and third quarters. The Mountain Hawks later held Colgate scoreless for the game's final 19:48, allowing the Mountain Hawks to end the game on a 4-0 run to turn a 7-6 deficit into a 10-7 victory.

- The Mountain Hawks held Holy Cross (Feb. 24) scoreless for stretches of 15:07, 13:04 and 22:52 in a dominant 15-4 Patriot League opening win. The last streak marked Lehigh's longest since holding Bucknell scoreless for 24:58 in the 2017 regular season finale.

- Lehigh held No. 13/14 North Carolina (Feb. 17) scoreless for three stretches of 10+ minutes: 10:49 (in the second quarter), 10:59 (bridging the second and third quarters) and 10:02 (in the fourth).

- The Mountain Hawks held Mercer (Feb. 10) scoreless for three long stretches on Feb. 10: 15:56 (bridging the first and second quarters), 15:48 (bridging the second through fourth quarters) and 14:31 (to end the game).

- In the season opener against NJIT (Feb. 3), Lehigh held the Highlanders scoreless for three long stretches of 12:25 (in the second quarter), 12:17 (bridging the second and third quarters) and 10:15 (in the fourth).

KEVIN CASSESE

Smith Family Head Coach
11th Season as Lehigh Head Coach

Kevin Casseese enters his 11th season as Lehigh's head men's lacrosse coach in 2018. Casseese's impact has been immediate, leading the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014. Casseese has led to Lehigh to seven straight Patriot League Tournaments.

The Mountain Hawks finished last season with a 7-7 record and 4-4 mark in league play. Lehigh's season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program's seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth. Three Mountain Hawks earned All-League, including Craig Chick, who was named to the first team and garnered honorable mention All-America recognition by Inside Lacrosse. Chick broke a school record with 40 caused turnovers, one year after leading the nation in that category.

The program's breakthrough came in 2012 when Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program's first NCAA Tournament. The Mountain Hawks followed that with a 12-5 campaign in 2013, winning both the regular season and tournament titles. Despite losing a large and talented senior class, Lehigh still went 13-5 in 2014 and advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game once again.

In 2012, Casseese led the Mountain Hawks to a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and their highest-ever national ranking; Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-of-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex (and in front of a national audience on ESPNU).

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks' defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. Casseese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while freshman Matt Poillon became Lehigh's first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games to finish undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco who finished with 44 groundballs and 36 caused turnovers. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook) and advancing to their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament. Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. A young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program's sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University.

Setting the stage for the program's breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program's first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation's eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com's computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Casseese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Casseese's watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Seven have been selected in the Major League

Lacrosse Collegiate Draft since 2013 while multiple others have been picked in the player pool. Roman Lao-Gosney (Florida) has played in more than 50 career games since joining the league in 2012 while twin brother Cameron (Florida), Mike Noone (Ohio) and Noah Molnar (Denver) are all veterans of the league with Molnar winning an MLL Championship in 2016 and Noone in 2017. In addition, Taylor was the first selection of defending National Lacrosse League Champion Saskatchewan Rush in the 2015 NLL Collegiate Draft. He was picked 12th overall and went on to win a championship with the Rush in 2016.

Cassese's players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as defenseman Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012.

On a personal level, Cassese made his coaching debut for US Lacrosse at the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, serving as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men's National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation's top midfielder. He was also a standout in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments are a pair of MLL Rookie of the Week honors and a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games. He was named MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the 2007 Major League Lacrosse Championship, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese's coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke's interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant where he directed the nation's top extra man offense and helped the Seawolves to a 10-6 record in the spring of 2005.

A native of Port Jefferson Station, New York and graduate of Comsewogue High School, Cassese and his wife, Katie Granson Cassese who attended nearby Freedom High School, were married in Bethlehem in December of 2006. They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

ERROL WILSON

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Lehigh

Errol Wilson is in his seventh season as a Lehigh assistant coach, and fourth as associate head coach in 2017.

The former Stony Brook goalie has held several roles with the Mountain Hawks. After his first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Wilson has served as offensive coordinator since 2016, a role he held at Brown University. Over his tenure at Lehigh, has also served as associate offensive coordinator, goalie coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator.

In his first season on staff, Wilson helped lead the Mountain Hawks to new heights, including a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and its highest-ever national ranking (No. 4) along with its first Patriot League Tournament Title and NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked Wilson's second NCAA Tournament appearance as assistant coach after leading Brown to the 2009 tournament where it dropped an overtime heartbreaker at Johns Hopkins.

Wilson worked with All-American goalie Matt Poillon, who finished second nationally with a 6.75 GAA and fourth with a 59.7 save percentage, becoming Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Poillon earned four Patriot League Goalie of the Week honors while garnering Rookie of the Week twice. In addition, each one of Lehigh's close defensemen was named All-Patriot League: Ty Souders (First), Mike Noone (second) and Lukas Mikelinich (second).

The Mountain Hawks owned the nation's No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. The squad extended its shutout streak to an incredible 90:14 before the Quakers scored with 5:04 remaining in the second quarter. The streak spanned from the fourth quarter against Villanova, through the entire Manhattan contest and the first 24:56 at Penn.

The Mountain Hawks followed in 2013 by finishing sixth nationally in scoring defense (7.94 goals per game) with Poillon earning Goalie of the Year honors for a second straight season. Noone and Souders also garnered All-League honors for the second year in a row while both garnering honorable mention All-America recognition. Lehigh held Saint Joseph's to only one goal, VMI to only two, Holy Cross, Lafayette and Bucknell to five and Army, UMass and Penn to just six goals apiece. One of the most dominant performances came in the Patriot League Championship game as the Mountain Hawks won 11-5 for their second straight league title and NCAA Tournament berth.

Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader. Over the three-year timeframe from 2012-14, Lehigh owned the nation's lowest goals against average. Wilson also worked with an offense that came into its own as the season progressed. Dan Taylor finished the season with 76 points, leading the team and Patriot League in scoring which also stood seventh in the nation. He was named an All-American after the season, as was Poillon and defenseman Tripp Telesco.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh went onto its sixth straight league tournament appearance in 2016, highlighted by an exciting 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University. In Wilson's first season as offensive coordinator in 2016, senior attackman Reid Weber was named first team All-Patriot League while freshman Tristan Rai jumped onto the national scene with a vengeance; scoring 31 goals on just 58 shots; his .534 shooting percentage was good for second in the nation. The Mountain Hawks followed in 2017 by reaching their seventh straight league tournament, highlighted by consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked opponents – defeating No. 16/18 Boston University 10-6 and No. 13/14 Princeton 15-10. The 15 goals tied for a season high, also set against NJIT and Lafayette. Rai continued his strong play with 46 points (22 goals, team-high 24 assists) while classmate Andrew Pettit emerged as well, tallying 46 himself behind a team-high 35 goals. Pettit began the season with nine straight multi-goal games. His first game without multiple goals came Apr. 8 at Loyola as he was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point.

At Rutgers, Wilson helped the Scarlet Knights win five of their first six games in 2011 and coached a defense which allowed only 8.27 goals per game.

Prior to Rutgers, Wilson served as assistant coach at Brown for four seasons (2007-10). While there, he was both offensive coordinator and goalie coach, helping the Bears reach new heights by winning an Ivy League Championship in 2008, then earning an NCAA Tournament berth in '09. Wilson worked with and mentored one of the nation's top goalies in Jordan Burke. The 2009 USILA Goalie of the Year, Burke was twice named the Ivy League Player of the Year and New England Player of the Year, while earning First Team All-America honors as well.

Wilson was a four-year letterwinner at Stony Brook where he was teammates with goalie and former Lehigh assistant and current Dartmouth head coach Brendan Callahan. Wilson resides in Bethlehem with his wife Pat and sons Roman and Solomon.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Will Scudder '11 enters his fifth season on the coaching staff in 2018 and third as defensive coordinator. Scudder replaced Tom Compitello who accepted a position at Sacred Heart, then was promoted prior to the 2015 season. Scudder was promoted to associate defensive coordinator, faceoff coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator after Brendan Callahan was named head coach at Dartmouth. He was then named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season when Errol Wilson was named offensive coordinator. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks' defense had plenty of highlight moments. Individually, freshman long-stick midfielder Craig Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks' berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation's No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Eddie Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

As a player, Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks' program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

CASEY EIDENSHINK

Assistant Coach

First Season at Lehigh

Former Mountain Hawks' standout Casey Eidenshink begins his first season at Lehigh as assistant coach in 2018. Both a close defenseman and long-stick midfielder as a player, the 2016 graduate was an All-Patriot League and Academic All-League honoree at Lehigh, finishing his collegiate career with a GPA over 3.3.

Eidenshink played in 55 games over his career, with 30 starts, tallying 115 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (tied for eighth in school history). He played in seven games during Lehigh's 2013 Patriot League Championship campaign. Eidenshink then played in all 18 games as a sophomore, recording 29 groundballs and 16 caused turnovers to help the Mountain Hawks back to the league title game. He had a career-high 50 groundballs and 23 caused turnovers as a junior, along with 32 groundballs and nine caused turnovers as a senior.

As a senior, Eidenshink was named a candidate for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award, played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game and was a USILA Scholar-All-American. He was selected by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2016 Major League Lacrosse Supplemental Draft.

Following his playing days, Eidenshink has worked for Lincoln Investment Planning as a Junior Research Analyst. He worked under two Portfolio/Wealth Managers, assisting with Mutual Fund and ETF research for their portfolios, which are globally diversified and set up to help clients save and prepare for their retirements.

Eidenshink has taught the game of lacrosse as part of the HeadStrong Lacrosse Club. He graduated Lehigh in May of 2016 with a Bachelor of Science in Finance.

BETHLEHEM, PA.
LEHIGH 13, NJIT 8

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – All six of the Mountain Hawks' starting mid-fielders and attackmen tallied multiple points while sophomore Conor Gaffney won 11-of-12 second-half faceoffs and freshman James Spence made nine saves in goal to lead the Lehigh men's lacrosse team to a 13-8 season-opening win over NJIT on Saturday afternoon. Juniors Mickey Fitzpatrick posted his first-career hat trick while classmate Andrew Pettit tallied a game-high five points behind three goals and two assists. The Mountain Hawks 4-3 early in the second quarter, but went on a 7-1 run to create separation and pick up their eighth season-opening victory in their last nine tries.

Along with Fitzpatrick and Pettit, senior John Mehok also set a career high with three points (career-high tying two goals, one assist). Junior Tristan Rai tallied a goal and two assists, senior Ian Strain tied a career-high three assists and junior Lucas Spence posted a goal and assist.

Gaffney finished 18-of-25 with 12 groundballs while freshman long-stick midfielder Teddy Leggett impressed in his collegiate debut, recording four goals and two assists. Junior Eddie Bouhall had five groundballs and a caused turnover while classmate Craig Chick recorded three groundballs and two caused turnovers.

Mehok and Rai opened the scoring with two quick goals before the game was five minutes old. The teams traded goals before the Highlanders went on a 3-0 run to take a 4-3 lead with 12:40 remaining in the second quarter. The Mountain Hawks answered with a three-goal surge of their own, beginning with Fitzpatrick's first of the game (at 10:03). He was followed by Mehok's second (at 8:23) and Pettit's first (at 0:43). NJIT responded with 15 seconds on the clock to pull within 6-5 at the half.

Lehigh gained control early in the second, scoring the first four goals of the stanza. The run included Pettit's second, a goal from sophomore Andrew Eichelberger, along with Fitzpatrick's second and third goals as the Mountain Hawks took a 10-5 lead with 7:44 remaining in the third quarter.

Each side scored three goals the rest of the way, including the first-career goal from sophomore Austin Pierce, a man-up tally with 13:36 remaining in the fourth quarter.

For the game, Lehigh held a commanding 48-20 edge in shots and 41-25 advantage in groundballs. Spence stopped seven of ten shots over the middle two quarters to finish with nine saves for the game. Kirst. NJIT's Nick Marzullo was stellar, making 16 stops.

MACON, GA.
LEHIGH 13, MERCER 8

MACON, Ga. - Mercer scored six goals over the game's first 13:45, but the Lehigh men's lacrosse team held the Bears to just two over the remaining 46:15, on its way to a 13-8 win on Saturday. The Mountain Hawks (2-0) used a 6-0 run to turn a 6-3 deficit into a 9-6 second-quarter lead and extended the lead even further in the second half. Junior Andrew Pettit led Lehigh's offense with three goals, his second straight hat trick to begin the season.

Along with Pettit's three goals, sophomore Austin Pierce scored a career-high two goals, both on the extra man, while senior John Mehok scored twice and posted three points as well to tie a career high. Juniors Tristan Rai and Lucas Spence each had three points via a goal and two assists.

Defensively, junior Craig Chick had two groundballs and four caused turnovers while freshman long-stick midfielder Teddy Leggett tallied five groundballs and two caused turnovers to up his season total to nine groundballs and four caused turnovers through two games.

Mercer used an early 4-0 run, which extended to 6-2, to take a late 6-3 first-quarter advantage. Lehigh responded by scoring twice in the final 34 seconds of the first quarter, as Spence and junior Mickey Fitzpatrick pulled Lehigh within 6-5 after 15 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks carried the momentum into the second quarter as Pettit, Pierce, sophomore Parker Kent and Mehok scored to give Lehigh a 9-6 advantage late in the stanza, on its way to a 9-7 halftime advantage.

Both defenses stood tall in the second half with just five combined goals, four from Lehigh. Pierce scored his second extra-man goal midway through the third quarter, Mercer responded early in the fourth, but Lehigh ended the game with three unanswered goals, including the first of the season from sophomore Ryan Klose, to wrap up Lehigh's second straight 13-8 win to begin the season (after also defeating NJIT 13-8 last Saturday).

For the game, Lehigh held a 42-29 edge in shots while Mercer held a 25-19 edge in groundballs. Freshman goalie James Spence made 10 saves across Mercer's Bradley Hodoval, who tallied nine.

Sophomore Conor Gaffney was strong in the faceoff circle, winning 14-of-23 draws with four groundballs.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

NO. 13/14 NORTH CAROLINA 12, LEHIGH 11 (OT)

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – The Lehigh men's lacrosse team fought back from an early 5-2 deficit to take a late 11-10 lead, but No. 13/14 North Carolina evened the score with 2:22 remaining and scored the game-winner just 36 seconds into overtime to hand the Mountain Hawks a heartbreaking 12-11 defeat on Saturday afternoon. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with four goals, good for his third hat trick in as many games, while junior Eddie Bouhall recorded three groundballs and three caused turnovers.

Pettit added an assist to give him a team-high five points, while also recording a career-high six groundballs. Classmate Tristan Rai tallied three goals and an assist while fellow junior Lucas Spence had two goals and an assist. In total, nine of Lehigh's goals came from its starting attack while junior Alexander Tumminello and sophomore Andrew Eichelberger scored the others.

Defensively, Bouhall posted a game-high three caused turnovers while junior Craig Chick had a groundball and caused turnover. Freshman Teddy Leggett tallied three groundballs and a caused turnover.

The Tar Heels jumped out to an early 4-1 lead, which reached 5-2 late in the first quarter. The Mountain Hawks responded with four of the next five goals as Eichelberger's second of the season evened the score at six early in the second quarter.

From there, the teams traded the next eight goals deep into the second half when Pettit ended that streak with Lehigh's second straight tally. His 10th goal of the season gave the Mountain Hawks their first lead at 11-10 with 3:04 on the clock. However, UNC's Timmy Kelly pulled his side even with 2:22 remaining, setting the stage for William Perry to score a game-winner on a rocket that was ticketed for the top corner.

For the game, UNC held a 39-35 edge in shots while the Mountain Hawks held a 30-20 advantage in groundballs. Sophomore Conor Gaffney was 11-of-26 at the faceoff X with seven groundballs. Freshman James Spence finished with 11 saves, including stopping 5-of-6 sent his way in the third quarter.

BETHLEHEM, PA.

LEHIGH 15, HOLY CROSS 4

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Junior Lucas Spence led the offense with a career-high six goals and seven points, while classmate Andrew Pettit added a career-high tying seven points as well to help lead the Lehigh men's lacrosse team to a convincing 15-4 Patriot League opening victory over Holy Cross on Saturday afternoon. The defense stood tall, allowing just two goals over the game's first 51:03 as a trio of Mountain Hawks' goaltenders made 11 saves. The 11-goal win marks Lehigh's largest margin of victory in a Patriot League opener since 1998.

Spence's six goals and seven points shattered his previous career high of four in both categories. Pettit tied his career high with seven points behind two goals and a career-high five assists. Classmate Tristan Rai finished with two goals and an assist to reach exactly 100 career points. Five other Mountain Hawks scored a single goal, including the first-career tallies from freshman Teddy Leggett and sophomore Crew Cintron, and first goals of the season from juniors Craig Chick and Jackson Monnin. Sophomore Austin Clibanoff recorded his first-career point, an assist, in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, Chick had five groundballs and three caused turnovers while fellow junior Eddie Bouhall recorded five groundballs and two caused turnovers. Freshman Matt Douglas had two groundballs and two caused turnovers while Leggett recorded a groundball and four caused turnovers, to go with his goal. Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 10 of his first 11 faceoffs to finish 12-of-19 with eight groundballs.

It took nearly 12 minutes for either team to get on the scoreboard, when Rai gave Lehigh a 1-0 lead with 3:29 remaining in the first quarter. Lucas Spence added two more goals before the first quarter was over, at 2:29 and 0:01 to give the Mountain Hawks a 3-0 advantage after a quarter of play.

Holy Cross scored off a faceoff just seven seconds into the second quarter, but the Mountain Hawks answered with the next six goals, beginning with Spence's third of the game. He added another goal while junior Alexander Tumminello rounded out the run, giving Lehigh a 9-2 lead with 2:52 remaining. The Crusaders pulled within 9-3 at the half.

The Mountain Hawks continued the momentum in the second, beginning with the first four goals, including two more from Spence. The Crusaders scored at 8:57 and 3:33 of the fourth quarter, but Cintron and Monnin rounded out the scoring, giving Lehigh the 15-4 win.

Final shots were 33-27 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 45-33 edge in groundballs. After freshman James Spence made seven saves through the first three quarters, sophomore Colin Kirst tallied three in the fourth before junior Chris Kiernan entered in the final minute and made a stop.

GAME 5 • MAR. 3, 2018
BETHLEHEM, PA.
LEHIGH 10, COLGATE 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's lacrosse team scored the game's first two goals, and the final four, as the Mountain Hawks improved to 2-0 in Patriot League play with a 10-7 win over visiting Colgate on Saturday afternoon at the Ulrich Sports Complex. In the end, Lehigh shut-out the Raiders for the game's final 19:48, holding Colgate – the nation's No. 3 scoring offense entering the day – more than eight goals under its average entering the day (15.75). Senior John Mehok led Lehigh's offense with a career-high four goals and five points.

Along with Mehok's four goals, juniors Andrew Pettit, Tristan Rai and Mickey Fitzpatrick each scored two apiece. All three added one assist for three points on the afternoon. Junior Lucas Spence dished a career-high three assists.

Junior Craig Chick led the defense with three caused turnovers, to go with three groundballs. He is up to 90 career caused turnovers, needing just eight more to become Lehigh's all-time career record holder. Classmate Eddie Bouhall had four groundballs and a caused turnover while sophomore defensive midfielder Christian McHugh impressed with two groundballs and a caused turnover.

Spence assisted goals from Fitzpatrick and Rai to give Lehigh a 2-0 lead with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter. Colgate got on the board with 15 seconds on the first-quarter clock, which helped spark a 4-0 run to give the Raiders a 4-2 mid-second quarter lead.

After trading goals, the Mountain Hawks scored the next three bridging the end of the second and beginning of the third. Mehok's second of the afternoon tied the score at five at halftime, then Fitzpatrick began the second half like he did the first - giving Lehigh a 6-5 advantage at 12:25 of the third quarter.

The Raiders scored the next two to go up 7-6 with 4:48 remaining in the third, but Mehok took over down the stretch. He had a hand in three of the game's final four goals (two goals, one assist). After evening the score late in the third, he found Pettit early in the fourth to put the Mountain Hawks up 8-7. On the ensuing faceoff, Pettit found Rai in an unsettled situation, then Mehok added a key insurance goal with 3:07 remaining. The defense caused five of Colgate's six fourth-quarter turnovers to help wrap up Lehigh's third straight win over Colgate and seventh in its last eight tries.

The Mountain Hawks finished with a 26-19 edge in shots and 33-18 edge in groundballs. After losing five of his first six faceoffs, sophomore Conor Gaffney won 10 of his final 15 to finish 11-of-20 on the afternoon with four groundballs. Freshman James Spence posted six saves, stopping 3-of-4 in the first quarter and 3-of-5 in the second half.

GAME 6 • MAR. 10, 2018
WEST POINT, N.Y.
LEHIGH 9, NO. 12 ARMY WEST POINT 7

WEST POINT, N.Y. - The Lehigh men's lacrosse team posted a pair of 4-0 runs, including one in the fourth quarter to turn a 6-5 deficit into a 9-6 lead, on its way to a big 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh scored nine goals against a Black Knights' defense allowing just 6.60 per game entering the day, while on the other end, the Mountain Hawks' defense held Army to a season-low seven goals. Junior Andrew Pettit tied a career-high five goals, including three straight in the fourth quarter, while classmate Craig Chick recorded seven groundballs and three caused turnovers. With the win, Lehigh improves to 5-1 on the season and 3-0 in Patriot League play.

Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger also posted a career-high three points with two goals and one assist. Junior Lucas Spence had a goal and assist, while senior Nolan Apers scored a goal as well.

Chick's three caused turnovers gave him 93 for his career, moving him into a tie for 18th place in NCAA history in that category. Freshman Teddy Leggett added a career-high seven groundballs to go with three caused turnovers. Junior Eddie Bouhall collected three groundballs and caused a turnover while sophomore Christian McHugh had two, along with an assist.

Lehigh was able to frustrate Army offensively for most of the game using its zone defense.

Army jumped out to a quick 2-0 lead with 6:58 remaining in the first quarter, but the Mountain Hawks answered with four consecutive goals, two of which were scored by Pettit. Lehigh went in front 4-2 early in the second quarter after the first of two Eichelberger goals.

With Lehigh leading 5-3 at the half, the Black Knights outscored the Mountain Hawks 3-0 in the third quarter to take a 6-5 lead. However, Pettit had an answer in the fourth quarter, scoring three consecutive goals - at the 11:02 mark to pull even at six, at 9:18 to give Lehigh a 7-6 lead, and at 8:42 on the extra man to give the Mountain Hawks an 8-6 advantage.

Spence added a transition goal less than two minutes later to give Lehigh a 9-6 lead, Army got one back at 5:47, but the Mountain Hawks' defense stood tall to close out the impressive victory.

Army finished with a 33-29 edge in shots while Lehigh held a 28-23 advantage in groundballs. Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 12-of-20 faceoffs, including 9-of-14 over the final three quarters. Freshman James Spence was strong in goal, making nine saves, five coming in the second half.

GAME 7 • MAR. 14, 2018
BETHLEHEM, PA.
#18/16 RUTGERS 8, #16/17 LEHIGH 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – A back-and-forth game saw four ties, with neither team leading by more than two goals, as No. 18/17 Rutgers scored the game-winning goal with 4:17 remaining to down the No. 16/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team 8-7 on a cold and windy Wednesday night at the Ulrich Sports Complex. An even matchup saw nearly identical statistics across the board, which included 25 shots apiece.

Wednesday marked just the second time this season that Rutgers was held to single-digit goals. Junior Eddie Bouhall finished with three groundballs to eclipse 100 in his career, while adding two caused turnovers. Classmate Craig Chick had a groundball and caused turnover, moving him to 94 career caused turnovers - within three of tying Tripp Telesco's school record of 97. Freshman Teddy Leggett had five groundballs, caused a turnover and scored his second-career goal just 13 seconds into the fourth quarter.

Junior Lucas Spence led Lehigh offensively with two goals, which included the game-tying score with 6:30 remaining in the fourth quarter. Classmate Andrew Pettit had a goal and assist.

For the second straight game, Lehigh's opponent jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but for the second consecutive contest, the Mountain Hawks immediately answered. Sophomore Parker Kent scored in transition at 3:35 of the first quarter to get Lehigh on the board, then senior John Mehok tallied his ninth of the season just 1:28 later to pull the Mountain Hawks even after 15 minutes of play.

The second quarter saw just one goal aside. Rutgers took a 3-2 lead at 9:28, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger scored the equalizer with just eight seconds remaining in the frame to send the game into halftime tied at three.

Pettit scored on the extra man less than two minutes into the third quarter, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off the next three goals to take a 6-4 lead as Rutgers headed to the fourth with a 7-5 advantage.

Leggett scored off the first faceoff of the fourth quarter to pull Lehigh within one, then Spence scored his second at the 6:30 mark to tie the score at seven. However, Rutgers' Jules Henningburg answered with what proved to be the game-winning goal with 4:17 on the clock.

Final shots were even at 25 while Lehigh held a 26-20 edge in groundballs. Sophomore Conor Gaffney bounced back from winning 2-of-7 faceoffs in the third quarter to win all four in the fourth, finishing 11-of-19 for the game. Freshman James Spence made seven saves, five of which were in the middle two quarters.

EASTON, PA.
#16/17 LEHIGH 19, LAFAYETTE 11

EASTON, Pa. - The No. 16/17 Lehigh men's lacrosse team broke out for 11 goals in the span of 11:14 in the second quarter, on its way to an impressive 19-11 win at archrival Lafayette on Saturday afternoon. The Mountain Hawks' starting attackmen combined for 18 points (nine goals, nine assists) while sophomore Conor Gaffney won 17-of-20 faceoffs, all in the first half, to help spark the second-quarter surge. The win improves Lehigh's record to 6-2, including 4-0 in the Patriot League for the first time since 2013. The Mountain Hawks and Loyola are currently the only two undefeated teams in league play.

As a team, Lehigh won 27 faceoffs on the day (compared to just six losses), which is the most faceoff wins in a game by any team in the nation this season. The Mountain Hawks' 19 goals tied for the third most in the country in 2018.

Junior Tristan Rai posted a career-high seven points to lead the offense (three goals, career-high tying four assists). Classmate Lucas Spence tied a career-high six points (four goals, two assists) while junior Andrew Pettit had five points (two goals, three assists). Another junior, Mickey Fitzpatrick, also tied a career high with three goals.

Defensively, junior Craig Chick had a groundball and two caused turnover to move to 96 in his career, within one of tying Tripp Telesco's school record. Freshman Teddy Leggett continued his strong play, recording two groundballs and two caused turnovers.

Fitzpatrick scored two of Lehigh's first three goals as the Mountain Hawks took a quick 3-0 advantage just 5:35 into the game. Lafayette responded with two straight, three of the next four and four of the next six to pull within 5-4 with 11:12 remaining in the second quarter. The second quarter featured 11 Mountain Hawk goals, including eight in a row to end the stanza. Leading 7-5 with less than six minutes remaining, Spence scored three goals in the span of 35 seconds, the last on the extra man to give Lehigh a 10-5 lead with 4:36 on the clock.

The Mountain Hawks went on to score five more, which included the first-career goal from freshman Joel Trucksess, who won the faceoff and went in all alone to give Lehigh a 14-5 lead with 1:49 remaining. Rai capped off the run just 19 seconds later to give the Mountain Hawks a 15-5 halftime advantage. In the end, Lehigh's 8-0 run happened in the span of just 3:41.

The Leopards tallied the first three goals of the second half, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger scored his second of the game with 28 seconds remaining in the third quarter, sparking a 4-1 Mountain Hawks' run. Pettit added a man-up goal in the fourth quarter while sophomores Jackson Monnin and Austin Pierce also scored to give Lehigh a 19-9 lead, on its way to the 19-11 victory.

Along with Gaffney, Trucksess finished 7-of-10 while junior Brian Meyer was a perfect 3-of-3. Freshman James Spence made five first-half saves while sophomore Colin Kirst and junior Chris Kiernan made two stops apiece in the second half.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y.

#12/14 LEHIGH 13, #18/19 HOFSTRA 8

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. - After trailing 3-0 early, the Lehigh men's lacrosse team staged a 7-1 run to take a 7-4 lead, later breaking an 8-8 tie with five unanswered goals to lead the No. 12/14 Mountain Hawks a big 13-8 road win at No. 18/19 Hofstra on Tuesday evening. The win marks Lehigh's first in program history over the Pride as the Mountain Hawks improve to 7-2 on the season, picking up their third straight road victory overall, two coming against ranked opponents. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with seven points (three goals, four assists) to tie a career high. Classmate Craig Chick tallied four caused turnovers to become the Lehigh all-time career record holder and reach exactly 100 caused turnovers in his career.

Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks score the most goals this season against the nation's No. 1 ranked scoring defense. The Pride were allowing just 6.33 goals per game. Prior to Lehigh's 13 goals, the most goals Hofstra had allowed all season was nine to Ohio State. Hofstra entered the game on a four-game winning streak in which it allowed just 22 total goals in that span.

Each of Lehigh's starting attackmen tallied five points or more. Along with Pettit, junior Tristan Rai recorded his second consecutive hat trick with three goals and two assists while Lucas Spence had two goals and three assists. Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger and senior Nolan Apers each scored twice.

Chick's four caused turnovers gave him exactly 100 for his career, passing Tripp Telesco's previous school record of 97. Freshman Teddy Leggett added five groundballs and two caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 15-of-24 faceoffs, facing Hofstra's Kyle Gallagher, who had won 62 percent entering the day.

The Pride jumped out to the quick 3-0 lead and it took time for Lehigh's offense to settle in, but the Mountain Hawks scored two goals in the final 34 seconds of the first quarter to help spark the offense - Pettit on the extra man and Rai even strength. Hofstra responded to take a 4-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks had another answer. Pettit scored at 6:37 of the second quarter to pull Lehigh within 4-3, then Pettit found Rai for goals at 2:17 and 0:19 to give the Mountain Hawks a 5-4 halftime advantage.

Eichelberger and Spence began the third quarter with goals to give Lehigh a 7-4 lead. Later in the stanza, the Pride scored three in a row to even the score at eight, but Eichelberger netted his second with nine seconds left in the third quarter to give Lehigh a 9-8 lead.

The Mountain Hawks carried the momentum into the fourth quarter as an Austin Pierce man-up goal gave Lehigh a 10-8 lead. Apers added consecutive goals and Spence rounded out the scoring. Freshman goalkeeper James Spence made two fourth-quarter saves as the Mountain Hawks shut-out Hofstra for the game's final 16:17.

Final shots were 31-24 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 31-20 edge in groundballs. Spence finished with six saves in goal.

BETHLEHEM, PA.

NAVY 10, #12/14 LEHIGH 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The No. 12/14 Lehigh men's lacrosse team held the advantage in practically every statistical category, but Navy goaltender Ryan Kern made a career-high 18 saves to shut the door on every Mountain Hawks' comeback attempt as Lehigh dropped a 10-7 final on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,178 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. Two consecutive man-up goals from junior Andrew Pettit pulled Lehigh even at four at the half, but Navy began the second half on a 3-0 run and would never trail. The loss marks Lehigh's first Patriot League defeat of the season as the Mountain Hawks fall to 7-3 overall, 4-1 in league play.

Lehigh's starting attackmen each recorded three points as Pettit and junior Lucas Spence had two goals and an assist while classmate Tristan Rai recorded a goal and two assists. Senior Ian Strain finished with a goal and assist.

Defensively, junior Eddie Bouhall had six groundballs and four caused turnovers to eclipse 50 caused turnovers in his career, while Craig Chick scored his second goal of the season and added four groundballs and four caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney was stellar facing off, winning 13-of-21 on the day against Navy's Joe Varello, who entered the day winning 63.2 percent of his draws on the day.

Navy jumped out to a 2-0 lead just 5:03 into the game before Strain scored his first of the season at the 6:52 mark. The teams traded goals until late in the second quarter when Pettit and the Mountain Hawks scored twice on a nonreleasable Navy penalty, at the 2:50 and 2:04 marks, to pull Lehigh even at 4-4 at the half.

The Midshipmen began the third quarter on a 3-0 run before Chick and Spence scored in the span of 1:08. Lehigh attempted to pull even in the final minute, but Bouhall's shot was saved by Kern, leading to a transition goal on the other end as Navy took an 8-6 lead into the fourth.

That advantage swelled to 10-6 with 3:59 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rai scored just 13 seconds later and Lehigh won the ensuing faceoff looking to pull even closer, but Kern made his 17th stop of the afternoon on sophomore Andrew Eichelberger, all but ending the Mountain Hawks' hopes of a comeback.

Final shots were 38-26 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 39-27 edge in groundballs. Lehigh caused 14 of Navy's 19 turnovers while the Mountain Hawks turned the ball over just 11 times themselves. Lehigh was 2-of-2 on the extra man and improved to 62.1 percent on the year. If the season ended today, that mark would be second in NCAA history for a single season.
