No. 7 LEHIGH VS. PENN/No. 10 CORNELL

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (7-1, 5-0 EIWA)
VS. PENN QUAKERS (1-3, 0-2 EIWA) • JAN. 20, 2017 • 7:00 PM
VS. CORNELL BIG RED (5-2, 2-0 EIWA) • JAN. 21, 2017 • 2:00 PM
LEEMAN-TURNER ARENA AT GRACE HALL • BETHLEHEM, PA.

SETTING THE SCENE

No. 7 Lehigh opens up a three-dual home stand by welcoming a pair of longtime EIWA rivals to Leeman-Turner Arena at Grace Hall. The Mountain Hawks will wrestle Penn Friday night before welcoming No. 10 Cornell Saturday in for the annual Billy Sheridan Memorial Dual. Lehigh extended its dual winning streak to four straight with a pair of road victories last weekend as the Mountain Hawks topped Navy 23-9 before downing American 31-3. Three Mountain Hawks: junior Darian Cruz and freshmen Jordan Kutler and Kyle Gentile, all went 2-0 last weekend. Kutler is riding an eight match winning streak, while Cruz and Gentile have both won six straight bouts.

FAST FACTS

• In the last six seasons, Lehigh has produced one NCAA champion, six NCAA finalists, 17 All-Americans and 11 EIWA champions.
• Lehigh is 14-7 versus Penn since the series resumed in 1996 following a 40-year hiatus.
• With 94 previous meetings, Cornell is Lehigh's third most-often wrestled opponent behind Penn State (105) and Navy (97).
• The Mountain Hawks have won 12 straight duals against EIWA opponents. Lehigh has also won its last 24 duals against EIWA opponents not named Cornell.

LAST TIME LEHIGH MET PENN
JANUARY 10, 2016 - PHILADELPHIA, PA.
LEHIGH 27, PENN 10

No. 10 Lehigh faced a tough challenge from a Penn team wrestling its first dual meet of the season but the Mountain Hawks found a way to win seven bouts in a 27-10 victory over the Quakers at the Palestra. A 4-2 decision by senior Nathaniel Brown over Lorenzo Thomas at 184 clinched Lehigh's seventh straight dual win as the Mountain Hawks improve to 9-1 in duals. The Mountain Hawks posted three bonus wins with sophomore Darian Cruz winning by technical fall, freshman Ryan Preisch earning a major decision and junior Ben Haas winning by injury default in the final bout of the dual.

LEHIGH HEAD COACH PAT SANTORO

Coach Santoro is in his ninth season as the Lawrence White '64 Head Coach of Wrestling at Lehigh. In eight-plus seasons Santoro, who won his third EIWA Coach of the Year award in 2016, has led the Mountain Hawks to a 120-38-1 dual meet record. He has coached 12 individuals to a total of 14 EIWA titles, 10 Mountain Hawks to a total of 18 All-American medals, and one national champion, Zach Rey in 2011. A former Lehigh assistant, Santoro returned to Bethlehem in 2008 after a five-year stint resurrecting the program at Maryland, where he guided the Terrapins to an ACC title in 2008. A 1992 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Santoro won a pair of NCAA titles and is the Panthers' only four-time All-American.
(For Santoro's complete bio, see page 11)

LAST TIME LEHIGH MET CORNELL
JANUARY 23, 2016 - ITHACA, N.Y.
LEHIGH 23, CORNELL 15

No. 6 Lehigh increased its dual win streak to nine, winning six of ten bouts in a 25-13 win over EIWA rival and No. 15 Cornell at the Friedman Wrestling Center. The Mountain Hawks capitalized on the Big Red being without both of their No. 1 ranked wrestlers, winning the first four weight classes and scoring bonus points in four of their six victories. The win, Lehigh's first over Cornell since 2011 and first in Ithaca since 2004, improves the Mountain Hawks' record to 11-1 overall and 6-0 against EIWA opponents. Lehigh got major decisions from Darian Cruz at 125 and Max Wessell at 285, while Nathaniel Brown won by technical fall over Jon Jay Chavez at 184.

SERIES HISTORIES

Lehigh and Penn will meet for the 56th time. They have met in each of the last 21 seasons after not having wrestled between 1956 and 1996. Pat Santoro is 7-1 versus the Quakers. Cornell is Lehigh's third most-often wrestled opponent behind Penn State and Navy. Last year's Lehigh victory in Ithaca snapped a five-dual winning streak for the Big Red in the series. Lehigh is 2-5-1 against Cornell under Pat Santoro.

ANYONE, ANYTIME, ANYWHERE

Lehigh will once again face one of the nation's toughest dual meet schedules. The Mountain Hawks are 2-1 versus ranked opponents this season and are scheduled to face three more teams currently ranked in the USA Today/NWCA top-25. The Mountain Hawks also finished third against a strong field at the Southern Scuffle.

PATRIOT GAMES

Last time out, Lehigh improved to 5-0 against EIWA opponents and 3-0 against members that compete in the Patriot League in other sports with road victories at Navy and American. The Mountain Hawks took seven of 10 bouts in a 23-9 win at Navy and then took nine bouts against the Eagles. This season marks just the second time that Lehigh will face all four of the Patriot League institutions that currently sponsor wrestling: American, Army West Point, Bucknell and Navy. The Mountain Hawks opened their season with a 33-7 win over Bucknell and will face Army West Point on Feb. 10. The last time Lehigh faced all four Patriot League schools was 2007-08 when the Mountain Hawks defeated American, Navy and Bucknell and lost to Army West Point. The top team among Patriot League schools and non-Ivy EIWA schools (Binghamton, Drexel, Franklin & Marshall, Hofstra and Sacred Heart) will represent the conference in the NWCA National Duals Championship Series in February.

SOME NEW FACES

Four Mountain Hawks made their Lehigh dual meet debuts in the trip to Navy and American last weekend. True freshman Joe Lobeck entered Lehigh's lineup at 133 and went 1-1 on the road trip. Deferred freshmen Cole Walter and Chase Gallik made their dual debuts at Navy, with Walter winning a close 3-2 decision at 165 and Gallik suffering a 15-12 loss wrestling up a weight at 174. Freshman Christian Colucci made his first dual appearance with a 6-4 win by decision at heavyweight to close out the dual at American. Seventeen Mountain Hawks have competed in at least one dual this season with four (Darian Cruz, Randy Cruz, Kyle Gentile and Ben Haas) having wrestled in all eight duals so far this season. Sophomore Cortlandt Schuyler made his season dual debut at 149 against American, after going 5-0 in duals last season.

KUTLER CAPTURES SCUFFLE CROWN

Freshman Jordan Kutler led Lehigh at the Southern Scuffle, going 4-0 on his way to the title at 157. On the tournament's second day, Kutler posted wins over the top two seeds, Joey Lavallee of Missouri and then Joe Smith of Oklahoma State to become Lehigh's second-ever Southern Scuffle champion, joining another former Blair Academy product in Cory Cooperman, who won at 141 in Dec. 2005. The Southern Scuffle was Kutler's first competition since November. The win vaulted Kutler into the top five in the national rankings. He now owns an 11-1 record and has won eight straight bouts.

PRODUCTION FROM PREISCH

While Jordan Kutler's emergence has forced a number of wrestlers up from 157 to 165, last year's 165-pounder Ryan Preisch also has bumped up a weight class. Now a sophomore, Preisch is off to a 15-1 start up at 174, with the lone loss coming to Penn State's top-ranked recruit and Junior World Champion Mark Hall in the Southern Scuffle semifinals. Preisch went on to finish third at the Scuffle, a performance that moved him into the top 10 nationally. Four of Preisch's five wins at the Southern Scuffle produced bonus points. Ten of Preisch's wins this season have been of the bonus variety, including a pair of falls. A NCAA qualifier at 165 last season, Preisch finished fourth at the Southern Scuffle and capped his freshman campaign with a 17-10 record.

RANK AND FILE

Eight Mountain Hawks appear in the latest rankings by InterMat, led by freshman Jordan Kutler, who moved into the top five at 157 following his win at the Southern Scuffle. Sophomore Ryan Preisch was also a big mover, rising to No. 6 across the board following his third place finish at the Scuffle. Seven Mountain Hawks appear in the polls by FloWrestling, the Open Mat and Amateur Wrestling News. In addition to Kutler and Preisch, seniors Randy Cruz, Laike Gardner and Doug Vollaro, junior Darian Cruz and sophomore Scott Parker are ranked across the board. At 165, senior Mitch Minotti is ranked by InterMat, but none of Lehigh's 165-pound wrestlers are ranked in the FloWrestling, AWN or Open Mat polls.

Weight	Wrestler	IM	FLO	AWN	TOM
125	Darian Cruz	8	5	6	7
133	Scott Parker	9	9	8	9
141	Randy Cruz	11	16	9	12

BROTHERLY SUCCESS

Randy Cruz's eighth place finish at last year's NCAA Championships gave both Cruz brothers one All-America medal for their careers. In 2014, Darian Cruz became Lehigh's first true freshman All-American since Jim Reilly in 1980 with a seventh place finish at 125. Darian Cruz came back from a deferral year to win an EIWA title in 2016 but fell just short of becoming a two-time All-American after losing in the round of 12. Cruz led Lehigh with 31 victories last season. With his triumph at 125 and Max Wessell's EIWA title at 285, Lehigh wrestlers have won at least one individual EIWA title in 17 consecutive tournaments. The Cruz brothers are the first set of brothers to earn All-America honors for Lehigh since Mike (1st, 3rd - 1975, 1976) and Mark (2nd, 1st, 1st - 1977, 1978, 1979) Lieberman.

FAMILY TIES

Lehigh's roster features several wrestlers with noteworthy family connections. The Mountain Hawks have one set of brothers in Randy and Darian Cruz. Sophomore Cortlandt Schuyler's father Pete '83 won two EIWA titles for Lehigh and earned All-America honors with a third place finish at 134 in 1983.

HISTORY OF THE SHERIDAN DUAL

Saturday's match with Cornell marks the 13th consecutive season that Lehigh's legendary former coach, Billy Sheridan, is honored with a single dual meet against a high profile opponent. This year marks the seventh year in a row that the single Sheridan Dual pits Lehigh against an EIWA rival and the second time that rival is Cornell. It also marks the fifth straight year that the Sheridan Dual will be hosted inside Leeman-Turner Arena at Grace Hall. Five of the first eight Sheridan Duals under the current format were hosted at Stabler Arena. From 2000-2003 Lehigh hosted the Sheridan Duals, a series of duals in which the Mountain Hawks faced three opponents on the first or second Saturday in December at Stabler Arena. Before that, Lehigh hosted the Sheridan Tournament, which began in 1979. Here's a history of the Sheridan since moving to the single dual format:

1/9/16	Lehigh 34, Navy 3	Grace
1/25/15	Cornell 21, Lehigh 9	Grace
1/17/14	Lehigh 26, Navy 6	Grace
12/1/12	Penn 24, Lehigh 12	Grace
1/20/12	Lehigh 26, Rutgers 9	Stabler
1/20/11	Lehigh 17, Cornell 15	Stabler
1/15/10	Lehigh 39, West Virginia 3	Grace
11/21/08	Lehigh 20, Michigan 12	Stabler
2/8/08	Hofstra 25, Lehigh 11	Grace
2/16/07	Nebraska 27 Lehigh 15	Grace
11/17/05	Lehigh 29 Arizona State 7	Stabler
2/13/05	Oklahoma State 24 Lehigh 9	Stabler

LOBECK INTO THE LINEUP

With sophomore Scott Parker likely sidelined until February due to injury, true freshman Joe Lobeck made his varsity debut on Lehigh's last road trip, going 1-1 in dual competition. Lobeck began the year by going 10-3, competing unattached in open competition. He competed at the East Stroudsburg Open, then took third at the Jonathan Kaloust Bearcat Open. On Dec. 22, Lobeck went 4-0 to claim the 133-pound title at the Wilkes Open. In his varsity debut, Lobeck posted a 5-0 win over Navy's Cody Lambert. He was mere seconds away from a 2-0 dual showing but fell 7-6 to American's Esteban Gomez-Rivera after a takedown in the final seconds. A three-time Pennsylvania AA place winner (fourth, second, third) for Lancaster Catholic High School, Lobeck joins Kyle Gentile as true freshmen currently in the Lehigh lineup.

LEADING OFF

All tournaments and most duals start at 125, and Lehigh has had a reliable performer at the lightest weight in junior Darian Cruz. In his third season as a starter, Cruz owns a 75-18 career record that included a 30-9 dual mark. In 2014, Cruz became Lehigh's first true freshman All-American since 1980 with a seventh place finish. After deferring his eligibility in 2014-15, Cruz returned to Lehigh's lineup to win an EIWA title last season and fell just one victory short of his second All-America honor. Following a third place finish at the Southern Scuffle, Cruz went 2-0 in Lehigh's duals at Navy and American and was the only Mountain Hawk to score a bonus point win against the Midshipmen. Cruz is 7-1 in duals this season, and 6-1 in duals that have started at 125. The only Lehigh dual to not start at the lightest weight so far this season was the Drexel dual, which started at 141.

FROM COAST TO COAST

Lehigh prides itself in bringing in student-athletes from across the nation. This season, nine different states are represented among the 43 men on the Mountain Hawks roster. Pennsylvania leads the way with 23 wrestlers, followed by New Jersey (7) and New York (4). California, Maryland, Massaschusetts, Michigan, North Carolina and Virginia are also represented. Senior heavyweight Doug Vollaro wrestled in high school in Florida, but now claims Springfield, Mass. as his hometown.

THE THREE CAPTAINS

Prior to start of the season, head coach Pat Santoro named three captains for the 2016-17 season. Fifth-year seniors Laike Gardner (Biglerville, Pa.) and Mitch Minotti (Easton, Pa.) and fourth-year junior Drew Longo (Ardsley, N.Y.) will lead this year's squad.

DRIVE FOR FIVE

Lehigh's lineup could feature as many as five fifth-year seniors, including two who have already earned their undergraduate degrees. Mitch Minotti earned his degree in finance and is pursuing his Master's in technical entrepreneurship. Doug Vollaro earned his degree in industrial and systems engineering and is now doing graduate work in management. Lehigh's other three fifth-year wrestlers are all enrolled in rigorous engineering programs: Randy Cruz (industrial and systems), Laike Gardner (mechanical) and Ben Haas (mechanical).

A STRONG FALL IN THE CLASSROOM

Lehigh wrestlers enjoyed a strong fall semester in the classroom, with 12 Mountain Hawks posting a grade point average of 3.20 or better last semester. Deferred freshman Chase Gallik once again led the Mountain Hawks with a 3.78 GPA in Civil Engineering. Gallik also leads the team with a 3.90 cumulative GPA. Seven of the 12 wrestlers with a 3.20 or better in the fall have wrestled in a dual meet already this season.

A FRESH START

Two freshmen made their varsity dual debuts in the win over Bucknell. Deferred freshman Jordan Kutler debuted with a win over Victor Lopez at 157, while true freshman Kyle Gentile dropped a 7-4 decision at 184. While true freshmen have been regular contributors for the Mountain Hawks in recent years, none of the 10 true freshmen on last year's roster saw varsity action. Kutler is 11-1 this season, including 5-0 in duals, while Gentile is 5-3 in dual competition. Deferred freshmen Cole Walter and Andrew Price made their Lehigh debuts at the Journeymen Collegiate Classic. Kent Lane made his dual debut at Penn State after wrestling at the ESU Open and Journeymen Classic. True freshman Joe Lobeck made his dual debut at Navy after competing unattached in the fall semester.

BEEN THROUGH IT BEFORE

Lehigh's roster features a solid mix of experience and young talent. While the Mountain Hawks have 21 freshmen (deferred and true combimed) on their 2016-17 roster, Lehigh also features three returning All-Americans (Darian Cruz, Randy Cruz and Mitch Minotti), two EIWA Champions (Darian and Randy Cruz) and a total of eight wrestlers who have qualified for the NCAA Championships at least once. In addition to the returning All-Americans and EIWA champions, Lehigh's returning NCAA qualifiers include seniors Laike Gardner and Doug Vollaro and sophomores Scott Parker, Ryan Preisch and Gordon Wolf.

MEN IN THE MIDDLE

The emergence of deferred freshman Jordan Kutler at 157 has created a logjam for Lehigh at another middle weight, 165. If Kutler holds down the spot at 157 as many as seven wrestlers could be in the mix at 165, a group that includes senior Mitch Minotti, junior Drew Longo, sophomores Ian Brown and Gordon Wolf and freshmen Chase Gallik and Cole Walter. Senior Matt Bonshak also competed in several duals for Lehigh last season. Wolf got the nod at 165 in the Bucknell, while Longo wrestled in Lehigh's next five duals. Walter and Longo represented Lehigh at Navy and American, with Gallik bumping up to 174 against the Midshipmen. Wolf, Walter and Gallik all competed at the Journeymen Classic and combined to post a 4-5 mark. Walter and Longo placed at the Southern Scuffle at 165 while Minotti has returned to action going 11-2 at the Wilkes Open, Southern Scuffle and Shorty Hitchcock Memorial Classic.

LOTS OF LOCALS

Six Lehigh wrestlers didn't have to venture far from home to wrestle collegiately for the Brown and White. Senior Randy Cruz, junior Darian Cruz and freshman Luke Karam all wrestled for nearby Bethlehem Catholic High School, the same program that produced Lehigh head coach Pat Santoro. Add in seniors Mitch Minotti (Easton) and Matt Bonshak (Whitehall) and freshman Charlie Sell (Bangor) and the Mountain Hawks' roster features six grapplers from the wrestling-rich Lehigh Valley. Freshman Jake Jakobsen hails from Stroudsburg, which is part of District XI and sophomore Scott Parker and freshman Kyle Gentile wrestled for Pennridge High School, which is located just south of the Lehigh Valley.

RANDY REACHES THE PODIUM

Senior Randy Cruz is the lone returnee among Lehigh's three All-Americans from the 2016 NCAA Championships. After coming up one win shy of All-America honors as a sophomore, Cruz went 26-10 last year and placed eighth at 141. In the All-American round, Cruz used a punishing ride and four point near fall to defeat Ohio State's Micah Jordan 6-2. Cruz is also a two-time EIWA Champion who in 2013 became Lehigh's first true freshman EIWA champion since 1980. The Bethlehem native has opened his season with a 14-4 record, including a 7-3 win over N.C. State's Kevin Jack in a battle of returning All-Americans at the Journeymen Collegiate Classic. He leads active Lehigh wrestlers with an 93-35 career mark that includes 17 wins by fall.

WELCOME BACK

Lehigh welcomes NCAA qualifier Scott Parker back into the lineup at 133 after Parker deferred his eligibility last year. Parker went 19-11 as a true freshman at 125 and went 20-6 in his deferred year to earn Lehigh's Deferred Eligibility Wrestler of the Year award. In recent years, Mason Beckman and Nathaniel Brown earned All-America Honors in the season immediately following their deferred year. Randy and Darian Cruz both followed up deferred years by claiming individiual EIWA titles. Parker is off to a 10-2 start and reached the finals at the Southern Scuffle, but had to default with an injury suffered in the third period of his finals bout. Parker had won nine straight bouts prior to his injury, which is expected to sideline him until February.

WORKING HIS WAY BACK

A second semester injury derailed Mitch Minotti's quest for a third consecutive All-American medal. Minotti went 11-3 in his junior season, placing fourth at the Southern Scuffle but was unable to compete after mid-January. After becoming Lehigh's first freshman Midlands Champion in 2013-14, Minotti reached the NCAA semifinals and went on to place sixth at 149. In 2014-15, Minotti moved up to 157 and finished eighth. Minotti earned his degree in finance in May and is now enrolled in graduate school. His bid for a third All-America medal may end up at a third different weight class as Minotti has opened his season by going 11-2 at 165. He went 3-0 at the Wilkes Open before withdrawing and then went 4-1 on the first day of the Southern Scuffle before forfeiting out prior to day two. He recently went 4-1 to finish second at the Shorty Hitchcock Memorial Classic. Minotti's 11 victories include two falls and five major decisions.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Lehigh enjoyed another strong season on the mats, but the Mountain Hawks were equally impressive in the classroom in 2015-16. The Mountain Hawks made the NWCA's list of top 30 All-Academic Teams, while five individuals were named the NWCA All-Academic Team: 2016 graduates Mason Beckman, John Bolich, Nathaniel Brown and Max Wessell, plus current sophomore Gordon Wolf, who holds a 3.54 GPA as a finance major. Seniors Mitch Minotti and Doug Vollaro were NWCA All-Academic Team selections in 2015. Deferred freshman Chase Gallik leads the Mountain Hawks with a 3.90 GPA in civil engineering.

A SUCCESSFUL SOUTHERN SCUFFLE

Freshman Jordan Kutler won the 157-pound title to lead the Mountain Hawks at the Southern Scuffle, Jan. 1-2 in Chattanooga, Tenn. Kutler went 4-0 across the two-day tournament, knocking off the top two seeds at 157 to claim the title. As a team, Lehigh scored 124.5 points to finish in third place for the second straight year, surpassing Lehigh's 2016 point total by 20 points. Seven of Lehigh's 16 entrants placed, with four others finishing one win shy of placement. Sophomore Scott Parker joined Kutler as a finalist but had to default with an injury in the third period of his finals bout at 133. The Mountain Hawks had a pair of third place finishers, with Darian Cruz going 6-1 to take third at 125 and Ryan Preisch went 5-1 to finish third at 174. Senior Laike Gardner finished fifth at 149. Two Mountain Hawks placed at 165, with freshman Cole Walter taking fifth and junior Drew Longo finishing eighth. A third Lehigh 165-pounder, senior Mitch Minotti, medically forfeited to Longo in the placement round. Fifteen of the 16 Lehigh wrestlers to compete at the Southern Scuffle won at least one bout. Bonus points had the Mountain Hawks in the hunt in the team race as Lehigh finished with nine falls and 26 bonus wins over the two days.

MEANWHILE, IN CHICAGO

While Lehigh sent 16 wrestlers to the Southern Scuffle, four Mountain Hawks competed at the 54th Ken Kraft Midlands Championship, Dec. 29-30 in Evanston, Ill. Competing unattached, freshman heavyweight Jordan Wood reached the finals, beating two ranked wrestlers along the way, before falling 4-1 in the title bout to Arizona State's Tanner Hall. Freshmen Luke Karam (133) and Chris Weiler (184) competed unattached and fell one win shy of placing top eight. Deferred freshman Andrew Price also competed at 184.

WILKES OPEN WRAP-UP

Right before the Christmas holiday, Lehigh sent a contingent of 11 wrestlers to the Dec. 22 Wilkes Open. The contingent featured a mix of attached wrestlers and true freshmen. Eight of Lehigh's entrants placed in the top four of their respective weight classes, including five grapplers who claimed or shared titles. Freshman Ryan Pomrinca won his second open tournament title of the season at 141, while freshman Joe Lobeck claimed his first at 133. Sophomore Cortlandt Schuyler made his season debut with a title at 149. Deferred freshmen Chase Gallik and Cole Walter both reached the finals at 165 but a title bout was not contested. Lehigh's other place winners included freshman Jake Jakobsen, who was runner-up at 197, freshman Paul Dunn, who placed third at 184, and freshman Nick Farro, who was fourth at 133. The other noteworthy occurrence was the season debut of senior captain Mitch Minotti, who went 3-0 with a major decision and two falls at 165 before withdrawing from the tournament.

A DOMINANT DECEMBER HOMESTAND

In its final action of the fall semester, Lehigh dominated EIWA foes Princeton and Drexel in home duals, outscoring the Tigers and Dragons by a combined 65-6 score on Dec. 9 and 11. The Mountain Hawks won 18 of 20 bouts across the two duals with both losses coming in sudden victory. Lehigh posted four bonus wins, including three technical falls, in a 34-3 win over Princeton and added a major decision and a fall in a 31-3 triumph over Drexel. Senior captain Laike Gardner posted a pair of major decisions, while sophomore Ryan Preisch's first period pin against Drexel was Lehigh's first in a dual meet this season.

LEHIGH FALLS TO DEFENDING CHAMPS IN BJC DUAL

A crowd of 15,424, the largest dual meet crowd Lehigh has ever wrestled in front of, saw the Mountain Hawks drop a 30-10 decision to No. 2 and defending national champion Penn State, Dec. 4 at the Bryce Jordan Center. The Mountain Hawks won two of the first three bouts against the Nittany Lions to lead 7-3 early on before Penn State came back to win six of the last seven bouts, scoring bonus points in four of those matches. Sophomore Scott Parker led the way for Lehigh with a major decision win at 133, while senior Randy Cruz and sophomore Ryan Preisch also posted victories for the Mountain Hawks. Penn State's visit to Stabler Arena last February set a Lehigh home dual meet attendance record as the eventual national champs posted a 28-9 win.

SUCCESS OUT WEST

Prior to having Thanksgiving weekend off from competition, the Mountain Hawks traveled to western Pennsylvania and posted dual victories over tough opposition from No. 21 Pitt and Edinboro. Lehigh claimed eight bouts from the Panthers in a 28-8 triumph on Nov. 18 including four major decisions. Freshman Kyle Gentile had one of those majors for his first career victory. The following day, the Mountain Hawks earned a 6-4 match split in a 20-13 win at Edinboro. Senior Randy Cruz and freshman Jordan Kutler delivered major decisions, with Kutler earning his first career bonus point win. Darian and Randy Cruz, Kutler, sophomore Ryan Preisch and senior Ben Haas all went 2-0 on the weekend.

STRONG SHOWING AT JOURNEYMEN COLLEGIATE CLASSIC

Seventeen Lehigh wrestlers competed at the Journeymen Collegiate Classic, Nov. 13 in Troy, N.Y. The Mountain Hawks enjoyed a strong showing in the modified round-robin tournament format, with six Mountain Hawks posting 3-0 records to win their respective pools. Overall Lehigh went 35-15 on the day. The six wrestlers who went 3-0 on the day were junior Darian Cruz (125), senior Randy Cruz (141), freshman Kent Lane (157), sophomore Ryan Preisch (174), senior Doug Vollaro (285) and freshman Christian Colucci (285). Deferred freshmen Cole Walter and Andrew Price wrestled their first official varsity bouts. Here's a breakdown of who competed in which pools and how they fared in New York.

125A - Darian Cruz - 3-0, 1st
133A - Scott Parker - 1-0, 4th
133C - Dean Somers - 2-2, 3rd

285C - Christian Colucci - 3-0, 1st

COMING UP NEXT...

Lehigh wraps up a three-dual home stand with a tough test as No. 5 Virginia Tech visits Leeman-Turner Arena at Grace Hall on Friday, Jan. 27. The Hokies finished fourth at last year's NCAA Championships. Two days later, the Mountain Hawks will visit Michigan to face the Wolverines for the first time since the 2010-11 season. Lehigh and Michigan had met in 34 straight seasons from 1977-78 through 2010-11.

SCOUTING THE QUAKERS

Penn enters Friday's dual with a 1-3 mark. The Quakers' lone victory was a quality 19-17 upset over No. 17 Stanford last weekend at the Palestra. Penn also dropped an 18-14 decision to Army West Point last Sunday and has also dropped duals against Rider and Princeton. In November, Penn hosted the Keystone Classic, where the Quakers finished ninth out of 12 teams. The Quakers also finished 17th at the Southern Scuffle to ring in the new year. Individually, Penn features a pair of nationally-ranked wrestlers, led by returning All-American Casey Kent, who is currently ranked 10th at 174. Frank Mattiace is ranked 15th at 197 by InterMat. Kent and Mattiace along with Joe Oliva (149) and May Bethea (157) went 2-0 in last week's action against Stanford and Army. Alex Tirapelle is in his third season as Penn's head coach.

SCOUTING THE BIG RED

The 10-time defending EIWA champions, Cornell brings a 5-2 dual mark into Saturday's match. The Big Red split a pair of home duals last weekend, using bonus points to defeat Drexel 24-18 before falling 25-11 to Missouri. The Big Red finished eighth at the Southern Scuffle and took fifth at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational. While Cornell's lineup has been in flux since the start of 2017, the Big Red do feature six wrestlers ranked by InterMat, led by two-time defending NCAA champion Gabe Dean, who is ranked first at 184. Seniors Dylan Palacio and Brian Realbuto are ranked fourth at 157 and 174, respectively, although Palacio's only official match this season came at 165. Seventeenth-ranked Owen Scott is not listed as the probable starter at 197 but both he and listed starter Ben Honis placed at the Southern Scuffle. Rob Koll is in his 23rd season at Cornell. His son Will is expected to start at 141.

TOURNAMENT TESTED

Lehigh sent wrestlers to four fall semester open tournaments with solid results. The Mountain Hawks sent wrestlers to the East Stroudsburg and Jonathan Kaloust Bearcat Opens over the season's first two weekends, then sent three wrestlers to the Nov. 20 Wolfpack Open at NC State. In December, 11 Mountain Hawks competed in the Wilkes Open. Freshmen Ryan Pomrinca and Jordan Wood and sophomore Gordon Wolf won individual titles at the East Stroudsburg Open. Pomrinca captured his second title of the year at the Wilkes Open with sophomore Cortlandt Schuyler and freshman Joe Lobeck also winning titles. Deferred freshmen Cole Walter and Chase Gallik shared the top two spots at 165 at Wilkes as well. Lehigh had five place winners at last weekend's Shorty Hitchcock Memorial Classic, led by freshman Nick Farro's title at 133.

LAWRENCE WHITE HEAD COACH - PAT SANTORO

Bethlehem native Pat Santoro enters his ninth season as the Lawrence White Head Coach of Wrestling at Lehigh.

A three-time EIWA Coach of the Year, Santoro has mentored one NCAA Champion at Lehigh. He has led 12 individuals to a total of 14 EIWA titles, while guiding 10 men to 18 total All-American medals. Santoro enters the 2016-17 season with a dual meet record of 113-37-1 at Lehigh.

Santoro earned his third EIWA Coach of the Year award in 2015-16. He led the Mountain Hawks to a 13-3 dual record that included Lehigh's first win over rival Cornell since 2011. Lehigh went 7-0 against EIWA opponents and represented the conference in the NWCA National Duals Championship Series. The Mountain Hawks finished second at the EIWA Championships with lineup bookends Darian Cruz and Max Wessell winning their first career titles.

Lehigh crowned three All-Americans at the NCAA Championships for the third straight year with Wessell and Randy Cruz earning their first career All-America medals, while Nathaniel Brown became a two-time All-American.

In 2014-15, Santoro earned his 100th victory as Lehigh's head coach when the Mountain Hawks upset eventual NCAA Champion Ohio State at National Duals.

Lehigh's lineup featured just two seniors but a strong core of sophomores and juniors continued to impress. Randy Cruz won his second EIWA title to help lead Lehigh to a second place conference finish. Nathaniel Brown reached the NCAA finals at 184 while Mason Beckman and Mitch Minotti earned All-America honors for the second straight year.

Santoro led the 2013-14 Lehigh squad through the ups and downs that come with a young roster. The young Mountain Hawks soared at the NCAA Championships with freshmen Darian Cruz and Minotti joining Beckman in earning All-America honors. Cruz and Minotti were Lehigh's first freshmen All-Americans since 2003 with Cruz also becoming Lehigh's first true freshman All-American in 34 years.

In 2012-13, Santoro worked with a young team that battled through injuries and a string of bad luck and helped guide the Mountain Hawks to ten dual meet wins. Three individuals won individual EIWA titles including Randy Cruz, who became Lehigh's first true freshman EIWA champion since 1980. Under Santoro's guidance Robert Hamlin became Lehigh's 16th three-time All-American and reached the NCAA finals for the second time in his career.

Lehigh continued to make strides in 2011-12. The Mountain Hawks finished eighth at the NCAA Championships for the second straight year and once again had two finalists in Zack Rey and Brandon Hatchett. Lehigh crowned four All-Americans, its most since having five in 2004. Robert Hamlin won his second straight EIWA title, while Hatchett won his first. Shane Welsh was the surprise of the tournament, capturing the title at 149 from the No. 6 seed. Lehigh's three championships were its most since 2006. For his efforts, Santoro was voted EIWA Coach of the Year for the second time.

In Santoro's third season Lehigh returned to the top ten at the NCAA Championships for the first time since 2006 with an eighth place finish. The Mountain Hawks crowned three All-Americans for the first time in five years and placed two wrestlers in the NCAA finals for the first time since 2003. Heavyweight Zack Rey became Santoro's first national champion and the 27th in Lehigh history.

In 2009-10, Santoro guided the Mountain Hawks to a 16-3-1 dual record and a top-ten national dual meet ranking for most of the season. In March, Santoro guided Rey to an EIWA title and All-America honors with a third place finish at the NCAA Championships, the program's first All-American in four years.

Santoro produced an immediate turnaround in his first season back in Bethlehem. The Mountain Hawks' 23-1 dual mark surpassed the school record for dual wins in a season. Santoro guided Seth Ciasulli and David Craig to individual EIWA Championships, while the Mountain Hawks qualified seven wrestlers for the NCAA Championships.

Before returning to Lehigh, Santoro spent the previous five years as the head coach at the University of Maryland where he helped resurrect the Terrapins program, which in 2008 captured its first ACC title in 35 years; a feat which earned Santoro ACC Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to his stint at Maryland Santoro served as an assistant at Lehigh for nine years, including eight seasons on Greg Strobel's staff. During his initial tenure, Santoro was part of some of the most successful teams in school history. In 2003, Santoro was named the national Assistant Coach of the Year by the National Wrestling Coaches Association, after helping guide Lehigh to its third EIWA title in four years, and a fourth place finish at the NCAA Championships.

Before coming to Lehigh, Santoro spent the 1993-94 season as an assistant coach at Duquesne and the two seasons prior to that as a graduate assistant at Penn State.

Regarded throughout the community as one of the sport's top teachers and recruiters, Santoro has enjoyed success at every level of wrestling, both as a coach and a competitor. After wrestling for Bethlehem Catholic High School and taking a post-graduate year at Blair Academy, Santoro wrestled collegiately at Pittsburgh, where he became the Panthers' only four-time All-America while capturing national titles in 1988 and 1989 at 142 pounds. A three-time EWL Champion, he was the recipient of Pittsburgh's Golden Panther Award in 1989, recognizing the outstanding athlete of the year.

On the international scene, Santoro was a four time member of the U.S. National Team between 1995 and 1999 and served as an alternate for the 1996 Olympic Team and the 1999 World Team. Santoro earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Pittsburgh in 1992. In addition to his Bethlehem roots and previous coaching stint at Lehigh, Santoro's father, uncle and brother all wrestled for the Brown and White.

Santoro and his wife Julie have a daughter, Leah and a son, Mack.
