MEN'S LACROSSE

GAME 3: VMI AT NO. 18 LEHIGH

VMI KEYDETS (0-1, 0-0 SOCON) at
LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (1-1, 0-0 PATRIOT LEAGUE)

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2020 • 5 P.M.
ULRICH SPORTS COMPLEX • BETHLEHEM, PA.
PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK

SETTING THE SCENE

Following a hard-fought defeat at No. 1/2 Virginia, the No. 18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team returns home to host VMI on Thursday, presented by Lehigh Valley Hotel and Conference Center. Opening faceoff against the Keydets is set for 5 p.m. on the Patriot League Network. The Mountain Hawks will follow less than 48 hours later with a trip to NJIT on Saturday for their second game in three days.

Last time out, Lehigh fell behind 6-1 to the Cavaliers after a quarter of play, but quickly rebounded to get back into the game. The Mountain Hawks scored the first three goals of the second quarter to pull within 6-4. That's as close as Lehigh would come, as UVA slowly increased its lead back. The Mountain Hawks were still within four goals entering the fourth quarter and again following consecutive Ryan Klose goals in the fourth, but it wasn't enough.

Klose finished with a career-high three goals for his first-career hat trick. Sophomore Tommy Schelling added three goals and an assist to up his season totals to 10 goals and three assists after just two games. Two others recorded points, as senior Crew Cintron and freshman Christian Mule each had a goal and assist. Defensively, junior Matt Douglas recorded six groundballs and three caused turnovers while sophomore Anthony Tangredi had two groundballs and two caused turnovers. Tangredi currently stands 12th nationally with 2.50 caused turnovers per game (five total).

Schelling also finds himself near the top of the national rankings, currently standing fourth in goals per contest (5.0) and ninth in points per game (6.5). As a team, the Mountain Hawks remained in the Inside Lacrosse Media Poll and US Lacrosse Top 25, coming in at No. 18 in both. Lehigh is receiving votes in the USILA Coaches Poll.

Last Saturday marked Lehigh's second straight competitive contest at UVA, last year falling 11-8 against a Cavaliers' team that would go on to win the national championship. Virginia ranked No. 1 in the Coaches Poll and No. 2 in the Media Poll. The Mountain Hawks will also face Penn State in March, who are now No. 1 in both polls (as of this Monday). After the Cavaliers scored six goals in the game's first 13:21, the Mountain Hawks held down their potent offense to just six over the final 46:39.

The Mountain Hawks will end the month of February with three games in eight days. After the VMI and NJIT contests, Lehigh will turn its focus to the Patriot League opener at home vs. Navy on Saturday, Feb. 29.

IF LEHIGH BEATS VIRGINIA

- Lehigh would win its 10th straight game against VMI and improve to 13-5 all-time vs. the Keydets.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 2-1 or better after three games for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- Lehigh would improve to 2-0 at home.

SCOUTING VMI

VMI finished last season 4-9, posting the program's most wins since 2012. The Keydets' top four scorers from 2019 return in Johnny Daniel (25 goals), Ryan Perouty (24), Josh Bass (15) and Jon Fant (12). In VMI's season opener at Manhattan last weekend, the Jaspers opened a 5-0 lead after one quarter, but the Keydets responded by scoring three goals in the second quarter and five in the fourth to pull within 10-8 at the final horn. Perouty led the offense with two goals and two assists while Josh Bass and John Daniel each scored twice. Despite falling, VMI held a 39-26 edge in shots.

LEHIGH LACROSSE AT A GLANCE...

- Lehigh's 39 victories from 2012-14 was tied for third in the nation during that span. The win total only trailed Duke and Loyola and was tied with Denver.
- Lehigh has reached double-figure victories in four of the last eight seasons (2012, 2013, 2014, 2018) after having double-figure wins just four times in the first 112 years of program history: 1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997.

LAST TIME OUT

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (2/15/20) – No. 1/2 Virginia opened a 6-1 lead after one quarter of play then the No. 18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team responded to give itself a chance into the second half, but could never get over the hump in a 12-8 defeat on Saturday afternoon. The Mountain Hawks got within 6-4 late in the second quarter, but defending national champion UVA scored four of the first five second-half goals to create some separation. Sophomore Tommy Schelling led the offense with four points (three goals, one assist) while senior Ryan Klose netted his first-career hat trick.

LAST TIME VS. VMI

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (3/2/13) – The #16/17 Lehigh men's lacrosse team bounced back from a tough Colorado road trip by downing VMI on Saturday afternoon, 18-2. Four different Mountain Hawks recorded hat tricks, including senior David DiMaria who had three goals and four assists for his third seven-point game of the season. Senior Chris Rinaldi also scored his first-career goal in the first quarter and turned that into a hat trick of his own. Senior goalie Griffin Farha was strong in stopping nine of 11 shots between the pipes while classmate Dan Carr came in to stop both shots sent his way over the final minutes.

ALL-TIME SERIES WITH VMI

Lehigh leads the all-time series with VMI, 12-5, which includes nine straight victories. Lehigh's last loss to the Keydets came on Mar. 11, 1995 at VMI, a 15-12 defeat. Since, Lehigh has responded with wins every year from 1996 through 2001 then 2003, 2012 and 2013. The Mountain Hawks faced VMI in each of their Patriot League Title seasons, winning at VMI in 2012 (6-2) and at home in 2013 (18-2). Overall, the Mountain Hawks are 11-1 over their last 12 vs. VMI. Lehigh's last home loss in the series came in 1992 (11-10). Lehigh and VMI first met in 1988, a 14-9 Keydets' victory.

SEASON-OPENING WIN OVER UTAH (FEB. 8)

- The Mountain Hawks opened the season with a strong 16-11 win over upstart Utah. Lehigh trailed 5-3 early in the second quarter, but outscored the Utes 13-6 the rest of the way.
- Sophomore Tommy Schelling paced the offense with career highs in goals (7) and points (9), marking the most points in all of NCAA Division I lacrosse last weekend. He was just one goal from tying the program record and two goals from tying the Patriot League mark. Schelling became the first Lehigh player with seven or more goals since Dan Taylor on Apr. 18, 2014 at Lafayette, and first with nine or more points since Taylor on Feb. 14, 2015 at Furman.
- Fifth-year senior Andrew Pettit had two goals and two assists in his first game since 2018, after missing last season due to injury.
- Freshman Christian Mule' recorded a hat trick in his first-career game, beginning with a high-light-reel behind-the-back score in the second quarter as part of a 5-0 run to turn a 5-3 Lehigh deficit into an 8-5 advantage.
- Senior Andrew Eichelberger tied a career-high three points via two goals and an assist.
- The Mountain Hawks won their fifth straight season opener and 10th in the last 11 years. Lehigh won 19-of-30 faceoffs for the game, led by senior Conor Gaffney who was 17-of-26 with 11 groundballs. In the process, Gaffney moved from fifth to fourth in Patriot League history for career faceoff wins (619 and counting). Sophomore Mike Sisselberger won 2-of-4 faceoffs with a groundball

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team was tied for third in the nation in wins from 2002-14, winning 39 games over those three seasons. Duke led the way with 48 wins in that span while Loyola had 44 and Lehigh and Denver tallied 39.

LAST GAME VS. VMI (NOTES)

- David DiMaria had three goals and four assists for his third seven-point game of the season.
- Chris Rinaldi also scored his first-career goal in the first quarter and turned that into a hat trick of his own.
- Goalie Griffin Farha was strong in stopping nine of 11 shots between the pipes while classmate Dan Carr came in to stop both shots sent his way over the final minutes.
- The 16-goal win marked Lehigh's largest margin of victory since a 22-3 triumph over VMI in 1999.
- DiMaria, Rinaldi, Kyle Stiefel and Dan Taylor all recorded hat tricks. It marked the ninth of DiMaria's career and second for both Stiefel and Taylor. Stiefel added an assist for a career-high four points.
- Three others recorded three points: Patrick Corbett (two goals, one assist), Reid Weber (two goals, one assist) and Matt Smith (one goal, two assists).
- The defense was strong, forcing 11 of VMI's 17 turnovers led by four groundballs and two caused turnovers from Baxter Lanius.
- Ty Souders had a groundball and two caused turnovers while Alan Henderson set a career high with four groundballs.
- A trio of Mountain Hawks combined to win 16-of-24 faceoffs as Ryan Snyder was 8-for-9 with seven groundballs, Ryan Buttenbaum finished 6-of-12 with three groundballs and Will McKee was 2-for-3 with a groundball.

- After the Mountain Hawks won just 4-of-9 in the second quarter and 9-of-17 in the first half, they responded to win all five in the third quarter and 10-of-13 in the second half.
- Sophomore Anthony Tangredi led the defense with a career-high seven groundballs and three caused turnovers. Senior Erik DiGirolamo had two groundballs and a career-high tying two caused turnovers. Junior Teddy Leggett collected three groundballs and scored a fourth-quarter goal off a faceoff, assisted by Gaffney.
- Junior James Spence finished with 12 saves, 11 coming over the final three quarters.

GAFFNEY + PETTIT = TEWAARATON

A pair of decorated Lehigh men's lacrosse players added another honor to their resume as fifth-year senior attackman Andrew Pettit and senior faceoff specialist Conor Gaffney were named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List. Two of just 50 watch list honorees in the nation, this marks the third straight year Lehigh has had an honoree, and first time with multiple players named to the watch list since 2015. The Tewaaraton Award annually honors the top player in college lacrosse.

Lehigh features two of the five Patriot League student-athletes named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List, along with Kevin Lindley and Ryan McNulty of Loyola and Brendan Nichtern of Army West Point. Last season, Craig Chick was named to the watch list while Pettit was added to the watch list mid-season in 2018. At the time, Pettit was the first Mountain Hawk named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List since 2015, when Lehigh had two for a fourth straight season (Dante Fantoni and Ryan Snyder in 2012, David DiMaria, Fantoni and Matt Poillon in 2013, Poillon and Ty Souders in 2014 and Poillon and Dan Taylor in 2015). DiMaria in 2013 and Taylor in 2015 went on to make the next cut as one of 25 nominees.

PRESEASON RANKINGS GALORE

Following its second straight trip to the Patriot League Championship Game (and fifth in the last eight seasons), the Lehigh men's lacrosse has been ranked 18th in the Nike/US Lacrosse Division I Men's Preseason Top 20 and 20th in Inside Lacrosse's Face-Off Yearbook Top 20. A few weeks later, the Mountain Hawks received two more preseason rankings, coming in at No. 19 in the Inside Lacrosse Media Poll and No. 20 in the USILA Coaches Poll.

GAFFNEY - PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Coming off a historic 2019 season and impressive first three years of his collegiate career, senior Conor Gaffney has been named an honorable mention preseason All-American by Inside Lacrosse, as announced on Tuesday. A preseason All-Patriot League honoree as well, Gaffney was named both a USILA and Inside Lacrosse/Media honorable mention All-American following last season.

PRESEASON PL RECOGNITION

Having advanced to two consecutive Patriot League Championship Games and five of the last eight, the Lehigh men's lacrosse team was again predicted to finish near the top of the standings, coming in third in the preseason poll announced on Monday, Jan. 20. In addition, five of the 16 student-athletes named preseason All-Patriot League were Mountain Hawks (Andrew Pettit, Andrew Eichelberger, Teddy Leggett, Conor Gaffney and Christian McHugh), the most honorees from any school in the league.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced the Mountain Hawks' five captains for the upcoming season on Tuesday, Nov. 12, featuring a fifth-year senior, three seniors and a junior. Andrew Pettit is a three-time returning captain while Erik DiGirolamo, Andrew Eichelberger, Ryan Klose and Teddy Leggett were named captains for the first time in their careers.

COLE KIRST IMPRESSING IN U.S. U-19 TRYOUT PROCESS

Following the latest training camp for the U.S. Under-19 team in November at Ohio State, sophomore Cole Kirst has made the latest roster cut. The roster was trimmed from 32 down to 26 players, with 23 ultimately being named to the final team that will compete in the Men's U19 World Championship from July 9-18 in Limerick, Ireland.

COACH CRAWLEY NAMED TO 2020 SPRING PREMIERE

Lehigh assistant coach John Crawley was one of 37 of the nation's top men's lacrosse players named to the 2020 Spring Premiere played in early January in San Antonio, Texas. A former Johns Hopkins All-American, Crawley is in his first year at Lehigh, serving as the Mountain Hawks' offensive coordinator. Crawley, who wore the Team USA uniform in competition for the first time, has played lacrosse at the game's highest level, being selected 33rd overall by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2017 Major League Lacrosse Draft. This past summer, he played in the inaugural season of the Premier Lacrosse League. Crawley finished the year with eight points behind five goals and three assists.

CREASOR AT TEAM CANADA U-19 EVALUATION CAMP

Freshman goaltender Caleb Creasor tried out for Canada's Under-19 national team on the weekend of Oct. 25-27 in Oshawa, Ontario. Creasor was one of 73 athletes invited to try out. The final Canadian U19 Men's Field Lacrosse team will compete at the World Lacrosse Men's U19 World Championship in Limerick, Ireland from July 9-18, 2020.

LEGGETT SUITING UP FOR TEAM CANADA

Junior Teddy Leggett represented his country in October, named to the roster for the Canadian Men's Senior Field Lacrosse Team for the Fall Classic. The game served as the beginning of the evaluation process for Canada as it builds towards the World Championships in 2022. Leggett was one of 23 players named to the men's roster, 12 of which are current collegiate players. As part of the weekend, Leggett faced the United States and the University of Virginia.

RAI SELECTED IN NATIONAL LACROSSE LEAGUE DRAFT

For the second straight year and just the third time in program history, a Lehigh men's lacrosse alumnus was selected in the National Lacrosse League Entry Draft. On Tuesday night, Sept. 18, Tristan Rai was the seventh selection in the fifth round (69th overall) by the New England Black Wolves, joining Nolan Apers (2018) and Dan Taylor (2015) as the only players in program history picked in the Entry Draft.

2020 SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced the Mountain Hawks' 2020 schedule on Thursday, Nov. 14, which features 14 games – seven home and seven on the road. Highlighting the docket is nonleague contests vs. the defending National, ACC and Big Ten Champions Virginia and Penn State, respectively. The Mountain Hawks begin their season at home on Saturday, Feb. 8 vs. Utah and begin Patriot League play at home on Saturday, Feb. 29 against Navy.

CASSESE INDUCTED TO US LACROSSE HALL OF FAME

Following an All-America playing career at Duke and success in both international and professional lacrosse, Lehigh head coach Kevin Cassese was inducted into the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame last September (2018) as part of the Class of 2018. As a player, Cassese was a three-time All-American at Duke before playing on the U.S. Men's National Teams in 2002, 2006 and 2010, winning two gold medals and serving as captain of the 2010 squad. Cassese was inducted as part of the class of nine, which also included Elizabeth Leigh Bradley Friedman, A.J. Haugen, Alex Kahoe, Phyllis Kilgour, David Morrow, Ryan Powell, Denise Wescott, and Tami Worley. The ceremony took place on Saturday, Sept. 29 at The Grand Lodge in Hunt Valley, Md.

PROLIFIC PETTIT

Senior Andrew Pettit has emerged into one of the Patriot League's, and nation's, top goal scorers. As a junior in 2018, he led the Mountain Hawks in goals (46) and points (66), good for fourth and ninth in school history. He finished 10th nationally in goals per game (2.71) and 20th in points per contest (3.88). Pettit was also third in the country in man-up goals (10). Pettit led the Mountain Hawks in goals (or tied for the lead) nine times in 17 games, and had nine hat tricks in 2018. Pettit has twice been named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List (2018, 2020). As a junior, he shattered the Patriot League record for goals in an entire league tournament (12); the previous record was eight.

So far in 2020, Pettit has four goals (two goals, two assists). Here are his 2020 season highlights.

- In the season opener vs. Utah (Feb. 8), Pettit opened the scoring just 1:05 into the game (and season), finishing with two goals and two assists.

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 28 of his last 34 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 29-career multi-goal games, 32-career multi-point games and 16-career hat tricks. Pettit scored a goal in 18 straight games, spanning the entire 2018 season and the first game of 2020.

HAT TRICKING

- Last year (2019), the Mountain Hawks recorded 15 hat tricks, with one in 12-of-17 games.
- So far in 2020, Lehigh has four.
- Here is the breakdown of hat tricks by player this season: Tommy Schelling (2), Christian Mule' (1) and Ryan Klose (1).
 - at #1/2 Virginia (2/15) (2): Ryan Klose, Tommy Schelling
 - vs. Utah (2/8) (2): Tommy Schelling, Christian Mule'

- Andrew Pettit leads the team in active career hat tricks with 16. Schelling has three and Eichelberger two, while Mule', Klose and Matt Ilchuk each have one.

RISE OF THE DEFENSE

Stellar defense played a key role in Lehigh's success from 2012-14 when it won two consecutive Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 then made it back to the title game in 2014. Last season (2019), the Mountain Hawks once again featured one of the nation's top defenses, finishing sixth nationally in scoring defense (9.47). So far this year, Lehigh is 36th nationally, allowing 11.50 goals per game.

Year	National Rank	Goals Allowed/Game
2020	36th	11.50
2019	6th	9.47
2018	22nd	9.47
2017	26th	10.00
2016	47th	10.87
2015	30th	10.06
2014	2nd	7.22
2013	6th	7.94
2012	2nd	6.82

DEFENSE IS KEY

- Lehigh owned the nation's second-ranked defense in 2012 (6.61 goals per game) and followed by finishing sixth in 2013 (7.94) and second in 2014 (7.22). In 2015, the Mountain Hawks allowed 10.06 goals per game while they allowed 10.87 per contest in 2016. In 2017, Lehigh allowed 10.00 goals per game. Then in 2018, the Mountain Hawks allowed 9.47 goals per game, 22nd in the nation.
- Last season (2019), Lehigh again allowed just 9.47 goals per game, good for sixth nationally.
- So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are allowing 11.5 goals per game.

Season Highlights

- The Mountain Hawks' defense rebounded from a tough start at defending national champion and No. 1/2 Virginia (2/15) to post a strong finish. After allowing six goals over the first 13:21, Lehigh allowed just six over the game's final 46:39.
- In the season opener against Utah (2/8), Lehigh allowed just six goals over the game's final 44:49 to help the offense turn a 5-3 deficit into a convincing 16-11 win. The Mountain Hawks allowed just two goals in the span of 25:54 as part of Lehigh's 8-2 run.

SHUTOUT STREAKS

- In 2012, the Lehigh defense was dominant in stretches, pitching a shutout streak of 15 or more minutes in 15-of-17 games, including 13-of-14 wins. Then in 2013, the defense posted 17 separate shutout streaks of 15+ minutes including in 10 of its 12 wins. In 2014, the Mountain Hawks had 15 streaks of 15+ minutes and 25 streaks of 10+ minutes. In 2015, Lehigh had 11 streaks of 15+ minutes and 25 of 10+ minutes.
- In 2016, the Mountain Hawks owned four streaks of 20+ minutes, eight streaks of 15+ minutes and 20 of 10+ minutes.
- In 2017, Lehigh owned 11 streaks of 15+ minutes and 20 of 10+ minutes.
- In 2018, the Mountain Hawks had 14 streaks of 15+ minutes and 35 of 10+ minutes.
- In 2019, Lehigh posted 14 streaks of 15+ minutes and 33 of 10+ minutes.
- So far in 2020, the Mountain Hawks own one streak of 15+ minutes and three of 10+ minutes (full breakdown below).

Game	Opponent	Shutout Streaks
Feb. 15	at No. 1/2 Virginia	18:14 (bridging 2nd and 3rd)
Feb. 8	Utah	12:22 (2nd quarter)
		10:14 (bridging 3rd and 4th)

UP NEXT...

The Mountain Hawks return to action in less than 48 hours when they travel to NJIT on Saturday to face the Highlanders. Gametime is set for 12 p.m.

KEVIN CASSESE
Smith Family Head Coach
13th Season as Lehigh Head Coach

A U.S. Lacrosse National Hall of Fame inductee, Kevin Casseese enters his 13th season as Lehigh's head men's lacrosse coach in 2020. In Casseese's time, he has led the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships – in 2012 and 2013 – followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014 and return trips to the championship game in 2018 and 2019. Lehigh is the only men's lacrosse program in the Patriot League to each of the last nine Patriot League Tournaments as excitement continues to build.

Entering 2020, the Mountain Hawks were ranked in all the major preseason national polls for a second straight season. It's for good reason, as over the last two years Casseese has led the Mountain Hawks to six wins over nationally-ranked opponents, a return to the national rankings and two Patriot League Championship Game appearances. Less than a month after the 2018 season, Casseese was named an inductee in the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame Class following a stellar playing career at Duke, in Major League Lacrosse and for Team USA.

Most recently, Casseese helped the Mountain Hawks to a 9-8 record in 2019 despite several injuries to important players. Leading returning scorer Andrew Pettit suffered a season-ending injury during the preseason, with eventual All-League performers Lucas Spence and Christian McHugh missing multiple games in February. The Mountain Hawks continued to battle and it paid off in March, going a perfect 6-0 which helped them earn the No. 2 seed in the Patriot League Tournament. Lehigh earned three consecutive victories over ranked opponents in that span, topping No. 16 Colgate (10-8), No. 17 Army West Point (11-8) and No. 15 Rutgers (13-10) in the span of 11 days. Also that month, Casseese won his 100th career game with a 15-8 victory at Navy. The Mountain Hawks went on to pick up a hard-fought Patriot League semifinal victory for a second straight season, topping Boston University 10-9. Lehigh then led Army 6-4 late in the third quarter in the title game, but the Black Knights came back to win.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks' defense finished sixth nationally in scoring defense (9.47), the fourth time in the last eight years finishing top 10 in the country. Individually, Conor Gaffney was named Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Year, Scholar-Athlete of the Year (for a second straight season) and an Academic All-American (also for a second straight year). Gaffney broke a number of school and league records, including faceoff wins (249) and groundballs (152). His 69.7 faceoff percentage was good for fourth nationally. Gaffney was one of six Mountain Hawks named All-Patriot League for a second straight season, which included fellow first team honoree, defenseman Craig Chick. Chick continued to re-write the record books, literally, breaking the school record for caused turnovers for a third consecutive season with 42. Most notably, he ended his career with an NCAA career record 160 caused turnovers, becoming the all-time leader in the championship game vs. Army. After the season, Chick was named a second team All-American by both the USILA and Inside Lacrosse/Media, Lehigh's highest USILA All-American in 93 years, since Hugh Robinson was named to the second team in 1926.

The 2018 season saw Lehigh jump back into the national spotlight, beginning with road wins at No. 12 Army West Point and No. 18/19 Hofstra in the span of 10 days. The Mountain Hawks went on to finish the season 10-7. Earning the No. 4 seed in the league tournament, Lehigh dominated Colgate at home (11-6) then picked up a 10-9 overtime win against No. 11/13 Navy. Spence scored the game-winner less than one minute into overtime as Spence (58 points: 35 goals, 23 assists) and Pettit (66 points: 46 goals, 20 assists) combined for 124 points in 2018. Pettit, defenseman Craig Chick and faceoff specialist Conor Gaffney were named first team All-Patriot League while Spence, defenseman Eddie Bouhall and long-stick midfielder Teddy Leggett earned second-team laurels. Leggett also won the Lehigh Athletics' J. Daniel Nolan Award presented to the department's top first-year male student-athlete.

As a team, the Mountain Hawks led the nation in extra-man offense for the second time in seven years as Lehigh's 63.4 percentage was good for second in NCAA history. At one point, Lehigh converted eight straight man-up opportunities and 16-of-19.

The 2018 campaign marked the second time in seven seasons the Mountain Hawks led the nation in man-up offense. The other time was 2012, which featured the program's breakthrough as Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program's first NCAA Tournament. The 2012 campaign featured a school-record 14 wins, nine-game winning streak and the program's highest-ever national ranking; Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-of-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex.

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks' defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. Casseese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while freshman Matt Poillon became Lehigh's first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games, bridging the end of the regular season and Patriot League Tournament, to finish 12-5 overall, undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook). Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. Meanwhile, a young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program's sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University. Lehigh's 2017 season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program's seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth.

Setting the stage for the program's breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program's first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation's eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com's computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Cassese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Cassese's watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Nine have been selected in the Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft since 2013 while multiple others have been picked in the player pool. Roman Lao-Gosney (Florida) played in more than 50 career games since while twin brother Cameron, Mike Noone and Noah Molnar were all veterans of the league. Molnar won an MLL Championship in 2016 and Noone in 2017. In addition, Taylor was the first selection of defending National Lacrosse League Champion Saskatchewan Rush in the 2015 NLL Collegiate Draft. He was picked 12th overall and went on to win NLL Championships with Saskatchewan in 2016 and Calgary in 2019.

Cassese's players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as defenseman Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012. In the summer and fall of 2019, Cole Kirst impressed at U.S. Under-19 Team tryout process as well.

On a personal level, Cassese made his coaching debut for US Lacrosse at the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, serving as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men's National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation's top midfielder. He was also a stand-out in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments is earning a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games, winning MVP of the 2016 game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the MLL title that year, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese's coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke's interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant where he directed the nation's top extra man offense and helped the Seawolves to a 10-6 record in the spring of 2005.

A native of Port Jefferson Station, New York and graduate of Comsewogue High School, Cassese and his wife, Katie Granson Cassese who attended nearby Freedom High School, were married in Bethlehem in December of 2006. They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach

Seventh Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Will Scudder '11 enters his seventh season on the coaching staff in 2019, second as associate head coach and fifth as defensive coordinator. Scudder was named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season and associate head coach following the 2018 season. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

Scudder has helped Lehigh jump back into the national spotlight, making back-to-back Patriot League Championship games in 2018 and 2019, while also earning a preseason national ranking in both 2019 and 2020. The Mountain Hawks are the only team in the league who have advanced to the last nine Patriot League Tournaments.

Most recently, Scudder helped lead a defense that finished sixth nationally in 2019, allowing just 9.47 goals per game. Lehigh's man-down defense was also sixth in the nation (24.2). The Mountain Hawks allowed single-digit goals in nine games, helping the team post a 9-8 record, 5-3 in Patriot League play and earn a No. 2 seed in the league tournament. Scudder helped guide Lehigh to a 6-0 March, including three wins over nationally-ranked opponents in the span of 11 days - topping No. 16 Colgate (10-8), No. 17 Army West Point (11-8) and No. 15 Rutgers (13-10).

A former faceoff man himself, Scudder helped coach Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Year Conor Gaffney, who was also named Scholar-Athlete of the Year (for a second straight season) and an Academic All-American (also for a second straight year). Gaffney broke a number of school and league records, including faceoff wins (249) and groundballs (152). His 69.7 faceoff percentage was good for fourth nationally. Gaffney was one of six Mountain Hawks named All-Patriot League for a second straight season, which included fellow first team honoree, defenseman Craig Chick. Chick continued to re-write the record books, literally, breaking the school record for caused turnovers for a third consecutive season with 42. Most notably, he ended his career with an NCAA career record 160 caused turnovers, becoming the all-time leader in the championship game vs. Army. After the season, Chick was named a second team All-American by both the USILA and Inside Lacrosse/Media, Lehigh's highest USILA All-American in 93 years, since Hugh Robinson was named to the second team in 1926.

In 2018, the Mountain Hawks, were ranked as high as 12th nationally and defeated three nationally-ranked teams - beginning with road wins at No. 12 Army West Point and No. 18/19 Hofstra in the span of 10 days. The Mountain Hawks went on to finish the season 10-7, including 5-3 in Patriot League play. Earning the No. 4 seed in the league tournament, Lehigh dominated Colgate at home (11-6) then picked up a 10-9 overtime win against No. 11/13 Navy, just days after the Midshipmen won at Syracuse. Lucas Spence scored the game-winner less than one minute into overtime as Spence (58 points: 35 goals, 23 assists) and Andrew Pettit (66 points: 46 goals, 20 assists) combined for 124 points in 2018.

Pettit, Chick and Gaffney were named first team All-Patriot League while Spence, defenseman Eddie Bouhall and long-stick midfielder Teddy Leggett earned second-team laurels. Leggett ended the year with 61 groundballs, becoming just the third non-faceoff specialist to reach 50 GBs in Kevin Cassese's 11-year tenure as Lehigh head coach, the others being Casey Eidenshink and Chick. Leggett also won the Lehigh Athletics' J. Daniel Nolan Award presented to the department's top first-year male student-athlete. Gaffney was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year while garnering third team Academic All-America recognition by CoSIDA. A former faceoff specialist himself, Scudder worked extensively with Gaffney, who led the Patriot League in faceoff percentage (59.4), while shattering the school record for faceoff wins (212) - which is also good for second in league history.

Scudder oversaw a defense that entered April eighth nationally in allowing just 8.30 goals per game. The Mountain Hawks went on to allow just six goals in the quarterfinals to Colgate and nine in the semifinals vs. Navy. Lehigh's defense was led by Chick, who continued to re-write the record books, breaking his previous school record for caused turnovers with 41. He ended the year with 118 in his career, which is already a school and Patriot League record, and top 10 in NCAA history (with Chick's senior year left to play). After the season, Chick was named a second team Inside Lacrosse All-American while garnering honorable mention All-America from the USILA.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks' defense had plenty of highlight moments. Just a freshman, Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks' berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation's No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks' program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

Coach Scudder resides in Historic Bethlehem with his wife Megan (a former Lehigh graduate '10 and women's lacrosse player), and son William Sullivan Scudder III.

JOHN CRAWLEY

Assistant Coach

First Season at Lehigh

Former Johns Hopkins All-American John Crawley begins his first season on the Lehigh sidelines in 2019-20 after being named assistant coach on July 29, 2019. After graduating from Hopkins in 2017, Crawley went on to coach one season at Notre Dame and one year at Colgate. He is also currently playing in the Premier Lacrosse League with Atlas LC. Crawley will serve as offensive coordinator for the Mountain Hawks.

"I am so pumped to have the opportunity to join the journey the Lehigh Lacrosse program is on, a journey towards winning the Patriot League and National Championship," said Crawley. "As I have gotten to know Coach Cassese and Coach Scudder in the past couple weeks, I have felt that their commitment to their players and this program is something I want to be a part of, learn from and grow in. The environment they've created of hard-working players with chips on their shoulder is one I can't wait to get to work with."

Crawley began his coaching career at Notre Dame in 2018, helping the Fighting Irish win the ACC Championship. While there, he worked primarily with the faceoff unit and with players on the offensive side of the field. Crawley then moved onto Colgate in 2019, alongside new Raiders' coach Matt Karweck who Crawley worked with at Notre Dame. Crawley helped Colgate to a strong start to the season, including a season-opening victory over Syracuse, to help jump into the national rankings.

"We are thrilled to welcome John Crawley into the Lehigh Lacrosse family," said Cassese. "As a coach, John caught our eye over the past year as the offensive coordinator at Colgate. We were impressed with his overall coaching strategy, his ability to maximize the potential of his players, his attention to detail in coaching the finer points of offensive stick work and shooting mechanics, and his tireless work ethic on the recruiting trail. As a player, John has always been a dynamic leader, a selfless teammate, and a key component to every offense he has ever played in. His lacrosse IQ is off the charts and his love for the game bleeds through in everything he does. John is a rising star in the coaching profession and we are excited he is now officially a Mountain Hawk."

At Johns Hopkins, Crawley played in all 60 games, starting 30, while posting 70 career goals and 30 assists. Among many highlights, Crawley was a two-time USILA honorable mention All-American. The two-time captain was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team as a sophomore, helping the Blue Jays to the Final Four. As a freshman in 2014, Crawley scored four goals on five shots against Towson to become the first Hopkins midfielder to score four goals in a game since Paul Rabil in 2005. Also strong in the classroom, Crawley was named Academic All-BIG and a BIG Distinguished Scholar in 2017.

"John Crawley has quickly moved through the coaching ranks in a short period of time," said Johns Hopkins head coach Dave Pietramala. "It is a testament to just how outstanding a coach he is, how strong his work ethic is and what a good teacher he has become. Moreover, John is one of the finest young men I have been around and is a true leader."

Crawley was selected 33rd overall by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2017 Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft. He impressed from the beginning, posting six goals and an assist in his first MLL game, garnering Player of the Week honors. Now in the PLL, he has three goals and two assists this season for Atlas LC.

JACK DERAGON

Assistant Coach

First Season at Lehigh

Jack Deragon begins his first season as assistant coach in 2019 after coming to Lehigh in August of 2019. The former Ithaca All-American goalkeeper comes to Lehigh following two seasons at Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, N.Y. Deragon will serve as the Mountain Hawks' goalie coordinator and assistant defensive coordinator.

"We are excited to welcome Jack to the Lehigh Lacrosse family," said Cassese at the time of his hire. "He is a Pennsylvania native (Upper Dublin High School) who had an impressive collegiate career as a goaltender at Ithaca College, which is a very well-respected program amongst the entire college lacrosse world under Hall of Fame Coach Jeff Long. Jack also has two years of coaching experience under his belt while working with and learning from Coach Eric Seideman at Mount Saint Mary College. I am excited for Jack to get to work with our goaltending unit and assist Coach Scudder with the defense. His knowledge, work ethic and leadership skills will add tremendous value to our program."

At Mount Saint Mary, Deragon served as defensive coordinator and goalie coach, directing the defense, man-down defense, riding/clearing game and more. He also worked with goaltender development while creating and developing a leadership development program for current and rising leaders on the team. Under his tutelage, a pair of defenders received All-Skyline Conference recognition in both 2018 and 2019. During Deragon's first season of 2018, the Knights' defense decreased its goals against average by nearly three goals from the previous season while turning a 6-10 record in 2017 into a 12-7 mark and trip to the program's first-ever Skyline Conference Championship Game.

As a player, Deragon was a four-year member of the Ithaca men's lacrosse program, leading the Bombers to a stellar 61-16 record. As a senior, he posted conference bests in goals against average (7.62) and save percentage (58.3), amongst the national leaders in both categories. Deragon was rewarded with USILA third team All-America recognition, along with Empire 8 Goalie of the Year and ECAC Division III North Defensive Player of the Year honors. Deragon was also named All-Conference and All-Region.

Deragon served as team representative then later assistant director of Ithaca's Student-Athlete Advisory Boards (SAAC). He served as senior captain and took part in the department's Leadership Academy, which instructs rising leaders in the athletics department.

GAME 1 • FEB. 8, 2020
BETHLEHEM, PA.
NO. 19 LEHIGH 16, UTAH 11

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Trailing 5-3 early in the second quarter, the No. 19 Lehigh men's lacrosse team responded with five straight goals and eight of the next 10 to defeat visiting Utah, 16-11 on Saturday at the Ulrich Sports Complex. Sophomore Tommy Schelling paced the offense with a career-high seven goals to come just one shy of tying the program record. He also had two assists to become the first Mountain Hawk with nine or more points since Dan Taylor in 2015. Defensively, sophomore Anthony Tangredi put forth a big game with seven groundballs and three caused turnovers. Lehigh will now turn its attention to next Saturday, Feb. 15, as it travels to defending national champion Virginia for a 1 p.m. faceoff.

Schelling's seven goals were most by a Lehigh player since Taylor scored seven on April 18, 2014 at Lafayette. Many others contributed offensively, including fifth-year senior Andrew Pettit who opened the scoring just 1:05 into the contest and finished with two goals and two assists. Senior Andrew Eichelberger impressed with two goals and an assist as well.

Freshman Christian Mule' scored three goals, including two on the extra man, as the Mountain Hawks finished 5-of-7 on the man advantage. The five man-up goals were Lehigh's most since it also had five on Feb. 6, 2016 vs. NJIT.

Along with Tangredi's big day, junior Matt Douglas tallied four groundballs and a caused turnover. Senior Erik DiGirolamo posted two groundballs and two caused turnovers. Senior Conor Gaffney finished 17-of-26 facing off with 11 groundballs.

The teams traded goals for most of the first quarter until the Utes went on a 3-0 surge to take a 5-3 lead early in the second quarter. That's when Eichelberger got on the board with 12:42 left in the second quarter, sparking a 5-0 run which included Mule's first of the day and Schelling's third and fourth. Schelling added his fifth with 1:04 left in the first half to give the Mountain Hawks a 9-6 halftime advantage.

Utah opened the scoring in the opening minutes of the third quarter, but goals from Schelling then Pettit gave the Mountain Hawks an 11-7 advantage midway through the quarter.

From that point forward, Lehigh led by multiple goals. Utah pulled as close as two (11-9), but the Mountain Hawks outscored the Utes 5-2 in the fourth quarter for the 16-11 victory.

For the game, Lehigh held a 48-40 edge in shots while the Mountain Hawks held a 51-35 advantage in groundballs.

GAME 2 • FEB. 15, 2020
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.
NO. 1/2 VIRGINIA 12, NO. 18 LEHIGH 8

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – No. 1/2 Virginia opened a 6-1 lead after one quarter of play then the No. 18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team responded to give itself a chance into the second half, but could never get over the hump in a 12-8 defeat on Saturday afternoon. The Mountain Hawks got within 6-4 late in the second quarter, but defending national champion UVA scored four of the first five second-half goals to create some separation. Sophomore Tommy Schelling led the offense with four points (three goals, one assist) while senior Ryan Klose netted his first-career hat trick.

Four Mountain Hawks accounted for all eight of Lehigh's goals. Along with Schelling and Klose, freshman Christian Mule' tallied a goal and assist in his first-career start. Senior Crew Cintron scored once as well.

Defensively, Lehigh settled in nicely. After allowing six goals in the game's first 13:21, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six over the remaining 46:39 against the Cavaliers' high-powered attack. Junior Matt Douglas led the defense with six groundballs and three caused turnovers. Sophomore Anthony Tangredi added two groundballs and two caused turnovers.

Virginia scored first, Klose evened the score at one with 10:22 left in the first quarter, but the Cavaliers answered with a 5-0 run to end the stanza.

Lehigh had an answer in the second quarter, as Schelling scored twice in 42 seconds (with 13:23 and 12:41 on the clock) to quickly pull his side within 6-3. Mule' scored his fourth at the 8:44 mark to get the Mountain Hawks within 6-4. UVA answered just over a minute later to make it 7-4 heading into halftime.

Neither team scored for more than 18 minutes until the Cavaliers scored twice in the span of 1:27 late in the third quarter. Cintron responded with his first of the season with 50 seconds remaining, to pull within 9-5 heading to the fourth.

UVA began the fourth quarter with consecutive goals. Lehigh did have a late run, as Klose scored consecutive goals at 8:09 and 5:06 to pull within 11-7, but four is as close as the Mountain Hawks would come. Schelling wrapped up the scoring at 1:21 for the 12-8 final.

Virginia finished with a 48-28 edge in shots and 45-36 advantage in groundballs. Senior Conor Gaffney won 8-of-15 faceoffs with four groundballs, while sophomore Mike Sisselberger was 4-of-8 with two GBs.
