GAME 26: ARMY WEST POINT AT LEHIGH

ARMY WEST POINT BLACK KNIGHTS (12-15, 7-7 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
at LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (17-8, 10-4 PATRIOT LEAGUE)

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2019 • 7 P.M.
STABLER ARENA (5,600) • BETHLEHEM, PA.

SETTING THE SCENE

Coming off its first-ever regular-season sweep of Boston University, the Lehigh men’s basketball team returns to Stabler Arena for its final two home contests of the regular season, beginning on Wednesday night against Army West Point. Wednesday’s game is part of Recyclemania and is presented by JFR Salvage. Opening tipoff is set for 7 p.m. The Mountain Hawks are currently in second place in the league, standing one game ahead of Colgate in third and a game ahead of Bucknell in first, entering Tuesday night’s Bucknell at Colgate contest.

Lehigh is coming off its first-ever regular-season win at Boston University’s Case Gymnasium, defeating the Terriers 84-79 on Saturday. In doing so, the Mountain Hawks continued their streak of not losing back-to-back games all season; Lehigh is now 8-0 after defeats. Lehigh jumped out to as much as a 15-point first-half lead, taking a 45-32 edge at the break following a Jordan Cohen trey as the clock expired. The lead reached as much as 19 in the second, but the Terriers used a late charge to make it a game in the final minute. Andrew Petcash took a three with eight seconds remaining, but sophomore James Karnik grabbed the rebound, was fouled and hit both free throws to seal the victory.

Lehigh again used a balanced attack, as four Mountain Hawks scored between 13 and 18 points, led by 18 from senior Kyle Leufroy. Leufroy moved from 19th to 17th place in school history for career scoring (now with 1,333 career points), passing Bill Griffin (1,316) and Mackey McKnight (1,327). Senior Lance Tejada had 17, Karnik scored 14 and Cohen recorded 13. Leufroy, Tejada and Cohen were all 3-of-6 from three, as the Mountain Hawks finished 10-of-22 for the game (with the 45.5 percentage better than their season average). Junior Pat Andree also made a big impact with nine points and a career-high 16 rebounds, the most rebounds by a Mountain Hawk since Tim Kempton had 16 on March 8, 2017 at Bucknell. Freshman Jeameril Wilson had six points, four rebounds and two assists while classmate Joe Foley made a significant impact in a career-high 15 minutes, posting five points and a block while taking a big charge with less than three minutes remaining.

Defensively, the Mountain Hawks held the Terriers to just 59 points over the game’s first 36:23 before Boston University made its late charge. Lehigh’s defense played well in long stretches despite the Terriers shooting 46.2 percent from distance (12-of-26).

The win was Lehigh’s first regular-season victory at Case Gym in program history. The Mountain Hawks’ other win came in the 2017 Patriot League Semifinals. Lehigh improved to 3-2 in February and 25-4 in the month of February since 2016. The Mountain Hawks are now 5-2 at home and on the road in Patriot League play. Lehigh has reached double-figure league victories for a fifth straight season and seventh time in the last eight years.

The Mountain Hawks and Black Knights will play on Wednesday for the second time in 18 days. Lehigh won the first meeting 84-79 on February 1. Lehigh jumped out to as much as a 15-point first-half lead, taking a 45-32 edge at the break following a Jordan Cohen trey as the clock expired. The lead reached as much as 19 in the second, but the Terriers used a late charge to make it a game in the final minute. Andrew Petcash took a three with eight seconds remaining, but sophomore James Karnik grabbed the rebound, was fouled and hit both free throws to seal the victory.

Lehigh again used a balanced attack, as four Mountain Hawks scored between 13 and 18 points, led by 18 from senior Kyle Leufroy. Leufroy moved from 19th to 17th place in school history for career scoring (now with 1,333 career points), passing Bill Griffin (1,316) and Mackey McKnight (1,327). Senior Lance Tejada had 17, Karnik scored 14 and Cohen recorded 13. Leufroy, Tejada and Cohen were all 3-of-6 from three, as the Mountain Hawks finished 10-of-22 for the game (with the 45.5 percentage better than their season average). Junior Pat Andree also made a big impact with nine points and a career-high 16 rebounds, the most rebounds by a Mountain Hawk since Tim Kempton had 16 on March 8, 2017 at Bucknell. Freshman Jeameril Wilson had six points, four rebounds and two assists while classmate Joe Foley made a significant impact in a career-high 15 minutes, posting five points and a block while taking a big charge with less than three minutes remaining.

The win was Lehigh’s first regular-season victory at Case Gym in program history. The Mountain Hawks’ other win came in the 2017 Patriot League Semifinals. Lehigh improved to 3-2 in February and 25-4 in the month of February since 2016. The Mountain Hawks are now 5-2 at home and on the road in Patriot League play. Lehigh has reached double-figure league victories for a fifth straight season and seventh time in the last eight years.
Lehigh has won two straight and five of the last seven to pull within 64-44 of Army in the all-time series. The last time they played at Stabler Arena, the Mountain Hawks won 84-53 last February, marking their largest-ever margin of victory against the Black Knights. That win helped average the Mountain Hawks’ loss at Army less than a month earlier, which was Lehigh’s only loss vs. the Black Knights since 2016. The first-ever meeting between the two sides came in 1900-01, a 26-24 Lehigh victory. Army won the next matchup in 1914-15 by a 19-6 final.

LAST MEETING

WEST POINT, N.Y. (2/2/19) – Trail by as many as 19 in the first half and 18 more than six minutes into the second half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team responded by outscoring Army West Point, 38-15 over the game’s final 13:26 for a thrilling 70-69 win on Saturday afternoon at Christl Arena. The 19-point comeback marked the largest comeback in Brett Reed’s 12 seasons as head coach, besting the 18-point comeback earlier this season at Holy Cross. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the charge, posting 16 points and eight rebounds in the second half alone to finish with 22 and 10, good for his second-career double-double.

LAST TIME OUT

BOSTON (2/16/19) – The Lehigh men’s basketball team opened a 19-point second-half lead then held off a late Boston University charge to down the Terriers, 84-79 on Saturday afternoon at Case Gymnasium. The win improved the Mountain Hawks’ record to 17-8 on the year, 10-4 in Patriot League play as Lehigh wrapped up a regular-season sweep of Boston University for the first time in program history. The Mountain Hawks also improved to 8-0 after losses this year, having not lost back-to-back games all season. Once again, a balanced attack led the way as four Mountain Hawks scored between 13 and 18 points.

IF LEHIGH BEATS ARMY WEST POINT

- Lehigh would improve to 18-8 overall, marking its best record after 26 games since the 2012-13 season when it was also 18-8.
- The Mountain Hawks would wrap up their third regular-season sweep of the year (along with Navy and Boston University).
- Lehigh would clinch a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game and top-four seed for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- Lehigh would improve to 26-4 in February dating back to February of 2016.
- The Mountain Hawks would improve to 14-2 over their last 16 February games.
- Lehigh would win a regular season game for the 26th time in its last 34 tries dating back to last season.
- Lehigh would improve to 26-9 overall over its last 35 games dating back to last season.

FEBRUARY SUCCESS

- Lehigh finished last February 7-0, marking the second time in three years the Mountain Hawks posted a perfect February (going 9-0 in 2016). Prior to February of 2016, the previous undefeated month came in November of 1993 (and that only included one game).
- Over the last three seasons, Lehigh is 25-4 in the month of February, among the best marks in the country.

LAST GAME VS.ARMY NOTABLES

- In 1906-07, a 26-24 Lehigh victory. Army won the next matchup in 1914-15 by a 19-6 final.
- Senior Kyle Leufroy knocked down four three-pointers in the span of 2:59 to get back into the game, three coming from senior Kyle Leufroy. The Black Knights actually responded to Lehigh’s 13-0 run with a 6-0 run, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t back down. A three from junior Jordan Cohen with 1:28 remaining gave Lehigh the lead for good.
- Leufroy led the charge with 16 points and 10 rebounds in the second half alone, finishing with 22 points and 10 boards for his second-career double-double. Ironically, his other double-double came in Lehigh’s 18-point comeback at Holy Cross. Leufroy shot 5-of-9 from three while adding five assists and two steals.
- Meanwhile, Cohen continued his stellar play with 18 points on just nine field goal attempts, connecting on six of them, including 4-of-5 from distance. Over his last three games, Cohen has 83 points on 32-of-42 shooting (76.2 percent).
- Senior Lance Tejada was strong as well, scoring 12 points (nine in the first half to help keep the Mountain Hawks within striking distance). Sophomore James Karnik also scored 10 points, including some big baskets down the stretch to pull Lehigh even, then later gave his team the lead. Junior Ed Porter made a big impact as well, scoring a career-high seven points in just eight minutes, while adding a rebound and making a difference at both ends of the floor.
- Porter helped Lehigh’s defense allow just 29 points over the game’s final 24:21 after allowing 41 over the first 15:39. The Mountain Hawks held the Black Knights to just 33.3 percent shooting in the second half, while shooting 66.7 percent themselves (16-24).

STELLAR SHOOTING

Lehigh’s shooting has been impressive, especially over the past several years. This year, the Mountain Hawks are the only team top 20 in the nation in field goal percentage, three-point percentage and free throw percentage.

OTHERS

- The Mountain Hawks are shooting 44.0 percent from three on the season (242-of-550), good for first in the nation.
- Lehigh could challenge the Patriot League record of 41.8 percent held by Holy Cross in 1990-91.
- If the season ended today, Lehigh’s 44.0 percentage would be the best mark in NCAA Division I men’s basketball since UC Davis shot 44.7 percent in 2005.
- Lehigh has eclipsed 50 percent from three five times this season, including 60 percent or better on three occasions.
- On Jan. 26 vs. Boston University, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 27-of-34 from inside the arc (79.4 percent). Over a two-game stretch (also last Wednesday at Navy), Lehigh missed just 18 two-pointers, connecting on 47-of-65 (72.3 percent).
- On Jan. 2 vs. Lafayette, Lehigh shot 11-of-14 from three-point range, with the 78.9 percentage standing as the best single-game percentage by any team in the nation this season.
- The Mountain Hawks also hit 19-of-20 free throws, becoming the first Division I team to shoot 75 percent from three and 95 percent from the Charity stripe in the same game since Temple in 2010 vs. Rhode Island. They are one of just three Division I teams to accomplish the feat in the last 20 years.
- Senior Lance Tejada tied a school-record 10 made three-pointers (on 14 attempts) on Jan. 9 at Holy Cross, tying a record previously held by Joe Knight in 2005 and current teammate Pat Andree in 2016.

- The Mountain Hawks’ defense also excelled, allowing 57 points to tie a season best (also allowing 57 to Princeton in November). Lehigh held Navy to just 79 percent shooting, a season best and the best mark for the Mountain Hawks’ D since Jan. 8, 2013 vs. Muhlenberg (20.7 percent) and best against a Division I opponent since Dec. 31, 2008 against NJIT (22.0 percent).

COACH REED PUTTING UP THE W’S

Head coach Brett Reed reached 100-career Patriot League (regular season) wins last season, becoming just the fourth coach in league history to reach that plateau. Below is the list. Reed tied Jeff Jones of American coach for fastest to reach 100 PL wins in terms of number of seasons (11th season for both Reed and Jones). However, for both Flannery and Jones, it took fewer games to reach 100.

Here is where Reed stands among Patriot League laurels for total wins and Patriot League victories. Reed’s 200th win came earlier this season, during a 78-72 home-opening win over Marist (Nov. 13). He tied Jones for third place with a home win over Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 22) and took Jones with an 86-83 victory over Lafayette (Jan. 2) in Stabler Arena. With the thrilling...

TEJADA - PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; LEHIGH PICKED FIRST

For the third time in the last four years, Lehigh has finished atop the Patriot League preseason poll, as announced on Wednesday, Oct. 17. In addition, senior Lance Tejada was named to the preseason All-League team. Lehigh finished first in the poll with 145 points, five points ahead of Bucknell in second. Each of the last two times the Mountain Hawks were picked first, they advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game in both 2016 and 2017. Tejada is coming off an impressive first season in the Brown and White, leading the Mountain Hawks in scoring (14.7 points per game), which was good for ninth in the Patriot League. Tejada was one of the nation’s top three-point shooters, converting 45.3 percent from long distance (77-of-170) (10th in the country). He scored double-figure points in 20-of-28 games while eclipsing 20 points on seven occasions. Tejada had three games of 25+ points and six of 20+ points, both marks most by a Lehigh guard since C.J. McCollum in 2012-13.

REED ANNOUNCES INCOMING CLASS OF 2023

Head coach Brett Reed announced the Mountain Hawks’ incoming class of 2023 on Thursday, Nov. 22, which features three talented student-athletes from around the country. Lehigh is set to welcome Jakob Alamudun, Jake Betlow and Reed Fenton to campus as freshmen for the 2019-20 season.

Fenton comes in from Latrobe, Pa. and Greater Latrobe High School. As a junior, Fenton averaged 23 points and five assists while garnering first team All-Section from Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, along with Pittsburgh Tribune Westmoreland County Terrific 10 honors. As a sophomore Fenton averaged 16 points and four assists, earning second team All-Section. He was also a standout for the PK Flash AAU program. Strong in the classroom, Fenton is a Student Council member and member of the National Honor Society, standing in the top 10 percent of his class.

Alamudun averaged 21.4 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, making 87.4 percent of his free throws as a junior at Marina High School in California to earn a number of postseason honors. He finished fourth in Orange County in both scoring and rebounding. Among the accolades were All-CIF Southern Section Division 3A, first team All-Sunset League and third team All-Orange County, while also garnering first team Los Angeles Times Daily Pilot Boys Dream Team recognition. Named to the 2017-18 Prep Hoops SoCal Most Improved List, Alamudun had multiple 15+ rebound performances, including a 30-point, 25-rebound effort in the Jim Harris Memorial Tournament of Champions. He was one of Orange County’s most productive players, helping Marina to its first season above .500 since 2009-10. In the end, Alamudun was named first team All-Sunset League for three years, was a two-time All-CIF honoree, won the CIF Character Award and was All-Academic Sunset League every year. In addition, Alamudun won the Adidas Summer Championship (Silver Division) with his AAU team, the Cali Rebels.

Meanwhile, Betlow has been a standout throughout his high school career, most recently playing at St. Benedict’s in New Jersey and helping his team to an unprecedented 12th State Prep A championship title in 2017-18. St. Benedict’s was ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation during the season, while being named the No. 1 Independent/Prep Team in the state. Betlow finished the season earning All-Prep honors while this year - as a senior - he is a team captain and ranked among the top 10 seniors in New Jersey. In his freshman and sophomore years, he was part of two teams that combined for a 47-9 record. During that stretch, Betlow won the Somerset County Tournament and advanced to the South Jersey, Non-Public B final. Betlow led Gil St. Bernard with 81 three-pointers and was second on the team with a 12.2 points per game average as a freshman. He was named MVP of the Somerset County Championship and garnered first team All-County Tournament Team recognition, first team All-State freshman honors (by NJ Hoops/Rivals.com), first team All-Conference and honorable mention All-New Jersey (one of only two freshmen named in New Jersey). Betlow was named second team All-Area by Courier News and NJ Freshman of the Year by The Star Ledger. As a sophomore, Betlow went on to lead Montverde to a 22-4 record, which included finishing as runners-up in the Dicks National High School Basketball Championship.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS

Lehigh’s 7-4 nonleague record in 2018-19 is its best since 2012-13 when it finished 10-3, one year before going 7-6 in 2013-14. The Mountain Hawks’ only losses this season have come to three power-conference opponents (Miami, Kansas State and West Virginia) along with Ivy League power Yale. Among Lehigh’s victories is a win over another strong Ivy League squad Princeton, while also beating preseason NEC favorite Saint Francis (Pa.). Last season, the Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NEC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Last season, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.). This year, Lehigh is traveling to Miami for a homecoming of Lance Tejada’s (Miramar, Fla.) homecoming along with Kansas State to get a game close to the hometowns of Caleb Bennett (St. Joseph, Mo.) and Marques Wilson (Edmond, Okla.). The Mountain Hawks also opened the season at Monmouth, approximately a 15-minute drive from Pat Andree’s hometown of Colts Neck, N.J.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last nine years (2010-18), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in eight of those seasons.
- Over the last nine years, the Mountain Hawks are second in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (eight).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (90) and number of double-figure win seasons (six).
- Over the last six years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still managed to score in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 63.
- Lehigh is one of just two teams to post 10+ Patriot League regular season victories in each of the last four years.
So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 80.6 points per game, first in the Patriot League. Lehigh has eclipsed 80 points at Monmouth (Nov. 6), at Siena (Nov. 21), vs. Arkansas State (Dec. 1), at Yale (Dec. 5), at Mount St. Mary’s (Dec. 8), vs. Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 22), vs. Lafayette (Jan. 2), vs. Loyola (Jan. 6), at Holy Cross (Jan. 9), vs. American (Jan. 16), vs. Bucknell (Jan. 19), at Navy (Jan. 23), vs. Boston University (Jan. 26), at Lafayette (Jan. 30), vs. Navy (Feb. 9) and at Boston University (Feb. 16).

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation’s best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (484-of-610), good for 12th in the nation. Last season (2017-18), the Mountain Hawks shot 77.7 percent (373-of-480), first in the Patriot League and 12th in the nation. This year, Lehigh is shooting 76.0 percent (364-of-479), 20th in the nation.

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, three Mountain Hawks were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll - Pat Andree (3.60, Psychology), Shane Acoveno (3.50, Computer Science (ENI)) and Jordan Cohen (3.53, Finance).
- Both Andree and Cohen were also named to the five-member Academic All-Patriot League team, marking the first time in school history Lehigh had two student-athletes on the team.
- This fall (2018), six Mountain Hawks recorded a GPA over 3.0: David Roelke (3.81), Jordan Cohen (3.75), Caleb Bennett (3.73), Ed Porter (3.32), Pat Andree (3.25) and Jeameril Wilson (3.07).

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- The Mountain Hawks own eight double-doubles this season, two from freshman Nic Lynch (at Miami on Nov. 9, vs. Princeton on Nov. 16), two from junior Pat Andree (vs. Marist on Nov. 13 and vs. Lafayette on Jan. 2), two from sophomore James Karnik (vs. Loyola on Jan. 6) and two from senior Kyle Leufroy (at Holy Cross on Jan. 9 and at Army on Feb. 2).
- Lehigh posted seven double-double last season, four from James Karnik - at Pitt (Nov. 26), at Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 21), vs. American (Jan. 14) and vs. Bucknell (Feb. 5) - and three from Andree - at Lafayette (Dec. 29), at Colgate (Feb. 14) and at Loyola (Feb. 21).
- The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double-doubles the year prior (2016-17), 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Andree.

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh is consistently near the top of the Patriot League in scoring, leading the way in 2009-10 (75.1 PPG), 2010-11 (73.6), 2011-12 (75.7) and 2012-13 (73.1). In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks finished second (76.0 points per game) before finishing second again last season (77.9). Every other year in between, Lehigh has finished in the top half of the league in scoring.

Last season, Lehigh scored 80+ points in six straight games (Feb. 3 to Feb. 21). Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to 2016-17, it hadn’t happened since the 1999-00 campaign. The Mountain Hawks also scored 90 in a 92-89 overtime win over Bucknell (Feb. 5). They eclipsed 80 points in 21 other games.

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 80.6 points per game, first in the Patriot League. Lehigh has eclipsed 80 points at Monmouth (Nov. 21).

Head Coach
The 2018-19 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 12th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 11 years on the sideline, he led the Mountain Hawks to 198 career victories, including NCAA Tournament and College Basketball Invitational appearances. In 2013, Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last nine years and have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Reed’s teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record over the last three Februarys (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In his tenure, the Mountain Hawks are 54-30 in the month of February.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ‘13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Tim Kempton ‘17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 11 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth NCAA Tournament team to beat a No. 1 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points at Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Reed. Freshman Adonal Foyle was named a second team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight national title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at No. 1 seed Villanova. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh went on to finish the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program’s first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Pat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In six-time stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight of the past 10 games, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 5-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-73 win at Texas A&M. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Parker to become the all-time winningest coach in school history.

Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (22) and the all-time winningest coach in school history. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight, Austin Price and Tejada join McCollum, Kempston and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017-18. Hall, McCollum and Kempston have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign. Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed has spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumble Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
ANTONI WYCHE

Antoni Wyche enters his 10th season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2018-19, and eighth as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 169-117 in his nine seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on four occasions, while also coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche took over as associate head coach at Lehigh after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season. The Mountain Hawks have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Lehigh has played its best ball in February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In Wyche’s time, the Mountain Hawks are 49-20 in the month of February.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum has finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Wyche has worked with several other top players, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with recently-graduated Kahron Ross, the first four-time All-Patriot League honoree in school history. Ross also became Lehigh’s fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now one of several Lehigh graduates playing professionally overseas.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche’s first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvot in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvot in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Adirondack Wildcarts of USBL in 2003.

ASSISTANT COACH
HARRY MORRA

Harry Morra enters his fourth season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2018-19 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first-ever victory over the SEC. In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He was also Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season, seven coming in February, to tie for third place in the league standings. In Morra’s tenure as Lehigh assistant coach, the Mountain Hawks are 22-2 in the month of February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In one stretch, Lehigh shot 50% percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Under Morra’s watch, Kempton was named the league’s Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross finished his career as the program’s first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree. He also graduated as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). As a team, Lehigh has earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals eight times in the last nine years.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Coval.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Baylor Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their four-year old son Marcus.

MIAMI 83, LEHIGH 62

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – The Lehigh men’s basketball team trimmed an 18-point lead down to six with 12:10 left in the second half, but Miami immediately responded, pulling away down the stretch to beat the Mountain Hawks 83-62 on Friday evening at Watsoco Center. In a homecoming game, senior Lance Tejada scored a team-high 19 points, 16 coming in the second half. Freshman Nic Lynch posted his first-career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine boards.

Junior Pat Andree also recorded double figures for the Mountain Hawks with 10. Lehigh struggled to get going in the first half, but shot 45 percent from the field in the second half and 72 percent from the free throw line after marks of just 23 percent and 50 percent in the first.

Leufroy scored Lehigh’s first five points, as his three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 6-5 with 18:09 on the clock. Miami answered with a 10-0 run as an Ebuka Izuduru jumper gave the Hurricanes a 16-5 advantage with 16:09 remaining in the first.

Tejada and Andree knocked down treys in the span of 48 seconds to pull Lehigh within 19-11, but the Hurricanes again extended their lead to double figures. A Marquises Wilson trey pulled Lehigh within 25-16, but a 9.0 Miami surge gave it an 18-point, 34-16 advantage, with 7:19 on the first-half clock. Trailing 37-19 with 5:14 remaining in the first, the Mountain Hawks’ defense bore down, allowing just one point the rest of the stanza.

Lehigh scored seven itself, behind a Leufroy three-pointer and four free throws to pull within 38-26 following 20 minutes of play.

The Hurricanes opened the second half on a 10-3 run as a DJ Vasilevic-pointer gave Miami a 48-29 lead with 17:21 on the clock. A few minutes later, trailing 51-35, the Mountain Hawks staged a quick 7-0 run behind an Andree three, Tejada layup and two Tejada free throws, to pull back within single digits at 51-42.

After a Miami jumper, Tejada went on a personal 5-0 run, as his three-pointer pulled Lehigh as close as it had been since early in the first half, trailing by just six (53-47) with 12:24 remaining. That extended Lehigh’s overall run to 12-2.

Miami’s Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending to seven straight Hurricane points after an Anthony Lawrence layup. A Caleb Bennett layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 61-51 with just over nine minutes remaining, but that’s as close as they would come as Miami pulled away down the stretch for the 83-62 win.

OCEANFRONT BANK CENTER

LEHIGH 85, MOUNTHOUN 61

WEST LONG BRANCH, N.J. – The Lehigh men’s basketball team opened a six-point halftime lead then used a 13-3 run early in the second to create separation, taking as much as a 20-point advantage on the way to an 85-61 win at Monmouth on Tuesday evening in the season opener for both teams. Lehigh followed with a Leufroy jumper and three Leufroy free throws, while holding Marist scoreless for the final 4:00 to end the game on a 9-0 run.

The win marked Lehigh’s third against the Tigers in as many seasons after winning just four times in the first 34 all-time meetings. The Mountain Hawks’ defense stood tall, holding Princeton to just 28.3 percent shooting, Lehigh’s best mark since Dec. 31, 2008 when it held UConn to just 22.0 percent shooting in an 82-65 win.

With the win, Lehigh improves to 3-1 for a second straight season, marking the first time it has happened in consecutive years since 1924-25 and 1925-26. Freshman Nic Lynch led the offense with 16 points and 10 rebounds for his second double-double in his first four collegiate games.

Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points, including 3-of-6 shooting from three-point range. Two Mountain Hawks just missed double-doubles as junior Pat Andree had 12 points and eight rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and nine boards. Leufroy has now tallied nine rebounds in three of his first four games this season, again helping Lehigh to a dominant edge on the glass (49-37 on Friday). Junior Jordan Cohen added 12 points as five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures.

A low-scoring start saw Princeton jump out to early leads of 5-2 and 7-4 before the Mountain Hawks used an 8-0 surge to take a 12-7 lead. The run included two points each from Leufroy, Andree, Lynch and sophomore Caleb Bennett, as Bennett’s driving layup gave Lehigh a 12-7 advantage with 11:42 left in the first half.

The Tigers pulled within three, but the Lehigh lead swelled back to double figures as a Marques Wilson trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage with 8:32 on the clock.

Princeton chipped away, using a 5-0 run to pull within 21-19, then later used a 7-0 surge to go up 26-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Mountain Hawks answered with six straight points to end the half, behind a Tejada three and Lynch three-point play, giving Lehigh a 28-26 halftime advantage.

Lehigh came out of the locker room with a vengeance, scoring the first seven points to take a 35-26 lead and force a quick Princeton timeout. Eventually, the run reached 16-3 to begin the second half (22-3 dating back to the first half) as a Tejada three forced a second Tigers’ timeout, then Andree’s second trey in the first 3:59 of the stanza gave Lehigh a 44-29 lead with 16:01 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks’ lead kept growing as the run eventually reached 31-7 since the end of the first half as a Lynch offensive layup and putback gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-33 advantage with 9:29 left in the second half. Princeton made a late surge to win the game with 2:46 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks built their lead back to 15, which proved to be the final margin.
scored a career-high 25 points to pace the offense while junior Jordan Cohen had 15, sophomore Marques Wilson scored 12 and freshman Jeameril Wilson recorded a career-high 10. Siena jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but the Mountain Hawks turned the tides late in the half, limiting its turnovers. After eight first-half turnovers, Lehigh had just four in the second.

The Mountain Hawks improved to 4-1 with the win, marking their best start in 10 years, since beginning the 2008-09 season 5-1.

One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division I opponent in 10 years, Lehigh’s offense took center stage. The team’s 58.0 shooting percentage on Wednesday (29-of-50) is its best mark since shooting 59.2 percent on Feb. 4, 2017 at American. The Mountain Hawks’ 63.2 percent from three (12-of-19) is tied for the second best percentage in the NCAA this season and is Lehigh’s best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinnipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It’s also the Mountain Hawks’ best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook.

Leufroy’s 25 points came on 8-of-11 shooting, including 4-of-5 from three-point range. No one else had more than eight shot attempts. Along with the four Mountain Hawks in double figures, junior Pat Andree scored eight points, all in the second half, while sophomore James Karnik had six points and eight boards.

Siena used an early 7-0 surge to take a 12-5 lead, later leading 16-10 with 13:48 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks immediately had an answer, posting a 10-run, with the first five points from Leufroy and the last five from Marques Wilson, to give Lehigh a 20-16 advantage with 11:07 left in the first.

Later in the half, the Saints used a 9-0 run to turn a 22-18 Lehigh lead into a 25-21 deficit with 4:15 remaining. The Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the final 16 points of the half, which included a pair of Jeameril Wilson threes, to help give Lehigh a 42-37 after 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks would never trail in the second, but it wasn’t for a lack of resistance. Siena pulled within three (or less) on six different occasions, but Lehigh always responded.

After the Saints got within 55-53 with 12:13 on the clock, an Andree three sparked a 6-0 run and a 61-53 lead. A few minutes later, Andree hit another three to give the Mountain Hawks a six-point, 64-57 advantage with 7:28 remaining. Siena pulled within three at 64-61 with 5:10 left, but Lehigh held off a pair of Siena runs to make it 67-61.

The run wrapped up with a Karnik dunk and four straight points from Cohen, on the way to the 80-69 final.

Five straight points in the early going, behind layups from Leufroy and sophomore James Karnik, gave Lehigh a 9-8 lead just over five minutes into the contest. Arkansas State responded with a 14-0 run as a Kobe Wilson three-pointer gave the Red Wolves a 22-9 advantage with 11:14 remaining in the first half.

Lehigh had an answer, posting 16-0 run, beginning with a three-pointer and layup from Andree, and ending with a Karnik dunk off a tremendous pass from sophomore Caleb Bennett. A Tejada jumper wrapped up the run and gave the Mountain Hawks a 25-22 lead with 5:19 on the clock.

Lehigh continued to build its lead and when all was said and done, the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 32-8 run over the final 11:14. Leufroy ended the half with 16 points, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range, all coming in the final 4:40 of the half, to take a 41-30 halftime advantage.

Arkansas State had another run in it, getting back to within 59-54 with 9:50 remaining, but that’s as close as it would come. The Mountain Hawks later used an 8-1 run to erase any doubt, turning a 68-60 lead into a 76-61 advantage following eight straight points from Jeanmil Wilson in the span of 1:04 – behind a three-point play, three and two free throws.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Trailing 22-9 in the first half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team knocked down 15 three-pointers, scored 51 first-half points and 87 for the game, but it wasn’t enough as Yale outscored the Mountain Hawks 46-36 in the second half to win, 97-87 on Wednesday evening. Junior Jordan Cohen tied a career-high 21 points to pace the offense while senior Kyle Leufroy had a career-high 10 assists, but 40 of Yale’s 46 second-half points came from inside the arc or the free throw line, while holding 25-12 edge in second-half rebounds, which proved too much for the Mountain Hawks to overcome. The loss drops Lehigh’s record to 5-3 on the season, marking its first loss of the season not against a power-conference opponent.

Lehigh led by as much as eight on multiple first-half occasions, but Yale pulled even at the half. The Mountain Hawks led for the beginning stages of the second, but Lehigh went 5:45 without a field goal in the middle stages of the stanza, allowing the Bulldogs to take a lead they wouldn’t relinquish.

Cohen’s 21 points came on 7-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three. Senior Lance Tejada had 19 points, including 3-of-4 from distance, while classmate Pat Andree scored 16 points. Leufroy had nine points and five rebounds, to go with his career-high 10 assists.

It took just 1:10 into the game for each team to each knock down a pair of three-pointers. The Mountain Hawks created a little separation just under seven minutes in when freshman Jeamiril Wilson finished a dunk off a great lead pass from Leufroy, then Cohen connected on a three-pointer off a tremendous pass from Tejada. That gave Lehigh a 25-19 lead with 12:48 left in the first half.

A Marques Wilson corner trey gave Lehigh an eight-point, 30-22 advantage midway through the first, Yale got back within 32-28, but a Caleb Bennett free throw and Cohen three helped Lehigh regain an eight-point, 36-28 lead with 6:52 on the clock.

With the Mountain Hawks still leading by six with 4:11 left in the first, the Bulldogs scored eight of the next 10 points to even the score at 45, the fourth of six first-half ties. The sixth came following a Miye Oni basket in the final seconds to tie the score at 51 at halftime.

Lehigh knocked down three more treys in the first 2:33 of the second half to go back up five, 60-55.

However, from there, the Mountain Hawks scored just four points over the next 7:57, with Yale scoring 17 in that span to take a 72-64 advantage just over the midway point of the second half.

The Mountain Hawks answered by immediately going on a 7-1 run, capped off by a Leufroy layup to pull within 73-71. That’s as close as Lehigh would get, though, as Yale’s lead reached double figures for the first time (86-75) with 3:30 remaining, on the way to the 97-87 final.
EMMITSBURG, Md. - In a game of runs, the Lehigh men’s basketball team opened a 26-point second-half lead before Mount St. Mary’s responded, pulling as close as five as 2:41 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks knocked down 12-of-13 free throws from that point forward to wrap up the 85-78 road victory on Saturday. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 21 points, including a perfect 12-of-12 from the charity stripe, while also taking a big charge in the final minute to help the Mountain Hawks wrap up the victory. Sophomore James Karnik added 15 points and nine rebounds. With the win, Lehigh improves to 6-3 on the season heading into a two-week break for final exams.

Along with Leufroy and Karnik, junior Pat Andree added 13 points and nine boards while senior Lance Tejada had 11 points on 3-of-5 from the field. Making his first start of the season, sophomore Marques Wilson recorded seven points and seven rebounds.

Trailing 5-4 in the early going, the Mountain Hawks responded with a 19-4 run, beginning with a three-pointer from Andree and three more treys – from Andree, junior Jordan Cohen and Tejada – as a Caleb Bennett layup gave Lehigh a 23-9 advantage just over midway through the first half.

The Mountaineers pulled within 30-20 with 6:37 remaining in the first, but Lehigh ended the first half on a 6-0 run, capped off by a Karnik jumper, to take a 42-24 halftime advantage.

Lehigh scored 13 of the first 18 second-half points, beginning with four straight points from Karnik and later including five in a row from Marques Wilson. A Leufroy jumper gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 55-29 with 15:32 on the clock.

Increasing its full-court pressure, Mount St. Mary’s slowly began to chip away, staging a 17-5 run to pull within 62-48 with 8:27 on the clock. Four straight Karnik points, beginning with a three-point play, helped Lehigh reopen a 66-48 advantage.

The Mountaineers responded with a 20-5 run as a Nana Opoku three-pointer pulled them within 73-68 with 2:41 remaining.

After Mount St. Mary’s pulled within five, Lehigh buckled down and got enough defensive stops down the stretch, while hitting 12-of-13 free throws – including 8-of-8 by Leufroy – to wrap up the 85-78 victory.

One of the biggest plays was a charge taken by Leufroy with 19 seconds remaining and the Mountain Hawks leading by seven.

LEHIGH 88, SAINT FRANCIS (PA.) 76

BELT HLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men’s basketball team staged a 26-6 run bridging the end of the first and beginning of the second halves to turn a 45-37 deficit into a 63-55 lead, on the way to an 88-76 win over visiting Saint Francis (Pa.) on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Lehigh’s starting backcourt of senior Lance Tejada (22 points), senior Kyle Leufroy (20) and junior Jordan Cohen (19) combined for 61 of the Mountain Hawks’ season-high 88 points, as Lehigh improved to 7-3 on the season.

In a battle of possession difference favorites, Lehigh knocked down 13-of-23 three-pointers to improve its season percentage to 45.0 percent after entering the day at No. 5 in the nation. Defensively, the Mountain Hawks bounced back from a tough start to hold Saint Francis to just 26.5 percent shooting in the second half (9-of-34). The win marked the 205th of head coach Brett Reed’s career to tie for third in Patriot League history.

Tejada’s season-high 22 points came on 8-of-14 shooting, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Leufroy reached 20 points for the fifth time in 10 games this season, in the process, moving into 25th place in school history for career points (current, 1,143). Leufroy was 8-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-6 from three-point range. Leufroy added six assists while Cohen had 19 points, five assists and four rebounds, shooting 3-of-5 from long distance. Junior Pat Andree added 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, and finished 5-of-6 from the free throw line.

After the Red Flash opened a 6-2 lead, the Mountain Hawks responded with seven straight points, behind a Cohen three-pointer, Andree layup and Leufroy jumper, to take a 9-6 advantage with 16:22 left in the first half.

Lehigh extended its lead to 14-10 following the first of three first-half treys from Tejada, but Saint Francis responded with 12 of the next 11 points to take a 19-16 lead just before the midway point of the half.

The Red Flash continued to lead for the rest of the stanza, opening a seven-point, 32-25 lead with 7:01 on the clock. The margin reached eight with 29 seconds remaining, but Cohen knocked down a pair of free throws with four seconds left to pull within 45-39 at the half.

Lehigh came out of the locker room on fire, staging a 24-8 run (26-8 dating back to the first half). The Mountain Hawks retook the lead behind a Leufroy three-point play then another three-point play less than 30 seconds later gave Lehigh a five-point, 56-51 lead with 15:54 remaining.

The run continued as five straight Andree points gave the Mountain Hawks their first double-digit lead at 63-53. The teams went back and forth from there, with Lehigh’s lead getting trimmed to six (63-57) there reaching 12 (69-57), before being trimmed back down to six (71-65). But that’s as close as Saint Francis would come. Leading 73-67, the Mountain Hawks scored 11 of the next 15 points, beginning with corner threes from Tejada and Andree, and capped off by a Tejada three-pointer with less than two minutes to go, giving Lehigh an 84-71 advantage on the way to the 88-76 final.
GAME 11 - DEC. 30, 2018

WVU COLISEUM
WEST VIRGINIA 78, LEHIGH 68

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – Lehigh and West Virginia played back-and-forth for much of the contest, but the Mountaineers (8-4) used a late run to turn a three-point lead into a 13-point advantage, on its way to beating the Mountain Hawks (4-8) Sunday at WVU Coliseum. In the final nonleague contest of the season, junior Pat Andree led the offense with 18 points, 15 coming in the first half while classmate Jordan Cohen added 14 as Lehigh’s bid for its first-ever win over the Big 12 fell short. A little over a year ago, the Mountain Hawks will open Patriot League play on Wednesday when it hostsAligned Lafayette at 7 p.m.

The rebounding margin of 52-25 led to West Virginia tallying 30-2 edge in second-chance points, proving critical.

Andree, who went scoreless in the first half, saw his score increase 15 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three. He finished the evening 4-of-9 from distance. Cohen was a perfect 2-of-2 from three, including a four-point play, while senior Kyle Leufroy was 1-of-2. Seniors Leufroy and Lance Tejada were the third and fourth Mountain Hawks to reach double-figure points, scoring 12 and 10, respectively.

After West Virginia jumped out front 7-2, Leufroy scored six of the next eight as his three-point play pulled Lehigh into 9-8 with 15:47 left in the first half. Cohen, who filled up the stat sheet with seven lead changes as Andree put the Mountain Hawks in front 30-29 with a three-pointer, and 32-31 with a jumper, but the Mountaineers scored seven of the final nine first-half points to take a 38-34 lead into the locker room.

Lehigh scored eight of the first 10 points in the second half, capped off by a Cohen four-point play to give the Mountaineers the lead back, 42-41.

West Virginia came back with an 11-2 run to take a 54-46 advantage with 13:11 remaining in the clock, but a 60-Lehigh lead, which included a Tejada three-pointer following a great look from sophomore Caleb Bennett, pulled the Mountain Hawks within 52-50 with 11:18 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks re-opened a 59-52 lead, but again, Lehigh answered with an Andree three and Cohen driving layup to get right back within 59-57 with 5:47 left to go.

A Tejada and-one layup pulled the Mountain Hawks back within 62-59, but that’s as close as they would come. West Virginia all but sealed the victory with a 12-2 run to take a 13-point advantage following a James Bolden long from beyond the arc with 2:26 remaining. Lehigh couldn’t get closer than 10 the rest of the way, falling 78-68. In his career, head coach Brett Reed has now faced three of the top four active coaches for Division I victories, with Lehigh getting outscored by an average of just five points over those three contests. Reed owns a win over Duke’s Mike Krzyzewski and tight 10-point defeats against Syracuse’s Jim Boeheim and West Virginia’s Bob Huggins, featuring competitive contests deep into the second half.

Reed, who was named as the Patriot League’s Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season, moved into second place on the Patriot League’s all-time wins list with his 102nd career victory.

Reed became the third Mountain Hawk coach to amass 100 career victories, joining Matt Bradley (168) and Don Jones (100). Reed is 21 victories behind the all-time leader, Rick Spafford (122), who guided the Mountain Hawks from 1977-2007.

Strucco, who is in his 13th season as an assistant coach, moved into 10th place all-time on the Mountain Hawks’ all-time wins list with his 80th career victory, moving past former assistant coach Chris Samuels (78). He has been an integral part of Reed’s staff since 2008.

Lafayette led for 29:42. Lehigh led for 07:21. Game was tied for 02:57.

COLGATE 91, LEHIGH 78

HAMILTON, N.Y. — The Lehigh men’s basketball team erased a 13-point first-half deficit to take multiple second-half leads, but Colgate outscored the Mountain Hawks 26-6 over a stretch of 7-48 to turn a 60-59 Lehigh lead into an 85-66 Raiders’ advantage, on the way to the 91-78 final on Saturday at Cotterell Court. The loss marks Lehigh’s first Patriot League defeat of the season as it falls to 10-5, 3-1 in league play. Freshman Nic Lynch helped spark the Mountain Hawks in the first half, scoring 12 straight Lehigh points. Classmate Joe Foley provided a spark as well, scoring a career-high seven points along with three rebounds and two assists.

Junior Pat Andree led the offense with 14 points, shooting 4-of-7 from three-point range. Lehigh jumped out to an early 7-2 lead, but Colgate came back with a vengeance, posting a 20-2 run to take a 22-9 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with exactly 12 minutes left in the first. That’s when Lynch stepped up in a big way, scoring 12 straight Mountain Hawks’ points, the last an offensive rebound and putback to pull Lehigh within 31-21 with 6:22 on the first-half clock.

Colgate’s lead reached 11 again, but the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 3-0 run, sparked by a pair of Andree treys, to pull Lehigh within 49-39 at the half.

Trailing 44-39 early in the second, Lehigh used a 9-2 run, capped off by a Bennett three-pointer, to give the Mountain Hawks a 51-49 lead with 14:00 on the clock. The ensuing nine minutes saw nine lead changes, including a nifty pass from Bennett to Karnik for a dunk.

BUCKNELL 85, LEHIGH 83

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – In a game which saw neither team lead by more than two possessions, a 10-0 Bucknell run in the final five minutes gave it a six-point lead, Lehigh stormed back with five points in an eight-second span to tie it, but Jimmy Sotos came down the other end and finished a tough shot to give the Bison an 85-83 win on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. The loss marked the Mountain Hawks’ first of the season at home, as they fall to 11-6 overall and 4-2 in Patriot League play, one game behind Bucknell who’s currently in first at 5-1.

Down by five after a Sotos free throw with 18 seconds remaining, senior Kyle Leffroy knocked down a three-pointer, then the Mountain Hawks forced a steal on the end line and Tejada found a cutting Pat Andree, who finished the layup with eight seconds remaining.

However, Sotos came down the other and drove to his right before banking a tough shot home with just over one second on the clock.

Senior Kyle Leffroy led Lehigh’s offense with a career-high 26 points, eight rebounds, five assists and three steals. He was 6-of-9 from three-point range as the Mountain Hawks finished 14-of-24 on the afternoon, their third game this season over 60 percent. And after two Bruce Moore free throws with 10:47 remaining to pull his team within four, the margin remained four or less until the final minute in a back-and-forth battle. A Leffroy three-pointer with 4:29 on the clock gave Lehigh a 72-67 lead, but that’s the last the Mountain Hawks would score for more than four minutes. Bucknell went on a 10-0 run, stopped by a Karnik offensive rebound and putback with 23 seconds remaining, helping set the stage for the dramatic ending.

Karnik was 9-of-10 from the floor, adding eight rebounds.

Three other Mountain Hawks posted double-figure points, including seniors Tejada (12) and Kyle Leufroy (12), and Andree (10), who also added eight rebounds. Defensively, Lehigh held Boston University All-League forward Max Mahoney to seven points (which tied his season low).

Lehigh jumped out to an early 9-0 lead as an Andree trey forced a Boston University timeout less than three minutes in.

From there, the Mountain Hawks continued to tack onto their lead, with it reaching 15-2 after two Tejeda free throws. After the Terriers pulled within 21-10, Leufroy scored six straight points as his three-point play gave Lehigh a 27-10 advantage with 12:39 on the clock.

KIRBY SPORTS CENTER
LEHIGH 93, LAFAYETTE 86 (OT)

EASTON, Pa. – One game after scoring a career-high 32 points vs. Boston University, junior Jordan Cohen one-upped it on Wednesday by scoring 33, including 14 of the Mountain Hawks’ 19 points in overtime, as the Lehigh men’s basketball team defeated archival Lafayette, 93-86 on Wednesday evening at Kirby Sports Center. With Lehigh’s third straight win, it improves to 14-6 on the year, 7-2 in Patriot League play, remaining in a tie for first place in the standings. The win also gives Lehigh its fourth straight regular-season sweep of the Leopards as senior Kyle Leufroy becomes the first player in school history to finish his career 8-0 in the regular season against Lafayette.

He also joins former teammate, and 2018 graduate, Kahron Ross as the only two in program history to go perfect 4-0 at Lafayette in their careers.

Cohen scored seven points over the final 2:56 of regulation, along with his 14 in overtime. In the end, he scored 21 of Lehigh’s final 30 points of the evening an incredible showcase. He finished 14-of-19 from the floor. Over his last two games, Cohen has scored 65 points on 26-of-33 shooting (78.8 percent).

Along with Cohen’s performance, senior Lance Tejada added 17 points, 12 coming in the first half, while sophomore James Karnik had 15 on 6-of-8 shooting and Leufroy added 11.

The Mountain Hawks took early leads of 5-0 then 7-2. After Lafayette pulled within 7-6, a Tejada trey gave Lehigh a 10-9 lead at the under-6 media timeout. A Kyle Stout three-pointer gave Lafayette a 15-14 advantage, but Lehigh answered with seven straight points, including threes from Cohen and Tejada, to give the Mountain Hawks a 21-15 lead with 11:29 left in the first.

Lehigh continued to lead the remainder of the half, but couldn’t extend its lead past six. Lafayette held a trio with 7:12 seconds on the clock, but two Tejada free throws with 10 seconds left in the stanza gave the Mountain Hawks a 36-32 halftime lead.

After Lehigh scored the first four points of the second, Lafayette responded with a 12-0 run as an Alex Petrie three-pointer gave the Leopards a 44-40 advantage with 16:39 on the clock.

Lafayette hoisted the lead for most of the remainder of the half until Cohen came to life. After a Cohen jumper pulled Lehigh within 67-65, freshman Jeameri Wilson had a big steal and emphatic slam to even the score.

Less than a minute later, Cohen converted a three-point play with 1:54 remaining to give Lehigh its first lead of the 7-5 mark. The Mountain Hawks maintained the lead over the ensuing minutes, but Petrie converted a driving score with two seconds on the clock to force overtime.

Cohen immediately made his mark in the extra session, scoring just 5 seconds in. The Mountain Hawks ended up a perfect 6-of-6 from the field in overtime, all six field goals coming from Cohen. Fittingly, two free throws with eight seconds remaining gave him a career-high 33 points, rounding out the scoring in the 93-86 victory.

LEHIGH 75, ARMY WEST POINT 70

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Trailng by as many as 19 in the first half and 18 more than six minutes into the second half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team responded, outsourcing Army West Point, 38-15, over the game’s final 13:26 for a thrilling 75-70 win on Saturday afternoon at Christl Arena. The 19-point comeback marked the largest comeback in Brett Reed’s 12 seasons as head coach, besting the 18-point comeback earlier this season at Holy Cross. Leufroy finished 6-of-11 from the field, including 5-of-9 from three-point range. Cohen was 6-of-9 and 4-of-5 from three. Senior Lance Tejada was strong with 12 points (nine in the first half). Lehigh knocked down two more threes during the run, from Cohen and Leufroy, before a Kornik layup evened the score at 58 with 7:34 on the clock.

The Black Knights immediately responded with six straight points, but an 8-2 Lehigh run capped off another Kornik basket gave the Mountain Hawks a 68-66 lead with just under three minutes remaining, their first lead since 3-4.

Army reverted the lead on the ensuing possession, but Cohen knocked down a three near the top of the key to put Lehigh up 71-70 with 1:28 to go, a lead it wouldn’t relinquish. The Mountain Hawks didn’t allow a single point the rest of the way, going 4-for-4 from the charity stripe, to wrap up the thrilling victory.

LEHIGH 83, NAVY 57

BETHELHEM, Pa. - The Lehigh men’s basketball team responded from a tough loss to Colgate by defeating Navy Saturday afternoon at Stabler Arena, using a strong defensive effort throughout the contest to hold the Midshipmen to only 57 points in a 83-57 win. Saturday’s game was part of Diversity and Inclusion day, presented by Lehigh’s Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Equity. The Mountain Hawks held the Midshipmen to just 27.9 percent shooting, a season best for the Lehigh defense.

Along with Andree’s 22 points, sophomore center James Karnik had nine rebounds, seven of which were defensive. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 16-8 on the season, 9-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks stand alone in second place in the league standings, now two games behind the 11-2 Bison with five regular-season games remaining.

One of the nation’s top shooting teams, Lehigh finished at 41.7 percent from the field (25-of-60) and just 27.3 percent from three-point range (6-of-22), struggling offensively for long stretches of Monday’s game.

Along with Karnik’s 21 points, junior Jordan Cohen had 15 and a game-high seven assists. Classmate Pat Andree had 12 points while seniors Kyle Leufroy and Lance Tejada each had 10. Bucknell was led by Kimbal Mackenzie, who scored 27 points while Nate Sestina had 15 and 10 rebounds.

Trailing 11-8 early, the Mountain Hawks staged a big run, beginning with a basket from Andree and including threes from Tejada and later Leufroy. Leufroy’s trey made it 14 straight Lehigh points, giving the Mountain Hawks a 22-11 edge with 8:13 left in the first half.

After Karnik gave Lehigh a 28-19 edge, the Bison scored seven straight points to quiety pull within two heading into the final media timeout of the half.

Threes from Tejada and later Andree gave Lehigh leads of seven and five points, but that’s as close as the Midshipmen would come. With a Mackenzie hoop in the final seconds of the first pulled Bucknell within 38-35 at the half.

Karrick scored the first two second-half points to put Lehigh up seven, but that’s as close as the Bison would come. Bucknell’s lead eventually reached 16 at 66-50, with Lehigh scoring just 12 points over the first 13:38 of the second.

The Mountain Hawks scored 13 of the next 19 points as an Andree trey pulled Lehigh within nine at 72-63 with 4:06 still remaining.

CASE GYMNASIUM
LEHIGH 84, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 79

BOSTON – The Lehigh men’s basketball team opened a 19-point second-half lead then held off a late Boston University charge to down the Terriers, 84-79 on Saturday afternoon at Case Gymnasium. The win improves the Mountain Hawks’ record to 17-8 on the year, 10-4 in Patriot League play as Lehigh wrapped up a regular-season sweep of Boston University for the first time in program history. The Mountain Hawks also improved to 8-0 after losses this year, having not lost back-to-back games all season. Once again, a balanced attack led the way as four Mountain Hawks scored between 13 and 18 points.

Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 18 points, while adding four steals to tie a career high. Classmate Lance Tejada had 17 points and six assists, while sophomore James Karnik tallied 14 points, shooting 5-of-6 from the field. Junior Jordan Cohen scored 13 points. Cohen, Leufroy and Tejada all finished 3-of-6 from behind the arc.

Not to be forgotten, junior Pat Andree finished with nine points and a career-high 16 rebounds, the most rebounds by a Mountain Hawk since Tim Kempton on Mar. 8, 2017 at Bucknell. Freshman Jeameril Wilson filled up the stat sheet with six points, four rebounds and two assists. Classmate Joe Foley had five points and a block while also making several important defensive plays, including taking a charge in the final minutes.

The teams went back-and-forth in the early going with seven lead changes before the first media timeout. Trailing 16-14, Leufroy knocked down a three to kick-start a 13-0 run with all the points scored by seniors six from Leufroy and seven from Tejada. A Tejada trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 27-16 edge just over midway through the first half.

The Terriers came back to within 32-24, but a 7-0 Lehigh surge gave the Mountain Hawks a 39-24 lead.

In the second half, the Mountain Hawks used a 9-2 run to increase an 11-point lead to 18 as a Leufroy steal and layup gave them a 63-45 advantage with 9:56 on the clock.

Less than a minute later, two Wilson free throws gave Lehigh its largest lead at 65-46. However, the Terriers had one last run in them, trimming an 18-point Mountain Hawk lead with 5:36 remaining down to two with 25 seconds on the clock. Boston University had a chance to take a lead, but an Andrew Petcash three was off the mark, Karnik grabbed a tough rebound, was fouled and hit two clutch free throws to ice the victory.
