SETTING THE SCENE

Less than 72 hours after a hard-fought 8-7 defeat to No. 18/16 Rutgers, the No. 16/17 Lehigh men's lacrosse team will head to Easton on Saturday to face archrival Lafayette. Opening faceoff is set for 1 p.m. on the Patriot League Network. Wednesday night's game against the Scarlet Knights went back-and-forth, with Rutgers breaking a 7-7 tie with 4:17 remaining in a battle of nationally-ranked opponents.

Rutgers jumped out to an early 2-0 lead, but the Mountain Hawks quickly answered with two straight and four of the next five goals to take a 4-3 lead early in the third quarter. A very defensive game opened up a bit in the third quarter with six combined goals. Lehigh scored the first two of the fourth, by freshman Teddy Leggett and junior Lucas Spence, to even the score at seven. After the Scarlet Knights scored the go-ahead goal, the Mountain Hawks had two possessions, the first of which ended with a save from Rutgers' goalkeeper Max Edelmann with 2:46 remaining. Lehigh went man-down with one minute remaining, but forced a turnover with 25 seconds on the clock and had one final chance to pull even, but still man-down, the Mountain Hawks couldn't get a shot off against an aggressive Rutgers defense.

Spence led Lehigh's offense with two goals while junior Andrew Pettit had a goal and assist, his seventh double-figure point effort in as many games this season. Sophomore Eddie Bouhall tallied three groundballs and two caused turnovers on defense while classmate Craig Chick had a groundball and caused turnover to reach 94 career caused turnovers. He needs just three more to tie and four to break Tripp Telesco's school record. Freshman James Spence made seven saves, which included stopping 3-of-4 in the second quarter. Sophomore Conor Gaffney was a perfect 4-of-4 in the fourth quarter to finish 11-of-19 for the game.

In the end, Lehigh's defense held Rutgers to single-digit goals for just the second time this season, within one of tying the Scarlet Knights' season low of seven at Army. On the other side, the Mountain Hawks' seven goals marked a season low. Each team fired just 25 shots for the game, both well under their season averages; Lehigh was averaging 35.5 shots per game coming in while Rutgers was averaging 34.8. The Mountain Hawks' defense continues to impress, allowing eight goals or fewer in four straight games and six of seven contests this season. Lehigh currently stands sixth nationally in scoring defense.

With a win on Saturday, Lehigh would improve to 4-0 in the Patriot League for the first time since 2013 - when it finished a perfect 6-0, on its way to the regular season and tournament titles. The Mountain Hawks will look to continue their recent success against archrival Lafayette, having won eight straight and 16 of their last 17 in the all-time series. Saturday continues a busy stretch for Lehigh, with three games in the span of seven days and four in the span of 11.

IF LEHIGH BEATS LAFAYETTE

- Lehigh would improve to 6-2 on the season, its best record after eight games since 2014 (when it was also 6-2).
- Lehigh would win its second straight road game and improve to 3-1 away from home this season.
- The Mountain Hawks would win their ninth straight game against Lafayette and 17th in their last 18 tries.
- Lehigh would also win its ninth straight at Lafayette.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 4-0 in Patriot League play for the first time since 2013.

SCOUTING LAFAYETTE

Lafayette enters the weekend with a 2-6 record and 0-3 mark in league play. Most recently, the Leopards are coming off a 12-6 loss at Cleveland State Tuesday. Lafayette has beaten NJIT (10-8) and Wagner (8-7) while falling in league play at Loyola (19-5), vs. Army (13-4) and at Navy (15-5). Conor Walters leads the Leopards with 23 points (15 goals, eight assists) while Will McCarthy comes in at 16 (eight goals, eight assists) and Adam Close owns nine (six goals, three assists). Chris Adamo leads the team with 40 ground-

LEHIGH LACROSSE AT A GLANCE...

- Lehigh's 39 victories from 2012-14 was tied for third in the nation during that span. The win total only trailed Duke and Loyola and was tied with Denver.
- The Mountain Hawks are 33-20 against Patriot League opponents since the beginning of 2012 (regular season and postseason).
- Lehigh has reached double-figure victories in three of the last six seasons (2012, 2013, 2014) after having double-figure wins just four times in the first 112 years of program history: 1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (3/14/18) - A back-and-forth game saw four ties, with neither team leading by more than two goals, as No. 18/16 Rutgers scored the game-winning goal with 4:17 remaining to down the No. 16/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team 8-7 on a cold and windy Wednesday night at the Ulrich Sports Complex. An even matchup saw nearly identical statistics across the board, which included 25 shots apiece.

HARD-FOUGHT WIN AT ARMY (MAR. 10)

- Lehigh fell down 2-0 early, but used a 4-0 run to take a 4-2 advantage. The Black Knights outscored the Mountain Hawks 3-0 in the third quarter, but Lehigh began the fourth on another 4-0 run to take a 9-6 lead, on its way to a 9-7 victory.

- The win snapped a four-game losing streak against Army and gave Lehigh its first win in the series since a thrilling, last-second 12-11 victory in the 2014 Patriot League Semifinals at Loyola. In the process, the Mountain Hawks also snapped Army's four-game home winning streak.

- Lehigh won its third straight game overall, its longest winning streak since early in the 2016 season.

- Junior Andrew Pettit tied a career-high five goals, which was the most by one player against the Black Knights' defense since Pat Spencer of Loyola scored five on May 1, 2016. It was also the most by an opponent at Army since Zach Herreweyers of Loyola scored six on March 14, 2015.

- Junior Craig Chick recorded seven groundballs and three caused turnovers Saturday to move into a tie for 18th place in NCAA history with 93 career caused turnovers.

- Sophomore Conor Gaffney was 12-of-20 in the faceoff circle while freshman goalie James Spence stopped nine of 16 shots sent his way.

- In the end, Lehigh held Army to a season-low seven goals, almost six goals fewer than the Black Knights' average entering the game (12.80). On the other side of the field, the Mountain Hawks scored nine goals vs. a defense that had been allowing just 6.60 per game.

- Junior Eddie Bouhall caused a turnover while posting three groundballs to reach 99 GBs in his career.

- Freshman Teddy Leggett was all over the field, recording a career-high seven groundballs while causing a turnover.

- Senior John Mehok had a hand in three of those scores (two goals, one assist), finishing the game with career highs in goals (4) and points (5).

- Equally as impressive was Lehigh's defense, which held the nation's No. 3 scoring offense entering the day to fewer shots on goal (13) than it was averaging goals entering the day (15.75). LEHIGH PICKED SIXTH, THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team has been picked sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall and sophomore Conor Gaffney were named preseason All-League, as announced on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The Mountain Hawks are coming off their seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth last season; Lehigh and Army West Point are the only two teams to advance to each of the last seven league tourneys.

Chick was named defensive specialist on the preseason All-League team after garnering first team All-Patriot League and Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America as a sophomore. Chick posted a school-record 40 caused turnovers in 2017, one year after leading the nation with 37. Bouhall also garnered preseason recognition after second team All-League honors following last season. Bouhall recorded 42 groundballs and 20 caused turnovers last year after tallying 35 groundballs and 18 caused turnovers as a freshman in 2016. Rounding out Lehigh's preseason All-League honorees was Gaffney, who finished eighth nationally in faceoff percentage as a freshman (61.0 percent, 139-of-228). Gaffney added 96 groundballs as his 8.00 groundballs per game stood fifth nationally.

DIVERSIFYING THEIR GAMES

Juniors Mickey Fitzpatrick and Eddie Bouhall improved their games this summer by heading indoors. The two traveled west to play box (indoor) lacrosse. Fitzpatrick and Bouhall played in the Junior A Lacrosse League, marking Bouhall's first time playing box lacrosse. Fitzpatrick first experienced box lacrosse as a member of the U.S. Under-19 team a few summers ago, then again following his freshman season at Lehigh.

PAIR OF GAMES TO AIR ON CBS SN

The Patriot League and CBS Sports Network announced in December its 2018 broadcast schedule on Thursday, which includes two Lehigh men's lacrosse games. The Mountain Hawks' home contests vs. Loyola on Saturday Apr. 7 and Cornell the following Saturday (Apr. 14) will air on CBS Sports Network. Lehigh will host defending Patriot League Champion Loyola on Apr. 7 looking for its first-ever win against the Greyhounds. The Mountain Hawks have been close, including the last time Loyola came to town when Lehigh dropped a slim 11-10 final in 2016. The following Saturday, Lehigh will face Cornell for a third straight season on Alumni Day and Senior Day. The last time the teams played in Bethlehem, the Big Red pulled out a 13-12 thriller in a game that was also broadcast by CBS Sports Network.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced in the fall that senior Ian Strain will serve as the Mountain Hawks' 2018 captain while junior Craig Chick and seniors John Mehok and Nolan Apers were named assistant captains. Strain has plenty of experience in a leadership role after serving as co-captain with Cody Triolo and Donny Stires last season. The captains were voted on by the team.

MOLNAR NAMED TO TEAM ISRAEL

In November, former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Noah Molnar '13 was named to the roster for the men's national team which is set to compete in the upcoming 2018 FIL World Championships. The championships will take place from July 12-21 in Netanya, Israel. Molnar is a two-time Patriot League Champion with the Mountain Hawks and is currently a mainstay for the Denver Outlaws of Major League Lacrosse. Israel is coming off a seventh-place finish at the 2014 championships, with nine players from that team set to return in 2018. The roster is composed of both Israeli players, as well as members of the Jewish diaspora, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL). In conjunction with the Israel Lacrosse Tzedakah Program, each player will be competing in honor of a charity of his choosing. Molnar finished his Lehigh career with 71 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (currently tied for eighth in school history). As a sophomore, he posted career highs in goals (6), assists (4) and points (10) while also tallying 27 groundballs and 14 caused turnovers. Molnar continued with 21 groundballs and 21 caused turnovers in Lehigh's 2012 Patriot League Championship campaign, then adding 15 groundballs and 11 caused turnovers in 2013 as the Mountain Hawks won their second straight league title.

SUPER SOPHOMORES

Lehigh's current junior class has been stellar. Last year, they combined for 80 goals (58.4% of team total), 42 assists (46.7%), 145 groundballs (32.6%) and 76 caused turnovers (65.5%) last season (2017). As a team, Lehigh finished with 137 goals, 90 assists, 445 groundballs and 116 caused turnovers. Seven started much of last season (Eddie Bouhall, Craig Chick and Matt Rimol on defense, Lucas Spence in the midfield and Andrew Pettit and Tristan Rai at attack, and Chris Kiernan in goal). Mickey Fitzpatrick also started three games in the midfield.

So far this year, the class has combined for 53 goals (out of 78, 67.9% of team total) and 32 assists (out of 50, 64.0%). Defensively, the junior class has tallied 93 groundballs (out of 222, 41.9%) and 33 caused turnovers (out of 57, 57.9%).

PROLIFIC PETTIT

Junior Andrew Pettit was one of the Patriot League's, and nation's, top goal scorers last season. He finished the year with 35 goals in 14 games. His goal total was second in the league while his 2.5 goals per contest was No. 1 in the Patriot League and No. 17 nationally. Pettit began last season with multiple goals in his first nine games of the season before he was held goal-less at Loyola on Apr. 8. Pettit was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point as his streak reached 10 dating back to 2016.

So far this season, Pettit has 30 points (20 goals, 10 assists) through seven games. Pettit is currently 12th in the nation in goals per game (2.86) (as of Thursday, Mar. 15). He has led the Mountain Hawks in goals four times in seven games, and has four hat tricks so far in 2018. One highlight was a career-high tying five-goal effort at Army West Point, which included a natural hat trick (three straight goals) in the fourth quarter to turn a one-goal deficit into a two-goal lead.

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 19 of his last 22 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 20-career multi-goal games, 22-career multi-point games and 11 career hat tricks.

CHAOTIC CHICK

Junior Craig Chick has emerged as a premier defensive player in the country as he is first in caused turnovers since the beginning of 2016 (94) (as of Thursday, Mar. 15). He is already 18th in NCAA history in career caused turnovers.

Chick finished his freshman season as the national leader in caused turnovers with 37. His big breakout came on Apr. 12 at Princeton when he posted 10 groundballs and eight caused turnovers. The eight caused turnovers were the most by a Lehigh player since Evan Guerrero had nine against Saint Joseph's on Feb. 14, 2009. Chick tied for the most caused turnovers in the nation in 2016 (Division I) and tied Princeton's Sherrerd Field record, originally set by Villanova's Brian Karalunas. Chick followed with seven groundballs and seven caused turnovers just four days later against Cornell. Chick finished the season with 41 groundballs and 25 caused turnovers over his last eight games. As a sophomore, Chick posted 58 groundballs and school-record 40 caused turnovers (third in the nation). On five different occasions, Chick tallied four or more caused turnovers and had a stretch of 10 straight games with multiple caused turnovers.

So far in 2018, Chick has 17 caused turnovers, currently fourth in the nation. Here are some game-by-game highlights.

- Tallied a groundball and caused turnover against No. 16/18 Rutgers (Mar. 14).
- Collected seven groundballs and three caused turnovers to lead Lehigh to a big 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10). Chick was rewarded with Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career.
- Finished with three groundballs and three caused turnovers, helping the Mountain Hawks hold Colgate (Mar. 3) to fewer shots on goal (13) than it was averaging goals (15.75) entering the game. The Raiders entered as the No. 3 scoring offense in the nation.
- Posted five groundballs and three caused turnovers in dominant win over Holy Cross (Feb. 24). Also scored first goal of the season.
- Recorded a groundball and caused turnover at No. 13/14 UNC (Feb. 17).
- Tallied two groundballs and four caused turnovers at Mercer (Feb. 10) to earn honorable mention recognition on the Patriot League weekly honor roll.
- Began the season with three groundballs and two caused turnovers vs. NJIT (Feb. 3).

KEVIN CASSESE

Smith Family Head Coach
11th Season as Lehigh Head Coach

Kevin Cassese enters his 11th season as Lehigh's head men's lacrosse coach in 2018. Cassese's impact has been immediate, leading the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014. Cassese has led to Lehigh to seven straight Patriot League Tournaments.

The Mountain Hawks finished last season with a 7-7 record and 4-4 mark in league play. Lehigh's season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program's seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth. Three Mountain Hawks earned All-League, including Craig Chick, who was named to the first team and garnered honorable mention All-America recognition by Inside Lacrosse. Chick broke a school record with 40 caused turnovers, one year after leading the nation in that category.

The program's breakthrough came in 2012 when Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program's first NCAA Tournament. The Mountain Hawks followed that with a 12-5 campaign in 2013, winning both the regular season and tournament titles. Despite losing a large and talented senior class, Lehigh still went 13-5 in 2014 and advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game once again.

In 2012, Cassese led the Mountain Hawks to a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and their highest-ever national ranking; Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-of-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex (and in front of a national audience on ESPNU).

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks' defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. Cassese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while freshman Matt Poillon became Lehigh's first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games to finish undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco who finished with 44 groundballs and 36 caused turnovers. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook) and advancing to their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament. Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. A young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program's sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University.

Setting the stage for the program's breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program's first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation's eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com's computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Cassese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Cassese's watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Seven have been selected in the Major League

Lacrosse Collegiate Draft since 2013 while multiple others have been picked in the player pool. Roman Lao-Gosney (Florida) has played in more than 50 career games since joining the league in 2012 while twin brother Cameron (Florida), Mike Noone (Ohio) and Noah Molnar (Denver) are all veterans of the league with Molnar winning an MLL Championship in 2016 and Noone in 2017. In addition, Taylor was the first selection of defending National Lacrosse League Champion Saskatchewan Rush in the 2015 NLL Collegiate Draft. He was picked 12th overall and went on to win a championship with the Rush in 2016.

Cassese's players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as defenseman Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012.

On a personal level, Cassese made his coaching debut for US Lacrosse at the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, serving as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men's National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaronon Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation's top midfielder. He was also a standout in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments are a pair of MLL Rookie of the Week honors and a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games. He was named MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the 2007 Major League Lacrosse Championship, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese's coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke's interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant where he directed the nation's top extra man offense and helped the Seawolves to a 10-6 record in the spring of 2005.

A native of Port Jefferson Station, New York and graduate of Comsewogue High School, Cassese and his wife, Katie Granson Cassese who attended nearby Freedom High School, were married in Bethlehem in December of 2006. They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

ERROL WILSON

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Lehigh

Errol Wilson is in his seventh season as a Lehigh assistant coach, and fourth as associate head coach in 2017.

The former Stony Brook goalie has held several roles with the Mountain Hawks. After his first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Wilson has served as offensive coordinator since 2016, a role he held at Brown University. Over his tenure at Lehigh, has also served as associate offensive coordinator, goalie coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator.

In his first season on staff, Wilson helped lead the Mountain Hawks to new heights, including a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and its highest-ever national ranking (No. 4) along with its first Patriot League Tournament Title and NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked Wilson's second NCAA Tournament appearance as assistant coach after leading Brown to the 2009 tournament where it dropped an overtime heartbreaker at Johns Hopkins.

Wilson worked with All-American goalie Matt Poillon, who finished second nationally with a 6.75 GAA and fourth with a 59.7 save percentage, becoming Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Poillon earned four Patriot League Goalie of the Week honors while garnering Rookie of the Week twice. In addition, each one of Lehigh's close defensemen was named All-Patriot League: Ty Souders (First), Mike Noone (second) and Lukas Mikelinich (second).

The Mountain Hawks owned the nation's No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. The squad extended its shutout streak to an incredible 90:14 before the Quakers scored with 5:04 remaining in the second quarter. The streak spanned from the fourth quarter against Villanova, through the entire Manhattan contest and the first 24:56 at Penn.

The Mountain Hawks followed in 2013 by finishing sixth nationally in scoring defense (7.94 goals per game) with Poillon earning Goalie of the Year honors for a second straight season. Noone and Souders also garnered All-League honors for the second year in a row while both garnering honorable mention All-America recognition. Lehigh held Saint Joseph's to only one goal, VMI to only two, Holy Cross, Lafayette and Bucknell to five and Army, UMass and Penn to just six goals apiece. One of the most dominant performances came in the Patriot League Championship game as the Mountain Hawks won 11-5 for their second straight league title and NCAA Tournament berth.

Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader. Over the three-year timeframe from 2012-14, Lehigh owned the nation's lowest goals against average. Wilson also worked with an offense that came into its own as the season progressed. Dan Taylor finished the season with 76 points, leading the team and Patriot League in scoring which also stood seventh in the nation. He was named an All-American after the season, as was Poillon and defenseman Tripp Telesco.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh went onto its sixth straight league tournament appearance in 2016, highlighted by an exciting 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University. In Wilson's first season as offensive coordinator in 2016, senior attackman Reid Weber was named first team All-Patriot League while freshman Tristan Rai jumped onto the national scene with a vengeance; scoring 31 goals on just 58 shots; his .534 shooting percentage was good for second in the nation. The Mountain Hawks followed in 2017 by reaching their seventh straight league tournament, highlighted by consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked opponents – defeating No. 16/18 Boston University 10-6 and No. 13/14 Princeton 15-10. The 15 goals tied for a season high, also set against NJIT and Lafayette. Rai continued his strong play with 46 points (22 goals, team-high 24 assists) while classmate Andrew Pettit emerged as well, tallying 46 himself behind a team-high 35 goals. Pettit began the season with nine straight multi-goal games. His first game without multiple goals came Apr. 8 at Loyola as he was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point.

At Rutgers, Wilson helped the Scarlet Knights win five of their first six games in 2011 and coached a defense which allowed only 8.27 goals per game.

Prior to Rutgers, Wilson served as assistant coach at Brown for four seasons (2007-10). While there, he was both offensive coordinator and goalie coach, helping the Bears reach new heights by winning an Ivy League Championship in 2008, then earning an NCAA Tournament berth in '09. Wilson worked with and mentored one of the nation's top goalies in Jordan Burke. The 2009 USILA Goalie of the Year, Burke was twice named the Ivy League Player of the Year and New England Player of the Year, while earning First Team All-America honors as well.

Wilson was a four-year letterwinner at Stony Brook where he was teammates with goalie and former Lehigh assistant and current Dartmouth head coach Brendan Callahan. Wilson resides in Bethlehem with his wife Pat and sons Roman and Solomon.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Will Scudder '11 enters his fifth season on the coaching staff in 2018 and third as defensive coordinator. Scudder replaced Tom Compitello who accepted a position at Sacred Heart, then was promoted prior to the 2015 season. Scudder was promoted to associate defensive coordinator, faceoff coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator after Brendan Callahan was named head coach at Dartmouth. He was then named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season when Errol Wilson was named offensive coordinator. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks' defense had plenty of highlight moments. Individually, freshman long-stick midfielder Craig Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks' berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation's No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Eddie Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

As a player, Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks' program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

BETHLEHEM, PA.

#18/16 RUTGERS 8, #16/17 LEHIGH 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – A back-and-forth game saw four ties, with neither team leading by more than two goals, as No. 18/17 Rutgers scored the game-winning goal with 4:17 remaining to down the No. 16/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team 8-7 on a cold and windy Wednesday night at the Ulrich Sports Complex. An even matchup saw nearly identical statistics across the board, which included 25 shots apiece.

Wednesday marked just the second time this season that Rutgers was held to single-digit goals. Junior Eddie Bouhall finished with three groundballs to eclipse 100 in his career, while adding two caused turnovers. Classmate Craig Chick had a groundball and caused turnover, moving him to 94 career caused turnovers - within three of tying Tripp Telesco's school record of 97. Freshman Teddy Leggett had five groundballs, caused a turnover and scored his second-career goal just 13 seconds into the fourth quarter.

Junior Lucas Spence led Lehigh offensively with two goals, which included the game-tying score with 6:30 remaining in the fourth quarter. Classmate Andrew Pettit had a goal and assist.

For the second straight game, Lehigh's opponent jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but for the second consecutive contest, the Mountain Hawks immediately answered. Sophomore Parker Kent scored in transition at 3:35 of the first quarter to get Lehigh on the board, then senior John Mehok tallied his ninth of the season just 1:28 later to pull the Mountain Hawks even after 15 minutes of play.

The second quarter saw just one goal aside. Rutgers took a 3-2 lead at 9:28, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger scored the equalizer with just eight seconds remaining in the frame to send the game into halftime tied at three.

Pettit scored on the extra man less than two minutes into the third quarter, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off the next three goals to take a 6-4 lead as Rutgers headed to the fourth with a 7-5 advantage.

Leggett scored off the first faceoff of the fourth quarter to pull Lehigh within one, then Spence scored his second at the 6:30 mark to tie the score at seven. However, Rutgers' Jules Heningburg answered with what proved to be the game-winning goal with 4:17 on the clock.

Final shots were even at 25 while Lehigh held a 26-20 edge in groundballs. Sophomore Conor Gaffney bounced back from winning 2-of-7 faceoffs in the third quarter to win all four in the fourth, finishing 11-of-19 for the game.
