LEHIGH LACROSSE HISTORY

In the storied history of the Lehigh University lacrosse program, Lehigh has captured or shared 11 national championships. Lehigh won outright national championships in 1890, 1893, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1921, and shared titles with Cornell in 1914 and 1916, Stevens in 1917 and Syracuse in 1920. Lehigh also claimed the Class "C" National Championship in 1959.

In 1885, Lehigh initiated lacrosse competition as a charter member of the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association, joining Cornell, Harvard, Hobart, Johns Hopkins, Maryland, Penn State, Stevens Institute, Swarthmore, Syracuse and Yale. After Lehigh experienced the birth of intercollegiate lacrosse with its seven national titles, the Engineers suffered through 32 straight losing seasons (1926-58), three war years in which no lacrosse was played (1944-46) and two years of club sports status (1935-36), before improving to a 127-106 record over 20 years.

The program's biggest turnaround came in the early 1980s when the team had five losing seasons. Coach John McCloskey then joined the lacrosse program, in hopes of turning it around. In 1985, Lehigh was 7-7 and improved to 8-6 in 1986 and 9-5 in 1987. A more rigorous and challenging Division I schedule contributed to a brief decline over the next few years, but one thing that remained constant about the team was its high level of competitiveness.

The 1994 squad set a team record with 12 victories and earned more national recognition for the program. In 1999, Lehigh won its first-ever Patriot League Championship title and garnered spots in the USILA Top 20 poll on several occasions that year. The following season, Lehigh again cracked the Top 20 following an impressive road win at nationally ranked Towson University. In 2005, Lehigh defeated two teams that were ranked within the national poll, and also received votes in the poll. In addition, the Mountain Hawks qualified for the Patriot League Tournament for the first time in school history, and won their most games since 1997, a sure sign that the lacrosse program was bound for a return to national prominence.

The administration has shown its visible commitment to the program in many areas, including a facilities upgrade with the addition of the Ulrich Sports Complex. Also, in 2005, the men's lacrosse program added a full-time assistant coach position, the first in school history. This addition was made possible in part thanks to the generosity of Lehigh Penske Hall of Fame member Murray H. Goodman '48. In October 2004, Goodman pledged a $5 million gift to the Athletics Department as part of the university-wide "Shine Forever: The Campaign for Lehigh" fundraising effort.

In 2007, former Lehigh Lacrosse player Dan Smith '71 and his wife Elizabeth Riley endowed the Smith Family Head Lacrosse Coach position. The gift from Smith, a Lehigh University trustee, is part of the University's Shine Forever campaign. "My family and I are very pleased to be able to contribute to Lehigh's athletic program," said Smith. "Athletics is an integral part of Lehigh's leadership training process and the coaches that lead its sports programs—together with Lehigh's faculty and administration—play a critical role in successfully developing leadership skills. Lehigh has a long and illustrious tradition in lacrosse. We hope this gift will help further strengthen this program and continue to support Lehigh's outstanding reputation for developing world-class leaders in all disciplines."

Lehigh broke through on the national scene in 2012, finishing the season 14-3 which included the program's first-ever Patriot League Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. The Mountain Hawks were ranked as high as No. 4 in the national Coaches Poll. They the No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted Maryland. Lehigh went on to repeat as Patriot League Champions in 2013 while advancing to its third straight title game in 2014. The Mountain Hawks returned to the championship game in 2018 and 2019, making it five title-game appearances in eight years.

Cameron and Roman Lao-Gosney with Coach Cassese after trying out for the U.S. National Team in 2013. They were named to the prestigious 98-player tryout pool.

LEHIGH AND TEAM USA

Lehigh Lacrosse is heavily involved with the U.S. National Team. Current head coach Kevin Cassese served as an assistant coach under Team USA head coach Richie Meade's staff for the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships in Denver, joining a staff which also included Dave Pietramala (Johns Hopkins) and Jeff Tambroni (Penn State). Cassese's responsibilities included faceoff coordinator and goalie coordinator while handling rides, clears and the sub game. Team USA's two faceoff men combined to win over 80 percent of their faceoffs in the tournament. Cassese played in the 2010 World Lacrosse Championships and has served as the head coach for the Red, White and Blue on several other occasions before Meade took over as head coach.
