GAME 11: LEHIGH AT WEST VIRGINIA

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (7-3, 0-0 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
 at WEST VIRGINIA MOUNTAINEERS (7-4, 0-0 BIG 12)
 SUNDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2018 • 2 P.M.

SETTING THE SCENE

Following the Christmas holiday, the Lehigh men's basketball team returns to action on Sunday for its nonleague finale when it travels to West Virginia to face the Mountaineers. Opening tipoff is set for 2 p.m. Standing 7-3 on the season, the Mountain Hawks are eyeing their most nonleague victories since 2012-13, when they finished 10-3. Lehigh also won seven nonleague contests in 2013-14.

The Mountain Hawks have traditionally enjoyed success against power conference opponents, especially for a mid-major program. In head coach Brett Reed's tenure as head coach (12 years, which includes this season), his teams have defeated two teams from the Big East (Rutgers in 2008 and DePaul in 2013) and teams from the ACC (Duke in 2012), Pac-12 (Arizona State in 2014) and SEC (Mississippi State in 2016). Lehigh has been competitive in a number of other contests as well, which includes leading No. 12 Villanova in the second half (2014), losing by 10 in a competitive game at eventual Final Four team Syracuse (2015) and losing by just three at No. 7/8 Xavier (2016) in a game which saw the Mountain Hawks take two three-pointers in the final seconds looking to tie. Lehigh has never defeated a Big 12 team.

Most recently, the Mountain Hawks used an impressive second half against Saint Francis (Pa.) to turn a six-point deficit into a 12-point, 88-76 win. In a battle of preseason conference favorites (NEC and Patriot League), Lehigh saw its starting backcourt combine for 61 points on 21-of-34 shooting. Senior Lance Tejada scored a season-high 22 on 8-of-14 shooting, senior Kyle Leufroy added 20 on 8-of-11 and junior Jordan Cohen scored 19 on 5-of-9 from the floor. Leufroy has now scored 20+ points five times through 10 games this season after six his first three years combined; on Saturday, he moved into the top 25 in school history in career scoring (currently 1,143). The last time two Lehigh players scored 20 points in the same game was Feb. 5, 2018 vs. Bucknell, a 92-89 overtime victory. The last time it happened in a regulation contest was last Jan. 20 at Army West Point when Tejada scored 25 and Marques Wilson had 20.

Tejada, Leufroy and Cohen's 61 combined points marked the most by a trio of Lehigh teammates since that Bucknell game last February when Pat Andree (24), Cohen (21) and Tejada (17) combined for 62. Andree added 15 points this past Saturday on 5-of-6 shooting, including 3-of-4 from three. In the end, Lehigh's 88-76 win over Saint Francis (Pa.) marked its fifth by double figures this season. It was also Coach Reed's 205th career win, tying American's Jeff Jones for third place in Patriot League history.

Lehigh shot a sizzling 61.5 percent from the field in the second half (16-of-26), including 63.6 percent from three-point range (7-of-11) to finish at 51.8 percent and 56.5 percent, respectively. Finishing 13-of-23 from long range, the Mountain Hawks have now shot 50 or more percent from three in nine of their last 20 games dating back to last season. Lehigh stands at 45.0 percent on the season, which is tied for first in the nation.

Following Sunday's game, the Mountain Hawks return home to open Patriot League play, hosting Lafayette on Wednesday, Jan. 2 and Loyola on Sunday, Jan. 6.

TODAY'S GAME

West Virginia leads the all-time series vs. Lehigh, 4-0. The Mountaineers' wins have come in 1946, 1973, 1975 and 1989, most recently, on Dec. 29, 1989 via a 92-81 final.

LAST MEETING

West Virginia defeated Lehigh, 92-81 on Dec. 29, 1989 at West Palm Beach Auditorium.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (12/22/19) - The Lehigh men's basketball team staged a 26-8 run bridging the end of the first and beginning of the second halves to turn a 45-37 deficit into a 63-53 lead, on the way to an 88-76 win over visiting Saint Francis (Pa.) on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Lehigh's starting backcourt of senior Lance Tejada (22 points), senior Kyle Leufroy (20) and junior Jordan Cohen (19) combined for 61 of the Mountain Hawks' season-high 88 points, as Lehigh improved to 7-3 on the season.

SCOUTING WEST VIRGINIA

West Virginia has advanced to four straight NCAA Tournaments and 11 of the last 14. Included was a Final Four appearance in 2010 and seven Sweet 16 appearances in that span - including each of the last two years. The preseason No. 2 team in the Big 12, the Mountaineers stand 7-4 on the season, most recently defeating Jacksonville State (74-72). The last time West Virginia was home, it defeated Pitt by a 69-59 final. The team's losses this season have come vs. Buffalo, Western Kentucky, Florida and Rhode Island. The Mountaineers have been without star forward Sagaba Konate each of the last two games due to injury, who received votes in the preseason AP All-America voting. Four players are averaging double-figure points - Esa Ahmad (13.6), Konate (13.6), Lamont West (11.5) and James Bolden (10.3).

IF LEHIGH BEATS WEST VIRGINIA

- Lehigh would win a regular season game for the 16th time in its last 19 tries dating back to last season.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 4-3 on the road.
- Lehigh would defeat West Virginia and beat a Big 12 team for the first time in school history.
- The Mountain Hawks would defeat a power-conference opponent for the first time since beating Mississippi State on Nov. 25, 2016.
- Head coach Brett Reed would win his 206th career game, which would move him past American's Jeff Jones and into sole possession of third place in Patriot League history.

MILESTONE WATCH

ROAD WIN AT MOUNT ST. MARY'S (DEC. 8)

- Lehigh jumped out to a 42-24 halftime, with the margin reaching 26 (55-29 and 57-31) early in the second half. The Mountaineers responded and slowly inched their way back into the game, eventually getting as close as five (73-68) with 2:41 still on the clock. However, from there, Lehigh hit 12-of-13 free throws down the stretch, including a perfect 8-of-8 from senior Kyle Leufroy, to wrap up the road victory.

- In the end, Leufroy was a perfect 12-of-12 from the charity stripe, tied for the second most made free throws in the nation this season without a miss. Leufroy finished with 21 points.

- Sophomore James Karnik was strong with a season-high tying 15 points (just one from tying a career high), shooting 5-of-7 from the field and 5-of-7 from the free throw line. He added a team-high nine points.

- Junior Pat Andree posted 13 points and seven rebounds while senior Lance Tejada had 11 points, shooting 3-of-5 from the field. Making his first start of the season, sophomore Marques Wilson recorded seven points, seven rebounds, three assists and a steal.

- Full-court pressure from Mount St. Mary's seemed to get the Mountain Hawks out of rhythm, as they only had 19 second-half field goal attempts (compared to 35 for the Mountaineers). Lehigh turned the ball over 11 times in the second half and took 34 second-half free throws. Mount St. Mary's got to the line 18 times in the second as the game saw 51 combined fouls (37 in the second half).

IMPRESSIVE RUN VS. ARKANSAS STATE (DEC. 1)

- Arkansas State actually opened a 22-9 lead just over eight minutes into the game, but Lehigh answered with a 16-0 run, which reached 32-8 to end the half as the Mountain Hawks opened a 41-30 halftime advantage. The Red Wolves pulled within five on multiple occasions in the second half, but Lehigh always responded. Late in the half, freshman Jeameril Wilson scored eight points in the span of 1:04 to help turn a 68-60 Lehigh lead into a 76-61 advantage with 5:16 remaining, all but erasing any doubt.

- Senior Kyle Leufroy scored 20 points to lead the offense, already his third game this season with 20+ points (and ninth of his career). Sixteen of those points came in the first half, as Leufroy finished 7-of-9 from the field and 3-of-3 from three-point range.

- Junior Pat Andree knocked down 2-of-5 threes on Saturday and finishing with 14 points and a career-high tying three assists.

- As a team, Lehigh knocked down 56.3 percent of its threes (9-of-16), eclipsing 55 percent from distance for the second time in the last three games.

- Senior Lance Tejada also enjoyed a strong bounce back game with 12 points and a career-high tying seven assists. Junior Jordan Cohen filled up the stat sheet with eight points, six rebounds, five assists and two steals. Sophomore Caleb Bennett had six points and a career-high tying five rebounds while classmate James Karnik tallied six points and four boards. Freshman Nic Lynch added six points and six rebounds.

- The win marked Lehigh's first in program history against the Sun Belt Conference.

- It was also Lehigh's first win when being outrebounded this season. Arkansas State finished with a 48-35 edge on the glass, but the Mountain Hawks held the Red Wolves to just 30.7 percent shooting (23-of-75).

JEAMERIL WILSON - ROOKIE OF WEEK (NOV. 26)

After scoring 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting over two games, Jeameril Wilson was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week, as announced on Monday, Nov. 26. Wilson is Lehigh's second Rookie of the Week honoree in the first three weeks after Nic Lynch won the award on Nov. 12. Wilson began the week by posting a career-high 10 points, along with three rebounds and two assists in a career-high 25 minutes at Siena. He finished 4-of-6 from the floor, including a perfect 2-of-2 from three-point range. Eight of Wilson's points came in the final 4:07 of the first half to help Lehigh open a 42-37 halftime advantage, on the way to the 80-69 win. The Chicago, Illinois native went on to post four points, knocking down both of his field goal attempts at No. 12 Kansas State Saturday, helping the Mountain Hawks open a 31-26 advantage late in the first half.

STRONG WIN OVER SIENA (NOV. 21)

- Lehigh improved to 3-0 against the MAAC in 2018-19 with an 80-69 victory at Siena Wednesday, spoiling the Saints' home opener. Siena actually jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but a 10-0 Lehigh run gave it a 20-16 advantage. The Saints responded to go up 27-22, but the Mountain Hawks took a 34-32 lead on a Jeameril Wilson three-pointer, and wouldn't trail again, despite Siena often getting within striking distance.

- Senior Kyle Leufroy paced the offense with a career-high 25 points on 8-of-11 shooting. In the process, he moved from 33rd all the way to 30th in school history in career scoring (currently 1,071 points).

- No other Mountain Hawks had double-figure shot attempts Wednesday as Lehigh was efficient all evening. One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division I opponent in 10 years (vs. Princeton), Lehigh's 58.0 shooting percentage vs. the Saints (29-of-50) was its best mark since shooting 59.2 percent on Feb. 4, 2017 at American.

- The Mountain Hawks' 63.2 percentage from three (12-of-19) was tied for the second best percentage in the NCAA this season and was Lehigh's best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinnipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It was also the Mountain Hawks' best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook. The last time Lehigh eclipsed 50 percent from the field, and from three, both came last Feb. 14 at Colgate when it shot 56.4 percent (31-of-55) and 52.9 percent (9-of-17), respectively.

- Along with Leufroy's 25 points, junior Jordan Cohen had 15 (on 5-of-8 shooting), sophomore Marques Wilson scored a season-high 12 (5-of-6) and Jeameril Wilson had a career-high 10 (4-of-6). Junior Pat Andree contributed eight (all in the second half), despite foul trouble while sophomore James Karnik was strong with six points and eight boards.

- Eight of the nine Mountain Hawks who played had at least one assist.

- Lehigh shot 68.0 percent in the first half (17-of-25) and 48.0 percent in the second (12-of-25) for the final 58.0 percentage. After allowing Siena to shoot 46.7 percent in the first (14-of-30), the Mountain Hawks held them to 35.3 percent in the second (12-of-34) to finish the game at 40.6 percent.

3RD STRAIGHT W VS. PRINCETON (NOV. 16)

- The Mountain Hawks went on a big 31-7 run bridging the first and second halves to turn a 26-22 deficit into a 53-33 lead, on the way to beating Princeton for a third straight season.

- The Mountain Hawks are 3-0 over the last three seasons vs. Princeton after winning just four of the first 34 all-time meetings.

- Five Lehigh players scored double-figure points, led by the second-career double-double by freshman Nic Lynch. Lynch finished with 16 points and 10 boards, shooting 7-of-13 from the field. Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points and five assists, shooting 3-of-6 from three-point range while juniors Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen each had 12 points. Senior Kyle Leufroy recorded 10 points and nine rebounds as he and Andree (12 points, eight rebounds) almost joined Lynch with double-doubles.

- It marked the first time five Mountain Hawks scored double figures since last Feb. 21 at Loyola.

- For all the offensive prowess, the game was primarily about Lehigh's D, which held Princeton to 28.3 percent shooting from the field (17-of-60) and 12.5 percent from three-point range (4-of-32).

- That 28.3 percentage was the Mountain Hawks' best field goal percentage defense since Jan. 8, 2013 vs. Muhlenberg (20.7 percent) and best against a Division I opponent since Dec. 31, 2008 against NJIT (22.0 percent).

LYNCH - PL ROOKIE OF WEEK (NOV. 12)

- After scoring double-figure points in each of his first two career games, including a double-double at an ACC opponent, freshman Nic Lynch was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.

- Lynch averaged 10.0 points and 6.5 rebounds in just 17.5 minutes for the week.

- At Monmouth, Lynch tallied 10 points and three rebounds in just nine minutes due to foul trouble. He shot 5-of-7 from the floor. Eight of those points came in the first 4:22 of the second half to help Lehigh turn a six-point halftime advantage into a 13-point lead at the under-16 media timeout. At Miami, Lynch had 10 points and 10 boards for his first-career double-double.

COMEBACK VS. MARIST (NOV. 13)

- Both teams were raining threes as Marist knocked down 15 of its first 24 while Lehigh finished 13-of-27. Despite the Red Foxes shooting treys at a 63 percent clip at one point, the Mountain Hawks hung within striking distance.

- When Marist missed its final five threes, Lehigh ended the game with nine straight points and 25 of the final 35, to win 78-72 and improve to 6-0 all-time against the Red Foxes.

- In the end, Marist was 15-of-29 from downtown, tied for the Stabler Arena record for most threes in a game (Lehigh or opponent). The Mountain Hawks' 13 made treys were just two off the pace.

- Seniors Kyle Leufroy and Lance Tejada helped lead the charge, shooting a combined 8-of-16 from distance. Leufroy tallied 20 second-half points to finish the game with a career-high tying 23. He moved from a tie for 35th place all the way to 33rd in school history for career points (currently 1,036). In his first three games of the season, Tejada eclipsed 1,000 career points (at Monmouth), 200 assists (at Miami) and 400 rebounds (vs. Marist). Meanwhile, Tejada had 16 points and a career-high seven assists.

- Junior Pat Andree posted his fifth-career double-double with 16 points and 10 boards, shooting 3-of-4 from three. Junior Jordan Cohen added 11 points and seven rebounds.

NCAA Net Rankings (NCAA.com)

- Lehigh won its home opener for a second straight year and 10th time in the last 13 years.

- The Mountain Hawks trailed by as many as 12 in the first half (30-18), but went on a 10-3 run to end the stanza. The second half saw nine lead changes. The win marked the 200th of head coach Brett Reed's career, becoming just the fourth coach in Patriot League history to reach that milestone.

ACC MATCHUP AT MIAMI (NOV. 9)

- After Miami went up 37-19, the Mountain Hawks clawed their way back into the game by holding a 7-1 edge over the final five minutes. The run began with a three-pointer from Kyle Leufroy, who tallied eight points and seven rebounds in the first half, finishing with 12 points and nine boards for the game. Leufroy has been a strong rebounder early this season, posting nine rebounds in each of the first two contests.

- Leufroy also dished an assist on Friday to reach 200 career assists, one game after eclipsing 1,000 career points.

- Miami opened a 19-point, 48-29 advantage early in the second half, but the Mountain Hawks responded with 18 of the next 23 points as a 12-2 run, with nine of the points coming from senior Lance Tejada, pulled Lehigh within 53-47 with 12:24 still remaining. The Hurricanes came out of a timeout with a 7-0 run to go back up 13 and the Mountain Hawks couldn't pull any closer than 10 the rest of the way.

- Tejada finished his homecoming game with 19 points, 16 coming in the second half. The Miramar, Fla. native was 6-of-12 from the field in the second half, 2-of-6 from long distance.

- Junior Pat Andree tallied 10 points and seven rebounds. Through two games, he now has 15 boards and is shooting 8-of-15 from three-point range (53 percent).

- Freshman and Patriot League Rookie of the Week Nic Lynch was also a bright spot, posting 10 points and 10 rebounds for his first-career double-double. It marked the second straight season a Lehigh freshman center had his first-career double-double against an ACC opponent; last year, James Karnik recorded 14 points and 10 boards at Pitt.

- Friday actually snapped Lehigh's nine-game regular season winning streak. It marked the Mountain Hawks' first regular-season defeat since last Jan. 27 against Navy (286 days between regular-season losses). Lehigh also went 293 days without a loss on the road (regular season or postseason).

STELLAR SHOOTING

Lehigh's shooting has been impressive, especially over the past several years. Last season, the Mountain Hawks shot 40.9 percent from three-point range, not far from the Patriot League record of 41.8 percent held by Holy Cross in 1990-91. Last season, Lehigh posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14).

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 45.0 percent from three, currently first in the Patriot League and first in the nation. Dating back to last season, Lehigh has shot 50 percent or better from three in nine of its last 20 games.

See below for final national rankings for the Mountain Hawks for both three-point and free throw percentage.

2017-18 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Lehigh defeated three reigning conference champions: Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Bucknell.

- Lehigh handed Bucknell its final loss of the regular season. Mountain Hawks were one of just two Patriot League teams to defeat the Bison.

- Lehigh was 4-3 against reigning conference finalists. Along with Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Bucknell, the Mountain Hawks also beat Siena.

- Lehigh's four overtime victories and five overtime games marked its most since the 1986-87 season (when it also went 4-1).

- Lehigh posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14). That six-game streak of 50+ percent from three was tops in the nation.

- Lehigh tied a Stabler Arena record for made threes in a game with 15 (on 26 attempts) vs. Holy Cross.

- Lance Tejada and Pat Andree finished 1-2 in the Patriot League in three-point field goal percentage (45.3 and 42.9) (minimum 2.5 made threes/game). Tejada's 45.3 percentage was just outside the top 10 in Patriot League single-season history (10th place is 46.8).

- The Mountain Hawks picked up double-figure Patriot League plays for a fourth straight season and sixth time in the last seven years.

- Lehigh earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for a fourth straight season and eighth time in the last nine years.

- Kahron Ross became Lehigh's first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering second team honors.

- Tejada was also named second team All-League.

- Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen were both named Academic All-Patriot League, marking the first time in program history that Lehigh has had two honorees.

- Lehigh scored 54 points at the nation's top defense and eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Virginia. For perspective, UVA allowed 53 or fewer points in 9 out of its 18 ACC regular season games.

- Tejada's 22 points in that game were tied for the sixth most points scored against UVA this season (complete list below).

- Ross was twice named Patriot League Player of the Week while Marques Wilson was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.

- Ross was named a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award, giving Lehigh three candidates over the past two seasons (also Tim Kempton and Austin Price).

- Ross broke the Lehigh career assists record vs. Mount St. Mary's and Patriot League career assists mark at Navy. Ross graduates Lehigh as the school's leader for assists in a game, season and career.

- Lehigh won its season opener at Marist for the first time since 2008-09, snapping an eight-game losing streak in openers.

FEBRUARY SUCCESS

- Lehigh finished last February 7-0, marking the second time in three years the Mountain Hawks posted a perfect February (going 9-0 in 2016). Prior to February of 2016, the previous undefeated month came in November of 1993 (and that only included one game).
- Over the last three seasons, Lehigh is 22-2 in the month of February.

COACH REED PUTTING UP THE W'S

Head coach Brett Reed reached 100-career Patriot League (regular season) wins last season, becoming just the fourth coach in league history to reach that plateau. Below is the list. Reed tied Jeff Jones of American coach for fastest to reach 100 PL wins in terms of number of seasons (11th season for both Reed and Jones). However, for both Flannery and Jones, it took fewer games to reach 100.

Here is where Reed stands among Patriot League laurels for total wins and Patriot League victories. Reed's 200th win came earlier this season, during a 78-72 home-opening win over Marist (Nov. 13). He tied Jones for third place with a home win over Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 22).

Most Patriot League Games Won (Regular Season)

152 Fran O'Hanlon, Lafayette (1995-present)
126 Pat Flannery, Bucknell (1994-08)
108 Jeff Jones, American (2001-13)
102 Brett Reed, Lehigh (2007-present)
95 Ralph Willard, Holy Cross (1999-09)
93 Don Devoe, Navy (1993-04)

Most Games Won, All Games as PL Coach

314 Fran O'Hanlon, Lafayette (1995-present)
234 Pat Flannery, Bucknell (1994-08)
205 Brett Reed, Lehigh (2007-present)
205 Jeff Jones, American (2001-13)
192 Ralph Willard, Holy Cross (1999-09)
184 Don DeVoe, Navy (1993-04)

TEJADA - PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; LEHIGH PICKED FIRST

For the third time in the last four years, Lehigh has finished atop the Patriot League preseason poll, as announced on Wednesday, Oct. 17. In addition, senior Lance Tejada was named to the preseason All-League team. Lehigh finished first in the poll with 145 points, five points ahead of Bucknell in second. Each of the last two times the Mountain Hawks were picked first, they advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game in both 2016 and 2017. Tejada is coming off an impressive first season in the Brown and White, leading the Mountain Hawks in scoring (14.7 points per game), which was good for ninth in the Patriot League. Tejada was one of the nation's top three-point shooters, converting 45.3 percent from long distance (77-of-170) (10th in the country). He scored double-figure points in 20-of-28 games while eclipsing 20 points on seven occasions. Tejada had three games of 25+ points and six of 20+ points, both marks most by a Lehigh guard since C.J. McCollum in 2012-13.

REED ANNOUNCES INCOMING CLASS OF 2023

Head coach Brett Reed announced the Mountain Hawks' incoming class of 2023 on Thursday, Nov. 22, which features three talented student-athletes from around the country. Lehigh is set to welcome Jakob Alamudun, Jake Betlow and Reed Fenton to campus as freshmen for the 2019-20 season.

Fenton comes in from Latrobe, Pa. and Greater Latrobe High School. As a junior, Fenton averaged 23 points and five assists while garnering first team All-Section from Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, along with Pittsburgh Tribune Westmoreland County Terrific 10 honors. As a sophomore Fenton averaged 16 points and four assists, earning second team All-Section. He was also a standout for the PK Flash AAU program. Strong in the classroom, Fenton is a Student Council member and member of the National Honor Society, standing in the top 10 percent of his class.

Alamudun averaged 21.4 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, making 87.4 percent of his free throws as a junior at Marina High School in California to earn a number of postseason honors. He finished fourth in Orange County in both scoring and rebounding. Among the accolades were All-CIF Southern Section Division 3A, first team All-Sunset League and third team All-Orange Country, while also garnering first team Los Angeles Times Daily Pilot Boys Dream Team recognition. Named to the 2017-18 Prep Hoops SoCal Most Improved List, Alamudun had multiple 15+ rebound performances, including a 30-point, 25-rebound effort in the Jim Harris Memorial Tournament of Champions. He was one of Orange County's most productive players, helping Marina to its first season above .500 since 2009-10. In the end, Alamudun was named first team All-Sunset League for three years, was a two-time All-CIF honoree, won the CIF Character Award and was All-Academic Sunset League every year. In addition, Alamudun won the Adidas Summer Championship (Silver Division) with his AAU team, the Cali Rebels.

Meanwhile, Betlow has been a standout throughout his high school career, most recently playing at St. Benedict's in New Jersey and helping his team to an unprecedented 12th State Prep A championship title in 2017-18. St. Benedict's was ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation during the season, while being named the No. 1 Independent/Prep Team in the state. Betlow finished the season earning All-Prep honors while this year - as a senior - he is a team captain and ranked among the top 10 seniors in New Jersey. In his freshman and sophomore years, he was part of two teams that combined for a 47-9 record. During that stretch, Betlow won the Somerset County Tournament and advanced to the South Jersey, Non-Public B final. Betlow led Gil St. Bernard with 81 three-pointers and was second on the team with a 12.2 points per game average as a freshman. He was named MVP of the Somerset County Championship and garnered first team All-County Tournament Team recognition, first team All-State freshman honors (by NJ Hoops/Rivals.com), first team All-Conference and honorable mention All-New Jersey (one of only two freshmen named in New Jersey). Below was named second team All-Area by Courier News and NJ Freshman of the Year by The Star Ledger. As a sophomore, Betlow went on to lead Montverde to a 22-4 record, which included finishing as runners-up in the Dicks National High School Basketball Championship.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS

Lehigh finished last season's nonleague schedule with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary's (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary's and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players' hometowns whenever possible. Last season, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.). This year, Lehigh is traveling to Miami for Lance Tejada's (Miramar, Fla.) homecoming along with Kansas

State to get a game close to the hometowns of Caleb Bennett (St. Joseph, Mo.) and Marques Wilson (Edmond, Okla.). The Mountain Hawks also opened the season at Monmouth, approximately a 15-minute drive from Pat Andree's hometown of Colts Neck, N.J.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last nine years (2010-18), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in eight of those seasons.
- Over the last nine years, the Mountain Hawks are second in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (eight).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (90) and number of double-figure win seasons (six).
- Over the last six years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 63.
- Lehigh is one of just two teams to post 10+ Patriot League regular season victories in each of the last four years.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his sixth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.0 points per game this season (before games Dec. 28), averaging 20+ points per game each of the previous three years as one of the NBA's most elite scorers.
- Among many highlights, McCollum scored 40 points against Milwaukee on Nov. 6, the most points ever scored by the Trail Blazers against the Bucks.
- McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31, 2018 when he scored a career-high 50 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter with 28 in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range. It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn't play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State's Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.
- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, three Mountain Hawks were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll - Pat Andree (3.60, Psychology), Shane Acoveno (3.50, Computer Science (EN)) and Jordan Cohen (3.53, Finance).
- Both Andree and Cohen were also named to the five-member Academic All-Patriot League team, marking the first time in school history Lehigh had two student-athletes on the team.
- Last fall (2017), four Mountain Hawks posted over a 3.4 GPA: Jordan Cohen 3.74 (Business), Pat Andree 3.59 (Arts and Sciences), Lance Tejada 3.40 (Sociology) and Jack Lieb 3.32 (Business).

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- The Mountain Hawks own three double-doubles this season, two from freshman Nic Lynch (at Miami on Nov. 9, vs. Princeton on Nov. 16) and one from junior Pat Andree (vs. Marist on Nov. 13).
- Lehigh posted seven double-double last season, four from James Karnik - at Pitt (Nov. 26), at Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 21), vs. American (Jan. 14) and vs. Bucknell (Feb. 5) - and three from Andree - at Lafayette (Dec. 29), at Colgate (Feb. 14) and at Loyola (Feb. 21).
- The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double-doubles the year prior (2016-17), 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Andree.

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh is consistently near the top of the Patriot League in scoring, leading the way in 2009-10 (75.1 PPG), 2010-11 (73.6), 2011-12 (75.7) and 2012-13 (73.1). In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks finished second (76.0 points per game) before finishing second again last season (77.9). Every other year in between, Lehigh has finished in the top half of the league in scoring.

Last season, Lehigh scored 80+ points in six straight games (Feb. 3 to Feb. 21). Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to 2016-17, it hadn't happened since the 1999-00 campaign. The Mountain Hawks also scored 90 in a 92-89 overtime win over Bucknell (Feb. 5). They eclipsed 80 points in 21 other games.

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 77.7 points per game, first in the Patriot League. Lehigh has eclipsed 80 points at Monmouth (Nov. 6), at Siena (Nov. 21), vs. Arkansas State (Dec. 1), at Yale (Dec. 5), at Mount St. Mary's (Dec. 8) and vs. Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 22).

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation's best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. Last season (2017-18), the Mountain Hawks shot 77.7 percent (373-of-480), first in the Patriot League and 12th in the nation. So far this year, Lehigh is shooting 75.1 percent (139-of-185), 35th in the nation.

LEHIGH ON NATIONAL, REGIONAL TV

Lehigh men's basketball will appear on national and local TV several times this season. More than 20 games can be seen in HD for free on the new Patriot League Network, at least two on CBS Sports Network, ESPN3, ACC Network Extra and more. In addition, all home Patriot League games not picked up by CBS air locally in the Lehigh Valley on Service Electric 2 Sports.

HOME SWEET STABLER

The Mountain Hawks have won eight of their last nine, 51 of their last 76, 73 of their last 102 and 86 of their last 120 in the friendly confines of Stabler Arena. They had an 11-game home win streak snapped vs. Bryant on Dec. 29, 2012 and an eight-game winning streak snapped on Jan. 5, 2014 against Boston University. Lehigh also had an eight-game home winning streak snapped during the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game.

Here's a look at Lehigh's home success since the start of the 2002-03 season:

Overall Record: 168-62 (.730)

Non-League Record: 79-21 (.790)

Patriot League Record (Regular and Postseason): 89-41 (.685)

Longest Winning Streak: 16 games (11/25/03 - 12/6/04)

UP NEXT...

After Sunday's game, Lehigh will return to action on Wednesday, Jan. 2 when it hosts archrival Lafayette in the Patriot League opener. Opening tipoff is set for 7 p.m.

Head Coach

BRETT REED

Head Coach

12th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2018-19 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 12th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 11 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won more than 70 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2018-19 with 198 career victories and is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed owns a 57.6 career Division I winning percentage, good for sixth in Patriot League history and second among active coaches. Reed's 198 overall wins, and 102 Patriot League victories, are both fourth in league history.

Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national post-season appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last nine years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Reed's teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record over the last three Februaries (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In his tenure, the Mountain Hawks are 54-30 in the month of February.

During Reed's time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum '13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Tim Kempton '17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 11 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Kempton led the league in points (20.4) and rebounds (10.4) and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh went on to finish the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program's first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archrival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Pat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. Lehigh posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight, Austin Price and Tejada join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Andree and Jordan Cohen were named Academic All-League in 2017-18. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

"Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. In just a few years, he has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He's building a program that can withstand one of sport's ultimate challenges - the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment."

- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

"I've known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He's an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter."

- Fran McCaffery, former Lehigh and current University of Iowa Head Coach

"I am very proud of the success Brett has enjoyed as the head men's basketball coach at Lehigh University. Brett is extremely intelligent, hard-working and passionate about the game of basketball and is a terrific role model for the young men in his program. I am excited for what Brett has been able to accomplish in his short time as the head coach at Lehigh and am confident that he will continue to be successful for many years to come."

- Billy Taylor, former Lehigh and Head Coach and current University of Iowa Director of Operations

"Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience."

- Joe Sterrett, Lehigh Murray H. Goodman Dean of Athletics

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
ANTONI WYCHE

Antoni Wyche enters his 10th season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2018-19, and eighth as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks' program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 169-117 in his nine seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Lehigh has played its best basketball when it matters most, posting a 22-2 record over the last three Februaries (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In Wyche's time, the Mountain Hawks are 49-20 in the month of February.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum has finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Wyche has worked with several other top players, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with recently-graduated Kahron Ross, the first four-time All-Patriot League honoree in school history. Ross also became Lehigh's fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now one of several Lehigh graduates playing professionally overseas.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche's first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvol in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvol in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Adirondack Wildcats of USBL in 2003.

Antoni and his wife Jill reside in Bethlehem with their daughters Keilah and Jaya.

ASSISTANT COACH
HARRY MORRA

Harry Morra enters his fourth season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2018-19 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program's historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He was also Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season, seven coming in February, to tie for third place in the league standings. In Morra's tenure as Lehigh assistant coach, the Mountain Hawks are 22-2 in the month of February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In one stretch, Lehigh shot 50+ percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Under Morra's watch, Kempton was named the league's Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross finished his career as the program's first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree. He also graduated as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). As a team, Lehigh has earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals eight times in the last nine years.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra's time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh's video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their four-year old son Marcus.

ASSISTANT COACH
NOEL HIGHTOWER

Noel Hightower begins his third season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2018-19, and second as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower helped coach a young team in 2017-18, which graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league, earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Among Lehigh's victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament.

Kahron Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists (660). He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program's first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archrival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Pat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally. Lehigh posted a 7-0 record in February to improve to 22-2 over the last three Februaries.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director's Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffins' defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (577), second in offensive rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (352), seventh in rebounds per game (5.4), second in blocks (114) and fifth in steals (128). Hightower shot 53.4 percent from the field as a senior (63-of-118). He was also a standout track and field athlete, highlighted by winning a CACC Individual Championship in 2015 in the 110-meter hurdles.

Hightower has shown tremendous leadership, serving as a three-year captain. He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College's Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh's summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament's operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
& ENRICHMENT
BILLY DUNN

Billy Dunn begins his second season on the Lehigh men's basketball staff and first as Director of Operations and Enrichment.

In his first season at Lehigh, Dunn served as a resource for the Mountain Hawks' players and coaches, speaking into concepts of character and leadership while running a pregame chapel for those interested. Lehigh posted an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season, tying for third place in the league standings and earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Dunn received the team's Sixth Man of the Year Award at its annual end-of-year banquet.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. Dunn was head girls basketball coach at Emmaus High School for three years and co-founder of Push The Rock in Emmaus, Pa. leading basketball camps and coaching internationally. The organization's vision is to be a global leader in sports ministry.

Dunn earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Bible and Secondary Education from Cairn University, before going on to earn his Master of Science in Organizational Leadership, also from Cairn. He went on to serve as chaplain in professional sports for over eight years, including in the Philadelphia Phillies' organization. Dunn is currently spiritual formation pastor at Faith Church in Allentown. He has also served as professor at Cairn University in Leadership Studies, has been executive director at Habitat for Humanity and has worked with Leadership Development at Push The Rock.

VIDEO COORDINATOR
GREG TARCA

Greg Tarca enters his first season as video coordinator in 2018-19. Tarca came to Lehigh after graduating from Quinnipiac this past May as a four-year member of the men's basketball program.

Tarca played in 18 career games for Quinnipiac, earning a full scholarship in December of his senior year after spending four years as a walk-on. Tarca started his Senior Day game vs. Saint Peter's and scored a layup in the game's final minute. His impact went far beyond the court, which included serving as legislative chair of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Tarca led a group of student-athletes in weekly meetings, spoke on behalf of the organization and more.

Despite being fresh out of college, Tarca does have experience as a supervisor/coach at the Grundy Hoops Academy, facilitating basketball clinics for students ages eight to 16 and teaching fundamental basketball skills. Tarca has also interned at The Hoop Group, assisting in the recruitment of future campers nation-wide, building relationships with high school, college and AAU coaches, and assisting with logistics, planning and day-to-day operations of camps.

GAME 1 - NOV. 6, 2018 OCEANFIRST BANK CENTER LEHIGH 85, MONMOUTH 61

WEST LONG BRANCH, N.J. – The Lehigh men's basketball team opened a six-point halftime lead then used a 15-3 run early in the second to create separation, taking as much as a 30-point advantage on the way to an 85-61 win at Monmouth on Tuesday evening in the season opener for both teams. The 24-point win marked Lehigh's largest margin of victory in an opener since the 1985-86 season. Junior Pat Andree led the charge with a career-high 31 points in a homecoming game while senior Kyle Leufroy became the 36th player in school history to reach 1,000 career points. In the end, 10 Mountain Hawks scored on Tuesday with four reaching double figures.

Defensively, Lehigh held Monmouth to just 19-of-56 shooting (33.9 percent), including just 4-of-21 from three-point range (19.0 percent).

Andree's 31 points came on 9-of-15 shooting, including 6-of-10 from three-point range. Classmate Jordan Cohen had 15 points on 5-of-9 shooting while Leufroy had 11 points and nine rebounds. Freshman Nic Lynch added 10 points, eight coming in the second half.

Andree was red-hot in the first half, scoring 17 points. He helped fuel a 13-0 Mountain Hawks' run to build a lead they wouldn't relinquish. With Monmouth leading 7-3, Cohen connected on a jumper then Andree scored the game's next 11 points. His third trey of the early going gave Lehigh a 16-7 lead with 13:35 left in the first half.

Later in the half, a Cohen jumper gave Lehigh its first double-digit lead at 23-13. A few minutes later, a jumper from Lynch gave him his first-career points and gave the Mountain Hawks their largest first-half advantage of 11, 27-16, with 6:22 on the first-half clock.

Leading 36-30 at the half, Lehigh's lead hovered between five and nine over the first two minutes of the second half. That's when the Mountain Hawks took over, going on a 15-3 run to turn a 42-35 lead into a 57-38 advantage. Lynch helped spark the run, scoring eight early second-half points, including a dunk off a nifty feed from Leufroy, giving the Mountain Hawks a 51-38 lead just over four minutes into the stanza.

The lead kept expanding as the half progressed. The final seven minutes saw Leufroy knock down a corner three to reach 1,000 in his career, while sophomore James Karnik finished an alley-oop from Cohen, and Andree scored his 31st point to reach a new career high. Junior David Roelke and freshman Joe Foley also scored their first-career points in the final minute, joining Lynch and Jeameril Wilson as Mountain Hawks to do so on Tuesday.

For the game, Lehigh shot 49.2 percent from the field (29-of-59), including 40.7 percent from three-point range (11-of-27). The Mountain Hawks dominated the boards, 47-28.

GAME 2 - NOV. 9, 2018 WATSCO CENTER MIAMI 83, LEHIGH 62

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – The Lehigh men's basketball team trimmed an 18-point lead down to six with 12:10 left in the second half, but Miami immediately responded, pulling away down the stretch to beat the Mountain Hawks, 83-62 on Friday evening at Watsco Center. In a homecoming game, senior Lance Tejada scored a team-high 19 points, 16 coming in the second half. Freshman Nic Lynch posted his first-career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine boards.

Junior Pat Andree also recorded double figures for the Mountain Hawks with 10. Lehigh struggled to get going in the first half, but shot 45 percent from the field in the second half and 72 percent from the free throw line after marks of just 23 percent and 50 percent in the first.

Leufroy scored Lehigh's first five points, as his three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 6-5 with 18:09 on the clock. Miami answered with a 10-0 run as an Ebuka Izundu jumper gave the Hurricanes a 16-5 advantage with 16:09 remaining in the first.

Tejada and Andree knocked down treys in the span of 48 seconds to pull Lehigh within 19-11, but the Hurricanes again extended their lead to double figures. A Marques Wilson trey pulled Lehigh within 25-16, but a 9-0 Miami surge gave it an 18-point, 34-16 advantage, with 7:19 on the first-half clock. Trailing 37-19 with 5:14 remaining in the first, the Mountain Hawks' defense bore down, allowing just one point the rest of the stanza. Lehigh scored seven itself, behind a Leufroy three-pointer and four free throws, to pull within 38-26 following 20 minutes of play.

The Hurricanes opened the second half on a 10-3 run as a DJ Vasiljevic three-pointer gave Miami a 48-29 lead with 17:21 on the clock. A few minutes later, trailing 51-35, the Mountain Hawks staged a quick 7-0 run behind an Andree three, Tejada layup and two Tejada free throws, to pull back within single digits at 51-42.

After a Miami jumper, Tejada went on a personal 5-0 run, as his three-pointer pulled Lehigh as close as it had been since early in the first half, trailing by just six (53-47) with 12:24 remaining. That extended Lehigh's overall run to 12-2.

Miami's Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending to seven straight Hurricane points after an Anthony Lawrence layup. A Caleb Bennett layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 61-51 with just over nine minutes remaining, but that's as close as they would come as Miami pulled away down the stretch for the 83-62 win.

GAME 3 - NOV. 13, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 78, MARIST 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team trailed 62-53 with less than eight minutes remaining against a hot-shooting Marist team, but the Mountain Hawks answered in a big way, scoring 25 of the final 35 points to win their home opener, 78-72 on Tuesday evening in Stabler Arena. The Red Foxes knocked down 15 of their first 24 three-pointers, but the Mountain Hawks hung within striking distance while shooting 62 percent from the field themselves in the second half. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the charge with a career-high tying 23 points, 20 coming in the second half. The win was the 200th of head coach Brett Reed's career, becoming the fourth coach in Patriot League history to reach that milestone.

Leufroy finished 8-of-13 from the field, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Before the game, Leufroy was recognized for scoring his 1,000th career point in the season opener at Monmouth. By the end of Tuesday's game, his 23 points moved him from a tie for 35th all the way to 33rd on the Lehigh career scoring list (currently 1,036 points). Senior Lance Tejada had 16 points while junior Pat Andree tallied his fifth-career double-double with 16 points and 10 boards. Classmate Jordan Cohen added 11 points and seven rebounds while sophomore Caleb Bennett had seven points and four rebounds.

Marist jumped out to an early first-half lead, going up by seven on multiple occasions. After a Bennett free throw pulled the Mountain Hawks within 24-18 with 6:22 on the clock, the Red Foxes used consecutive threes to open a 30-18 advantage with 3:59 remaining.

Lehigh ended the half on a 10-3 run, behind three-pointers from Leufroy and Tejada and four points from Cohen, including an offensive rebound and putback as time expired, to pull the Mountain Hawks within 33-28 at the half.

Lehigh came out of halftime on an 8-2 run, as a Tejada trey gave the Mountain Hawks their first lead at 36-35 with 18:21 on the clock. The teams traded leads over the ensuing minutes, which included a four-point play from

After five straight Lehigh points gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-51 lead, the Red Foxes immediately used a 10-0 run, capped off by a Brian Parker trey, to give Marist a 62-53 lead with 8:56 remaining.

From there, the Mountain Hawks scored 16 of the next 22 points to take a 69-68 lead following an Andree layup with 4:38 on the clock. The lead went back-and-forth over the ensuing minutes, but a Cohen layup with 3:27 to go gave Lehigh a 73-72 advantage, a lead the Mountain Hawks wouldn't relinquish. Lehigh followed with a Leufroy jumper and three Leufroy free throws, while holding Marist scoreless for the final 4:00 to end the game on a 9-0 run.

GAME 4 - NOV. 16, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 72, PRINCETON 57

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team ended the first half on a 6-0 run, extending the run to 31-7 in the second half, going up 53-33 on the way to a 72-57 win over visiting Princeton on Friday night at Stabler Arena as part of Knoebels Night at Lehigh Basketball. The win marked Lehigh's third against the Tigers in as many seasons after winning just four times in the first 34 all-time meetings. The Mountain Hawks' defense stood tall, holding Princeton to just 28.3 percent shooting, Lehigh's best mark since Dec. 31, 2008 when it held NJIT to just 22.0 percent from the field.

With the win, Lehigh improves to 3-1 for a second straight season, marking the first time it has happened in consecutive years since 1924-25 and 1925-26. Freshman Nic Lynch led the offense with 16 points and 10 rebounds for his second double-double in his first four collegiate games.

Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points, including 3-of-6 shooting from three-point range. Two Mountain Hawks just missed double-doubles as junior Pat Andree had 12 points and eight rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and nine boards. Leufroy has now tallied nine rebounds in three of his first four games this season, again helping Lehigh to a dominant edge on the glass (49-37 on Friday). Junior Jordan Cohen added 12 points as five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures.

A low-scoring start saw Princeton jump out to early leads of 5-2 and 7-4 before the Mountain Hawks used an 8-0 surge to take a 12-7 lead. The run included two points each from Leufroy, Andree, Lynch and sophomore Caleb Bennett, as Bennett's driving layup gave Lehigh a 12-7 advantage with 11:42 left in the first half.

The Tigers pulled within three, but the Lehigh lead swelled back to eight as a Marques Wilson trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage with 8:32 on the clock.

Princeton chipped away, using a 5-0 run to pull within 21-19, then later used a 7-0 surge to go up 26-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Mountain Hawks answered with six straight points to end the half, behind a Tejada three and Lynch three-point play, giving Lehigh a 28-26 halftime advantage.

Lehigh came out of the locker room with a vengeance, scoring the first seven points to take a 35-26 lead and force a quick Princeton timeout. Eventually, the run reached 16-3 to begin the second half (22-3 dating back to the first half) as a Tejada three forced a second Tigers' timeout, then Andree's second trey in the first 3:59 of the stanza gave Lehigh a 44-29 lead with 16:01 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks' lead kept growing as the run eventually reached 31-7 since the end of the first half as a Lynch offensive layup and putback gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-33 advantage with 9:29 left in the second half.

Princeton made a late surge to within nine with 2:46 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks built their lead back to 15, which proved to be the final margin.

GAME 5 - NOV. 21, 2018 TIMES UNION CENTER LEHIGH 80, SIENA 69

ALBANY, N.Y. – The Lehigh men's basketball knocked shot 58.0 percent from the field, including 63.2 percent from three-point range, while also clamping down defensively when it mattered most as the Mountain Hawks picked up an 80-69 win over Siena at the Times Union Center Wednesday evening. Senior Kyle Leufroy scored a career-high 25 points to pace the offense while junior Jordan Cohen had 15, sophomore Marques Wilson scored 12 and freshman Jeameril Wilson recorded a career-high 10. Siena jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but the Mountain Hawks turned the tides due in large part to limiting its turnovers. After eight first-half turnovers, Lehigh had just four in the second.

The Mountain Hawks improved to 4-1 with the win, marking their best start in 10 years, since beginning the 2008-09 season 5-1.

One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division I opponent in 10 years, Lehigh's offense took center stage. The team's 58.0 shooting percentage on Wednesday (29-of-50) is its best mark since shooting 59.2 percent on Feb. 4, 2017 at American. The Mountain Hawks' 63.2 percent from three (12-of-19) is tied for the second best percentage in the NCAA this season and is Lehigh's best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinnipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It's also the Mountain Hawks' best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook.

Leufroy's 25 points came on 8-of-11 shooting, including 4-of-5 from three-point range. No one else had more than eight shot attempts. Along with the four Mountain Hawks in double figures, junior Pat Andree scored eight points, all in the second half, while sophomore James Karnik had six points and eight boards.

Siena used an early 7-0 surge to take a 12-5 lead, later leading 16-10 with 13:48 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks immediately had an answer, posting a 10-0 run, with the first five points from Leufroy and the last five from Marques Wilson, to give Lehigh a 20-16 advantage with 11:07 left in the first.

Later in the half, the Saints used a 9-0 run to turn a 22-18 Lehigh lead into a 27-22 Saints' advantage. With Lehigh trailing 32-31 with 2:57 remaining, the Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the final 16 points of the half, which included a pair of Jeameril Wilson threes, to help give Lehigh a 42-37 after 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks would never trail in the second, but it wasn't for a lack of resistance. Siena pulled within three (or less) on six different occasions, but Lehigh always responded.

After the Saints got within 55-53 with 12:13 on the clock, an Andree three sparked a 6-0 run and a 61-53 lead. A few minutes later, Andree hit another try to give the Mountain Hawks a seven-point, 64-57 advantage with 7:28 remaining.

Siena later pulled within three at 64-61, but a 10-0 Lehigh run erased any doubt. The run wrapped up with a Karnik dunk and four straight points from Cohen, on the way to the 80-69 final.

GAME 6 - NOV. 24, 2018 BRAMLAGE COLISEUM NO. 12 KANSAS STATE 77, LEHIGH 58

MANHATTAN, Kan. – The Lehigh men's basketball team found itself leading 31-26 late in the first half, but No. 12 Kansas State opened a 37-35 halftime advantage and pulled away in the second to beat the Mountain Hawks, 77-58 on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh continued to hang around for much of the second half, finding itself within 57-48 with 7:56 remaining and 64-52 with 4:30 on the clock, but the Wildcats scored 13 of the game's final 19 points to improve to 6-0 on the season. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 4-2 with both defeats coming against power-conference opponents.

Sophomore James Karnik led the offense with 15 points on 6-of-7 shooting, to go with eight rebounds and two assists. Junior Pat Andree had 12 points, including 4-of-7 from three-point range, while classmate Jordan Cohen posted 11 points and a career-high eight assists, along with three steals. Fourteen of the Mountain Hawks' 22 field goals were assisted.

After shooting 54.2 percent from the field in the first half (13-of-24), including 40 percent from three (4-of-10), the Mountain Hawks shot just 28.1 percent in the second (9-of-32) and 18.2 percent from distance (2-of-11).

Lehigh jumped out to early leads of 3-0, 5-3 then 7-5, with each of the Mountain Hawks' first seven points scored by Karnik. Kansas State used a 6-0 surge to take an 11-7 advantage, but the Mountain Hawks responded with 10 of the next 12 points, including three-pointers from Marques Wilson and Caleb Bennett, who were playing in front of many friends and family in homecoming games. Two Cohen free throws and a Jeameril Wilson layup gave Lehigh a 17-13 lead with 11:41 left in the first.

Not long after, the Wildcats used a 5-0 surge to take a 21-19 advantage, later taking a 24-21 lead. That's when Andree got hot from distance, knocking down two in the span of 24 seconds, followed by a Cohen jumper to cap off a 10-2 run which gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 31-26 with 5:37 remaining in the first.

Kansas State scored 10 of the next 12 points, but two Cohen free throws in the final minute helped Lehigh pull within 37-35 at the half.

The Mountain Hawks struggled offensively early in the second, not scoring for the first 4:01. On the other end, Kansas State scored six straight to open a 43-35 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:48 on the clock.

Behind a Leufroy layup and Cohen three-point play, the Mountain Hawks pulled back within 45-40 with 15:24 remaining.

Kansas State extended its lead back to 12 at 57-45 just over the midway point of the half, but a Karnik three-point play with 7:56 on the clock pulled Lehigh back within nine, 57-48, with 7:56 to go in the stanza.

However, from that point, the Mountain Hawks were outscored 20-10. Lehigh was still within 64-52 with 4:30 remaining, but the Wildcats used a 13-3 run to take a 77-55 lead, on the way to the 77-58 final.

GAME 7 - DEC. 1, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 82, ARKANSAS STATE 70

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Trailing 22-9 in the first half, the Lehigh men's basketball team immediately answered with a 16-0 run, outscoring Arkansas State 32-8 over the final 11:14 of the first half to beat the Red Wolves, 82-70 on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 20 points, 16 coming in the first half, while junior Pat Andree scored 14 and senior Lance Tejada had 12 and a career-high tying seven assists. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 5-2 on the season, their best record after seven games since the 2012-13 campaign.

Leufroy reached 20 points for the third time through seven games this season, and ninth time in his career. He finished the game shooting 7-of-9 from the field, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range. Andree's 14 points came on 6-of-11 shooting while Tejada shot 5-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-4 from long distance. Junior Jordan Cohen had eight points, six rebounds and five assists while freshman Jeameril Wilson scored eight points, all in the second half.

Ty Cockfield led Arkansas State with 30 points on 9-of-21 shooting. He was the only Red Wolves' player to reach double-figure points.

Five straight points in the early going, behind layups from Leufroy and sophomore James Karnik, gave Lehigh a 9-8 lead just over five minutes into the contest. Arkansas State responded with a 14-0 run as a Kobe Wilson three-pointer gave the Red Wolves a 22-9 advantage with 11:14 remaining in the first half.

Lehigh had an answer, posting 16-0 run, beginning with a three-point-er and layup from Andree, and ending with a Karnik dunk off a tremendous pass from sophomore Caleb Bennett. A Tejada jumper wrapped up the run and gave the Mountain Hawks a 25-22 lead with 5:19 on the clock.

Lehigh continued to build its lead and when all was said and down, the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 32-8 run over the final 11:14. Leufroy ended the half with 16 points, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range, all coming in the final 4:40 of the half, to take a 41-30 halftime advantage.

Arkansas State scored 11 of the first 16 second-half points, pulling within five, 46-41, with 17:03 on the clock.

Not long after, Lehigh responded with an 8-0 run as a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 56-43 advantage with 12:41 to go. Arkansas State had another run in it, getting back to within 59-54 with 9:50 remaining, but that's as close as it would come. The Mountain Hawks later used an 8-1 run to erase any doubt, turning a 68-60 lead into a 76-61 advantage following eight straight points from Jeameril Wilson in the span of 1:04 – behind a three-point play, three and two free throws.

GAME 8 - DEC. 5, 2018 JOHN J. LEE AMPHITHEATER YALE 97, LEHIGH 87

NEW HAVEN, Conn. – The Lehigh men's basketball team knocked down 15 three-pointers, scored 51 first-half points and 87 for the game, but it wasn't enough as Yale outscored the Mountain Hawks 46-36 in the second half to win, 97-87 on Wednesday evening. Junior Jordan Cohen tied a career-high 21 points to pace the offense while senior Kyle Leufroy had a career-high 10 assists, but 40 of Yale's 46 second-half points came from inside the arc or the free throw line, while holding 25-12 edge in second-half rebounds, which proved too much for the Mountain Hawks to overcome. The loss drops Lehigh's record to 5-3 on the season, marking its first loss of the season not against a power-conference opponent.

Lehigh led by as much as eight on multiple first-half occasions, but Yale pulled even at the half. The Mountain Hawks led for the beginning stages of the second, but Lehigh went 5:45 without a field goal in the middle stages of the stanza, allowing the Bulldogs to take a lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Cohen's 21 points came on 7-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three. Senior Lance Tejada had 19 points, including 5-of-9 from distance, while classmate Pat Andree scored 16 points. Leufroy had nine points and five rebounds, to go with his career-high 10 assists.

It took just 1:10 into the game for each team to each knock down a pair of three-pointers. The Mountain Hawks created a little separation just under seven minutes in when freshman Jeameril Wilson finished a dunk off a great lead pass from Leufroy, then Cohen recorded a three-point play off a tremendous pass from Tejada. That gave Lehigh a 25-19 lead with 12:48 left in the first half.

A Marques Wilson corner trey gave Lehigh an eight-point, 30-22 advantage midway through the first, Yale got back within 32-28, but a Caleb Bennett free throw and Cohen three helped Lehigh regain an eight-point, 36-28 lead with 6:52 on the clock.

With the Mountain Hawks still leading by six with 4:11 left in the first, the Bulldogs scored eight of the next 10 points to even the score at 45, the fourth of six first-half ties. The sixth came following a Miye Oni basket in the final seconds to tie the score at 51 at halftime.

Lehigh knocked down three more treys in the first 2:33 of the second half to go back up five, 60-55.

However, from there, the Mountain Hawks scored just four points over the next 7:57, with Yale scoring 17 in that span to take a 72-64 advantage just over the midway point of the second half.

The Mountain Hawks answered by immediately going on a 7-1 run, capped off by a Leufroy layup to pull within 73-71. That's as close as Lehigh would get, though, as Yale's lead reached double figures for the first time (86-75) with 3:30 remaining, on the way to the 97-87 final.

GAME 9 - DEC. 8, 2018 KNOTT ARENA LEHIGH 85, MOUNT ST. MARY'S 78

EMMITSBURG, Md. – In a game of runs, the Lehigh men's basketball team opened a 26-point second-half lead before Mount St. Mary's responded, pulling as close as five with 2:41 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks knocked down 12-of-13 free throws from that point forward to wrap up the 85-78 road victory on Saturday. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 21 points, including a perfect 12-of-12 from the charity stripe, while also taking a big charge in the final minute to help the Mountain Hawks wrap up the victory. Sophomore James Karnik added 15 points and nine rebounds. With the win, Lehigh improves to 6-3 on the season heading into a two-week break for final exams.

Along with Leufroy and Karnik, junior Pat Andree added 13 points and nine boards while senior Lance Tejada had 11 points on 3-of-5 from the field. Making his first start of the season, sophomore Marques Wilson recorded seven points and seven rebounds.

Trailing 5-4 in the early going, the Mountain Hawks responded with a 19-4 run, beginning with a three-pointer from Andree and three more treys – from Andree, junior Jordan Cohen and Tejada – as a Caleb Bennett layup gave Lehigh a 23-9 advantage just over midway through the first half.

The Mountaineers pulled within 30-20 with 6:37 remaining in the first, but Lehigh ended the first half on a 6-0 run, capped off by a Karnik jumper, to take a 42-24 halftime advantage.

Lehigh scored 13 of the first 18 second-half points, beginning with four straight points from Karnik and later including five in a row from Marques Wilson. A Leufroy jumper gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 55-29 with 15:32 on the clock.

Increasing its full-court pressure, Mount St. Mary's slowly began to chip away, staging a 17-5 run to pull within 62-48 with 8:27 on the clock. Four straight Karnik points, beginning with a three-point play, helped Lehigh reopen a 66-48 advantage.

The Mountaineers responded with a 20-5 run as a Nana Opoku three-pointer pulled them within 73-68 with 2:41 remaining.

After Mount St. Mary's pulled within five, Lehigh buckled down and got enough defensive stops down the stretch, while hitting 12-of-13 free throws – including 8-of-8 by Leufroy – to wrap up the 85-78 victory. One of the biggest plays was a charge taken by Leufroy with 19 seconds remaining and the Mountain Hawks leading by seven.

GAME 10 - DEC. 22, 2018 STABLER ARENA LEHIGH 88, SAINT FRANCIS (PA.) 76

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men's basketball team staged a 26-8 run bridging the end of the first and beginning of the second halves to turn a 45-37 deficit into a 63-53 lead, on the way to an 88-76 win over visiting Saint Francis (Pa.) on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Lehigh's starting backcourt of senior Lance Tejada (22 points), senior Kyle Leufroy (20) and junior Jordan Cohen (19) combined for 61 of the Mountain Hawks' season-high 88 points, as Lehigh improved to 7-3 on the season.

In a battle of preseason conference favorites, Lehigh knocked down 13-of-23 three-pointers to improve its season percentage to 45.0 percent after entering the day at No. 5 in the nation. Defensively, the Mountain Hawks bounced back from a tough start to hold Saint Francis to just 26.5 percent shooting in the second half (9-of-34). The win marked the 205th of head coach Brett Reed's career to tie for third in Patriot League history.

Tejada's season-high 22 points came on 8-of-14 shooting, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Leufroy reached 20 points for the fifth time in 10 games this season, in the process, moving into 25th place in school history for career points (currently 1,143). Leufroy was 8-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-2 from three-point range. Leufroy added six assists while Cohen had 19 points, five assists and four rebounds, shooting 3-of-5 from long distance. Junior Pat Andree added 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, and finished 5-of-6 from the field.

After the Red Flash opened a 6-2 lead, the Mountain Hawks responded with seven straight points, behind a Cohen three-pointer, Andree layup and Leufroy jumper, to take a 9-6 advantage with 16:22 left in the first half.

Lehigh extended its lead to 14-10 following the first of three first-half treys from Tejada, but Saint Francis responded with nine of the next 11 points to take a 19-16 lead just before the midway point of the half.

The Red Flash continued to lead for the rest of the stanza, opening a seven-point, 32-25 lead with 7:01 on the clock. The margin reached eight with 29 seconds remaining, but Cohen knocked down a pair of free throws with four seconds left to pull within 45-39 at the half.

Lehigh came out of the locker room on fire, staging a 24-8 run (26-8 dating back to the first half). The Mountain Hawks retook the lead behind a Leufroy three-point play then another three-point play less than 30 seconds later gave Lehigh a five-point, 56-51 advantage with 15:54 remaining.

The run continued as five straight Andree points gave the Mountain Hawks their first double-digit lead at 63-53. The teams went back and forth from there, with Lehigh's lead getting trimmed to six (63-57) then reaching 12 (69-57), before being trimmed back down to six (71-65). But that's as close as Saint Francis would come. Leading 73-67, the Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the next 15 points, beginning with corner threes from Leufroy and Andree, and capped off by a Tejada three-pointer with less than two minutes to go, giving Lehigh an 84-71 advantage on the way to the 88-76 final.
