SETTING THE SCENE

For the fourth time in the last seven years and first time since 2014, the Lehigh men's lacrosse team will play for a Patriot League Title when it faces top-seeded and No. 6/8 ranked Loyola on Sunday afternoon. Opening faceoff is set for 12 p.m. on CBS Sports Network. The fourth-seeded Mountain Hawks are coming off a thrilling 10-9 overtime victory against No. 11/13 Navy Friday night, as Lehigh's first overtime win since February of 2014 couldn't have come at a bigger time. Lehigh will be vying for its third league title in the last seven years after winning Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013.

Junior Lucas Spence was the hero on Friday, posting game highs in goals (4) and points (5), none bigger than the unassisted game-winner just 42 seconds into overtime. It marked Lehigh's second overtime game of the year (also at North Carolina in February). Prior to Friday, the last time Lehigh won in overtime was Feb. 16, 2014 when it defeated Villanova in triple overtime, 7-6. With Friday's win, the Mountain Hawks improved to 10-6 on the season, their fourth time with double-figure wins in the last seven years (also 2012, 2013 and 2014). Prior to 2012, Lehigh had just four seasons with double-digit wins in the first 112 years of program history (1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997). Friday also marked Lehigh's third win against a nationally-ranked opponent this season, most since 2014.

The 2018 Patriot League Tournament has played out similarly to the last time Lehigh made it this far, 2014. This year, the Mountain Hawks defeated Colgate in the quarterfinals (11-3) and Navy in the semifinals (10-9 in overtime). In 2014, Lehigh beat Navy in the quarterfinals (10-6) and Army in the semifinals (12-11). That semifinal win was a thriller as well, with Reid Weber scoring the game-winner with just 3.7 seconds remaining in regulation.

Navy got off to a fast start on Friday, taking a 2-0 lead just 2:15 into the game. However, the Lehigh defense bore down the rest of the way. The Mountain Hawks held the Midshipmen scoreless for a stretch of 23:04 bridging the end of the first quarter through beginning of the third. Lehigh's offense scored four unanswered goals in that span to take a 6-4 lead. Navy did have a surge of four goals in the span of 7:57 in the third, but the Mountain Hawks allowed just one goal over the game's final 19:22 to pull out the thrilling victory.

Spence's game-winning goal marked the 50th of his career as he has come on strong down the stretch to increase his season point total to 56 (34 goals, 22 assists). He has recorded multiple points in every game this season, with Friday marking his fourth game with 5+ points. Along with Spence's five points, junior Andrew Pettit recorded a hat trick while classmate Mickey Fitzpatrick had a goal and assist. Juniors scored nine of Lehigh's 10 goals while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall combined for all five of the Mountain Hawks' caused turnovers. For Chick, he reached 116 career caused turnovers to move into eighth place in NCAA history in that category. He's up to 39 on the season, needing one to tie and two to break his own school record (40) set last season.

Sophomore Conor Gaffney was sensational down the stretch Friday, winning the final five faceoffs of the game to help Lehigh erase an 8-7 deficit after three quarters of play and score three of the game's final four goals. Gaffney finished 12-of-23 for the day, the second time this season he has won more than 50 percent against Navy's Joe Varello, who was named Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Year. Gaffney and Varello tied for first team All-League, but Varello was awarded the major award due to more first place votes. Counting Gaffney's 13-of-21 effort in the regular season, he finished the year 25-of-44 (57 percent) against Varello.

Freshman James Spence also made critical saves. He finished with eight stops for the game, but stopped 3-of-4 sent his way in the fourth quarter with the only goal he allowed being a doorstep finish. Classmate Teddy Leggett had one of the biggest plays of the game, collecting a groundball on a scramble following the opening faceoff of the overtime period, setting the stage for Lucas Spence's heroics.

Lehigh avenged a regular-season loss to Navy. The Mountain Hawks will look to avenge another loss on Sunday when they face Loyola, just 22 days after the Greyhounds defeated Lehigh 16-10.

LEHIGH LACROSSE AT A GLANCE...

- Lehigh's 39 victories from 2012-14 was tied for third in the nation during that span. The win total only trailed Duke and Loyola and was tied with Denver.
- The Mountain Hawks are 33-20 against Patriot League opponents since the beginning of 2012 (regular season and postseason).
- Lehigh has reached double-figure victories in three of the last six seasons (2012, 2013, 2014) after having double-figure wins just four times in the first 112 years of program history: 1969, 1993, 1994 and 1997.

SIX MOUNTAIN HAWKS NAMED ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Following a strong regular season which includes a top-four seed for the first time since 2014, six members of the Lehigh men's lacrosse team were named All-Patriot League honorees on Monday. Juniors Craig Chick and Andrew Pettit, and sophomore Conor Gaffney garnered first team All-League while juniors Eddie Bouhall and Lucas Spence, and freshman Teddy Leggett were named second team honorees. Lehigh's six All-Patriot League performers mark its most since 2013, when the Mountain Hawks had seven.

Chick was named first team All-League for a second straight season after posting 37 groundballs and 35 caused turnovers (second nationally) through 14 regular-season games. Chick was named Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week on Mar. 12 following Lehigh's 9-7 win at No. 12 Army West Point, a game which saw him post seven groundballs and three caused turnovers, holding the Black Knights to a then-season low seven goals. An anchor of Lehigh's defense, which has been ranked as high as sixth nationally, Chick has broken the Lehigh and Patriot League career records for caused turnovers - breaking the school record on Mar. 20 at No. 18/19 Hofstra and breaking the league mark two games later at Boston University. Chick is up to 112 career caused turnovers, tied for ninth in NCAA history. He has at least one caused turnover in every game this season, including multiple in 10-of-14 contests.

Named to the Tewaaron Award Watch List in March, Pettit leads Lehigh in goals (34) and points (53), standing fourth in the league in both categories. The Wilmington, Delaware native has at least one point in every game this season, with multiple points in 13-of-14 contests. Earlier this season, Pettit tied a career-high seven points vs. Holy Cross (two goals, five assists) while adding seven points at Hofstra (three goals, four assists) as well. Hofstra stood as the nation's No. 1 defense and Pettit went on to have more points himself (7) than it was allowing opponent teams on average (6.33) entering the day. Pettit also scored five goals at Army, including the first three goals of the fourth quarter, to turn a 6-5 Lehigh deficit into an 8-6 lead. That effort earned Pettit Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week honors. Pettit is up to 76 goals and 107 points in his career.

Gaffney garnered All-League recognition for the first time in his career, sharing first team faceoff specialist honors with Navy's Joe Varello (Varello was named Faceoff Specialist of the Year due to receiving more first-place votes). Gaffney leads the Patriot League in faceoff percentage, winning 60.3 percent of his draws (178-of-295). He has impressed against some of the league's top faceoff specialists, including winning 13-of-21 against Varello (who has won 59.6 percent on the year), 11-of-20 vs. Colgate's Colin Orr (who has won 60.1 percent) and 12-of-20 against Army's John Ragno (who has won 55.5 percent). Gaffney also won 17-of-20 at Lafayette, 16-of-23 against Cornell and most recently, 14-20 at Bucknell. Gaffney has been named Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Week four times this season, including a stretch of three straight weeks in March. He has won 10 weekly awards over the first two years of his career.

Spence earned his first-career All-League recognition after quietly putting together a very impressive season. The Springfield, Pa. native has multiple points in every game of 2018, standing second on the team in goals (29) and points (49) while his 20 assists are tied for the team lead. Spence is tied for fifth in the Patriot League in points, stands eighth in goals and tied for seventh in assists. He enjoyed a breakout performance in the league opener vs. Holy Cross, tallying career highs in goals (6) and points (7) while adding six points (four goals, two assists) at Lafayette. Included in that effort was a personal 3-0 run in the span of 35 seconds. Spence recorded five points (two goals, three assists) at Hofstra while posting four points in each of the last two games entering the postseason, vs. No. 9/11 Cornell and at No. 11/12 Bucknell.

Bouhall was named second team All-Patriot League for a second straight season as a key part of Lehigh's defense. Bouhall is tied for fourth in the league with 20 caused turnovers while adding 37 groundballs. Among his strong performances was six groundballs and four caused turnovers against Navy to tie a career high in both categories. Bouhall recorded three groundballs and three caused turnovers at No. 13/14 North Carolina while following with five groundballs and two caused turnovers vs. Holy Cross. Bouhall has at least one groundball in 13-of-14 games this season and a caused turnover in all but two contests, helping the Mountain Hawks hold their opponent to single-digit goals in eight of the first 11 games in 2018.

Leggett has enjoyed a tremendous rookie campaign, earning second team All-League at long-stick midfielder after a regular season which saw him record 55 groundballs (second on the team) and 20 caused turnovers (tied for second). Chick is second in the Patriot League in caused turnovers (35) while Bouhall and Leggett are each tied for fourth with 20 apiece. In addition, Leggett, Chick and Casey Eidenshink are the only three non-faceoff specialists to eclipse 50 groundballs in a season in Kevin Cassese's 11 seasons as Lehigh head coach. The Vaughan, Ontario native has multiple groundballs in 13-of-14 games this season, including seven at Army, to go with a caused turnover. Leggett tallied a career-high four caused turnovers vs. Holy Cross while causing two turnovers on six different occasions. Leggett recorded five groundballs and two caused turnovers in Lehigh's big win at Hofstra while following with the same stat line vs. Navy and posting five groundballs and a caused turnover in Lehigh's last-second win at Boston University.

GAFFNEY NAMED SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF YEAR

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – After being named first team All-Patriot League earlier in the week, Lehigh men's lacrosse sophomore Conor Gaffney garnered a major award on Wednesday, being named Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Gaffney is Lehigh's first Scholar-Athlete of the Year since Jonathan Stumpf in 2011 and fourth in program history. He's just the second Scholar-Athlete of the Year from Lehigh to also be named first team All-League in the same season (the other being Michael Rabinovitz in 2002).

Through three semesters at Lehigh, Gaffney owns a perfect 4.0 GPA as a Mechanical Engineering major, being named to the Dean's List every semester, garnering the Faculty Athletics Council Award as well and being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Gaffney currently stands fifth among active players in career faceoff percentage (60.5). The league's leader in faceoff percentage this season (60.1 percent, 188-of-233), Gaffney has impressed against some of the league's top faceoff specialists, including winning 13-of-21 against Navy's Joe Varello (who has won 59.6 percent on the year), 11-of-20 then 10-of-18 vs. Colgate's Colin Orr (who has won 59.6 percent) and 12-of-20 against Army's John Ragno (who has won 55.5 percent). Gaffney won 17-of-20 at Lafayette, 16-of-23 against Cornell and most recently, 14-20 at Bucknell. He played a crucial role in Lehigh's 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra on Mar. 20, winning 15-of-24 against Kyle Gallagher, who entered the day at 61.8 percent on the season.

Gaffney been named Patriot League Faceoff Specialist of the Week four times this season, including a stretch of three straight weeks in March. He's won 10 weekly awards over the first two years of his career.

LAST GAME VS. LOYOLA (NOTES)

- No. 11/12 Loyola scored the game's first seven goals to put the Mountain Hawks into a hole they couldn't dig out of. The Greyhounds won 5-of-6 first-quarter faceoffs, 8-of-11 in the first half and 15-of-21 over the first three quarters. Two straight third-quarter goals from junior Andrew Pettit pulled Lehigh within 10-3, but four consecutive Loyola goals erased any hopes of a comeback.

- The Mountain Hawks did finish with seven of the game's final nine goals and six of the final seven. The only Loyola goal in that span came directly off a faceoff.

- In Lehigh's 4-0 run to end the game, sophomore Austin Pierce scored two goals in the span of 16 seconds while senior Brady Thompson scored his first-career goal in the final minute to account for the 16-10 final.

- Pettit led Lehigh's offense with three goals for his 13th-career hat trick. Juniors Tristan Rai, Lucas Spence and Mickey Fitzpatrick each recorded a goal and assist. Sophomore Parker Kent tied a career-high two groundballs while Foley tied career highs in groundballs (2) and caused turnovers (1). - Junior Craig Chick caused a turnover, marking the 109th of his career to tie for 11th in NCAA history. - One bright spot was Lehigh's man-up unit as for a second straight game, the Mountain Hawks were 1-for-1 on the extra man to give it 12 conversions in their last 15 attempts.

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team was tied for third in the nation in wins from 2002-14, winning 39 games over those three seasons. Duke led the way with 48 wins in that span while Loyola had 44 and Lehigh and Denver tallied 39.

ALL-TIME SERIES WITH LOYOLA

Loyola leads the all-time series, 13-0, which includes a 6-0 mark since the Greyhounds joined the Patriot League. The teams met in league play in 2014, playing for the first time since 1998. Five of the six games since 2014 have come in the regular season with Loyola also beating the Mountain Hawks in the 2014 championship game. The closest call came in 2016 when Lehigh dropped a slim 11-10 final to the Greyhounds. The first-ever meeting between the two sides was in 1942, a 12-1 Loyola win.

PL QUARTERFINAL WIN OVER COLGATE (APR. 24)

- Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger gave Lehigh an early 1-0 lead, then two goals in the final 29 seconds of the stanza gave the Mountain Hawks a 3-0 advantage. Lehigh went on to score eight of the next 10 goals then Colgate scored three goals in the final five minutes, but it wasn't nearly enough.

- The win snapped a four-game home losing streak for the Mountain Hawks and four-game losing skid in the Patriot League Tournament, dating back to their previous in 2014. Prior to Tuesday, Lehigh's previous home win was also against Colgate on Mar. 3 by a 10-7 final. After that game, the Mountain Hawks dropped four straight home contests, all against teams currently ranked in the top 13 of this week's USILA Coaches Poll.

- Junior Andrew Pettit helped lead the offense with a career-high tying five goals. It also tied a Patriot League Tournament single-game record, previously held by five different individuals. All five goals were assisted as Lehigh assisted on eight of its 11 goals on the evening.

- Junior Tristan Rai added a goal and three assists while senior John Mehok had a goal and career-high tying two assists. Junior Lucas Spence recorded a goal and assist to continue his streak of multiple points in every game this season.

- Sophomore Christian McHugh set a career high with three caused turnovers while tying a career-high two groundballs. Junior Craig Chick finished with five groundballs and a caused turnover while classmate Eddie Bouhall recorded two groundballs and two caused turnovers. Sophomore Erik DiGirolamo was strong with a career-high three groundballs and a caused turnover.

- Lehigh has given up 13 goals over two full games against Colgate this season. In the Raiders' other 12 games of 2018, they're averaging 13.33 goals per contest.

- Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 10-of-18 faceoffs against Colin Orr, who entered the day over 60 percent on the season.

- Freshman James Spence was stellar in goal, stopping 11-of-15 shots sent his way. He made eight first-half saves, allowing just one goal to help the Mountain Hawks take a commanding 6-1 lead into the locker room.

PROLIFIC PETTIT

Junior Andrew Pettit was one of the Patriot League's, and nation's, top goal scorers last season. He finished the year with 35 goals in 14 games. His goal total was second in the league while his 2.5 goals per contest was No. 1 in the Patriot League and No. 17 nationally. Pettit began last season with multiple goals in his first nine games of the season before he was held goal-less at Loyola on Apr. 8. Pettit was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point as his streak reached 10 dating back to 2016.

This season, Pettit has 61 points (42 goals, 19 assists) through 15 games. Pettit is currently 16th in the nation in goals per game (2.63) (as of Saturday, Apr. 28). He's also second nationally in extra-man goals (9). He has led the Mountain Hawks in goals (or tied for the lead) eight times in 16 games, and has eight hat tricks in 2018. One highlight was a career-high tying five-goal effort at Army West Point, which included a natural hat trick (three straight goals) in the fourth quarter to turn a one-goal deficit into a two-goal lead. He also had seven points (three goals, four assists) in a 13-8 win at No. 18/19 Hofstra (Mar. 20), contributing to more goals himself (7) than Hofstra (the nation's No. 1 scoring defense) were allowing entering the day (6.33). Pettit tied a career high and Patriot League Tournament single-game record with five goals in the Patriot League Quarterfinal victory over Colgate. Pettit was added to the Tewaaron Award Watch List on Mar. 22.

Pettit has recorded multiple goals in 26 of his last 31 games dating back to the end of his freshman season. He owns 27-career multi-goal games, 30-career multi-point games and 15-career hat tricks. Pettit has scored a goal in 16 straight games. His 15 straight games as of Wednesday was tied for the ninth longest active streak in the nation.

RISE OF THE DEFENSE

Stellar defense played a key role in Lehigh's success from 2012-14 when it won two consecutive Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 then made it back to the title game in 2014. This season, the Mountain Hawks are once again featuring one of the nation's top defenses.

LEHIGH PICKED SIXTH, THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

The Lehigh men's lacrosse team has been picked sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll while juniors Craig Chick and Eddie Bouhall and sophomore Conor Gaffney were named preseason All-League, as announced on Tuesday, Jan. 30. The Mountain Hawks are coming off their seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth last season; Lehigh and Army West Point are the only two teams to advance to each of the last seven league tourneys.

TEAM CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

Lehigh head men's lacrosse coach Kevin Cassese announced in the fall that senior Ian Strain will serve as the Mountain Hawks' 2018 captain while junior Craig Chick and seniors John Mehok and Nolan Apers were named assistant captains. Strain has plenty of experience in a leadership role after serving as co-captain with Cody Triolo and Donny Stires last season. The captains were voted on by the team. Junior Andrew Pettit was added as an assistant captain during the season, as announced on Mar. 20.

IMPRESSIVE JUNIORS

Lehigh's current junior class has been stellar. Last year, they combined for 80 goals (58.4% of team total), 42 assists (46.7%), 145 groundballs (32.6%) and 76 caused turnovers (65.5%) last season (2017). As a team, Lehigh finished with 137 goals, 90 assists, 445 groundballs and 116 caused turnovers. Seven started much of last season (Eddie Bouhall, Craig Chick and Matt Rimol on defense, Lucas Spence in the midfield and Andrew Pettit and Tristan Rai at attack, and Chris Kiernan in goal). Mickey Fitzpatrick also started three games in the midfield.

So far this year, the class has combined for 121 goals (out of 172, 70.3% of team total) and 72 assists (out of 106, 67.9%). Defensively, the junior class has tallied 190 groundballs (out of 492, 38.6%) and 78 caused turnovers (out of 126, 61.9%).

NOONE WINS MLL CHAMPIONSHIP WITH MACHINE

One year after falling to former Lehigh teammate Noah Molnar and his Denver Outlaws in the MLL Finals, Mike Noone got revenge as his Ohio Machine captured the 2017 title with a 17-12 win over Molnar's Outlaws. Noone played in 10 games during the regular season, posting 10 groundballs and a caused turnover. Molnar finished the 2017 regular season with four goals, two assists, 19 groundballs and seven caused turnovers. Noone had a groundball and caused turnover in the championship game held Saturday, Aug. 19 at Ford Center at the Star in Frisco, Texas, while Molnar collected a groundball.

EXTRA-MAN PROFICIENCY

The Mountain Hawks have converted an impressive 62.5 percent of their man-up opportunities this season (25-of-40). That percentage is good for second in the nation, behind Maryland's 63.6 percentage. Maryland and Lehigh would be 2-3 in NCAA history if the season ended today. Detroit holds the all-time record, converting at a 70.8 percent clip in 2014. Second place entering the year was Marist at 60.7 percent in 2016.

CHAOTIC CHICK

Junior Craig Chick has emerged as a premier defensive player in the country as he is first in caused turnovers since the beginning of 2016 (116) (as of Saturday, Apr. 28). He is already eighth in NCAA history in career caused turnovers.

Chick finished his freshman season as the national leader in caused turnovers with 37. His big breakout came on Apr. 12 at Princeton when he posted 10 groundballs and eight caused turnovers. The eight caused turnovers were the most by a Lehigh player since Evan Guerrero had nine against Saint Joseph's on Feb. 14, 2009. Chick tied for the most caused turnovers in the nation in 2016 (Division I) and tied Princeton's Sherrerd Field record, originally set by Villanova's Brian Karalunas. Chick followed with seven groundballs and seven caused turnovers just four days later against Cornell. Chick finished the season with 41 groundballs and 25 caused turnovers over his last eight games. As a sophomore, Chick posted 58 groundballs and school-record 40 caused turnovers (third in the nation). On five different occasions, Chick tallied four or more caused turnovers and had a stretch of 10 straight games with multiple caused turnovers.

So far in 2018, Chick has 39 caused turnovers, currently second in the nation. Here are some game-by-game highlights.

- Tallied three groundballs and a game-high three caused turnovers in the Patriot League Semifinals against Navy (Apr. 27). He also moved into sole possession of eighth place in NCAA history with 116 career caused turnovers, passing Jason Noble of Cornell who had 115.
- Finished with five groundballs and a caused turnover in the Patriot League Quarterfinals vs. Colgate (Apr. 24).
- Recorded a groundball and caused turnover at No. 11/12 Bucknell (Apr. 20) to move into a tie for ninth place in NCAA history with 112.
- Posted four groundballs and two caused turnovers against No. 9/11 Cornell (Apr. 14), moving into the top 10 in NCAA history in career caused turnovers

DEFENSE IS KEY

• Lehigh owned the nation's second-ranked defense in 2012 (6.61 goals per game) and followed by finishing sixth in 2013 (7.94) and second in 2014 (7.22). In 2015, the Mountain Hawks allowed 10.06 goals per game while they allowed 10.87 per contest in 2016. • After allowing two goals in the first 2:15 of the Patriot League Semifinals vs. Navy (Apr. 27), the Lehigh defense bore down the rest of the way. The Mountain Hawks held the Midshipmen scoreless for a stretch of 23:04 bridging the end of the first quarter through beginning of the third. Navy did have a surge of four goals in the span of 7:57 in the third, but the Mountain Hawks allowed just one goal over the game's final 19:22 to pull out the 10-9 overtime win. In the end, Lehigh allowed just seven goals over the final 58:27.

• The Mountain Hawks allowed just three goals over the game's first 55:23 in the Patriot League Quarterfinals vs. Colgate (Apr. 24), allowing only six goals for the game. - Lehigh held No. 16/18 Rutgers to eight goals (Mar. 14), just the second time the Scarlet Knights were held to single digits and just one more goal than their previous season low of seven at Army. The Mountain Hawks allowed just 25 shots and 15 shots on goal, well below Rutgers' averages of 34.8 and 22.3 entering the game.
- The Mountain Hawks held No. 12 Army West Point (Mar. 10) to a season-low seven goals, two fewer goals than its previous season low of nine vs. Rutgers. Lehigh held Army almost six goals fewer than its average entering the game (12.80).

The 19 shots were 22 fewer shots than Colgate's average of 41.0 entering the game. The Mountain Hawks held Raiders' leading scorer Mike Hawkins to just two points (two goals). Hawkins had been averaging 4.75 points per game (19 in his first four games). Lehigh held Colgate scoreless for the game's final 19:48, allowing the Mountain Hawks to end the game on a 4-0 run to turn a 7-6 deficit into a 10-7 victory.
- Lehigh dominated against Holy Cross (Feb. 24), shutting out a team in the first quarter for the first time since Mar. 5, 2017 at Colgate. The Mountain Hawks allowed their fewest goals (4) since the 2016 season opener vs. NJIT and fewest in a Patriot League game since Mar. 29, 2014. Only three goals came in half-field offense; one came in transition off a faceoff win.

KEVIN CASSESE

Smith Family Head Coach
11th Season as Lehigh Head Coach

Kevin Cassese enters his 11th season as Lehigh's head men's lacrosse coach in 2018. Cassese's impact has been immediate, leading the Mountain Hawks to back-to-back Patriot League Championships in 2012 and 2013 followed by a third straight appearance in the league title game in 2014. Cassese has led to Lehigh to seven straight Patriot League Tournaments.

The Mountain Hawks finished last season with a 7-7 record and 4-4 mark in league play. Lehigh's season was highlighted by two consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked foes, defeating No. 16/18 Boston University (10-6) and No. 13/14 Princeton (15-10) while earning a 9-6 home victory over rival Bucknell on Senior Night to earn the program's seventh straight Patriot League Tournament berth. Three Mountain Hawks earned All-League, including Craig Chick, who was named to the first team and garnered honorable mention All-America recognition by Inside Lacrosse. Chick broke a school record with 40 caused turnovers, one year after leading the nation in that category.

The program's breakthrough came in 2012 when Lehigh finished 14-3 and won its first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship to advance to the program's first NCAA Tournament. The Mountain Hawks followed that with a 12-5 campaign in 2013, winning both the regular season and tournament titles. Despite losing a large and talented senior class, Lehigh still went 13-5 in 2014 and advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game once again.

In 2012, Cassese led the Mountain Hawks to a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and their highest-ever national ranking; Lehigh came in at No. 4 nationally in the final Coaches Poll following the regular season.

Following a home-opening loss to Villanova in 2012, Lehigh promptly won nine straight games and 13-of-14 to advance to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 7 overall seed. The Mountain Hawks hosted eventual National Finalist Maryland and gave the Terps their toughest fight on their road to the title game. Despite falling down 6-1 in the first half, Lehigh responded with seven straight goals in front of a standing room only crowd of 2,278 at the Ulrich Sports Complex (and in front of a national audience on ESPNU).

Lehigh posted an impressive 8-3 record against nationally-ranked foes, including a big 9-8 win at No. 4 North Carolina in March, propelling the Mountain Hawks into the national polls for the first time since 2000. Lehigh ended a number of long droughts, defeating UNC for the first time since 1951, Yale for the first time since 1918 and Penn State for the first time since 1971. A big part of the success came from the Mountain Hawks' defense, which stood as the No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. Cassese was named Patriot League Coach of the Year while freshman Matt Poillon became Lehigh's first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year. Eight cracked the All-Patriot League Team, tied for most in school history.

In 2013, Lehigh won seven straight games to finish undefeated in Patriot League play and earn the right to host the league tournament. Lehigh went on to dominate Bucknell on its home turf (11-5) for its second straight league championship. The awards continued to roll in for the Mountain Hawks as Poillon was named Patriot League Goalie of the Year for a second straight season and a school-record four players were named USILA All-Americans, breaking the record of three set a season prior. In addition, the Mountain Hawks placed a league-best three players on the Academic All-Patriot League Team.

The success continued into 2014 as the Mountain Hawks won 13 games, just one shy of tying the school record set just two years prior. Lehigh earned a thrilling 7-6 triple overtime victory over No. 20 Villanova in February and earned convincing league wins over Bucknell (9-3), Navy (13-2), Holy Cross (20-4) and Lafayette (17-6). The Mountain Hawks defeated Navy in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at home before earning a 12-11 semifinal victory over Army behind a Reid Weber goal with just three seconds remaining.

Several Mountain Hawks enjoyed breakout seasons, led by attackman Dan Taylor who recorded 45 points over his last seven games to finish with 76 points, which far and away led the Patriot League and was most among Canadian players in all of Division I Lacrosse. Taylor was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, as was defenseman Tripp Telesco who finished with 44 groundballs and 36 caused turnovers. Three others were named All-League while Poillon, Taylor and Telesco were named honorable mention All-Americans as well.

After struggling to begin 2015, the Mountain Hawks ended the season on a high note, winning five of their last six regular season games, defeating a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span (No. 14 Princeton and No. 18 Stony Brook) and advancing to their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament. Taylor enjoyed another sensational season, posting 77 points to earn Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and honorable mention All-America recognition. A young team in 2016 went on to advance to the program's sixth straight Patriot League Tournament, finishing 4-4 in league play highlighted by a thrilling 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University.

Setting the stage for the program's breakthrough of 2012, the Mountain Hawks jumped squarely into the national lacrosse picture in 2011 by not only qualifying for the Patriot League postseason, but also proving they could compete with anyone in the country. Lehigh advanced to its first Patriot League Tournament since 2006. The Mountain Hawks got off to a quick 3-1 start, which included a 14-10 triumph over Navy, the program's first victory over the Midshipmen in nearly 100 years. Lehigh posted the nation's eighth biggest improvement in 2011, according to LaxPower.com's computer rankings, which takes into account many of the factors used by the NCAA Tournament selection committee.

In his first four years at Lehigh, Cassese mentored a total of nine All-Patriot League honorees, including four in 2011. Faceoff specialist Ryan Snyder cracked the first team after winning 61.6 percent of his draws and scooping a then-Patriot League record 118 groundballs. Jonathan Stumpf was not only named to the second team, but also became Lehigh's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American while being named a Senior CLASS Award first team All-American, USILA Scholar All-American and Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Stumpf (along with teammate and current Lehigh assistant coach Will Scudder) also played in the USILA North-South All-Star Game where he netted the eventual game-winning goal for the South.

Under Cassese's watch, Lehigh has sent several players to professional lacrosse. Seven have been selected in the Major League

Lacrosse Collegiate Draft since 2013 while multiple others have been picked in the player pool. Roman Lao-Gosney (Florida) has played in more than 50 career games since joining the league in 2012 while twin brother Cameron (Florida), Mike Noone (Ohio) and Noah Molnar (Denver) are all veterans of the league with Molnar winning an MLL Championship in 2016 and Noone in 2017. In addition, Taylor was the first selection of defending National Lacrosse League Champion Saskatchewan Rush in the 2015 NLL Collegiate Draft. He was picked 12th overall and went on to win a championship with the Rush in 2016.

Cassese's players have been involved in US Lacrosse as well as defenseman Ty Souders tried out for the U.S. Under-19 Team as part of a three-day training camp at UMBC. Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney also participated in numerous scrimmages for Team USA, beginning with the Capital Lacrosse Classic on Oct. 7, 2012.

On a personal level, Cassese made his coaching debut for US Lacrosse at the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, serving as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade (Furman), alongside assistants Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game.

As a player, Cassese had an impressive career representing the USA. He was named to the 2010 United States Men's National Lacrosse Team, traveling to Manchester, England. He was named co-captain of that gold medal winning team, alongside Ryan Powell (Syracuse). That marked the third time Cassese earned a spot on the National Team. Cassese also helped the United States to the gold medal at the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation World Championships, while still an undergraduate at Duke University. He was also a member of the United States team that placed second at the 2006 ILF World Championships in London, Ontario.

Cassese is one of the most decorated student-athletes in Duke history. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-ACC selection. Cassese helped lead the Blue Devils to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of ACC Championships during his collegiate career. Cassese earned All-America honors on three separate occasions, including first-team accolades in 2002 and 2003. Cassese, who scored 80 goals and handed out 38 assists in his career, was a two-time Tewaaronon Trophy finalist and garnered ACC Player of the Year honors in 2001. In 2002, Cassese was the recipient of the Lt. Donald MacLaughlin, Jr. Award as the nation's top midfielder. He was also a standout in the classroom, graduating with a 3.59 GPA while earning his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Duke. He was selected as a USILA Scholar All-American, ACC Academic Honor Roll member, and was named the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Honorary Award recipient for outstanding athletic and academic achievement.

After his time at Duke, Cassese continued his playing career in Major League Lacrosse for seven years. He was the second overall selection in the 2003 MLL Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. Among his professional accomplishments are a pair of MLL Rookie of the Week honors and a spot in both the 2006 and 2010 MLL All-Star Games. He was named MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game. Cassese was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage during the summer of 2007 (which coincided with his hiring at Lehigh) and helped lead his new team to the 2007 Major League Lacrosse Championship, as well as a spot in Championship Weekend in 2008.

Cassese's coaching career before Lehigh included a stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2005-07, helping lead the Blue Devils to the 2007 National Championship Game. He also served as Duke's interim head coach for part of the summer of 2006. Prior to Duke, Cassese spent one season at Stony Brook as an assistant where he directed the nation's top extra man offense and helped the Seawolves to a 10-6 record in the spring of 2005.

A native of Port Jefferson Station, New York and graduate of Comsewogue High School, Cassese and his wife, Katie Granson Cassese who attended nearby Freedom High School, were married in Bethlehem in December of 2006. They had their first child, Drew, in July of 2011, their second child, Anna, in August of 2013 and third child, Claire, in July of 2016.

ERROL WILSON

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Lehigh

Errol Wilson is in his seventh season as a Lehigh assistant coach, and fourth as associate head coach in 2017.

The former Stony Brook goalie has held several roles with the Mountain Hawks. After his first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Wilson has served as offensive coordinator since 2016, a role he held at Brown University. Over his tenure at Lehigh, has also served as associate offensive coordinator, goalie coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator.

In his first season on staff, Wilson helped lead the Mountain Hawks to new heights, including a school-record 14 wins, a program record nine-game winning streak and its highest-ever national ranking (No. 4) along with its first Patriot League Tournament Title and NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked Wilson's second NCAA Tournament appearance as assistant coach after leading Brown to the 2009 tournament where it dropped an overtime heartbreaker at Johns Hopkins.

Wilson worked with All-American goalie Matt Poillon, who finished second nationally with a 6.75 GAA and fourth with a 59.7 save percentage, becoming Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Poillon earned four Patriot League Goalie of the Week honors while garnering Rookie of the Week twice. In addition, each one of Lehigh's close defensemen was named All-Patriot League: Ty Souders (First), Mike Noone (second) and Lukas Mikelinich (second).

The Mountain Hawks owned the nation's No. 2 scoring defense (only behind Notre Dame), holding opponents to only 6.81 goals per game. Lehigh picked up its first shutout in 40 years with a 13-0 triumph over Manhattan, allowed only two goals to VMI and five or fewer to Penn State, Navy, Holy Cross, Penn and Saint Joseph's. The squad extended its shutout streak to an incredible 90:14 before the Quakers scored with 5:04 remaining in the second quarter. The streak spanned from the fourth quarter against Villanova, through the entire Manhattan contest and the first 24:56 at Penn.

The Mountain Hawks followed in 2013 by finishing sixth nationally in scoring defense (7.94 goals per game) with Poillon earning Goalie of the Year honors for a second straight season. Noone and Souders also garnered All-League honors for the second year in a row while both garnering honorable mention All-America recognition. Lehigh held Saint Joseph's to only one goal, VMI to only two, Holy Cross, Lafayette and Bucknell to five and Army, UMass and Penn to just six goals apiece. One of the most dominant performances came in the Patriot League Championship game as the Mountain Hawks won 11-5 for their second straight league title and NCAA Tournament berth.

Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader. Over the three-year timeframe from 2012-14, Lehigh owned the nation's lowest goals against average. Wilson also worked with an offense that came into its own as the season progressed. Dan Taylor finished the season with 76 points, leading the team and Patriot League in scoring which also stood seventh in the nation. He was named an All-American after the season, as was Poillon and defenseman Tripp Telesco.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh went onto its sixth straight league tournament appearance in 2016, highlighted by an exciting 8-7 win at No. 20 Boston University. In Wilson's first season as offensive coordinator in 2016, senior attackman Reid Weber was named first team All-Patriot League while freshman Tristan Rai jumped onto the national scene with a vengeance; scoring 31 goals on just 58 shots; his .534 shooting percentage was good for second in the nation. The Mountain Hawks followed in 2017 by reaching their seventh straight league tournament, highlighted by consecutive home wins over nationally-ranked opponents – defeating No. 16/18 Boston University 10-6 and No. 13/14 Princeton 15-10. The 15 goals tied for a season high, also set against NJIT and Lafayette. Rai continued his strong play with 46 points (22 goals, team-high 24 assists) while classmate Andrew Pettit emerged as well, tallying 46 himself behind a team-high 35 goals. Pettit began the season with nine straight multi-goal games. His first game without multiple goals came Apr. 8 at Loyola as he was the only player in the nation to score multiple goals in every game up until that point.

At Rutgers, Wilson helped the Scarlet Knights win five of their first six games in 2011 and coached a defense which allowed only 8.27 goals per game.

Prior to Rutgers, Wilson served as assistant coach at Brown for four seasons (2007-10). While there, he was both offensive coordinator and goalie coach, helping the Bears reach new heights by winning an Ivy League Championship in 2008, then earning an NCAA Tournament berth in '09. Wilson worked with and mentored one of the nation's top goalies in Jordan Burke. The 2009 USILA Goalie of the Year, Burke was twice named the Ivy League Player of the Year and New England Player of the Year, while earning First Team All-America honors as well.

Wilson was a four-year letterwinner at Stony Brook where he was teammates with goalie and former Lehigh assistant and current Dartmouth head coach Brendan Callahan. Wilson resides in Bethlehem with his wife Pat and sons Roman and Solomon.

WILL SCUDDER

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season at Lehigh

Former Lehigh men's lacrosse standout Will Scudder '11 enters his fifth season on the coaching staff in 2018 and third as defensive coordinator. Scudder replaced Tom Compitello who accepted a position at Sacred Heart, then was promoted prior to the 2015 season. Scudder was promoted to associate defensive coordinator, faceoff coordinator and camps/clinics/tournaments coordinator after Brendan Callahan was named head coach at Dartmouth. He was then named defensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season when Errol Wilson was named offensive coordinator. Scudder was a former team captain and All-Patriot League honoree as a Mountain Hawk.

In his first year on the Lehigh staff, Scudder helped coach a strong tandem at faceoff in 2014 that won 54 percent of its draws; Ryan Buttenbaum won 55 percent and Casey McAdam won 52 percent at the X. McAdam was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week after winning 17-of-23 faceoffs against Monmouth then 15-of-20 vs. Holy Cross.

As a team, Lehigh advanced to its third straight Patriot League Championship Game in 2014, finishing the season 13-5 and within just one win of tying the school record set two years prior. The defense allowed just 7.22 goals per game, good for second in the nation and just 0.01 behind the nation's leader.

In 2015, a pair of Mountain Hawks split time at faceoff, both impressing down the stretch. Freshman Matt Ernst showed flashes of greatness, which included a four-game stretch (at Monmouth, Holy Cross, Colgate and vs. Princeton), which saw him win 58 percent of his draws (49-of-85). McAdam ended his season on a high note, winning 14-of-21 faceoffs in the Patriot League Quarterfinals at Bucknell.

The Mountain Hawks struggled to begin 2015, but bounced back in a big way. Lehigh defeated a pair of nationally-ranked opponents in a five-day span, earning wins over No. 14 Princeton and at Wilson's alma mater and No. 18 Stony Brook. The Mountain Hawks defeated Lafayette in their regular season finale, their fifth win in six games, to reach their fifth straight Patriot League Tournament.

Lehigh advanced to its sixth straight league tournament in 2016, finishing 4-4 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks' defense had plenty of highlight moments. Individually, freshman long-stick midfielder Craig Chick led the nation in caused turnovers with 37 while senior Tripp Telesco finished tied for ninth with 90. Lehigh allowed just four goals to NJIT, six to Lafayette and seven in a dramatic win at No. 20 Boston University, which essentially clinched the Mountain Hawks' berth into the league tournament.

Scudder helped lead Lehigh to its seventh straight league tournament berth in 2017. As a team, the Mountain Hawks allowed just six goals in a home win over No. 16/18 Boston University. In the next home game, Lehigh allowed just 10 in a win over No. 13/14 Princeton, holding the nation's No. 3 ranked offense to its second lowest total of the season which was five goals less than its season average entering the game. Individually, Chick continued his stellar play, setting a school record with 40 caused turnovers. He and classmate Eddie Bouhall combined for 100 groundballs and 60 caused turnovers on the season, both earning All-Patriot League honors. Chick was named to the first team and garnered Inside Lacrosse honorable mention All-America recognition.

As a player, Scudder played in 51 games over his career in the Brown and White, highlighted by his junior campaign when he won 56 percent of his faceoffs (140-of-251) to earn Second Team All-Patriot League honors. This came after a sophomore season which saw him win 56 percent (152-of-273) with 69 groundballs. Scudder played a key role in the rise of the Mountain Hawks' program, advancing to the league tournament as a senior in 2011 and helping set the stage for the two straight Patriot League Championships that followed in 2012 and 2013.

Scudder ended his collegiate career by winning 331-of-612 faceoffs (54.1 percent) with 156 groundballs. He also added three goals and four assists. Scudder played in the prestigious North-South Senior All-Star Game following his senior campaign.

Upon graduation, Scudder worked with A.G. Administrators, Inc. in the sports insurance industry from Summer 2011 until Spring 2013, while also serving as an assistant lacrosse coach at Great Valley High School in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. While at Great Valley, he helped lead the school to its first league title, coached six First Team All-Chesmont players, two members of the All-State team and one ALL American. He then moved onto Fever Lacrosse Inc. in Haverford, Pa. where he served and continues to serve as Director of Operations, in charge of managing tournaments, camps, clinics, and the 14 club teams within the Fever Program.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y.
NO. 12/14 LEHIGH 13, NO. 18/19 HOFSTRA 8

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. - After trailing 3-0 early, the Lehigh men's lacrosse team staged a 7-1 run to take a 7-4 lead, later breaking an 8-8 tie with five unanswered goals to lead the No. 12/14 Mountain Hawks a big 13-8 road win at No. 18/19 Hofstra on Tuesday evening. The win marks Lehigh's first in program history over the Pride as the Mountain Hawks improve to 7-2 on the season, picking up their third straight road victory overall, two coming against ranked opponents. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with seven points (three goals, four assists) to tie a career high. Classmate Craig Chick tallied four caused turnovers to become the Lehigh all-time career record holder and reach exactly 100 caused turnovers in his career.

Pettit had a hand in seven of Lehigh's first eight goals, helping the Mountain Hawks score the most goals this season against the nation's No. 1 ranked scoring defense. The Pride were allowing just 6.33 goals per game. Prior to Lehigh's 13 goals, the most goals Hofstra had allowed all season was nine to Ohio State. Hofstra entered the game on a four-game winning streak in which it allowed just 22 total goals in that span.

Each of Lehigh's starting attackmen tallied five points or more. Along with Pettit, junior Tristan Rai recorded his second consecutive hat trick with three goals and two assists while Lucas Spence had two goals and three assists. Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger and senior Nolan Apers each scored twice.

Chick's four caused turnovers gave him exactly 100 for his career, passing Tripp Telesco's previous school record of 97. Freshman Teddy Leggett added five groundballs and two caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney won 15-of-24 faceoffs, facing Hofstra's Kyle Gallagher, who had won 62 percent entering the day.

The Pride jumped out to the quick 3-0 lead and it took time for Lehigh's offense to settle in, but the Mountain Hawks scored two goals in the final 34 seconds of the first quarter to help spark the offense - Pettit on the extra man and Rai even strength. Hofstra responded to take a 4-2 lead, but the Mountain Hawks had another answer. Pettit scored at 6:37 of the second quarter to pull Lehigh within 4-3, then Pettit found Rai for goals at 2:17 and 0:19 to give the Mountain Hawks a 5-4 halftime advantage.

Eichelberger and Spence began the third quarter with goals to give Lehigh a 7-4 lead. Later in the stanza, the Pride scored three in a row to even the score at eight, but Eichelberger netted his second with nine seconds left in the third quarter to give Lehigh a 9-8 lead.

The Mountain Hawks carried the momentum into the fourth quarter as an Austin Pierce man-up goal gave Lehigh a 10-8 lead. Apers added consecutive goals and Spence rounded out the scoring. Freshman goalkeeper James Spence made two fourth-quarter saves as the Mountain Hawks shut-out Hofstra for the game's final 16:17.

Final shots were 31-24 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 31-20 edge in groundballs. Spence finished with six saves in goal.

GAME 10 • MAR. 24, 2018
BETHLEHEM, PA.
NAVY 10, NO. 12/14 LEHIGH 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - The No. 12/14 Lehigh men's lacrosse team held the advantage in practically every statistical category, but Navy goaltender Ryan Kern made a career-high 18 saves to shut the door on every Mountain Hawks' comeback attempt as Lehigh dropped a 10-7 final on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,178 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. Two consecutive man-up goals from junior Andrew Pettit pulled Lehigh even at four at the half, but Navy began the second half on a 3-0 run and would never trail. The loss marks Lehigh's first Patriot League defeat of the season as the Mountain Hawks fall to 7-3 overall, 4-1 in league play.

Lehigh's starting attackmen each recorded three points as Pettit and junior Lucas Spence had two goals and an assist while classmate Tristan Rai recorded a goal and two assists. Senior Ian Strain finished with a goal and assist.

Defensively, junior Eddie Bouhall had six groundballs and four caused turnovers to eclipse 50 caused turnovers in his career, while Craig Chick scored his second goal of the season and added four groundballs and four caused turnovers. Sophomore Conor Gaffney was stellar facing off, winning 13-of-21 on the day against Navy's Joe Varello, who entered the day winning 63.2 percent of his draws on the day.

Navy jumped out to a 2-0 lead just 5:03 into the game before Strain scored his first of the season at the 6:52 mark. The teams traded goals until late in the second quarter when Pettit and the Mountain Hawks scored twice on a nonreleasable Navy penalty, at the 2:50 and 2:04 marks, to pull Lehigh even at 4-4 at the half.

The Midshipmen began the third quarter on a 3-0 run before Chick and Spence scored in the span of 1:08. Lehigh attempted to pull even in the final minute, but Bouhall's shot was saved by Kern, leading to a transition goal on the other end as Navy took an 8-6 lead into the fourth.

That advantage swelled to 10-6 with 3:59 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rai scored just 13 seconds later and Lehigh won the ensuing faceoff looking to pull even closer, but Kern made his 17th stop of the afternoon on sophomore Andrew Eichelberger, all but ending the Mountain Hawks' hopes of a comeback.

Final shots were 38-26 in favor of Lehigh while the Mountain Hawks held a 39-27 edge in groundballs. Lehigh caused 14 of Navy's 19 turnovers while the Mountain Hawks turned the ball over just 11 times themselves. Lehigh was 2-of-2 on the extra man and improved to 62.1 percent on the year. If the season ended today, that mark would be second in NCAA history for a single season.

GAME 11 • MAR. 31, 2018

BOSTON, MASS.

NO. 17/19 LEHIGH 7, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 6

BOSTON - Trailing 6-4 with 3:57 remaining in the third quarter, No. 17/19 Lehigh didn't allow a goal for the game's final 18:57 while ending the game with three unanswered goals to pick up a dramatic 7-6 win at Boston University on Saturday. The Lehigh defense shut-out the Terriers for the fourth quarter despite playing defense for the majority of the stanza. It set the stage for junior Mickey Fitzpatrick as the Duxbury, Massachusetts native collected a groundball off a save and fired home the game-winner with just 38 seconds remaining. In doing so, the Mountain Hawks clinched their eighth consecutive Patriot League Tournament berth.

With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 8-3 on the season, including 5-1 in Patriot League play as they remain in a three-way tie for first place in the league standings.

Junior Craig Chick led the defense with two groundballs and four caused turnovers to break the Patriot League career caused turnover record, ending the game with 108 in his career. The record came in Chick's 40th career game, passing Colgate's Bobby Lawrence, who recorded 106 caused turnovers in 65 contests.

Boston University scored three goals in the first 4:59 of the third quarter to quickly turn a 4-2 Mountain Hawks' lead into a 5-4 Terriers' advantage. The lead reached 6-4 later in the stanza, forcing Lehigh head coach Kevin Casse to call timeout.

Sophomore Andrew Eichelberger led Lehigh's offense with two goals while juniors Andrew Pettit, Lucas Spence, Alexander Tumminello and Fitzpatrick all had a goal and assist. Freshman Teddy Leggett added five groundballs and a caused turnover.

Tumminello opened the scoring with an extra-man goal late in the first quarter. Lehigh has now recorded a man-up goal in six straight games, converting 11-of-14 extra-man opportunities in that span to increase its season percentage to 63.3 (19-of-30).

The Terriers responded with two goals in the first 2:13 of the second quarter to take a 2-1 advantage, but the Mountain Hawks answered with the final three goals of the half, from junior Tristan Rai, Pettit and Eichelberger, to take a 4-2 halftime lead.

After Boston University's third-quarter surge to retake the lead, Spence pulled Lehigh within 6-5 at 1:52 of the third and Eichelberger scored his second just 1:27 into the fourth, knotting the game at six. Boston University controlled possession over the ensuing minutes, but the Mountain Hawks' defense limited the Terriers' opportunities and when they had chances, freshman James Spence came up big between the pipes. After Fitzpatrick's go-ahead goal, the Mountain Hawks won the ensuing faceoff and wouldn't give up possession as they wrapped up the hard-fought victory.

Lehigh finished with a 30-29 edge in shots while the Mountain Hawks held a 29-23 advantage in groundballs. Sophomore faceoff specialist Conor Gaffney bounced back from going 0-for-6 in the third quarter to win all three taken in the fourth. Spence was stellar in goal, making a career-high 13 saves.

GAME 12 • APR. 7, 2018

BETHLEHEM, PA.

NO. 11/12 LOYOLA 16, NO. 15/17 LEHIGH 10

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - No. 11/12 Loyola jumped out to a 7-0 second-quarter lead, which proved too much for the No. 15/17 Lehigh men's lacrosse team to overcome in a 16-10 defeat on Saturday at the Ulrich Sports Complex. The Mountain Hawks scored seven of the game's final nine goals, holding a 6-2 fourth-quarter edge, but it wasn't enough. Junior Andrew Pettit led the offense with his 13th-career hat trick while sophomore Austin Pierce scored two goals in the span of 16 seconds in the fourth and senior Brady Thompson netted his first-career goal.

Along with Pettit and Pierce, juniors Tristan Rai, Lucas Spence and Mickey Fitzpatrick all tallied a goal and assist while senior Ian Strain dished two assists. In the end, the Mountain Hawks won just 6-of-21 faceoffs through the first three quarters and couldn't get into any rhythm.

Spencer finished the day with seven points (four goals, three assists) and had a hat trick by the end of the first quarter.

The Greyhounds opened a 7-0 lead before Craig Chick fired home a shot with 3:38 remaining in the second quarter. Loyola extended its lead to 10-1 just minutes into the third quarter. Pettit scored two straight goals, but the Greyhounds erased any doubt by scoring four times in the span of 3:03 to take a 14-3 advantage late in the third.

Fitzpatrick converted on the extra man late in the third, then Lehigh went on to outscore the Greyhounds 6-2 in the fourth. That quarter included Pettit's third goal, two goals from Pierce at the 2:48 and 2:32 marks, then the first-career from Thompson to pull Lehigh within 16-10 at the final horn.

The Mountain Hawks outshot Loyola 14-6 in the fourth to lead 33-32 for the game. The Greyhounds held a 33-30 edge in groundballs. Loyola won 18-of-30 faceoffs. One bright spot for Lehigh was freshman Joel Trucksess, who won 6-of-9. The Mountain Hawks converted their only extra-man opportunity and have now converted 12 of their last 15.

Despite the loss, Lehigh did clinch at least a top-four seed in the Patriot League Tournament due to out-of-town scores. If it finishes as the No. 3 or 4 seed, Lehigh will be home for a Patriot League Quarterfinal game for the first time since 2014. The Mountain Hawks are still mathematically alive to earn a top-two seed and bye into the Patriot League Semifinals.

BETHLEHEM, Pa.

NO. 9/11 CORNELL 12, NO. 17/18 LEHIGH 10

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - No. 9/11 Cornell used a 4-0 first-half run to turn a 2-2 tie into a 6-2 lead as the Big Red topped the No. 17/18 Lehigh men's lacrosse team, 12-10 on Saturday afternoon in front of 1,231 fans at the Ulrich Sports Complex. The Mountain Hawks pulled within 6-4 at the half, but Cornell slowly built its lead back up in the second. Junior Lucas Spence led the Lehigh offense with four goals while sophomore Conor Gaffney enjoyed a strong bounce-back game, winning 16-of-23 faceoffs with nine groundballs.

Saturday was Senior Day as the Mountain Hawks recognized their five seniors - Nolan Apers, JJ Foley, John Mehok, Ian Strain and Brady Thompson - prior to opening faceoff. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 8-5 on the season with one regular-season game remaining, at Bucknell next Friday night. Currently standing 5-2 in league play, the Mountain Hawks will be the No. 3 seed with a win against the Bison and the No. 4 seed with a loss. Either way, Lehigh is guaranteed to host a Patriot League Quarterfinal game on Tuesday, Apr. 24.

In the end, Lehigh's defense held the nation's No. 1 offense more than three goals below its season average. The Mountain Hawks held the Big Red to their fewest goals in six games, since they scored 11 on Mar. 17 vs. Yale. Cornell had been averaging 18.6 goals over its last five games entering the day. Lehigh held the Big Red to just six goals over the game's final 42:44.

Along with Spence's four goals, junior Tristan Rai tallied two goals and an assist while classmate Andrew Pettit had two goals and four groundballs. Defensively, junior Craig Chick recorded four groundballs and two caused turnovers to reach 111 in his career. He moved into sole possession of 10th place in NCAA history in that category. With his four groundballs, Chick eclipsed 150 GBs in his career.

Three others also tallied two caused turnovers apiece - junior Eddie Bouhall, freshman Teddy Leggett and Strain. Strain added a goal and six groundballs on his Senior Day. Leggett recorded four groundballs to eclipse 50 on the season.

The Mountain Hawks' extra man continued to impress, finishing 3-of-3 on the day. Lehigh has now converted seven straight man-up opportunities and 15 of its last 18 to improve to a nation's leading 67.6 percent on the season (23-of-34).

Spence began the scoring just over a minute into the game on the extra man. Later in the quarter, a tremendous individual effort by Pettit evened the score at two. The Big Red reeled off the next four goals, but a man-up tally from Pettit, followed by an even-strength goal from Rai on a delayed penalty, pulled Lehigh within 6-4 at the half.

Cornell scored the first two second-half goals and five of the first seven to open an 11-6 lead early in the fourth. Lehigh didn't back down as junior Austin Pierce scored on the man advantage at 12:20 and Rai finished a pass from sophomore Crew Cintron at 7:30 to pull within 11-8. The Big Red took a 12-8 lead at the 4:44 mark, but Spence scored his third goal with 3:45 remaining and fourth with 36 seconds on the clock. Freshman Joel Trucksess won the ensuing faceoff, but his shot was wide as the 12-10 score proved to be the final.

Lehigh finished with a 32-23 edge in shots and 39-30 advantage in groundballs. Freshman James Spence made three saves in the first 37:30 before being relieved by sophomore Colin Kirst who made two stops. Caelahn Bullen had 10 saves for Cornell.

GAME 14 • APR. 20, 2018

LEWISBURG, Pa.

NO. 11/12 BUCKNELL 14, NO. 19 LEHIGH 7

LEWISBURG, Pa. - The No. 19 Lehigh men's lacrosse team scored three straight first-half goals to take a 5-3 lead, but No. 11/12 Bucknell answered with a pair of 5-0 runs separated by an Ian Strain goal, to pull away, 14-7 on Friday evening in the regular season finale for both teams. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 8-6, 5-3 in Patriot League play. The Mountain Hawks will be the No. 4 seed in the upcoming Patriot League Tournament and will host fifth-seeded Colgate in the quarterfinals this Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Junior Lucas Spence led the Lehigh offense with four points behind two goals and two assists as he continued his streak of multiple points in every game this season. Senior Nolan Apers tied a career-high two goals while senior Ian Strain, junior Andrew Pettit and sophomore Ryan Klose scored the others. Sophomore Conor Gaffney continued his strong play in the faceoff circle, winning 14-of-20 draws with three groundballs.

The loss snapped Lehigh's four-game road winning streak.

Bucknell scored first, but goals from Spence and Pettit, separated by 6:47, gave Lehigh its first lead at 2-1 late in the first quarter. After the Bison netted the next two, Apers scored at 13:38 of the second quarter before Spence scored on the extra man, Lehigh's eighth straight success man-up opportunity and 16th in its last 19 tries.

Less than two minutes later, Apers added his second in the span of 3:29 to give the Mountain Hawks a 5-3 advantage. However, the Bison reeled off the next five goals with the first four assisted by Will Sands, who finished with seven helpers on the evening. Strain added a big goal with just one second remaining in the quarter to pull Lehigh within 8-6 after 30 minutes of play.

The Bison erased much doubt by opening the second half on a 5-0 run. Bucknell outscored Lehigh 2-0 in the third quarter, but created separation with goals at 14:22, 7:07 and 5:15 of the fourth. Klose scored his second of the season at 1:45 to end Lehigh's 28:16 scoreless drought, but Bucknell scored its final goal at the 1:07 mark to account for the 14-7 final.

Bucknell finished with a 43-25 edge in shots and 33-23 advantage in groundballs. Three Lehigh goalies combined for six saves, led by five stops from freshman James Spence.

BALTIMORE
LEHIGH 10, NO. 11/13 NAVY 9

BALTIMORE – Junior Lucas Spence finished with a game-high four goals and five points, none bigger than scoring the game-winner 42 seconds into overtime to send the fourth-seeded Lehigh men's lacrosse team past No. 11/13 and second-seeded Navy, 10-9, in the Patriot League Semifinals on Friday night. Spence's brother James came up big in the fourth quarter between the pipes while sophomore Conor Gaffney won the final five faceoffs of the game to help the Mountain Hawks come back from an 8-7 deficit to score three of the final four goals. With the win, Lehigh advances to its first Patriot League Championship Game since 2014 and fourth in the last seven seasons; the Mountain Hawks will face host, top seed and No. 6/8 nationally-ranked Loyola on Sunday at 12 p.m. on CBS Sports Network.

Along with Spence's five points, junior Andrew Pettit had three goals and classmate Mickey Fitzpatrick recorded a goal and assist. Junior Craig Chick led the defense with three groundballs and three caused turnovers, giving him 116 in his career to move into eighth place in NCAA history. Classmate Eddie Bouhall added a groundball and two caused turnovers.

Navy opened a quick 2-0 lead just 2:15 into the game, but the Mountain Hawks answered back with the first of four Spence goals at the 10:56 mark. From there, the teams traded goals through the remainder of the quarter as Pettit's first, from sophomore Andrew Eichelberger, pulled Lehigh within 4-3 after one quarter of play.

The Mountain Hawks extended their run to 4-0, bridging the entire second quarter and beginning of the third. Goals from senior John Mehok and Spence were the only scores of the second, giving Lehigh a 5-4 halftime lead.

Pettit began the second-half scoring at 11:46 of the third quarter, but Navy ended more than a 23-minute scoreless drought at the 11:37 mark, sparking the Mids on a 4-1 run. Navy's third straight goal gave it an 8-7 lead heading to the fourth.

Just 26 seconds into the fourth quarter, Pettit finished a nifty pass from Fitzpatrick before Spence gave Lehigh a 9-8 lead just 1:24 later. Navy pulled even at the 4:39 mark, then both teams had multiple chances down the stretch, but couldn't net the go-ahead goal.

Freshman Teddy Leggett corralled a huge groundball off the opening faceoff of overtime, leading to a Lehigh timeout and Spence unassisted goal as the Mountain Hawks pulled out their first overtime win since beating Villanova in triple overtime in February of 2014.

Final shots were 36-28 in favor of Lehigh while the Mids held a 24-16 edge in groundballs.
