SETTING THE SCENE

Winners of two straight and five of its last six games, the No. 12/14 Lehigh men's lacrosse team returns home to host Navy on Saturday. Opening faceoff is set for 3 p.m. The game will be televised locally on Service Electric 2 Sports and can be seen online through the Patriot League Network. Lehigh stands 4-0 in Patriot League play while Navy is 3-1. Saturday's contest is the second of a Lehigh Lacrosse doubleheader as the Lehigh women's team also hosts Loyola at 12 p.m.

The Mountain Hawks are coming off their second road win over a nationally-ranked opponent in the span of 11 days. Lehigh won at No. 12 Army West Point on Mar. 10, 9-7, then 11 days later, picked up a 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra. Both games played out similarly. Against the Black Knights, Lehigh trailed 2-0, but went on to post two separate 4-0 runs, including a four-goal fourth-quarter run to turn a one-goal deficit into a three-goal lead. Meanwhile, at Hofstra Tuesday, Lehigh trailed 3-0, but went on to post two separate 5-0 runs, including five straight goals to end the game. Hofstra scored its third straight goal to tie the score at eight with 1:17 left in the third quarter, but sophomore Andrew Eichelberger answered with nine seconds remaining in the stanza and Lehigh followed by outscoring the Pride 4-0 in the fourth, on the way to the program’s first-ever win over Hofstra. The Mountain Hawks also ended the Pride’s four-game winning streak, scoring double-figure goals against Hofstra for the first time this season; the most goals Hofstra had previously allowed was nine against Ohio State. The Pride had allowed just 22 total goals over their four-game winning streak.

Tuesday featured a strong all-around effort. Junior Andrew Pettit helped lead a Lehigh offense which scored 13 goals against the nation’s No. 1 defense. Pettit finished with three goals and four assists, having a hand in more goals (seven) than the Pride were allowing all season (6.33 entering Tuesday). Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks stage an 8-2 run to turn a 3-0 deficit into an 8-5 lead. In total, Lehigh's starting attackmen combined for 17 points as junior Tristan Rai added three goals and two assists while classmate Lucas Spence had two goals and a career-high tying three assists. Senior Nolan Aper scored two goals, which came consecutively in the fourth quarter to give Lehigh a 12-8 lead. Sophomore Austin Pierce scored a man-up goal earlier in the quarter while a Spence goal rounded out the scoring in the fourth. Eichelberger tied a career-high two goals for a second straight game. Lehigh assisted on 10 of its 13 goals Tuesday and has assisted on 23-of-32 goals over its past two games.

Lehigh's defense continued its strong play; after allowing three goals in the game’s first 10:43, the Mountain Hawks allowed just five over the final 49:17 to lower its already strong goals against average from 9.81 to 8.81, still No. 6 nationally. Junior Craig Chick led the way with four caused turnovers to move him from 96 to 100 in his career, eclipsing Tripp Telesco’s school record of 97. Chick is currently No. 16 in NCAA history in career caused turnovers, just six from tying the Patriot League career mark of 106 held by Colgate's Bobby Lawrence. Freshman Teddy Leggett excelled as well, recording five groundballs and two caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney continued his strong play in the faceoff circle, winning 15-of-24 against Hofstra’s Kyle Gallagher, who entered the day having won 61.8 percent on the year. Gaffney reached 250 career faceoff wins and 150 groundballs in the victory.

LAST TIME OUT VS. NAVY

ANNAPOLES, Md. (3/25/17) – Navy went on a 5-1 run in the second quarter to take a 9-2 lead, which proved too much for the Lehigh men’s lacrosse team to overcome as the Mountain Hawks (4-3, 3-3 Patriot League) dropped a 14-9 final on Saturday at Navy Marine-Corps Memorial Stadium. The Mids scored 21-of-26 faceoffs, helping them jump out to an early lead and forcing Lehigh to play from behind all day. Sophomore Tristan Rai led the offense with five points behind three goals and two assists.

SCOUTING NAVY

Navy holds a 32-6 lead in the all-time series following last season’s 14-9 victory in Annapolis. The game marked Lehigh’s third straight loss in the series after the Mountain Hawks had won five in a row between 2011 and 2014. Five of Lehigh’s six all-time wins vs. Navy came in that four-year span. The only other victory came in 1913 by a 4-3 final. In 2011, Lehigh defeated Navy 14-10 in Bethlehem to beat the Mids for the first time in 98 years and snap a 26-game losing streak. The first-ever meeting was in 1910, a 4-2 Navy victory.

RISE OF THE DEFENSE

Stellar defense played a key role in Lehigh’s success from 2012-14 when it won two consecutive Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 then made it back to the title game in 2014. This season, the Mountain Hawks are once again featuring a top 10 defense.

LEHIGH PICKED SIXTH, THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE
The Lehigh men’s lacrosse team has been picked sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall and sophomore Connor Gaffney were named preseason All-League, as announced on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The Mountain Hawks are coming off their seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth last season; Lehigh and Army West Point are the only two teams to advance to each of the last seven league tourneys.

Chick was named defensive specialist on the preseason All-League team after garnering first mention All-Patriot League and Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America as a sophomore. Chick posted a school-record 40 caused turnovers in 2017, one year after leading the nation with 37. Bouhall also garnered preseason recognition after second team All-League honors following last season. Bouhall recorded 42 groundballs and 20 caused turnovers last year after tallying 35 groundballs and 18 caused turnovers as a freshman in 2016. Rounding out Lehigh’s preseason All-League honorees was Gaffney, who finished eighth nationally in faceoff percentage as a freshman (61.0 percent, 139-of-228). Gaffney added 96 groundballs as his 8.00 groundballs per game stood fifth nationally.

DIVERSIFYING THEIR GAMES
Juniors Mickey Fitzpatrick and Eddie Bouhall improved their games this summer by heading indoors. The two traveled west to play box (indoor) lacrosse. Fitzpatrick and Bouhall played in the Junior A Lacrosse League, marking Bouhall’s first time playing box lacrosse. Fitzpatrick first experienced box lacrosse as a member of the U.S. Under-19 team a few summers ago, then again following his freshman season at Lehigh.

PAIR OF GAMES TO AIR ON CBS SN
The Patriot League and CBS Sports Network announced in December its 2018 broadcast schedule on Thursday, which includes two Lehigh men’s lacrosse games. The Mountain Hawks’ home contests vs. Loyola on Saturday Apr. 7 and Cornell the following Saturday (Apr. 14) will air on CBS Sports Network. Lehigh will host defending Patriot League Champion Loyola on Apr. 7 looking for its first-ever win against the Greyhounds. The Mountain Hawks have been close, including the last time Loyola came to town when Lehigh dropped a slim 11-10 final in 2016. The following Saturday, Lehigh will face Cornell for a third straight season on Alumni Day and Senior Day. The last time the teams played in Bethlehem, the Big Red pulled out a 13-12 thriller in a game that was also broadcast by CBS Sports Network.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED
Lehigh head men’s lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced in the fall that senior Ian Strain will serve as the Mountain Hawks’ 2018 captain while junior Craig Chick and seniors John Melok and Nolan Apers were named assistant captains. Strain has plenty of experience in a leadership role after serving as co-captain with Cody Triolo and Donny Stires last season. The captains were voted on by the team.

MOLNAR NAMED TO TEAM ISRAEL
In November, former Lehigh men’s lacrosse standout Noah Molnar ’13 was named to the roster for the men’s national team which is set to compete in the upcoming 2018 FIL World Championships. The championships will take place from July 12-21 in Netanya, Israel. Molnar is a two-time Patriot League Champion with the Mountain Hawks and is currently a mainstay for the Denver Outlaws of Major League Lacrosse. Israel is coming off a seventh-place finish at the 2014 championships, with nine players from that team set to return in 2018. The roster is composed of both Israeli players, as well as members of the Jewish diaspora, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL). In conjunction with the Israel Lacrosse Tzedakah Program, each player will be competing in honor of a charity of his choosing. Molnar finished his Lehigh career with 71 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (currently tied for eighth in school history). As a sophomore, he posted career highs in goals (6), assists (4) and points (10) while also tallying 27 groundballs and 14 caused turnovers. Molnar continued with 21 groundballs and 21 caused turnovers in Lehigh’s 2012 Patriot League Championship campaign, then adding 15 groundballs and 11 caused turnovers in 2013 as the Mountain Hawks won their second straight league title.

SUPER SOPHOMORES
Lehigh’s current junior class has been stellar. Last year, they combined for 80 goals (58.4% of team total), 42 assists (46.7%), 145 groundballs (32.6%) and 76 caused turnovers (65.5%) last season (2017). As a team, Lehigh finished with 137 goals, 90 assists, 445 groundballs and 116 caused turnovers. Seven started much of last season (Eddie Bouhall, Craig Chick and Matt Rimol on defense, Lucas Speer in the midfield and Andrew Pettit and Tristan Rai at attack, and Chris Kiernan in goal). Mickey Fitzpatrick also started three games in the midfield.

So far this year, the class has combined for 75 goals (out of 110, 68.2% of team total) and 50 assists (out of 73, 68.5%). Defensively, the junior class has tallied 109 groundballs (out of 290, 37.6%) and 42 caused turnovers (out of 71, 59.2%).

PROLIFIC PETTIT
Junior Andrew Pettit was one of the Patriot League’s, and nation’s, top goal scorers last season. He finished the year with 35 goals in 14 games. His goal total was second in the league while his 2.5 goals per contest was No. 1 in the Patriot League and No. 17 nationally. Pettit began last season with multiple goals in his first nine games of the season before he was held goal-less at Loyola on Apr. 8. Pettit was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point as his streak reached 10 dating back to 2016.

So far this season, Pettit has 42 points (25 goals, 17 assists) through nine games. Pettit is currently 16th in the nation in goals per game (2.78) (as of Friday, Mar. 23). He has led the Mountain Hawks in goals (or tied for the lead) five times in nine games, and has five hat tricks so far in 2018. One highlight was a career-high tying five-goal effort at Army West Point, which included a natural hat trick (three straight goals) in the quarter to turn a one-goal deficit into a two-goal lead. He also had seven points (three goals, four assists) in a 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), contributing to more goals himself (7) than Hofstra (the nation’s No. 1 scoring defense) were allowing entering the day (6.33).

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 21 of his last 24 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 22-career multi-goal games, 24-career multi-point games and 12-career hat tricks.

NOONE WINS MLL CHAMPIONSHIP WITH MACHINE
One year after falling to former Lehigh teammate Noah Molnar and his Denver Outlaws in the MLL Finals, Mike Noone got revenge as his Ohio Machine captured the 2017 title with a 17-12 win over Molnar’s Outlaws. Noone played in 10 games during the regular season, posting 10 groundballs and a caused turnover. Molnar finished the 2017 regular season with four goals, two assists, 19 groundballs and seven caused turnovers. Noone had a groundball and caused turnover in the championship game held Saturday, Aug. 19 at Ford Center at the Star in Frisco, Texas, while Molnar collected a groundball.

CHAOTIC CHICK

Junior Craig Chick has emerged as a premier defensive player in the country as he is first in caused turnovers since the beginning of 2016 (100) (as of Friday, Mar. 23). He is already 16th in NCAA history in career caused turnovers.

Chick finished his freshman season as the national leader in caused turnovers with 37. His big breakout came on Apr. 12 at Princeton when he posted 23 groundballs and eight caused turnovers. The eight caused turnovers were the most by a Lehigh player since Evan Guerrero had nine against Saint Joseph’s on Feb. 14, 2009. Chick tied for the most caused turnovers in the nation in 2016 (Division I) and tied Princeton’s Sherrerd Field record, originally set by Villanova’s Brian Karalus. Chick followed with seven groundballs and seven caused turnovers just four days later against Cornell. Chick finished the season with 41 groundballs and 25 caused turnovers over his last eight games. As a sophomore, Chick posted 58 groundballs and school-record 40 caused turnovers (third in the nation). On five different occasions, Chick tallied four or more caused turnovers and had a stretch of 10 straight games with multiple caused turnovers.

So far in 2018, Chick has 23 caused turnovers, currently second in the nation. Here are some game-by-game highlights.

- Recorded four groundballs at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), passing Tripp Telesco for the Lehigh career record and also reaching 100 career caused turnovers in the process. He became just the 16th player in NCAA history to reach that milestone.
- Had a groundball and two caused turnovers at Lafayette (Mar. 17).
- Tallied a groundball and caused turnover against No. 16/18 Rutgers (Mar. 14).
- Collected seven groundballs and three caused turnovers to lead Lehigh to a big 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10). Chick was rewarded with Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career.
- Finished with three groundballs and three caused turnovers, helping the Mountain Hawks hold Colgate (Mar. 3) to fewer shots on goal (15) than it was averaging goals (15.75) entering the game. The Raiders entered as the No. 3 scoring offense in the nation.
- Posted five groundballs and three caused turnovers in dominant win over Holy Cross (Feb. 24). Also scored first goal of the season.
- Recorded a groundball and caused turnover at No. 13/14 UNC (Feb. 17).
- Tallied two groundballs and four caused turnovers at Mercer (Feb. 10) to earn honorable mention recognition on the Patriot League weekly honor roll.
- Began the season with three groundballs and two caused turnovers vs. NJIT (Feb. 3).

Kevin Cassese enters his 11th season as Lehigh’s head men’s lacrosse coach in 2018. Cassese’s impact has been immediate, leading the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014. Cassese has led to Lehigh to seven straight Patriot League Tournaments.

The Mountain Hawks finished last season with a 7-7 record and 4-4 mark in league play. Lehigh’s season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program’s seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth. Three Mountain Hawks earned All-League, including Craig Chick, who was named to the first team and garnered honorable mention All-America recognition by Inside Lacrosse. Chick broke a school record with 40 caused turnovers, one year after leading the nation in that category.

The program’s breakthrough came in 2012 when Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program’s first NCAA Tournament. The Mountain Hawks followed that with a 12-5 campaign in 2013, winning both the regular season and tournament titles. Despite losing a large and talented senior class, Lehigh still went 13-5 in 2014 and advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game once again.

In 2012, Cassese led the Mountain Hawks to a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and their highest-ever national ranking: Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex (and in front of a national audience on ESPNU).

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks’ defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph’s. Cassese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while senior Matt Poillon became Lehigh’s first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games to finish undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco who finished with 44 groundballs and 36 caused turnovers. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook) and advancing to their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament. Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. A young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program’s sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University.

Setting the stage for the program’s breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program’s first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation’s eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com’s computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Cassese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh’s first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Cassese’s watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Seven have been selected in the Major League
Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation’s top midfielder. He was named the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Devlin member, and was named the ACC’s Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments are a pair of MLL Rookie of the Week honors and a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games. He was named MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the 2007 Major League Lacrosse Championship, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese’s coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke’s interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Servicing as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese’s responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men’s National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaraton Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation’s top midfielder. He was also a standout in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC’s Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

Cassese’s players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as a defender Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012.

Wilson’s first season as offensive coordinator in 2016, senior attackman Reid Weber was named first team All-Patriot League while freshman Tristan Rai jumped onto the national scene with a vengeance; scoring 31 goals on just 58 shots; his .534 shooting percentage was good for second in the nation. The Mountain Hawks followed in 2017 by reaching their seventh straight league tournament, highlighted by consecutive home wins over national-ly-ranked opponents – defeating No. 16/18 Boston University 10-6 and No. 13/14 Princeton 15-10. The 15 goals tied for a season high, also set against NJIT and Lafayette. Rai continued his strong play with 46 points (22 goals, team-high 24 assists) while classmate Andrew Pettit emerged as well, tallying 46 himself behind a team-high 35 goals. Pettit began the season with nine straight multi-goal games. His first game without multiple goals came Apr. 8 at Loyola as he was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point.

At Rutgers, Wilson helped the Scarlet Knights win five of their first six games in 2011 and coached a defense which allowed only 8.27 goals per game.

Prior to Rutgers, Wilson served as assistant coach at Brown for four seasons (2007-10). While there, he was both offensive coordinator and goalie coach, helping the Bears reach new heights by winning an Ivy League Championship in 2008, then earning an NCAA Tournament berth in ’09. Wilson worked with and mentored one of the nation’s top goalies in Jordan Burke. The 2009 USILA Goalie of the Year, Burke was twice named the Ivy League Player of the Year and New England Player of the Year, while earning First Team All-America honors as well.

Wilson was a four-year letterwinner at Stony Brook where he was teammates with goalie and former Lehigh assistant and current Dartmouth head coach Brendan Callahan. Wilson resides in Bethlehem with his wife Pat and sons Roman and Solomon.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach

Fifth Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men’s lacrosse standout Will Scudder ’11 enters his fifth season on the coaching staff in 2018 and third as defensive coordinator. Scudder replaced Tom Compitello who accepted a position at Sacred Heart, then was promoted prior to the 2015 season. Scudder was promoted to associate defensive coordinator, faceoff coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator after Brendan Callahan was named head coach at Dartmouth. He was then named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season when Errol Wilson was named offensive coordinator. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Year after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the national record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation’s leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson’s alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks’ defense had plenty of highlight moments. Individually, freshman long-stick midfielder Craig Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks’ berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation’s No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Eddie Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

As a player, Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks’ program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

CASEY EIDENSHINK
Assistant Coach
First Season at Lehigh

Former Mountain Hawks’ standout Casey Eidenshink begins his first season at Lehigh as assistant coach in 2018. Both a close defenseman and long-stick midfielder as a player, the 2016 graduate was an All-Patriot League and Academic All-League honoree at Lehigh, finishing his collegiate career with a GPA over 3.3.

Eidenshink played in 55 games over his career, with 30 starts, tallying 115 groundballs and 49 caused turnovers (tied for eighth in school history). He played in seven games during Lehigh’s 2013 Patriot League Championship campaign. Eidenshink then played in all 18 games as a sophomore, recording 29 groundballs and 16 caused turnovers to help the Mountain Hawks back to the league title game. He had a career-high 50 groundballs and 23 caused turnovers as a junior, along with 32 groundballs and nine caused turnovers as a senior.

As a senior, Eidenshink was named a candidate for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award, played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game and was a USILA Scholar-All-American. He was selected by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2016 Major League Lacrosse Supplemental Draft.

Following his playing days, Eidenshink has worked for Lincoln Investment Planning as a Junior Research Analyst. He worked under two Portfolio/Wealth Managers, assisting with Mutual Fund and ETF research for their portfolios, which are globally diversified and set up to help clients save and prepare for their retirements.

Eidenshink has taught the game of lacrosse as part of the HeadStrong Lacrosse Club. He graduated Lehigh in May of 2016 with a Bachelor of Science in Finance.
